Our Rowing Bible

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

“Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel: Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; BUT THE WORD OF GOD IS NOT BOUND” (2 Tim. 2:8–9).

Martin Luther once said that the Bible had “eyes to see with, hands to grip with, and feet to run with.” That’s because the Scriptures are alive and active.

“For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do” (Heb. 4:12-13).

“He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly” (Psa. 147:15).

The word of God cannot be bound by covers. The words of the Authorized Version crawl all over the world.

People quote the King James Bible without even knowing they’re doing it. They talk about beer without knowing the word comes from the King James text (Num. 21:16; Judg. 9:21). They talk about highways; that’s from the King James text (Num. 20:17). They use the expression “burning the midnight oil”; they got it from the text of the

AV (Matt. 25:3-6). They say “he missed the boat”; they took that from Genesis 7:6–22 in a King James Bible. When they say “Give him enough rope and he’ll hang himself,” they are making reference Continued on 4

The Christian’s Speech

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

There are many, many books on how a Christian should talk in conversations, debates, question-and-answer sessions, as well as ordinary day-to-day conversations. One of the most neglected areas of speech for the Christian is found in 1 Peter 3:15. There we find this admonition:

“But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear.”

It is augmented by another verse in 1 Peter: “If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God” (1 Pet. 4:11).

What those verses mean is that any Christian—not just preachers and Bible teachers—at any time should be ready to give a SCRIPTURAL ANSWER to anybody who asks him a question. Note that the Christian is to “speak as the oracles of God.” “The oracles of God” are the Scriptures given to the Jews (Rom. 3:1–2).

Now I ask you this: is that your case? Can you answer someone from the Scriptures? That’s not just “Ruckman” laying some kind of legalistic burden on you. That’s a New Testament commandment given to any Christian who knows the Lord. It’s just as much of a commandment as “sanctify the Lord God in your hearts.”

HEBREWS

The Log Jam of the New Testament

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

(First of two articles)

As most serious students of the Scriptures know, there are three “transitional” books in the New Testament. One of these is Matthew, one is Acts, and one is Hebrews. These are books where doctrines change as they move forward through those books. If you don’t know that, you couldn’t teach any one of them.

Matthew is getting you ready for the replacement (not the doing away) of the Old Testament; it is getting you ready for a different dispensation. Acts introduces you to the “seque” (an old term used by film companies in “story-board” drawing when going from one picture to another) from Israel to the Body of Christ. The book of Hebrews is a neat slip into the Great Tribulation after the Rapture of the Church.

Hebrews is the “log jam” of the New Testament. When a man invents his own theology and reveals his unbelief in the King James Bible, he will always do it somewhere in Hebrews 1 or Hebrews 3 or Hebrews 6 or Hebrews 8 or Hebrews 10—or all five of them.

For example, take a look at Hebrews 3:16–17 in the NIV. The silly asses—who “revised” your Bible from “older and better manuscripts” in order to “update” it and make it “clearer” to understand—act perfectly in their roll and run to “the Greek” to get rid of

{ Tribulation } { Salvation }

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

One of the features of the Ruckman Reference Bible is that it uncovers a vast amount of Biblical, doctrinal truths unknown to 95% of the Conservative, Fundamental Greek and Hebrew teachers in the world today. Every one of those truths was gleaned from reading the Authorized Version, believing the Authorized Version, comparing verses in the Authorized Version with each other, and then prayerfully applying those verses where they matched.

Not once did we have to run to the Receptus editions of Erasmus, Stephanus, Beza, or the Elzevir brothers. Not once did we have to go to Vaticanus or Sinaiticus. Not once did we have to resort to Hort's, Nestles', or Aland and Metzger's Greek texts. I never had to consult Martin Luther's German Bible or Reina and Valera's Spanish Bible or Diodati's Italian Bible or the Geneva Bible. I never had to look at any LXX (pre or post-Christian), and not once did we give the Dead Sea Scrolls the time of day. The Hebrew texts of Keil, Delitzsch, Kittel, De Rossi, or Gesenius never gave me any light on one piece of information on anything. Now if we did refer to any of these sources in the Ruckman Reference Bible, we didn't have to, and if we did, they weren't conclusive when we checked them.

Of course, in the eyes of some ridiculous fakirs like Sumner, Hymers, Jones III, MacRae, Newman, Panosian, Neal, Wisdom, Fink, Martin, Price, and the rest of the whole rotten crew of Alexandrian apostates, all anyone could find in the Bible without consulting those "qualified authorities" would be "heresy." Ignoramuses always think new truth is "heresy," especially if it is Biblical truth documented with Scripture.

Now take the case of Tribulation salvation. Old Testament salvation under the Law is NOT identical with New Testament salvation under grace.

"For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them" (Rom. 10:4-5).

"For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" (John 1:17).

No Old Testament saint went to Heaven when he died; the Old Testament saints went to "Abrahams's Bosom" or "Paradise" (Luke 16:22, 23:43). There are three exceptions in the Old Testament. Before the Law was given—many years before Moses penned Genesis—Enoch was taken up bodily into Heaven (Heb. 11:5). After the Law was given, Moses was taken up to Heaven after his death (Jude 9), and "Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven" (2 Kings 2:11). The difference between Enoch, and Moses and Elijah, is that Enoch, as a type of the Church at the Rapture, remains in Heaven, never to die; and Moses and Elijah, as types of Tribulation saints, return to earth during the Tribulation to die and be resurrected (Rev. 11:3-12).

Now the reason the Old Testament saints could not go straight to Heaven when they died was because their sins had not been "redeemed."

"And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the REDEMPTION OF THE TRANSGRESSIONS THAT WERE UNDER THE FIRST TESTAMENT, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance" (Heb. 9:15).

People in the Old Testament could be forgiven for their sins, but not cleared of those sins.

"Keeping mercy for thousands, FORGIVING INIQUITY AND TRANSGRESSION AND SIN, and that will by NO MEANS CLEAR THE GUILTY" (Exod. 34:7).

The sins of Old Testament saints could be remitted (i.e., forgiven) but not redeemed (cleared). Note in Romans 3:25 that the blood of Christ was "to declare his righteousness for the REMISSION OF SINS THAT ARE PAST." That's Christ's blood redeeming sinners from the Old Testament (note the contrast in Rom. 3:26 to "at this time") whose sins had been forgiven but not cleared.

Never mind the dumbbells like the ones listed above; they don't know about what they are talking. To say that salvation was "by grace . . . through faith" (see Eph. 2:8) in both Testaments (the position taken by the faculty members of every major Fundamental and Conservative College, University, and Seminary in America) is anti-biblical heresy of the worst sort. People in the Old Testament did not even go to the same place as people in the New Testament. Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob did not go where you go when you die (2 Cor. 5:8 cf. Eph. 4:8-10); that is an undeniable Biblical fact.

Now what does all of that have to do with Tribulation salvation? Well, in the Tribulation, after the Body of Christ has been taken out of the world (1 Thess. 4:13-18; 1 Cor. 15:15-57), the same setup of Old Testament faith and works reoccurs; in the Tribulation, keeping the Old Testament Law is involved in salvation (Rev. 12:17, 14:12, 22:14).

Dr. Peter S. Ruckman
President, Founder, and Teacher of the Pensacola Bible Institute, Pensacola, Florida.

I didn't produce the verses here this time because I want you to look them up on your own and READ THEM. Quit hollering "Ruckman!" "Ruckman!" "Ruckman!" like a lame jackass caught on a barbed wire fence. READ THE BOOK!

Never mind the "historical positions"; 50% of them weren't worth a dime a hundred years after they were taken. In the Dark Ages, nearly all the evangelical anti-Catholics,

Hebrews, the Log Jam of the New Testament

the truth. Hebrews 3:16–17 is a perfect example of such awesome nonsense in the NIV that it should be taught by the Three Stooges. In that passage, the NIV has all the Israelites who crossed the Red Sea die in the wilderness so that none of them got into the Promised Land. Compare that notion with what the Bible says in Deuteronomy 1:30, 4:10 and Joshua 24:7, 17; those passages tell you that the ones who made it into the Promised Land were at Mt. Sinai when the Lord gave the Ten Commandments and that they saw what God did in Egypt. You see, the deluded dummies who put out the NIV forgot that the children who came out of Egypt made it into the Promised Land (Num. 14:31).

The NIV reading in Hebrews 3:16–17 is not just “awesome,” it is ignorance aflame. It is a confession that the translators and revisers on the NIV committee couldn’t read their own native language—English—given on a sixth-grade level. No child in grade school (what we used to call “primary school”) would think of making such a stupid mistake.

That is just one of the problems in Hebrews 3; it is augmented by the conditional statements in verses 6 and 14. You can take 5,000 saved scholars (at a minimum) and throw them out the window on those passages.

Hebrews 8:8–12 is a second “log” in the biggest “log jam” that ever stopped up the river of truth. Every Bible-correcting fool who read that passage tried to make it apply to the New Testament covenant of grace (“the gospel of the grace of God,” Acts 20:24), which the Lord made with individual believers in the New Testament through His blood (1 John 1:7). The “new covenant” of Hebrews 8 is not a covenant made with any Christian. It is made with the two political kingdoms of the Jews: Israel (the ten northern tribes) and Judah (the two southern tribes).

I remember dealing with a Campbellite one time about the passage, and he said it applied to “spiritual Israel.” Another one said it was for a “spiritual Jew” (see Rom. 2:28–29), and another one said it was “the Israel of God” (Gal. 6:16). That’s not what the verse said at all; it said “the house of Israel” and “the house of Judah.” “The covenant” of Hebrews 8 is not with the Church, the Body of Christ, “the Israel of God,” or any “spiritual Jew” or “spiritual Israel.” Verse 10 tells you it is made with “the house of Israel”—a nation, just as you find it in the context of the passage being quoted (Jer. 31:31–36).

The new covenant of Hebrews 8 wasn’t fulfilled at Calvary at all; it’s a national salvation that is future. That’s what Paul told you in Romans 11:25–27. That’s why Peter told the Jews in Acts 3 that their sins weren’t blotted out yet (Acts 3:19 cf. Col. 2:14) and wouldn’t be until the covenant of Hebrews 8 is brought in at the Second Advent of Jesus Christ (Acts 3:20 cf. Rom. 11:25–27). The passages in Acts 3, Romans 11, and Hebrews 8 all deal with national atonement for national sins. It is the national conversion of a whole nation so that witnessing (Acts 1:8) is no longer necessary. You think that’s for today, do you? All the scholars denied everything in the passage because they didn’t believe one word of it when applying it.

The New Testament that Christ instituted at the Last Supper (Matt. 26:28), and which was enforced by the shedding of His blood and His death on the cross (Heb. 9:14–17), was not confined to any nation. It is for every sinner on the face of the earth—Jew or Gentile. Hence, in Christ “there is neither Jew nor Greek [Gentile]” (Gal. 3:27–28).

All humanity is divided into “the Jews,” “the Gentiles,” and “the church of God” (1 Cor. 10:32)—that last group consisting of individual believers in Christ saved out of the other two groups (Gal. 3:27–28). Those Jews are Hebrews from “Abraham the Hebrew” (Gen. 14:13), through Isaac and Jacob (see Gen. 39:14, 17; Exod. 1:1–19; Jer. 34:9; 2 Cor. 11:22; Phil. 3:5). They were nationally called God’s “son” (Exod. 4:22–23); that’s why they were instructed to pray “Our Father” (Matt. 6:9) instead of just “my Father” or “Father.” The so-called “Lord’s Prayer” is a national prayer of a physical, political “kingdom” (Matt. 6:13 cf. 1 Chron. 29:10–11).

Hebrews 8 has to do with the salvation of a whole nation where the children will be born saved without having to be “born again.” You say, “Where do you get that from?” Out of a King James Bible; you couldn’t have found it in “the Greek” or “the Hebrew” if you had looked for it until your eyes came out of their sockets.

Psalm 103:17–18, “But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children’s children; To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.”

Let’s see you match that to what Paul wrote in Romans 10 and Ephesians 2. Paul told you that a Christian’s “righteousness” is Jesus Christ, and that it is received by faith (Rom. 10:4; Eph. 2:8–9). God’s “righteousness” in Psalm 103:17–18 is to those who “keep his covenant” and “do” “his commandments”—WORKS!

Moreover, that “righteousness” in Psalm 103 is passed on to the children and grandchildren. Not in Ephesians 2:1–3, it’s not. Paul said you were born “dead in trespasses and sins,” and that you were a child “of disobedience” and “wrath.” As a Christian in the Church Age, you get no righteousness of God from your parents at all, and your children don’t get it from you.

What do you suppose these poor, sinful Bible correctors—who did not “labour in the word” (1 Tim. 5:17), but just changed it where they wanted to change it or couldn’t understand it—are going to do when they hit Hebrews 1:14 where angels minister to “them who shall be HEIRS OF SALVATION.” There’s someone inheriting salvation just like in Psalm 103. Let’s

Our Roving Bible

Continued from 1 to the story of Haman in the KJV. Even the Navy term for shore leave — “liberty”— is from the text of the Authorized Version (Acts 27:3). You won't get away from that Book; it will follow you wherever you go.

One time in New York City, a man drew a great crowd by putting his hat down on the street and running around it yelling: “It's alive! It's alive! It's alive!” After a while, someone in the crowd asked, “What's alive?” He picked up the hat, and there was a King James Bible lying there. He picked it up and said, “The word of God.”

One Fundamentalist said, “The Bible is Jesus on paper.” That is truer than that preacher probably realized (see Rom. 9:17 and Gal. 3:8 and note how Paul commits the unpardonable sin of “Bibliolatry” by substituting the word “scripture” for God).

Your “roving Bible” also is not limited by space or time. God made both space and time, and He was present before either of them began (Gen. 1:1).

“Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God” (Heb. 11:3).

The word of God is eternal. The Bible never needs replacing as school textbooks do.

“For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven” (Psa. 119:89).

That means these constant attempts by the scholars every six months (over 233 since 1880) to replace the Authorized Version with a “newer,” “clearer,” “more accurate” translation, “in the language of the people,” is Satanic.

Our “roving Bible” cannot be corralled or tied up or pinned down or imprisoned by racial boundaries. Sundar Singh from India got saved.

Joseph Neesima from Japan got saved. Watchman Nee from China got saved. My translator in the Ukraine, Major Taurus, got saved. The man Calvin burned at the stake, Servetus from Spain, got saved. Diodati and Ochino from Italy got saved. In Germany, Martin Luther got saved. The black boxer Holyfield got saved. Song Lee, the man who set up the “Pensacola Bible Institute of Seoul” over in Korea, got saved.

The Book cannot be penned in by religious traditions. The fourth rule of “The Index” at the Roman Catholic Council of Trent was that no Christian had a right to read any book or Bible except those recommended by a Catholic Priest. Bloody Mary forbade any English translation of the Scriptures, and she had to go to the “Church Fathers” to get rid of the Bible. But it was still all over that nation, which, after her death, ended up producing the greatest English Bible, and indeed the greatest Bible in any language, which this world has ever seen.

The Bible cannot be boxed in by the opinions of scholars. God's Book—the King James Holy Bible—is still here after 400 years, despite all the efforts of Christian and secular scholarship. In spite of all the publicity and advertisement given to the other versions (with practically none given to the KJV), the Authorized Version has sold more than any three modern translations combined—at least five to one. Since its publication, more than a billion copies of the King James Bible have been printed and circulated in this country and overseas. As far back as 1950, the British and Foreign Bible Society had already published 809,000,000 King James Bibles. In the meantime, the American Bible Society had put out 180,200,000 King James Bibles by 1945. That means that by 1950, there were over 917,200,000 King James Bibles in print, and that was not counting the ones put out by organizations and publishers like Trinitarian Bible Society, Thomas Nelson and Sons, National Printing Company (Gideons), Cambridge, Oxford, etc.; and printing ministries that showed up after 1970 like Bearing Precious Seed. At the rate of thirty million copies being printed a year (32,876 copies a day since 1904), there are more than a billion copies of the KJV going around the world right now.

Way back in 1988, a Sociology professor at Pensacola Junior College gave her students a set of rules for submitting an essay. The last rule on the list was: “Provide a bibliography for information that comes from books and magazines. THE BIBLE IS NOT CONSIDERED A VALID RESEARCH BOOK.”

It's not?! Why, the Bible was written by over forty authors on three continents over a period of 1,600 years, and is the most authoritative source on the ancient world you can get, being confirmed over and over again by archaeology when all the scholars assumed it was wrong. It has 48 prophecies on one man's life that were written anywhere from 400 to 1,500 years before He was born, and every single one of them came through “right on the money.” The chances of that happening are 10<sup>157</sup> (that's ten with 157 zeroes after it). That's more than the electrons in three universes the size of ours. You won't find that phenomenon in any other “valid research book.” It is the best selling and most demanded book in the entire world, and yet it's not “valid” as well as Catholics, believed you could lose your salvation, and a lot of the people who left the Catholic Church still sprinkled babies. Their "historic positions" (like those on the Mass, baptism, and the Second Advent) weren't worth fifteen cents. READ THE BOOK!

In the Old Testament, under the Law, there was a faith-and-works setup (James 2:21-25—READ IT!). That is the same setup there will be in the Tribulation (James 5:20 and notice the context is the Second Advent in vss. 7-18; READ IT!). At that time, a believer has to "hold fast" (Heb. 3:6, 14—READ IT!) and "endure to the end" (Matt. 24:13; Heb. 3:6—READ IT!), or else he loses his salvation (Heb. 6:4-8, 10:26-31—READ IT!).

Don't sit there talking about "Ruckman's five plans of salvation"; READ THE BOOK! Just quit your guessing and surmising and passing along garbage and READ!

There are scores of verses in the New Testament which teach that somebody can lose his salvation. I have taught about them and written about them for more than sixty years now (see our work on Eternal Security). Why can't you get the bright boys at the Christian Colleges and Universities to say something about that? They won't even deal with it.

When Stewart Custer of Bob Jones University published his book The Truth About the King James Version Controversy, he criticized "Ruckman's peculiar teachings" (see our work on Custer's Last Stand) without even daring to discuss the verses I gave or his arguments against them. BJU is noted for Biblical ignorance; we call it "ignorance aflame." The trick of these apostates is to get you to put down God's absolute authority and descend to their level of stupidity; that's how they make their living.

Faith and works are set before the Tribulation saints as the means of their salvation so clearly that only a Greek or Hebrew teacher at Hyles-Anderson, BBC, Arlington, Pacific Coast, Maranatha, Pillsbury, Crown, etc., could miss it. The Holy Spirit tells you in Matthew 24, Matthew 25 (the whole chapter), Hebrews 4, Hebrews 6, Hebrews 10, and two dozen other places that works are a factor in Tribulation salvation.

Now what is to be said about this "odd doctrine" of "Ruckman's," which is Biblical from start to finish in both Testaments? What's the trouble? The trouble is the combined weight of all Conservative and Fundamental scholars (including such men as A. T. Robertson and Robert Dick Wilson), Fennis Dake's reference Bible, the Thompson Chain Reference Bible, and the faculties of 500 "schools of religion" and their "professors of ancient languages." The whole lot together couldn't produce the spiritual discernment God gave a brass monkey when it came to finding Scriptural truths about salvation in the Old Testament, the Tribulation, or the Millennium.

Having rejected the AV 1611, God rejected them. Having messed with God's Book (and they all did), God messed with their minds.

The truth was right in front of their faces, and it wasn't "Baptist truth" or "Calvinist truth." The truth wasn't in any Greek or Hebrew text, or else they would have found it. The truth wasn't to be found in any "Receptus" text or "Alexandrian" text.

The truth was in a Book that went sometimes by Byzantine readings and sometimes by the Vulgate readings. It sometimes followed Beza, sometimes Erasmus, and on occasions Stephanus. It did see you put that one in the Pauline Epistles, stupid. You can't. A Christian inherits a kingdom, not salvation (Rom. 8:17 cf. 2 Tim. 2:12).

But they all did it. They ran to the Greek; they ran to the lexicon; they ran to the concordance; they ran through 22–25 years of formal education until they thought they “had it down.” They were just as blind as a bat buried behind a barn. What's the trouble, boys? You've had 400 years to get it right (1611–2011), and you haven't got it right yet.

The pile of logs gets bigger by the minute. The book of Hebrews was written to Hebrews by “an Hebrew of the Hebrews” (Phil. 3:5 cf. 2 Cor. 11:22) who preached “the gospel of the grace of God” (Acts 20:24). You have to “rightly divide” the book, or you will make the biggest mess of things you ever saw. In attempting to explain the passage in Hebrews 8, the expositors will run you over to Hebrews 10:16–17, completely ignoring or overlooking the fact that Hebrews 10:16–17 omits over three quarters of Hebrews 8:10–12. The part that's omitted is the part that has to do with the nation of Israel. Hebrews 10:16–17 is talking about the blood atonement of Christ's sacrifice for all sinners (see Heb. 10:10–14), not just for a nation. The “new covenant” of Hebrews 8 is applied to a nation, and according to the same author, it won't happen until the Advent of Christ (Rom. 11:26–27).

Having missed the import of the entire passage, the scholars missed eight chapters in Ezekiel (Ezek. 40–48), where “the house of Israel” and

“the house of Judah” are back in the Holy Land with the Law in effect. Their sins are blotted out (Acts 3:19), and the whole nation is saved (Rom. 11:26) because the Lord is right there bodily (Ezek. 48:35). The clear teaching of the Scripture is that there are two applications of the New Testament: one to every individual on the face of this earth who puts his faith in the blood atonement of Christ's death on the cross, and one to a nation in the Millennium that is offering sacrifices in a temple as payment for the corporate sins of a nation—not an individual.

How do you like that “log jam”? All the saved scholars (along with all the lost scholars) will break their necks in Hebrews 8 every time they hit it. All they are are highly educated INFIDELS when it comes to believing every word in the Book.

Hebrews 10:26–31 is another example. If you “sin wilfully” after you get saved, you meet God in “vengeance,” and “it is a fearful thing to fall into [His] hands.” That isn't true at all for a child of God. As a matter of fact, you are not only IN His hands (John 10:28–29), you are PART of His hands (1 Cor. 12:13–27). If you are saved, you are “bone of His bone and flesh of His flesh,” and the relationship between you and Christ is one of love and reverence (Eph. 5:25–33), not fear of “vengeance” and “fiery indignation” (1 John 4:17–18)—not even when you “sin wilfully” (1 John 1:8–2:1).

Five thousand to ten thousand scholars are just as wrong as they can be every time they open their mouths on Hebrews 3, Hebrews 8, and Hebrews 10; and they will continue that way. Further, they'll look at you as a “nut” if you look at those chapters any other way because you are not down to their level of ignorance.

All the scholars broke their necks in Hebrews; it is the “log jam” of the New Testament. In our next article, we will examine the “log” found in Hebrews 6.

The Christian's Speech

Of course, I know not all Christians are great intellectuals. Not all Christians are even “bookish,” like I am. That doesn't matter, though. The Bible is God Almighty speaking to you, brother, sister. Whether or not you know any other book, you need to know that Book.

Donald Grey Barnhouse was a great Presbyterian preacher back in the 1950s and 1960s. He had a layman in his church who was a Bible teacher and knew more of the Bible than Barnhouse himself. One day, Barnhouse and that Bible teacher were riding in a train together. Barnhouse was sitting there reading a newspaper, and the other fellow was sitting there reading his Bible.

At one point, Barnhouse said to his church member, “I wish I knew the Bible as well as you do.”

Without looking up from his Bible, that fellow replied “You won't get it reading the newspaper.”

Christian, you won't learn that Book by reading a newspaper. You won't learn it by watching television. You won't learn it by listening to the radio, these days, not even most “Christian” radio stations. And you certainly won't learn it by fooling around with the “New King Jimmy Version” (NKJV) or the “Nuttty Idiot's Version” (NIV) or the “New Asinine Sapheaded Vision” (NASV).

The only way you will ever know the Holy Bible the way you should is by spending time in it: read it, study it, memorize it. Then when you're out on the streets, around your neighborhood, in the parlor, at the dinner table, in your automobile, and at the supermarket or department stores, put it to use in witnessing.

For about 55 years in my ministry, I used to hold all across this nation what I called “open Bible forums.” Those were sessions in which any member of the audience could get up and ask me any question about anything and I would try to give him a Bible answer within five seconds or

New Curricula On the Bible

In honor of the 400th Anniversary of the King James Bible, the Bookstore will have available, next month, three curricula on the Scriptures which are suitable for use in Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, or neighborhood Bible clubs. These teachers' guides have been used here at the Bible Baptist Church in our own Vacation Bible Schools with success and are proven tools for reinforcing the faith of children and teens in the Authorized Version.

The first is The Bible—God's Word. It covers the topics of the Bible, God's Word (inspiration), the Bible and salvation (salvation), the Bible as food (reading), the Bible as a tool (application), and the Bible as a weapon (spiritual warfare). (Contains three teaching charts.)

The second is The Greatest Book Ever Written. It uses different stories from the Scriptures to teach different aspects of the Bible. The topics are the Bible, the first Book (Job); the Bible, God's Book (Moses); the Bible, the hated Book (Jeremiah); the Bible, the prophetic Book (Jesus Christ); and the Bible, the missionary Book (Paul and the history of the Bible).

The third curriculum is How We Got Our Bible. It covers the doctrine and history of how mankind went from no Bible to our Authorized King James Version. Its lessons are: 1) "In the Beginning" (revelation), 2) "The Holy Scriptures" (a survey of the Bible), 3) "Given By Inspiration" (the inspiration of the Scriptures), 4) "Thou Shalt Preserve Them" (the preservation of the Scriptures), and 5) "Purified Seven Times" (the story of our English Bible).

The material covered in these curricula is adaptable to children of all ages and can even be used to introduce new converts or new Bible students to the doctrine of the Bible.

Here is a Book, the Holy Bible, written by forty male authors, writing from three continents, through a period of more than 1,800 years, and it displays a mathematical miracle, DEALING WITH HISTORICAL EVENTS, that no computer could display with the ability to record 50,000,000 pieces of information per second.

What particular quirk of perverted logic would lead any "modern man" to overlook such a Book?

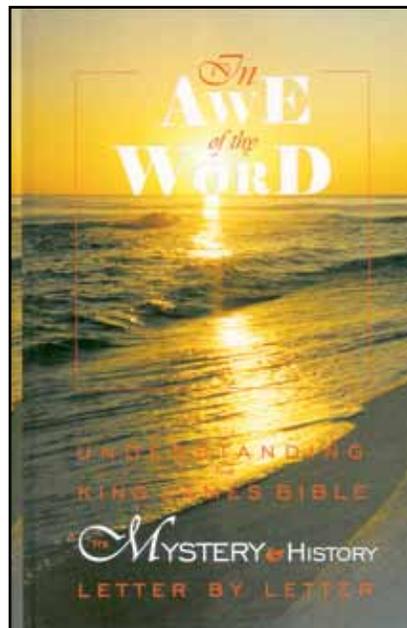

Alongside this Book, the Holy Bible, all other "holy writings" are cheap, shallow, superficial, religious nonsense.

"The unity of Christians makes the common cause with that of unity for the whole human race." A one-world religion under a one-world government with the Pope running the show. John Paul's church members in New York City gave the Dalai Lama a standing ovation for saying: "All the world's religions are basically the same."

While parading around the world trying to get all the Hindus, Moslems, Satanists, Shintoists, Buddhists, and Greek Orthodox into one church under his leadership, all the Roman Catholic Gannet newspapers in America, along with all the news commentators on CBS, NBC, ABC, CNN, and FOX, as well as the editors of Time, Newsweek, etc., were giving their wholehearted support to John Paul as the greatest religious politician who ever lived. The news media believed religiously in combining religion with politics when it came to recommending the Pope as a "political activist" to all their listeners and viewers. What I'm about to give you has nothing to do with "religion" at all; as a theologian, John Paul had lockjaw and "pled the Fifth Amendment." These are political speeches dictating political and economic policies to nations.

What I am quoting here comes directly from the official Roman Catholic publication "The Pope Speaks," a church document published quarterly by the official Roman Catholic propaganda sheet Our Sunday Visitor, Vol. 31, No. 1. Here is the "preaching" of a sinner playing geopolitics while professing to be the "Vicar of Christ."

The truths I gave you about Tribulation salvation were completely missed by both boards of editors of the Scotfield Reference Bible. The faculty members of the ten largest Christian schools in America (Fundamental and Conservative) don't know those truths right now, and they never will unless they pick up a Ruckman Reference Bible or some other book published by a "founder of a cult."

But why stop just because you're 300 miles ahead of the Lockman Foundation, both Scotfield boards of editors, and the faculties of every Seminary in the United States? Do you think the Monarch of the Books (the AV 1611), that you find exalted in the Ruckman Reference Bible, couldn't outpace a rocket? You won't have to get "back to the Bible"; you'll have to catch up with it.

Of all the books in the world this idiotic female decided were invalid for research, only one book was singled out. Was it Playboy? No! Was it Mein Kampf? No! Did she forbid the Koran, Madame Blavatsky's Secret Doctrine, The Analects of Confucius, the Puranas or the Vedas, or the Zend Avesta? No, they were all "valid."

At the Pensacola Junior College, anything is "valid" for the bibliography of an essay except one book. That book is the Bible (not the "original autographs"; the word Bible means "book," not a pile of lost manuscripts). But that is typical of the unreasoning prejudice and bigotry higher education has against the Holy Bible (and especially against the King James Holy Bible).

There's an old poem about the word of God that ends:

"And so, I thought, the anvil of Gods word,

For ages, skeptics blows have beat upon;

Yet, though the noise of falling blows was heard,

The anvil is unharmed—the hammers gone."

That is true of the King James Bible. For over 130 years now (since 1880), revisers and teachers, critics and preachers, have hammered away at that Book. After the loud blows of the scholars have ceased to ring out, the Book remains, and all the hammers are gone.

Attacks have been made on the AV Holy Bible by professing Christians all over the United States. Stewart Custer (BJU), Allen MacRae (PCC), Kenneth Wuest (Moody Bible Institute), and A.T. Robertson (Louisville Seminary) have all attacked the Book; along with Lindsell, Carson, Stanley, Graham, Osteen, et al. (see a list of 320 of them in the back of

The Christian Liar's Library). All of their attacks have come to absolutely nothing. The King James Bible continues to reveal new truths without their permission, consent, or approval (see our work The Unknown Bible if you want to get a good 100 pages on that).

Our "roving Bible" continues to roam nationally and internationally with no let up to it. Neither age nor sex nor social standing can stop its expansion. The Book is just as good for bums and barbers as it is for Kings and slaves. It is applicable to prostitutes, pederasts, and sex perverts. It is profitable for farmers, sailors, students, geniuses, and morons. It's good for anybody and everybody.

That Book cannot be quenched by those who preach it. Many ministers use the AV without believing it; they correct it while they preach it. But that Book doesn't "stand corrected"; it stands just as it is.

The Book can't be stopped by the death of those who preach it because the Book itself is alive. You can still pick up sermons by Oliver B. Greene, Maze Jackson, Bob Jones Sr., and Lester Roloff almost any day of the week on some radio station somewhere; and those fellows have been dead for years. After their deaths, the Book kept right on going out of their mouths. The Bible says, "he being dead yet speaketh" (Heb. 11:4).

The Book can't be stopped by anybody's attitude toward it. You can "take it or leave it," "believe it or not," preach it or not preach it; but it will make no difference. It will go right on regardless.

No one's opinion counts for anything when it comes to that Book. Eight different religions with eight different beliefs don't affect one word of it. Every man living contrary to that Book is a sinner and a criminal no matter how he feels about it or what his momma or daddy thinks about it. In the Book, "man" is NOT "the measure of all things," or anywhere close to it.

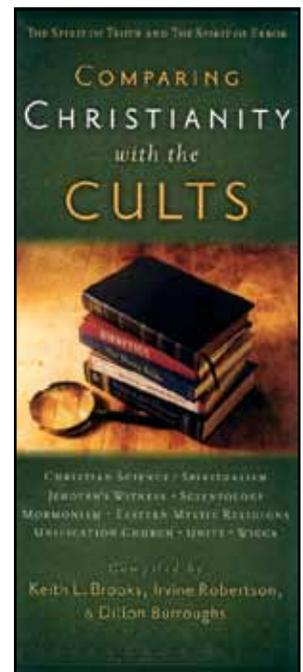

The Bible is the only book in existence that what you get out of it depends on the attitude with which you approach it. There are over 23 million books in the Library

The Christian's Speech

Continued from 8 witness and had led G.I.s to Christ the whole time. He was the one who got me out on the streets of South Carolina preaching, witnessing, and passing out tracts. I got "hooked" good, and I started witnessing somewhere every weekend on my "breaks" from school.

At that time, I was reading my Bible completely through at least twice a month—that was 1,200 pages each time. I had become familiar with its contents, but out witnessing I was learning how to use it in dealing with sinners. Whenever someone would ask me a question in a conversation or in a forum that I couldn't answer, I would go back to my hotel room or my trailer (where I lived while I attended BJU) or to the farm (where I stayed in the summertime in Alabama), and I would look up the answer in my Bible so I would be able to give the answer the next time the question came up.

I noticed many questions came up on a fairly consistent basis, so I wrote them down in the front of my Bible, along with the first Scripture reference that answered the question. From there, I made my own "chain-reference" system throughout my Bible on those questions so I could go from one Scripture to the other without having to recall everything by memory. Pretty soon I had so many chain references (more than 23,000 of them by 2010) that I had "chains" crossing "chains."

By the time I had gone through some of those questions so often, I could take you through the entire chain of them by memory. On the lesser asked questions, I could still usually give all the essential verses on the subject.

That was "Ruckman's" secret to his "open Bible forums." It had nothing to do with my "brilliant intellect" or my "photographic memory" (which I didn't have). It was the result of long hours of reading and studying on my own, and the constant use of the Scriptures in one-on-one contacts. I did not learn most of those things in school at all. I learned them after the evening services of my meetings, lying around in the bed of my hotel or motel room by myself, going through the Bible again and again after ten o'clock at night.

If a man "ministers the word" (and that is the context of 1 Pet. 4:11), he should "speak as the oracles of God"—the Scriptures (Rom. 3:2). So any time a Christian gets up to minister to someone through his speech, he should speak what the Scriptures say about a matter. The question arises, then: how is a man to "speak as the oracles of God" when he has 233 conflicting versions (since 1880) of what the Scriptures say, and none of them claim to be "scripture" (see 2 Tim. 3:16) by those who say that the only things that are "scripture" are the original Continued on 12

With this work Dr. Ruckman answers every major attack on the words of the King James text, as you have it, and shows that no man, living or dead, has ever proved one error in the text.

Formerly titled "Problem Texts," this book gives you complete, irrefutable, and Biblical answers to the "corrections" or alterations of the King James Bible by Hebrew and Greek speaking apostates.

10. A message to the European Conference of Bishops to the effect that European churches should work cooperatively under him (the Pope) as their head.

And on and on it goes. If that weren't enough, in the "El'osservatore Romano" (from Nov. 1985—Jan. 1986), there are articles on political advice to President Reagan, Columbia's right to take a stand against Capitalism, the right of all Catholic illegal immigrants from Mexico and Cuba to get free passes into the United States, an imperative command for America to send her food and money to Catholic countries, world economics, the duty of politicians to guarantee Catholic freedom to pursue Vatican policies in every country, and the disarmament of the United States. That is, John Paul II did nothing but push international Socialism day and night.

Now how is that for obeying the New Testament commandment to "preach the word" (2 Tim. 4:2), given by the apostle who wrote to the church at Rome?

What I gave you was about a tenth of the list. That was the "preaching circuit" of a sinner who professed to take Simon Peter's place. That's the new "saint" Roman Catholics are to "venerate." He was nothing but a crooked politician trying to make ecumenical overtures.

Do you see why we keep harping on this matter of final authority? If all you have are 233 conflicting versions, translations, and paraphrases, then you don't have any Scripture. If you don't have any Scripture, how are you to obey the commandment to "speak as the oracles of God"? You don't have them.

That's the mess in which your modern Christian finds himself. He can only "speak as" the opinions of "good, godly scholars" and then decide which opinion of which scholar is right. That is, he's become his own final authority; he has actually become his own god because the Book he has is subject to himself rather than he to the Book.

Our Roving Bible

Continued from 10 of Congress, and not one is dependent on your attitude when you read it. But when reading the Bible, you are dependent on its attitude toward you because it judges you as you read it (go back to the beginning of this article and read Heb. 4:12-13). If the Bible is to profit you at all, you have to adjust your attitude to the Book and not the Book to your attitude.

A man ignores the Bible to his own peril. Peter ignored his own apostasy (Matt. 26:33-35), and it was prophesied in the Book (Matt. 26:31 cf. Zech. 13:7). Judas ignored his own death warrant (Matt. 27:3-5), and it was written in the Book for anyone to read (Matt. 27:9 cf. Zech. 11:12-13).

Mohammed knew that four biographers (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John)—one of whom was a registered physician (Col. 4:14)—Roman soldiers (Matt. 27:54; John 19:32-34), a Roman governor (Mark 15:44-45), two Jewish Rabbis (Mark 15:43; John 19:38-40), and over 500 eyewitnesses (1 Cor. 15:6) all denied everything the Koran said about the death of Jesus Christ (Sura 4:157); and Mohammed completely overlooked his own identify recorded three times in the Book (1 John 2:22-23, 4:3; 2 John 7). Right now, the UN is ignoring its own demise (Zeph. 3:8) which has been recorded for 400 years in the universal language of the modern world, and which is also in over 160 major languages and 200 minor languages. All 192 nations can get it and read it and know what it says, and the proof is the verse they stole from a King James Bible (Isa. 2:4) and took out its context (Isa. 2:1-4) and posted on a wall right across from their "Assembly Building."

Mohammed, Buddha, and Confucius never reached one child on six continents with the truth. All those people were forced to believe a religion that didn't have one thing to offer any child or any woman.

"He came to the crossroads all alone,

He had no fear for the path unknown,

No dread for the perilous race.

But no one showed him which road was best.

So the boy turned wrong, then went down,

And lost the race and the victor's crown.

He wound up in Hell in a deadly snare,

Because no one stood at the crossroads there.

Another boy of another day

At the same crossroads stood.

He paused a moment to choose the way

That would lead to the highest good.

The road stretched east and the road stretched west,

But God's Book showed him which was the best.

So the boy turned right and went straight on,

And won the race and the victor's crown.

He came at last to the mansions fair,

Because of a Book at the crossroads there.

Are Popes Disciples of Christ?

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

A subtitle for this article would be: "Why No Christian Ever Mistook a Pope for a Follower of Jesus Christ."

As anyone knows, every Pope who ever held the office claimed to be the successor of the "Blessed Simon Peter." This completely ignores the fact that Simon Peter was a Jew (not an Italian, Pollock, or Frenchman) who ministered to Jews (Gal. 2:7-9) and who was married (1 Cor. 8:5). He never went within 240 miles of Rome north, south, east, or west (1 Pet. 1:1, 5:13); nor would he let anyone kneel in front of him (Acts 10:26). But there are many other reasons why no one who has ever read the Bible would ever mistake the Pope (any of them) for Simon Peter or any other disciple of Jesus Christ found in the New Testament.

1. Neither the Lord Jesus Christ nor any of His apostles ever paraded around town in a Halloween costume. They wore the common, ordinary clothing of their time.

2. Jesus Christ taught His followers never to call any religious leader "father" (Matt. 23:9), and they never did. Moreover, the Lord reserved the title used by the Popes ("Holy Father") for God the Father alone (John 17:11).

3. Jesus Christ never sat on any "throne" (or anything that even looked like a throne) the entire time He was here on earth, and neither did any of His followers in the New Testament.

4. Neither Jesus Christ, nor Peter, James, John, or Paul, ever "hobnobbed" with Pilate, Herod, Caiaphas, Caesar, or any other notable political or religious leader. They all avoided fellowship with heads of State like the plague (cf. Luke 13:32). None of them would any more sign a concordat or "come to a political, religious agreement" with a world ruler than they would build a cathedral.

5. All Christ's followers in the New Testament identified the cross with a curse (Gal. 3:13) and never encouraged anyone to use it as a sign for anything.

6. Jesus Christ never used wooden crosses, salt, or holy water to cast out demons; and neither did His disciples (cf. Acts 16:18, 19:13; Mark 5:12-13).

7. None of the apostles ever elevated any "host" a day in their lives, nor did Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 11:23-27); not one of them ever used the words "sacrifice of the Mass" or "sacrament" when referring to the Lord's Supper (see 1 Cor. 10:16-21).

8. Jesus Christ never gave His mother the honor of even being called "mother" (Mark 3:32-35); He always referred to her as "woman" (John 2:4, 19:26). None of His followers prayed to her or even asked her for the time of day, even though she was a member of the local church (Acts 1:14).

9. Jesus Christ was a Capitalist who believed in the private ownership of property and non-union contracts between an employer and an individual (Matt. 20:1-15).

10. Neither Jesus Christ nor any apostle ever wasted five minutes praying for "world peace" (John 17:9); in fact, they predicted wars, not peace (Matt. 24:6-7; 1 Thess. 5:3).

11. None of Christ's followers observed Christmas or Easter one time in sixty years following His resurrection.

12. Since Jesus Christ is a "Bishop" (1 Pet. 2:25), no real Christian on earth would think of making himself an "Archbishop," for that would be one rank above his Saviour.

13. No apostle would think of sprinkling a baby or anyone else. Water baptism is for believers only (Acts 8:36-37), and a baby is incapable of believing on Christ for salvation. Furthermore, water baptism is a "figure" (1 Pet. 3:21) of burial (cf. Rom. 6:3-4; Col. 2:12), not throwing dirt on a versity never had a copy. I have a copy of the Holy Scriptures in English even if you don't. They are called "the Holy Bible containing the Old and New Testaments translated out of the original tongues" (NOT "TEXT"). They are "the Authorized (King James) Version of the Bible."

I have the Scriptures. Do you?

I not only have "the Word of God" (Jesus Christ—Rev. 19:13; 1 John 5:7; John 1:1-3), I have "the word of God" (the Bible—Heb. 4:12; Psa. 138:2) and the words of God (Psa. 12:6-7; John 8:47, 6:63; Luke 4:4). I have those words in English. Do you?

When I quote those words, I am quoting the "scripture" and "the oracles of God," not some "paraphrase" or "version" or "translation." I can speak according to the Scriptures; I can listen to the Scriptures; I can read the Scriptures; I can memorize the Scriptures; I can preach and teach the Scriptures; I can hold the Scriptures in my hands.

The Scripture I have "is given by inspiration of God" (2 Tim. 3:16). Its "words" are "pure"; they are preserved (Psa. 12:6-7). As a result, my Scripture, my "oracles of God," are infallible and inerrant. The words don't have to be changed every six months to accommodate a bunch of proud, stupid, sorry, backslidden, lazy Laodicean apostates who have no more concern for what God said than if He had never said anything.

Those Scriptures aren't peculiar to "Ruckman"; they belong to anyone who will believe them and study them. I hope you will prove them in your case when you answer "every man" according to "the oracles of God."

Are Popes Disciples of Christ?

dead corpse up against a tree!

14. Neither Christ nor any of His followers would equate tradition with the Bible under any circumstances (2 Pet. 1:19–20).

15. Neither Mary nor any other follower of Christ claimed to be born sinless (Rom. 3:23; 1 John 1:8).

16. No Christian in the New Testament would think of getting all religions together (cf. James 2:19; Matt. 23:15).

17. Neither the apostles nor any of their converts ever taught any such thing as “Purgatory” after already being purged of their sins (Heb. 1:3) by the blood of Christ and not fire (Heb. 9:14); the word occurs nowhere in either Testament.

18. No Christian would think of calling himself “the Vicar of Christ,” and no Christian would accept any sinner as a Christian who stole that title for himself.

The term Christian is a term that describes a disciple of Jesus Christ (Acts 11:26). There are no Christians in the New Testament who trusted Rome for anything other than imprisonment (Acts 28:16), opposition (Rev. 17:14), murder (Matt. 2:16), and commercial lust (Rev. 18:1–3). That’s Rome under every Pope who professed to sit in “Peter’s chair.”

THE CREED OF THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT

1. There is no final authority but God.
2. Since God is a Spirit, there is no final authority that can be seen, heard, read, felt, or handled.
3. Since all books are material, there is no book on this earth that is the final and absolute authority on what is right and what is wrong, what constitutes truth and what constitutes error.
4. There WAS a series of writings one time which, IF they had all been put into a BOOK as soon as they were written the first time, WOULD HAVE constituted an infallible and final authority by which to judge truth and error.
5. However, this series of writings was lost, and the God who inspired them was unable to preserve their content through Bible-believing Christians at Antioch (Syria), where the first Bible teachers were (Acts 13:1), and where the first missionary trip originated (Acts 13:1-52), and where the word “Christian” originated (Acts 11:26).
6. So God chose to ALMOST preserve them through Gnostics and philosophers from Alexandria, Egypt, even though God called His Son OUT of Egypt (Matthew 2), Jacob OUT of Egypt (Genesis 49), Israel OUT of Egypt (Exodus 15), and Joseph’s bones OUT of Egypt (Exodus 13).
7. So there are two streams of Bibles. The most accurate—though, of course, there is no final, absolute authority for determining truth and error; it is a matter of “preference”—are the Egyptian translations from Alexandria, Egypt, which are “almost the originals,” although not quite.
8. The most inaccurate translations were those that brought about the German Reformation (Luther, Zwingli, Boehler, Zinzen-dorf, Spener, et al.) and the worldwide missionary movement of the English-speaking people: the Bible that Sunday, Torrey, Moody, Finney, Spurgeon, Whitefield, Wesley, and Chapman used.
9. But we can “tolerate” these if those who believe in them will “tolerate” US. After all, since there is NO ABSOLUTE AND FINAL AUTHORITY that anyone can read, teach, preach, or handle, the whole thing is a matter of “PREFERENCE.” You may prefer what you prefer, and we will prefer what we prefer. Let us live in peace, and if we cannot agree on anything or everything, let us all agree on one thing: THERE IS NO FINAL, ABSOLUTE, WRITTEN AUTHORITY OF GOD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH.

This is the Creed of the Alexandrian Cult.

Religious Hypocrite, Crooked Politician, Catholic Saint

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

Recently the Vatican held a ceremony for the beatification of the former Pope, John Paul II; this was the first step in declaring him a "saint" to whom 900 million Catholics could pray instead of Jesus Christ. During his "reign" (the Pope wears a triple crown and sits on a throne), this religious hypocrite went around the world delivering the following messages as the "Vicar of Christ." The documentation is given in the work A Woman Rides the Beast by David Hunt (1994).

1. 1986 to Hindus—"Special blessings to you and your members. We shall continue together . . . [Hinduism's] spiritual vision of man furnishes enrichment for human living." Care to go over to India and find out just how "rich" the lives are of people who have been worshipping 300 million gods for 3,000 years?

2. 1993—"We seek common ground with Voodooism."

3. 1985—"As Christians and Moslems, we meet one another in faith in the one God." The god of Mohammed has no son; how can he be the same as "the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ"?

1993—"Christians and Moslems should respect each others beliefs." You are to respect the beliefs of a man who said that Peter, James, John, Paul, and JESUS CHRIST all went
