“The Outcasts of Israel”

By Brian Donovan

Psalms 147:2 says, “The LORD doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.” In these last days of the Church, the gathering together of “the outcasts of Israel” is directly connected to the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Some years ago, a man told me that we (i.e., I and my crowd) were “obsessed with the Jews.” To which I had to reply: “Yes, I suppose we are—obsessed with a Jewish Book (the KJV), obsessed with a Jewish Saviour (Jesus Christ), obsessed with a Jewish homeland (Israel), and obsessed with a Jewish city (Jerusalem).”

Matthew 24:32 makes it plain that the rise of the fig tree from its death is a sure sign that the coming of the Lord is near. Ever since 1948, the leaves of the fig tree have begun to sprout (cf. Jer. 8:13), and even though it will remain void of fruit until the Messiah purges her through a great time of trouble (Jer. 30:7), “the outcasts of Israel” have been gathered in our time (Isa. 11:11).

Due to the favoritism that God Almighty shows toward the Jews, the Gentile world despises and resents them without consciously understanding why. It is a spiritual problem that drives the United Nations and the Gentile world to be anti-Semitic. Right to the end, Jerusalem will remain the symbol of that enmity to Moslems, Roman Catholics, and the rest of the Gentile population.

Satan will see to it that the very city whose name means “peace” (shalom—Salem) will stay irreconciled and divided. Any and every attempt at peace without “The Prince of Peace” on the throne (Isa. 9:6–7) will be foiled. The Lord’s promise to “make Jerusalem a cup of trembling” (Zech. 12:2) and “a burdensome stone” (Zech. 12:3) Continued on 4

Teaching Prisoners to Deny the Bible

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

After giving you more than 400 illustrations (in a hundred other publications) of how apostate Fundamentalists continue to spread infidelity among the saints, we give you another example here in the Twenty-first Century. It is a tract passed out to prisons and prisoners all over the country by an outfit called “Prisoners Bible Crusade” in Picayune, Mississippi. The writer is someone named Winfred Baker. He is a typical apostate Fundamentalist in the Alexandrian Cult parroting the clichés of Origen, Augustine, Jerome, Westcott, Zane Hodges, Schaff, Hymers, Kutilek, Sumner, Zodhiates, Wuest, Trench, Thayer, et al.

Baker tells the saved and unsaved prisoners in the cells: “The extremist view is espoused by men like Peter Ruckman who believes that the King James Bible is inspired IN THE SAME WAY as the original autographs were.” No documentation, no evidence, nothing researched, nothing studied, nothing analyzed. There is not one shred of evidence for such a statement.

It reminds one of a tractus on evolution where after giving you the two foundational truths believed by all evolutionists (that living animals come from dead, inorganic matter and that they will continually progress upward and onward automatically without any goal in mind), the author fails to give you one concrete case of such things happening from more than 50,000 experiments, observations, and “gathering of data.” The truth is, “spontaneous generation” and “perpetual motion” are not even subjects for sane men to discuss.

Winfred Baker continuing: “In fact in some instances (and he doesn’t give one “instance” out of 31,102 verses), these people believe the King James Bible actually corrected some supposed problems that existed in THE Greek text.” He didn’t name one of the “people,” he never listed one “supposed problem,” and he lied outright when he said

“THE Greek text.”

There is no such thing as “THE” Greek text. There are at least 24 of them, and we have listed their names and the dates when they were Continued on 6

(Part two of two)

In our last article, we examined wisdom that can only be found by reading and studying the Holy Scriptures. We showed you lessons you could learn from six Old Testament books that you wouldn’t pick up in any “institution of higher education.” In this installment, we take up the wisdom to be found in the New Testament, and for our examples we have picked the books of Romans and Revelation.

Let’s start with the book of Romans. What can you learn from it?

1. All sex perverts “are worthy of death”; that’s in the first chapter. Can you learn that in the average College? Of course not. Can you learn that at the world’s greatest meetings of the UN? Of course not.

2. The Body of Christ began before Paul was saved.

3. No Christian can lose salvation. If you learn that,

Some Recommended Reading

I seldom recommend books for sale. When I am reaching out to several thousand young men who need help with the authority of the King James Bible, I will recommend some of my own stuff. Throughout the years, I have published several lists of "recommended reading." We have one at the front of our Bookstore catalog, and the most recent one is found in the appendices of the Ruckman Reference Bible. In the catalog, I recommended five of my own works, and I think twelve made it into the reference Bible.

I have been pretty cautious about recommending books for a number of reasons. The main one is that most of them are not 100% sound, but there are a few that are. I recommend the works of Dennis Lloyd out of New Zealand. You can take anything he's got, and it'll be "right over the plate waist high." Then there is a man in England named Alan O'Reilly; any of the stuff he puts out on the King James Bible will be sound. Paul Heaton, one of our graduates up in Michigan, has put out some excellent works about a number of subjects in a King James Bible. You can trust any work by Hugh Pyle (recently deceased). The evangelistic pamphlets that John R. Rice put out before 1960 are also some good publications to use in soulwinning.

Just about anything Jack Chick puts out is good for soulwinning as well. Of course, he gets a little wild in a few of his works, but with the amount of material he has put out, his batting average is about 98%. When it comes to his tract evangelism, though, there is not an equal anywhere in the country. You can use any of his "Chick tracts" that are made for soulwinning anywhere at anytime and be sure they're true to the word of God. At times he'll slip a little bit on certain doctrines, but it won't be a bad slip that will deceive anyone or get them on the wrong road.

All of Gail Riplinger's works are good. Of course, her last two books have been of such a heavy nature that they'd only appeal to a scholar or teacher because only those kind of people would be able to understand about 50% of what's in them. But her book on New Age Bible Versions is a classic, and you can't go wrong with it on a single page. It's straight from start to finish.

What I am recommending here now is a new book by William Grady. Many, many years ago, Bro. Grady published a very fine work on the King James Bible entitled Final Authority. His other books are What Hath God Wrought! and How Satan Turned America Against God, and they're both solid on the King James and on doctrine. What Hath God Wrought! is a very interesting and thorough Biblical interpretation of American history; if it were taught in the public schools it would revolutionize the entire country within two years.

Grady's latest book is entitled Given By Inspiration, and it's as good as his book Final Authority. What Bro. Grady has done is go through the Bible and take about sixteen texts and preach sermons on the King James from them; the application is remarkable. In that book, you will find scores and scores of Scripture quotations, all of them in place teaching exactly what the text says, and many of them revealing things that hadn't been in print yet.

One of the greatest things about the book is a chapter in the center on "The Old Ship of Alexandria." In that chapter, he takes Acts 27 and turns it into a history of Bible revision. You've never heard such a thing in your life, but it is as straight as it can be from start to finish. It would be worthwhile buying the book just to get that one sermon.

He has a chapter on "How to Study the Bible" that has some good material in it. You can get more clear, sound, practical, Biblical material from that one chapter than you can from any modern book on the subject that you will pick up at your average Christian bookshop.

He has a chapter on "Seven Pillars in the House of Wisdom" which discusses the spiritual and practical fruits of believing the King James Bible. He has another larger chapter on "Nuggets from the English" which takes specific verses which reveal new truths that some of the brethren haven't found yet, and some of which could definitely be identified as advanced revelations. In his second chapter, he draws an interesting correlation between the seven churches of Revelation and then you will know more than a billion Moslems or 900 million Catholics know. As far as that goes, you would know more than any Hindu or Buddhist knows. No matter how many years they went to school, they wouldn't learn anything about that. A child of God who is saved cannot lose his salvation; he's eternally saved.

4. Israel will take over the world after God cuts the Gentiles down to nothing. Nobody in the UN knows that; the dumb, stupid Moslems think it's "Allah" conquering the world through them.

5. "All things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (Rom. 8:28).

6. Every saved sinner has two natures.

7. No child can go to Hell until he knows the nature of evil and sin, and the difference between good and evil.

8. Salvation is a free gift to mankind: it doesn't cost anything and can't be earned by works.

Wouldn't you call that a good bit of learning? Do you know where you got it? You got it from the One who told you to "search the scriptures": those are "the scriptures". That's why you were told all "wisdom and knowledge" are to be found in Jesus Christ (Col. 2:3). Colleges and Universities have nothing to do with it at all; they are not even connected with those two things unless they are giving you the Scriptures.

Take another example—the book of Revelation. It isn't very long when compared with the textbooks you get in College: it's only about twenty pages in length. Do you know what you can learn from the book of Revelation?

1. Everybody you know is going to die and face judgment after they're dead. The

One who is going to judge you is going to be the One who made you and gave you air to breathe the entire time you were here.

2. God is a bookkeeper, and His book either has your name in it or it doesn't.

3. In time, all dispensations end in apostasy, decay, degeneracy, and death until the New Heavens and New Earth are made. There isn't anybody working in astronomy or physics who teaches that at all unless he is one of those few "odd ducks" who believed the Book. No professor or teacher connected with the study of those subjects could get that even if he studies twenty more years: he would be just as dumb as he is now.

4. Every human being on this earth, when he becomes conscious of wanting things and searching for things, wants exactly the same thing, and they always have for 6,000 years. No scientist could tell you what it is because he is stupid; you'll learn it from reading Revelation chapter

21. Any human being on this earth who ever breathed and had consciousness of himself wanted exactly the same thing as any other human being on earth, and God provides it all in Revelation 21. Let's see you find that one in any College curriculum!

5. Death is the future of every human being on earth except those caught up at a rapture.

6. The Book of Life is superior to any set of Who's Who. If your name is not in the Book of Life, it doesn't matter whether your name is in Who's Who or "Who Dat?"; you are going to wind up in a Lake of Fire.

7. God's plan is the occupation of the constellations with perfect human beings. God has a plan to populate outer space with sinless beings, which was His original intention in Genesis 1–2.

Now there isn't one scholar with a master's degree or a Ph.D. that you ever met in your life—not one of them, including the saved ones—that knows that because they all went to the wrong place for "wisdom and knowledge." "Wisdom and knowledge" are hidden in Jesus Christ (Col. 2:3), and He told you to "search the scriptures" (John 5:39). He said that about the Scriptures given before He showed up here on this earth. He said about those Scriptures in His high priestly prayer to the Father: "thy word is truth" (John 17:17); David wrote: "Thy word is true from the beginning" (Psa. 119:160). Christ said: "the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life" (John 6:63).

You want an education? I can tell you how to get one. I can tell you how to be smarter than the smartest man who ever lived outside of Solomon and Jesus Christ Himself. Now what else can you learn from the book of Revelation?

8. There are 400 Old Testament prophecies that are yet to be fulfilled—and they are going to be fulfilled.

“The Outcasts of Israel”

has been found to be true by Truman, Carter, Clinton, and Obama and his Arab friends, to name a few. If you have any doubts about the truth of the Bible, just look at Israel.

Theodor Herzl, born in Hungary in 1860, moved to Paris in time to witness the Dreyfus affair in which a Jewish soldier was falsely accused of being a spy in 1895. Herzl listened to the French Roman Catholics scream not only for the death of Dreyfus, but the death of all Jews. He recognized right then that the answer to the Jewish problem was for the Jews to get away from the Gentiles and set up their own homeland.

In 1896, Herzl wrote Der Judenstaat (“The Jewish State”), which outlined the need and plans for a homeland. As he bargained and pleaded with European rulers for a Jewish homeland—even in the midst of considering an offer of Uganda as its site—he received a letter from a very unique and forgotten man named William E. Blackstone. The letter included a package with a marked-up Bible showing Herzl that the Scriptures pointed to Palestine, not Africa, as the Jews’ homeland.

Blackstone was a Bible-believing Christian in America with the heretical idea that the Bible had right divisions to it and meant what it said about the restoration of the Jews to their homeland. From 1862 onwards, a Bible-believing, dispensational teaching gained ground in America through John Nelson Darby, James Brookes, and Brooke’s disciple in St. Louis named C. I. Scofield. Blackstone was a student of Darby, and by 1887, he had written a book called Jesus is Coming in which he covered the necessity of a literal Jewish homeland as prophesied in the Bible. Later, he would have thousands of copies of this best-selling book scattered throughout Edom due to the weird idea that the Bible meant what it said about a future time when the Jews would run from the Antichrist in Jerusalem to Selah-Petra south of the Dead Sea as they awaited their true Messiah.

In 1891, Blackstone wrote out a petition calling for the Jewish homeland. This petition was presented to President Benjamin Harrison and was signed by over 400 men, including the Mayors of Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and Washington, D.C.; as well as J. P. Morgan, John D. Rockefeller, Cyrus McCormick, D. L. Moody, and many Senators and Congressmen. The petition would later become known as the “Blackstone Memorial.” It was ignored by President Harrison, though not by President Woodrow Wilson years later in 1916. It appears the petition partly influenced Wilson’s decision to let the British government know that the USA was in full support of the Balfour Declaration of 1917, which allowed for a Jewish homeland in Palestine.

Blackstone helped found the Chicago Hebrew Mission for the evangelization of Jews to Christ. In 1918, Blackstone was invited to speak at a Zionist meeting in Los Angeles due to his tireless efforts to “bless them that bless thee” (Gen.

12:3). At that meeting, he had the audacity to have an altar call and ask Jews to receive Christ as their personal Saviour. Needless to say, he was never invited to another meeting like that.

Back to Theodor Herzl. In 1897, after convening the first Zionist Congress in Switzerland, he said, “I have founded the Jewish State today . . . if not in five years, then in fifty years, everyone will know that I am right.” Almost fifty years later to the day, the British were frantically trying to rid themselves of “a burdensome stone” and “a cup of trembling” called Jerusalem.

In 1949, Israel’s first Prime Minister, David Ben Gurion, declared the modern State of Israel. One of the most important pieces of prophecy regarding the Second Coming of Jesus Christ took place right there. What was going on in America? Doesn’t matter.

Israel’s Judges and Prime Ministers

A message delivered by Associate Pastor Brian Donovan in the Sunday evening service of Bible Baptist Church. In this study, Bro. Donovan draws a comparison between the chronology of the judges of Israel in the Bible and the Prime Ministers of the modern State of Israel. He then shows its prophetic significance in regards to the coming of the Antichrist and Jesus.

STUDENT'S CORNER

"No Fundamental Doctrine Affected"

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

The Alexandrian Cult's alibi for destroying the English text of the Protestant Reformation was that "all the new versions (233 of them since 1880) still contain the fundamental doctrines of Christianity; you can still find the 'fundamentals of the faith' in any of the new Bibles" (see the work by James White, The King James Only Controversy, 1995—KJ-1746 @ $15.99). That is their Satanic alibi for destroying the Holy Bible and getting rid of it. It has three flaws which they will not mention.

1. You can find the "fundamentals" in all kinds of things that aren't Bibles. You can find the "fundamentals" listed in a Gospel tract; that doesn't make it a Bible. You can find the "fundamentals" in the Apostles' Creed recited by thousands of Catholics and Episcopalians who are just as lost as a goose in a horse race.

You can find a dollar bill in a dumpster and a diamond ring in a sewer. What does that prove? It means that a man who calls a dumpster a "bank" or a sewer a "jewelry store" is crippled too high for crutches; he needs to settle down in a "rubber room" on a "funny farm." But that's exactly what all "good, godly" Christian scholars do when they tell the Body of Christ that the new translations should be read and believed because they "contain the fundamentals." You can find every "fundamental of the Christian faith" in my books on Theological Studies, but Theological Studies is not a Bible any more than a sewer is a jewelry store or a dumpster is a bank.

You're dealing with Christian "potheads." You say, "Who?" Why, they all confess that position. The following men take exactly the same position that James White took: Bruce Metzger, Bob Jones III, Stewart Custer, John Ankerberg, Arthur Farstad, Curtis Hutson, Ed Dobson, Chuck Swindoll, Zane Hodges, Harold Willmington, James Combs, and 309 others (see our work The Christian Liars Library).

2. The new versions use the exact same manuscripts

(Sinaiticus and Vaticanus) as the New World Translation of the Jehovah's Witnesses. None of the men listed above would recommend the NWT because "it attacks the Deity of Christ," but the Jehovah's Witness "Bible" gives the exact doctrinal statement on the Deity of Christ in John 1:18 that you find in the NASV recommended by Bob Jones University, John Ankerberg, John R. Rice, Regent College, Bobby Ross, and James White. John 1:18 in the NASV and the NIV is pure Jehovah's Witness doctrine.

You see, their thinking is sick. They can't think; when they speak, they are unable to think before they speak. They just start shooting off their mouths hoping you're not really hearing what they're saying. The alibi that "no single fundamental of the faith is destroyed or lost in the new versions" doesn't mean anything if you the books of Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, and Judges. Chapter 4 contains a sermon he preached at Crown College on "Pseudo-King James Onlyism" (i.e., men and schools who claim to believe the KJV but don't. It's the same old song and dance: they use the AV without believing it). In that same chapter, Grady has a very revealing critique of Ed Reese's Chronological Encyclopedia of Christian Biographies (which we sell here at the Bookstore for some of the information it contains), and Grady will give you a list of the great Christians in history that Reese ignored (e.g., the KJV translators whom Reese omitted from his "Encyclopedia" in favor of people like Johnny Cash, Colonel Harlan Sanders [Kentucky Fried Chicken], and Martin Luther King Jr.).

Bro. Grady has much more in the book which I think you will enjoy. I add this book to the list of sixty other works you will find listed in Appendix 27 of the Ruckman Reference Bible ("The Bible Believer's Bibliography") as required reading for a Bible-believing Christian. It is Given by Inspiration by Dr. William Grady, and the book is now available from the Bible Baptist Bookstore (KJ-1820 @ $19.95).

Teaching Prisoners to Deny the Bible

Continued from 1 published at least four times in print in the last forty years. "THE" Greek text is about as authentic as the "Immaculate Conception" or "the God" referring to "Allah" (see our work Will the Real Allah Please Stand Up?).

"THE" Greek text and "THE" Hebrew text don't exist. What he meant was SOME Greek text and SOME Hebrew text. He either just lied or was just plain stupid.

The writer for the Prisoners "Bible" (dig that!) Crusade concludes from the lie above (backed up with no evidence pro or con) that Ruckman teaches the world was without a "Bible" until 1611. That is the godless crap that a minister is passing out to imprisoned sinners.

Now here are the Scriptural FACTS which we believe and preach, and they are exactly as they have appeared in 200 articles in the Bible Believers' Bulletin (see vols. 1-3 of Twenty-two years of the Bible Believers' Bulletin).

There is not one verse in either Testament that says the "original autographs" were the only Scriptures that were "inspired." There is not one verse in either Testament that says ANY "original autograph" was inspired. If that had been true, then some "Scriptures" were inspired and some were not.

For example, all apostate Fundamentalists swear that NO TRANSLATION could be "inspired." If that be the case, then there are 150 verses in the New Testament that could not have been "given by inspiration," even in the "original autographs," for the original autographs of 150 verses were TRANSLATIONS from a different language. Thus, Winfred Baker, the author of the Prisoner Bible Crusade tract, has himself denied 150 verses in the "original autographs" of the New Testament. He did it through sheer laziness and stupidity. The fact is that more than 150 verses in any New Testament are translations in Greek of Hebrew Old Testament passages. Baker denied all 150 of them. That is the tract from the Prisoners "Bible" Crusade.

Secondly, where did Baker get that lying rubbish about the AV being "inspired in the same way that the originals were inspired"? He got it from the same place that R. L. Hymers got the teaching that Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Noah, David, Solomon, Hezekiah, Samson, Gideon, Ruth, Samuel, Josiah, and Moses were all "born again"—out of Tinkerbell's left pocket.

Second Peter 1:21 was not a reference to the WRITING of any "holy men of God"; it was a reference to what "holy men of God" SPOKE. Look at the verse.

"For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God SPAKE as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

Since 1850, all Bible-denying, Laodicean apostates have altered every Greek manuscript extant by changing the word "spake" to "wrote" in order to prove a heresy: the heresy that only the "original autographs" were the work of the Holy Ghost. Winfred Baker was just as ROTTEN as any of them in that regard. It is an "historic position" (i.e., since 1850) that marks every apostate who made the alteration. The writer of the Prisoners Bible Crusade's material says his source for accepting and teaching this heresy was the lectures he got on "the Bible issue" given at Pensacola Christian College (Arlin Horton, Dell Johnson, and Theodore Letis)—"Cowbirds of a feather nest together."

Now, according to Ruckman, the word "scripture" in 2 Timothy 3:16 in any "Scripture," in any language, printed by anyone, is NEVER a reference to a single "original autograph" anyone wrote anywhere at any time. Check out any New Testament reference to the words "scripture" or "scriptures" to spot this despicable liar. Winfred Baker is simply calling the prisoners' attention to HIMSELF as a judge of the King James text.

Contradicting what he just said, Baker closes his "theology" for prisoners by saying that he believes that "the Bible"—unidentified as Greek, Hebrew, or any of the 233 other English versions put out since 1880—has been "PRE-SERVED IN THE FORM OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE." Which means what?

Did you mean to say the "Scripture" has been preserved? Did you just substitute the word "Bible," even though the word Bible was NOT the word found in 2 Timothy 3:16 for INSPIRED SCRIPTURE? What's the matter? Cat got your tongue, sonny?

Did you mean the WORDS of God when you said "Bible"? I thought "the Bible" was 66 books with words in them. Did you forget to say "the WORDS

 9. There are three world wars that will be fought after 2010, and the last two of those wars will not be nations fighting nations. The last two world wars that take place after 2010 will be between God and His creation: “man” is going to “take on God.” He is preparing to do so right now by throwing His Bible, His Son, and prayers to Him out of the education of his children. Very shortly God is going to “take him on.”

Now those are just some of the lessons you can learn from reading some of the books in the Bible; there is much, much more. As a matter of fact, after going through that Book more than 150 times, I would say that if a man could learn how to read and can get ahold of a Bible (and these days, if you can't read, you can listen to the Bible on tape or CD), he would have in that Book everything he needs to learn about how to live and how to die, without going to any school anywhere.

If you are going to go to school, you ought to learn how to read, and if you learn how to read, you ought to read what God wrote and gave to you. Of course, there will be some places in the Bible where you have to be able to use a dictionary and look up some things, but if you learn how to read the Bible in your own language—say at the equivalent of a sixth-grade level—you would have at your disposal and for your use everything you would ever need to know about the essentials of life. You would know how to grow up, how to eat properly, how to drink properly, how to work properly, how to use your spare time properly, how to worship God, whether to get married or stay single, how to raise children, how to be a bachelor or young maid, how to be a leader, how to be a follower, how to work, how long to work, how to work outdoors or indoors, how long to rest, what to do with money, what not to do with money, how to pray, to whom to pray, how to give, how to get, how to exercise, how to enjoy life, how to stay clean mentally and morally, how to save money, how to spend money, where to go and what to do when you get there, what to say and when to keep your mouth shut, how to win other people to the truth of God, how to prepare for death, how to face death, how to conquer death, how to live forever, and how to live forever happy with God's favor.

Now if that isn't enough for a human being, then tell me what is. That is the highest education you can get. Any man who can read sixth-grade English could learn more about human nature in one reading of the book of Genesis or the book of Romans than he possibly could in getting a “major” in psychiatry or psychology from any five Universities in America. Any man who carefully reads the books of Ecclesiastes and Proverbs has access to more information that deals with reality and truth than any Ph.D. in Social Studies, the Humanities, Economics, or Political Science.

“The Outcasts of Israel”

What was happening on Wall Street? Insignificant. What was the price of gasoline? Useless trivia.

What did happen in America was that, in the 1920s, the Lord moved a Jewish immigrant family from the lower east side of Manhattan to St. Louis, Missouri, where a partnership could form between a Jew named Jacobson and a future president of the United States. The result would be that Harry Truman would be favorably disposed toward the Jewish people, so that, in 1949, when Ben Gurion declared the Jewish State, Truman would go completely against the advice of his State Department and CIA (whose “superior” intelligence reports told Truman the Jews would be a puppet Communist State within three years) by publicly declaring the USA’s support of the fledgling nation of Israel. In that one statement, Truman did more for the United States interests than the combined efforts of Carter, the Clintons, both Bushs, and today’s figurehead.

Do you doubt the Bible? Look at Israel.

As soon as Ben Gurion made his announcement, the Arab world went ballistic and attacked Israel with superior military strength, with the goal of “driving every last Jew into the Mediterranean Sea.” Against those ridiculous odds, Israel defeated her enemies from Egypt, Jordan, Syria, and Lebanon. Being a secular Jew and not much of a Bible reader, Ben Gurion gave credit to the resourcefulness of his people and no glory to God.

Some years later, the Arabs would rearm and try again. In 1967, with Egyptian tanks getting ready in the Sinai (and American intelligence agents “asleep at the wheel”), Prime Minister Levi Eshkol “pulled the trigger” and, in a preemptive strike, wiped out Mohamed’s killers within six days.

By 1973, Israel had a woman Prime Minister—Golda Meir. She sat among the United Nations and silently wondered: “Why are we so alone? Why are we so hated with no one to fall back on? WHY? WHY? WHY?” Being a secular Jew with no God and no Bible, the poor soul never got her answer.

Her State was attacked by surprise that year on Yom Kippur. With grim losses and possible surrender at hand, the tiny nation once again turned the tide against all the odds. Within three weeks of the initial attack, the Arabs were crying for a cease fire. An American Jew (Henry Kissinger) pressured the Israeli army to back off from completely destroying the Egyptian Third Army; due to “American intelligence,” Kissinger told Israel that if they did not back off and give Sinai back to Egypt, Russia would enter the war and cause World War III.

Some years later, a Southern Baptist American President with delusions of grandeur (Jimmy Carter) declared he would bring peace to the Middle East. He called the Israeli Prime Minister at that time, Menachem Begin, over to America to meet with him. Probably just by coincidence, Begin’s home Bible study that week was on Numbers 21–23. He became particularly interested in the prophecy of Balaam in the last half of Numbers 23:9—“lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.” He was told by one Hebrew “expert” that the verb was in the reflexive form and should read: “this is a people that does not reckon itself among the nations” (as if the problem was the Jewish people themselves refusing to get along with the Gentile nations). Another “expert” informed Begin that the Hebrew root of the verb means “to conspire” and really should read: “this people dwells alone and does not conspire among the nations” (in other words, it’s not the Jews’ fault at all; they just mind their own business). But another person in the Bible study claimed that the passage marked the Jews as “eternally abnormal,” and any attempts to “normalize” them politically were doomed to fail.

THIS addition to the Biblical and historical studies shows the spiritual decline of Israel from the prophets of the Old Testament to the Reformed and Orthodox theology of today. At the same time, Dr. Ruckman traces how God has restored Israel to its present political state (and beyond) in fulfillment to His promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Possibly the most unusual book Dr. Ruckman has ever written.

The research behind this book is greater than any previous work, with the exception of his two-volume work on Church History.

“The Outcasts Of Israel”

Begin, who was not merely a secular Jew but a Bible reader, came to a great conclusion: the Jews were outcasts. They were a special people who cannot fit in with multicultural, multinational, multi-religious peoples like the Gentiles. Begin found the answer about which Golda Meir wondered and never saw; the Bible had it all along. If the Jews ceased to dwell alone, they would cease to be Jews.

Armed with that truth, the Lord got Begin ready to meet with the peanut man from Georgia. Begin and his men told Carter and his men that, to start with, Arafat's message at the UN was a farce and void of facts. While Secretary of State Cyrus Vance scratched his head and wondered at those things, the Jewish entourage presented the American President with something he did not want nor could handle: the truth.

Quoting from Mark Twain's 1867 book Innocents Abroad, the Americans were shown that Palestine was a wasteland without villages or country at that time. These facts flew in the face of Arafat's depiction of a continuous Palestinian nation for thousands of years. The American delegation threw out the facts, and that has been the course of American diplomacy with Israel for the last thirty years (with the exception of Reagan). Refusing to call the territory the Palestinians wanted the “West Bank,” Begin told Carter that it was Judea and Samaria. The media liars refuse to call it by its historical name, and they continue to refer to a huge chunk of land as a “bank.”

Today, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu is pressured by the American figurehead to give up more land for “peace” (Gaza was not enough). America pressures Israel to wait on Iran as they build nuclear capability. Why should Israel worry? After all, American intelligence is on the job, as well as a UN monitoring group. And all the while, all through 2010, the nuclear buildup continued right into the hands of men bent on the destruction of every Jew.

Do you doubt the truth of the Bible? Look at Israel. When Daniel was given the vision of the “latter days” (Dan. 10:14) in chapters 10–11, he was shown the connection to “the prince of Persia” (Dan. 10:13, 20)—Persia is Iran. The vision of the coming Tribulation time was so horrible that Daniel physically collapsed (Dan. 10:8–9).

The fig tree has put forth leaves, and according to your Saviour: “it [the Second Coming] is near, even at the doors” (Matt. 24:33). The Jews are back in their homeland, and the Gentile world hates them. Anti-Semitism is at its highest point in history.

The Church of Jesus Christ will be caught out before “the time of Jacob's trouble” (Jer. 30:70), but I would not count out some hard times ahead for Bible believers. Jesus sent His disciples out into a storm on the Sea of Galilee while He went “into a mountain to pray” (Mark 6:46). He knew all about the coming storm, and He sent them into it anyway. He showed up in “the fourth watch of the night . . . and would have passed by” (Mark 6:48) until they called out (Mark 6:49). Perhaps the coming storm will only end with the Bride calling out and looking for her Groom's return. Are you looking? Maybe your willingness to “receive Him into the ship” (John 6:21) is what predicates the Rapture.

Do you doubt the truth of the Bible? Look at Israel. “He gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.”

This book describes the WAR OF REBELLION against the scholars who have ditched the King James Bible and who have held the Body of Christ in bondage to their opinions and preferences, now, for over a hundred years.

Using anecdotes from military history, Dr. Ruckman illustrates the battle he has fought against Christian scholarship for nearly fifty-four years.

The purpose of this book is to get the Christian soldier to think and act in a disciplined manner so he can “WAR a good WARFARE” in the battle for the truth.

"No Fundamental Doctrine Affected"

3. The new translations attack the "fundamentals of the faith" in as many places as they "don't affect" them. Many years ago, a Bible teacher in Pennsylvania named Paul Freeman wrote a book called Bible Doctrines Affected by New Modern Translations. James Son of Lubbock, Texas wrote another one just like that to prove that somewhere in the new versions a slap was taken at every single major truth that a Bible believer is supposed to believe. We sell the work here at the Bookstore; it is entitled The New Athenians (KJ-1740 @ $11.95). Son shows how all the modern versions attack major Bible doctrines without eliminating all the references that deal with them.

That is one of the "devices" of "Satan" which are known to the true Christian (2 Cor. 2:11). The Devil sees to it that "a little leaven"—not a pile of it—is given to leaven "the whole lump" (Gal. 5:9). Any being who is as subtle as the Devil (see Gen. 3:1) is not going to eradicate any "fundamental" COMPLETELY.

Listen, no bushel of rotten apples can be sold with rotten apples on top of the bushel; it has to have a few good ones on top to cover up the bad ones underneath. Now who doesn't know that but the revision committees that promoted the ASV, RV, RSV, NRSV, NASV, NIV, etc.; and the faculties and staffs of Pensacola Christian College, Bob Jones University, Baptist Bible College, Liberty University, Crown College, and the Seminaries at Dallas, Chicago, Fort Worth, Denver, New Orleans, and Louisville?

Let me give you fifteen examples of what I'm talking about. Would that be enough? That's nearly twice the number Hort gave you as the basis for changing the Bible in 36,000 (NASV) to 64,000 (NIV) places (Hort gave you eight verses from the Gospels as the basis for his revised Greek text which is the text for all the new versions). Here are fifteen good examples of how fundamental Bible doctrines are Satanically "affected" in the new "Bibles" WITHOUT BEING DESTROYED.

1. Matthew 5:22. Once you remove "without a cause," you imply Jesus Christ was a sinner (cf. Mark 3:5). He wasn't (Heb. 4:15), and no depraved "godly" scholar has any business implying that He was.

2. Matthew 6:13. When you remove the ending of the verse, you've taken the glory from God for bringing a literal, physical, Jewish kingdom on this earth ("in earth, as it is in heaven"—Matt. 6:10). You have made the "Lord's Prayer" end with a reference to Satan, sin, and evil instead of a Jewish Kingdom with a Judean "King of the Jews" on David's throne.

3. Matthew 19:17. The new translations totally erase the reference to the Deity of Christ by replacing "Why callest thou me good?" with a "stale crumb of Greek philosophy" (the "Sunnum Bonum"—the "Supreme Good"): "Why ask-est thou me concerning the good?" The Deity of Christ is the first "fundamental of the faith" according to all Fundamentalists.

4. Mark 1:2. By altering "prophets" (as in Malachi and Isaiah) to just "Isaiah" (who did not author the quotation of vs. 2), the Deity of Christ was obscured. The quote of verse 2 is from Malachi 3:1. Malachi said that the "thy" and "thee" of Mark 1:2 was Jehovah (see "me" in Mal. 3:1, referring to "the LORD of hosts"). Thus, a direct attack on the Deity of Jesus Christ was accomplished by purposely lying about the source of the quotation.

Want some more? Let's try 1 Timothy 3:16; John 3:13; and 1:18; 2 Timothy 2:15; Matthew 22:30 and 26:28; Mark 4:24 and 10:24; Luke 2:33 and 4:4; and Colossians 1:14.

5. 1 Timothy 3:16. Another attack on the Deity of Christ and the Incarnation. In the new "Bibles," Jesus Christ is no longer "God . . . manifest in the flesh"; He is simply "He who was manifest in the flesh" (see the NASV reading).

6. John 3:13. The only reference in the New Testament to Christ's omnipresence. The key words "which is in heaven" are missing from all new translations. None of them can show you this basic fundamental doctrinal truth in any other verse.

7. 2 Timothy 2:15. Only the King James has the proper reading commanding you to "study" the word of God and telling you how to do it. No other "Bible" wants you to study the Bible; the word "study" has been removed from the new "Bibles" as well as the command to "search the scriptures" in John 5:39. "One can find every fundamental of the Christian faith in any new Bible," can he? Well, isn't the command to study the Bible a "fundamental"? Do you mean to tell me that it's not? That is exactly what these depraved idiots are telling you.

8. Matthew 22:30. What is "of God" doing missing from the texts of the modern versions? The angels that are not "of God" fell in Genesis 6:1–4 (cf. 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6) and will fall again (Rev. 12:7–9). Do you mean to tell me those blockheads thought the Devil didn't have any angels (see Matt. 25:41)?

9. Matthew 26:28. Why is the word "new" absent from the new translations? Do you mean to tell me Christ's blood did not institute a new testament (Heb. 9:14–15)? You don't think that affects a fundamental of New Testament faith?

“No Fundamental Doctrine Affected”

10. Mark 4:24. It is a Biblical truth that if you seek the truth and respond correctly to the truth, you'll be given more truth (see John 7:17, 3:21). That being the case, what was the reason for eliminating “and unto you that hear shall more be given”? You don't consider the key to revelation a “fundamental of the faith”?

11. Mark 10:24. Why do the new versions want to teach you that you can trust in riches and “enter the kingdom of God” as long as you don't have them (cf. Mark 10:23)? It is “the love of money” that destroys sinners (1 Tim. 6:10), not having money. (The new versions change that last reference too. Now who would want to erase both the truth in Mark 10:24 as well as the one in 1 Timothy 6:10? Yes, I wonder who.)

12. Luke 2:33. An attack on the Virgin Birth. That's not Mary trying to protect her son's honor; that's the Holy Spirit giving you the facts of Christ's lineage. If you change the verse to “his father and his mother,” you deny the virgin birth and have Christ “born of fornication” (John 8:41).

13. Luke 4:4. Who is it that doesn't believe you need “every word of God”? Easy: the dirty, God-forsaken, destructive critics who altered 36,000–64,000 words in the Holy Scriptures. But “no fundamental of the faith” was destroyed, you understand.

14. John 1:18. What are two gods doing in an NASV and an NIV? That's a Jehovah's Witness doctrine. In those versions there is one God that is a begotten God and another one who is not begotten. Count 'em: two “Gods.” Why, that is the Arian heresy from A.D. 325. No one can “beget” God. The orthodox Trinitarian statement for 1,800 years was “one God manifest in three persons”; not one begotten God and one unbegotten God. Why, that's polytheism as taught by the Jehovah's Witnesses. And you don't think that concerns a “fundamental of the faith”?

15. Colossians 1:14. The new “Bibles” got rid of “through his blood” when that is the only way you can get “redemption.” “Redemption” is not “remission” according to Exodus 34:7; Hebrews 9:15; and Romans 3:25. Not one scholar connected with the outfit about which we are talking had enough sense to read a King James Bible in third-grade language.

Now there are fifteen cases that show you how fundamental Bible doctrines are “affected” by messing with Satanic garbage. True, no “fundamental of the faith” has been erased or totally destroyed, but why settle for leavened crap when you can get the pure words of God (Psa. 12:6–7)? Only in the King James Authorized Version can you get the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth which cannot be found in all the rest of the apostate trash on the market.

The fundamentals are found in the Apostles' Creed recited in the Catholic, Anglican, and Reformed churches. What does that mean? Absolutely nothing. Sure, you can find the fundamentals in an ASV, RSV, NRSV, NASV, NIV, ESV, etc.; but what does that mean? Not a cotton-picking thing on the face of this earth, man.

In the new versions you are not “accepted in the beloved” (Eph. 1:6), no unsaved dead have to “stand before God” (Rev. 20:12), you don't have to love God (1 John 4:19), you don't get eternal life (1 Tim. 6:19), you can have fellowship with carnal, money-grubbing Christians (1 Tim. 6:5), it's all right to be greedy for money (1 Tim. 3:3), and you get grace and peace from Paul instead of God (1 Thess. 1:1). But you can still “find all the fundamentals,” can you? Sure, kid. Now vacate the premises. Skedaddle!

Who on this earth, saved or lost, would need such “light” thrown out of the Scriptures by “older and better manuscripts” unless he was a half-crazy, slobbering Charismatic in a straight jacket? In 2011, only one English Bible is left on this earth that contains the TRUTH, the WHOLE truth, and NOTHING BUT the truth, and it is not any English Bible published since 1880. Why settle for less?

Well, you will if you are either proud or fear man or fear ridicule or have your income (sales, attendance, enrollment, tithe, etc.) tied up in such garbage, or if you are just plain stupid or demon-possessed. Put on the shoe that fits.

 death, beaten to death, buried alive, and injected with poison.

The camp was soon to be liquidated, and they wanted all the evidence to be burned." The condition, then, of the UN and the news media before the Second Coming of Christ and the White Throne Judgment would match Treblinka—a German concentration camp (cf. 2 Thess. 1:8–9; 2 Pet. 3:10).

You should understand that the atmosphere of that "town" was one where its inhabitants were underweight, undernourished, completely demoralized, under airtight control, and working as slave laborers. Children, relatives, and friends were being murdered before their eyes, and in addition to this, they were being forced to kill and beat their own people while waiting for their own deaths.

Steiner writes about the conditions: "While killing continued, the graves and ditches were being emptied of bodies going up in smoke. The stench of death was filling the camp to its outward perimeter, and the men were still taken in and out of the ranks at random and shot just to get rid of them. Everyone kept up his spirits in the hope of deceiving himself or others. Optimism had become compulsory at Treblinka."

There it is—compulsory positive thinking. There it is like a dead shrimp in the sunlight. That's the "power of positive thinking" and "possibility thinking." In such a situation, optimism is compulsory.

"Before the end," says Steiner, "the men had a desperate need for merrymaking and pleasure [see James 5:13; Matt. 24:38]. Men slowly dying of hunger built a city bursting with music and frenzied laughter [What! Like Los Angeles, Las Vegas, New York, or Miami?]. While they transported and burned bodies and killed each other and gassed their relatives, they sang, danced, and played under German supervision [like rock concerts under the supervision of CBS, NBC, and ABC]."

Steiner says, "The women were now strolling half naked in the yard while the prisoners joked." Is he talking about the stuff shown on ABC, CBS, and NBC; or is he talking about Miami, Houston, Pensacola, Tampa, and Fort Myers?

"It was in this atmosphere [that] the last ditch was opened which contained 10,000 corpses." What was the "atmosphere" of this decay, putrefaction, death, and annihilation?

Teaching Prisoners to Deny the Bible

of God have been inspired"? Why didn't you say that? Getting a little "addled" in your old age, are you, sonny?

Oh, I see! You just lost whatever you called your "Bible" long enough to forget what it said about God's WORDS. Shall we Bible believers remind you (and your cell mates)?

"Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my WORDS shall not pass away" (Matt. 24:35).

"It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the WORDS that I speak unto you, THEY are spirit, and THEY are life" (John 6:63).

"He that is of God heareth God's WORDS: ye therefore hear THEM not, because ye are not of God" (John 8:47).

And how could you possibly have overlooked Ruckman's definition of "given by inspiration," which occurs in all of his writings that deal with that subject. For fifty years, when dealing with the DOCTRINE of Inspiration (and don't run to something pulled out of a sermon on our love for the Book), "Ruckman" went by the King James Version's definition of "given by inspiration." He did NOT go by the Princeton, Dallas, Louisville, Edinburgh, New Orleans, or Fort Worth Seminaries' definition (i.e., "all Scripture is inspired").

Ruckman said it was "given" by means of God breathing on it, and then he defined what he meant by that from the King James Scripture.

"And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul" (Gen. 2:7).

"But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding" (Job 32:8).

"Again he said unto me,

Prophesy unto these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live" (Ezek. 37:4-6; see also vs. 7-10).

It was the Bible—and when I say "the Bible," I mean "the Book" of the Scriptures—that was breathed on after it was completed (like Adam and the dry bones). The "originals" no more had to match it word for word than the book of Jeremiah did its original (Jer. 36:32); Baker couldn't even discuss such a thing in his tract. What mattered was : did the KJV have the BREATH OF GOD on it where you could count on EVERY WORD IN IT being SCRIPTURE in the universal language of the end time—English?

Following the SOP of all apostates (including Crown College, Hyles-Anderson College, and Pensacola Christian College), the title chosen for the tract was: "What Bible Should I Use?". No one involved in the writing, publication, or distribution of the tract believed ANY Bible was Scripture (as in 2 Tim. 3:16). They just used Bibles. "The Bible" is not a pile of lost manuscripts; it is a BOOK ('O Biblios'—the Book).

All apostates are pragmatic humanists; that is, they use Bible versions, but they believe in their own scholarship and their scholarly buddies (see The Christian Liars' Library). This is why for over sixty years now we have corrected them, their teachers, their role models, their mentors, their writings, their teachings, and their stupidity. And while we were at it, we also corrected their Greek and Hebrew texts where necessary, since all the apostates agree that none of them were "inspired." And above all, we never hesitate one moment to correct them with a Book that God gave us "by inspiration" (2 Tim. 3:16).

That is "the extremist view espoused by men like Peter Ruckman." We are Bible believers. We believe the Bible because we know what "the Bible" is. We do not just "use" it; we BELIEVE it. And we are not in the least bashful about letting the world know it.

(Editor's note: For what Dr. Ruckman teaches about the King James Bible being "inspired in the same way as the original autographs were" in his own words, we recommend you read chapter 39 in Theological Studies, Vol. 2.)

The Present State of the Nation

2. False optimism.
3. Singing and dancing.
4. Jokes.
5. Self-deception about the true condition.
6. Slavery.
7. Killing, dying, and burning.

Do you know what that is? That's the future of America, England, Germany, France, Spain, etc., coming up.

You pretend that the dying will stop, and it won't. You fill your mind with plea- sure and amusement to keep your mind off the reality of death which comes on anyway: it comes because of sin. You increase your work and your efforts hoping something positive will be accomplished—it will not. You conduct yourself as any Jewish inmate of a concentration camp who lives in a slave system: you pretend you are free when you're not; and then you kill yourself with work, pleasure, or both; and then you burn.

When Steiner wrote Tre- blinka, he gave the neatest world history of the Twentieth and Twenty-first Centuries that you will ever read. He confined his description to one year in one small location of one small city—Treblinka, Poland. He never knew what he really wrote—before, during, or after he wrote it. Neither did 95% of his readers.

What Steiner wrote is what happens to every country or nation that throws the Bible out the window: it is left to its madness—positive, optimistic madness. That is the content of “the heart of the sons of men” coming to full bloom according to the wisest man who ever lived (see Eccl. 9:3).

THE CREED OF THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT

1. There is no final authority but God.
2. Since God is a Spirit, there is no final authority that can be seen, heard, read, felt, or handled.
3. Since all books are material, there is no book on this earth that is the final and absolute authority on what is right and what is wrong, what constitutes truth and what constitutes error.
4. There WAS a series of writings one time which, IF they had all been put into a BOOK as soon as they were written the first time, WOULD HAVE constituted an infallible and final authority by which to judge truth and error.
5. However, this series of writings was lost, and the God who inspired them was unable to preserve their content through Bible-believing Christians at Antioch (Syria), where the first Bible teachers were (Acts 13:1), and where the first missionary trip originated (Acts 13:1-52), and where the word “Christian” originated (Acts 11:26).
6. So God chose to ALMOST preserve them through Gnostics and philosophers from Alexandria, Egypt, even though God called His Son OUT of Egypt (Matthew 2), Jacob OUT of Egypt (Genesis 49), Israel OUT of Egypt (Exodus 15), and Joseph's bones OUT of Egypt (Exodus 13).
7. So there are two streams of Bibles. The most accurate—though, of course, there is no final, absolute authority for determining truth and error; it is a matter of “preference”—are the Egyptian translations from Alexandria, Egypt, which are “almost the originals,” although not quite.
8. The most inaccurate translations were those that brought about the German Reformation (Luther, Zwingli, Boehler, Zinzen-dorf, Spener, et al.) and the worldwide missionary movement of the English-speaking people: the Bible that Sunday, Torrey, Moody, Finney, Spurgeon, Whitefield, Wesley, and Chapman used.
9. But we can “tolerate” these if those who believe in them will “tolerate” US. After all, since there is NO ABSOLUTE AND FINAL AUTHORITY that anyone can read, teach, preach, or handle, the whole thing is a matter of “PREFERENCE.” You may prefer what you prefer, and we will prefer what we prefer. Let us live in peace, and if we cannot agree on anything or everything, let us all agree on one thing: THERE IS NO FINAL, ABSOLUTE, WRITTEN AUTHORITY OF GOD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH.

This is the Creed of the Alexandrian Cult.

The Present State of the Nation

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

The present condition of America can be found in a classic, definitive work on "Jews versus Germans." It was written in 1966 by Jean-Francois Steiner (a French writer), and it was published by Simon and Schuster. It dealt with Treblinka, a concentration camp built and operated in World War II.

Steiner's work gives the record of Treblinka about thirty to ninety days before the Jews revolted and broke out of the camp. The revolt was carried out by men who had been marked for death and knew that unless they left some legacy of resistance to mass genocide, the world would never even know what had taken place at Treblinka—and something certainly had taken place.

Do you know what is so contemporary about Treblin-ka? Well, it's simple. America and the rest of the world are about to enter a holocaust to end all holocausts. That's according to the opinion of Jesus Christ, as given in Matthew 24:21. The Gentile nations are about to be wiped out according to the schedule given in Jeremiah 30:11, before new heavens and a new earth obliterate all trace and all evidence of man's madness and killing which has gone on since 4000 B.C. (see 2 Pet. 3:10-13).

In the last days of Treblinka, the Germans were preparing to eradicate not only all the prisoners but the site at which the camp was located so that nobody would ever find out what happened there. The Germans had gone so far as to have dug up 70,000 corpses which had been gassed and buried. Those corpses were being cremated at the rate of a thousand a day. While doing this, the Germans were bringing in fertilizer and planting grass on the areas that had been trampled down by 800,000 pairs of feet; they were preparing to plow under other places so as not to leave one speck or shred of evidence that a killing ground had ever existed.

During this time the Jews were kept in line with a whole fake town being erected. The Jews participated in sports; orchestras were assembled; women were brought in so that "marriages" could take place. The extermination camp became a false village that burst with normal activity "while the killings went on at the rate of 1,000 every day."

Steiner's words for this chaotic operation are very instructive. "It was July. Treblinka was one year old. Born out of chaos, Treblinka was sinking into madness." According to Solomon, this is the natural condition of all unsaved men (see Eccl. 9:3 in a King James Bible).

The German "technicians" in charge of the cremation of the corpses learned that fat corpses burned better and that babies and children should be burned first. Steiner says, "The man who did the burning was mad himself." He was crazy.

As the streets of the so-called "town" were laid out, they were equipped with signs. A fake train depot was erected with a fake lot and dressing rooms. Shops showed up; "bars and bath rooms" were installed in the SS buildings to make the place look civilized. The only problem was that a thousand people a day were still being shot to death, gassed to death, burned to
