Never the “Original Autographs”

In this 400th anniversary year of the King James Bible, I thought you might like to hear what some famous men throughout its history have had to say about it. The thing to keep in mind about each of these statements is that in none of them is the person talking about the “original autographs” or the “original manuscripts.” Every one of them is talking about the English Bible he held in his hands and read on a regular basis: the King James Authorized Version of 1611.

Here is the “Father of our country,” George Washington: “It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible.” Unfortunately for the apostate Fundamentalists and Conservatives, George subscribed to “King James Onlyism”; it was the only Bible he ever read.

John Adams, the second President of the United States, said: “The Bible (and he was referring to the Bible that he personally “examined,” and it sure wasn’t any “original autographs”) is the best Book in the world.”

Do you know what the Congress of the United States did in 1782? They passed a resolution for the printing “of the Holy Scriptures for the use of schools” and recommended “this edition of the Bible to the inhabitants of the United States.” I’ll give you one guess as to which Bible it was; you don’t get two.

When Thomas Jefferson was President of the United States, he required two books to be taught in the public schools of Washington, D.C.

One was Isaac Watts’ hymnal, and the other one was the King James Bible.

Here is the President on the twenty dollar bill, Andrew Jackson: “That Book, sir, is the Rock upon which our republic rests.”

My, how different these gentlemen were from the one you’ve got in the White House right now!

When I was a boy, Warren G. Harding was the President. He said of the Bible: “No book of any kind ever written has ever so affected the whole life of a people.”

President Woodrow Wilson called the Bible the “word of life.” He said, “I beg you will read it and find out for yourselves—read not little snatches here and there, but long passages that will really be the road to the heart of it.” He also said, “The Bible is the revelation of the meaning of life, the nature of God, and

Another Bankrupt Version That Fell by the Wayside

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

Since the King James Version was published in 1611, there have been more than 323 attempts to change it or get rid of it; 233 of those changes took place after 1880. Somewhere around number 292 (since 1611), there showed up a typical Madison-Avenue pitch that had been used to hock the NASV, NRSV, NIV, and all the rest of the Alexandrian garbage that had come before it. When this piece of junk came out in 1991, it was called the “Contemporary English Version” (CEV—“Cock-Eyed Vapor”). The people who sold it gave you this pitch:

“Since the release of the CEV New Testament, the response to a Bible in ‘simple, everyday English’ has been overwhelming.”

Note: every “Bible” published since 1880 has claimed to be in “simple, everyday English,” and a few of them have even said as much right in their titles (see A Brief History of Eng- lish Translations by Dr. Laurence Vance). Every single one of the 233 new versions published since 1880 has presented itself as a book that “updated” something put out nearly 300–400 years before all the new translations came out. Every one of them claimed to “update the English” of one Book (and it never was the version that immediately preceded it). With 233 of them showing up, that means that the language had to be “updated” once every six months since 1880. Nevertheless, on go the hucksters and “pitchmen” with their “midway pipes”:

“The CEV is already un-

Typical Advanced Revelations

(Part Two of Two)

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

No large, recognized, “qualified,” Fundamental College, University, or Seminary goes one step beyond Clarence Larkin in 1929 when it comes to “advanced revelations”; in fact, most of them stop in 1909 with the Scofield Reference Bible. The reason for this is that all of them, without one exception, began to correct the Authorized Version (from whence the previous revelations came) somewhere.

Subsequently, they turned into professional Bible critics.

Of course, they did not outrightly deny the “fundamentals of the faith” found in the Apostles’ Creed (to which all Roman Catholics subscribe), but they did take the old Book apart bit by bit from 1901 to 2011 in order to bring it down to their own level of ignorance. When they did, the Author of the Book (the Holy Spirit) simply slammed the door of revelation right smack shut in

God's Last Message To the United States

(Part Two of Three)

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

We have been showing the reader how the Gentile nations (especially the United States), having committed the same sin of rejecting Jesus Christ as Israel did (A.D. 33), will soon suffer the same judgments given to Israel in 600 B.C. (Nebuchadnezzar) and A.D. 70 (Titus). Our source has been one group of writers in the Bible—the Old Testament prophets; and one prophet in particular, the prophet Isaiah. We take up our discussion here where we left off last time at Isaiah 13:6.

"Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand . . ." As we pointed out last time, these judgments are not a reference to the Last Judgment or the Moslem "Day of Judgment." They take place 1,000 years before the "Last Day," at the Second Advent of Jesus Christ.

" . . . it shall come as a DESTRUCTION from the Almighty. Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt: And they shall be AFRAID: PANGS and SORROWS shall take hold of them; they shall be in PAIN as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as FLAMES. Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, CRUEL both with WRATH and FIERCE ANGER, to lay the land DESOLATE: and he shall DESTROY THE SINNERS thereof out of it" (Isa. 13:6–9).

There's no "God is love" or "God so loved the world" anywhere to be found in the passage. It's nothing but "destruction," fear, "sorrows," "pain," "flames," cruelty, "wrath," "fierce anger," and desolation. Why does the Lord do that? Look at Isaiah 13:11.

"And I will punish the world for their EVIL, and the wicked for their INIQUITY; and I will cause the ARROGANCY of the PROUD to cease, and will lay low the HAUGHTINESS of the terrible."

That is God's last message to the USA before He blows it clean to Hell. The Bible says, "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and ALL THE NATIONS that forget God" (Psa. 9:17). That's a prophet prophesying (cf. Acts 2:29–30). The son of that prophet (cf. Amos 7:14) said, "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people" (Prov. 14:34). That's a prophet prophesying. Christ said, "O fools, and slow of heart to believe ALL THAT THE PROPHETS HAVE SPOKEN" (Luke 24:25). I'm giving you what they said—exactly what they said.

Do you know what they said? They said, "The nations [there's the United Nations again] shall rush like the rushings of many waters: but God shall rebuke them [i.e., the nations that rush together], and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind" (Isa. 17:13).

That matches the ten-toed kingdom of the image in Daniel 2:40–45, which represents the Antichrist reigning with ten kings (Rev. 17:12). When the Lord returns, He smacks that image in the toes and breaks down the whole statue. It folds up and becomes "like the chaff of the summer threshing floors," and the whole thing is thrown to the wind (Dan. 2:35). That's God's last warning to the UN before He burns up 191 Gentile nations. He threshes them before He burns them, and then He blows the whole cotton-picking mess into thin air.

What I'm giving you is not some incidental matter that takes back seat to New Testament salvation. It's the main theme of THE PROPHETS and keeps popping up all the way through. Look at Isaiah 24.

"Behold, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste [like I showed you last time from Isa. 6:11–12], and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof . . . The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word [when He speaks something, it's going to take place] . . . Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned" (Isa. 24:1, 3, 6).

"For our God is a consuming fire" (Heb. 12:29), so "the inhabitants of the earth are burned." That's B-U-R-N-E-D, as in "Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting F-I-R-E" (Matt. 25:41).

What else happens? "Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth" (Isa. 24:17). Is America on "the earth"? Well, then, that's you—you're an "inhabitant of the earth."

"The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly . . . And it shall come to pass IN THAT DAY [the Second Advent; not the "Last Day," which is 1,000 years later], that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, [the "principalities" and "powers" of Eph. 6:12] and the kings of the earth [and that includes America]

"on the earth" (Isa. 24:19, 21).

That's the future for America and the other 190 Gentile nations in the UN. All their cities with their "towers" (Isa. 30:25)—like Tokyo, New York City, Mexico City, Shanghai,

The Total Destruction of the United Nations

(Part Two of Three)

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

In the first installment of this article, we showed you that the main theme of the Bible is how God deals with nations. The words “nation” or “nations” occurs over 400 times in the Bible; they show up the first time in Genesis 10:5 and the last time in Revelation 22:2.

Now what the average Christian student in America doesn't know is that it was God's original intention to fill the universe with Adam's descendants (Deut. 4:19 cf. 32:8). That began in Genesis 1:26–28 and was made possible by Genesis 2:23–24. It was renewed and given to Noah in Genesis 9:1–2. Adam and Noah were given power as Kings over all creation.

The amount of time the Holy Spirit takes in the Scriptures to discuss the Kings and kingdoms and nations is more than ten times that given to the subjects of the New Birth, water baptism, and salvation combined. Note the following topics in regards to the nations in the Scriptures.

a. Kings of nations—Joshua 12; 1 Kings 4:20–24; Isaiah 9:6–7; Psalm 2, 110; Revelation 19:11–20:4.

b. Warfare among nations—Genesis 14; Exodus 17:8–16; Numbers 21–25, 31; 1 & 2 Samuel (the whole of both books); 1 & 2 Kings (over half of the first and all of the second).

c. Peace between nations—1 Kings 4:24–25; Luke 2:14; Haggai 2:9; Ezekiel 34:25; Psalm 122:6, 76:1–3, 29:11.

d. Judgment of nations—Matthew 25:31–46; Joel 3:2, 12–14; Jeremiah 25, 46–51, Ezekiel 38–39.

e. The King of all nations—Revelation 11:15, 12:5, 19:11–16, 20:4; Matthew 28:18; Philippians 2:9–11; Zechariah 14:9; Psalm 110:1–2; Daniel

f. The future of the nations—Revelation 21:24–22:2.

Do you realize that there is more Scripture given to those topics than there is given to the subject of salvation in the New Testament? The average American Christian knows nothing about them because he doesn't pay any attention to them.

Do you realize that the United Nations in New York is going to be destroyed for breaking an “everlasting covenant” that God made with a man (Isa. 24:5–6)? Why, there is hardly a Christian in America who is interested in that, and if he was, he would think nothing about it.

The covenant God made with Abraham in Genesis 15:18 is called an “everlasting covenant” (Gen. 17:7, 19; 1 Chron. 16:16–18; Psa. 105:10; Isa. 61:8–9; Jer. 32:40; Ezek. 16:60, 37:26). It was given to him while he was asleep (Gen. 15:12), so there were no conditions attached to it (Gal. 4:22–30). When God finally destroys all of the

The Student's Corner

United Nations (Jer. 25; Joel 3; Rev. 14:19–20, 19:19–21), it will be because of that piece of land. Neither salvation nor “religion” is a point in question; it will have to do with a real estate deal.

This means that 90% of the preachers in America and Europe don't even know what the Bible is about. They limit the whole Book to the New Testament and then omit from the New Testament anything they don't understand or that disagrees with them. The surest proof of this is any piece of junk like the NIV, the NASV, the NRSV, etc., where the editors (all of them) have changed all the words that are negative: they “fix them up” so that they aren't quite as bad sounding as the KJV puts them.

For example, the AV has Paul admitting that he was “rude in speech” (2 Cor. 11:6); that isn't in the new “Bibles.” The KJV commanded you to avoid “all APPEARANCE of evil” (1 Thess. 5:22), not just “all KINDS of evil” like you read in the modern translations. Your King James Bible said that “the PREACHING of the cross” was “foolishness” to those who “perish” (1 Cor. 1:18); the new “Bibles” get rid of the “preaching” and just leave you with “the message” being “foolishness” (that's because they're “preachers” and don't want to be considered fools [1 Cor. 4:10], so they make the message [“the gospel”] foolish instead of what they do [“preach”—see 1 Cor. 1:17]). In the KJV, God says He's going to “change” your “VILE body” (Phil. 3:21), but your “body” is not “vile” according to the new “Bibles.” The AV says the apostles were “UNLEARNED and IGNORANT men” (Acts 4:13); the new versions have the apostles all “dressed up” and fixed to pass the test of people who don't believe the Book.

That is the condition of American Christianity. It is shot through from top to bottom with professing Christians who don't believe the Book. They don't believe that the Book says what it means and

Sermons on Hell

A collection of five evangelistic sermons by Dr. Ruckman on one of the most rejected topics in the Bible today—Hell. Each sermon is accompanied by its corresponding chalk talk illustration. The reality of Hell is presented in Dr. Ruckman's straightforward style as well as salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ. Great Bible teaching for the believer as well as a wonderful outreach tool for the lost.

 spiritual nature and needs of men. It is the only guide of life which really leads the spirit in the way of peace and salvation."

Here is President Teddy Roosevelt: "No man, educated or uneducated, can afford to be ignorant of the Bible," and "A thorough knowledge of the Bible is worth more than a College education." He wasn't talking about a thorough knowledge of Hebrew or Greek; he was talking about a thorough knowledge of the King James 1611 Authorized Version.

Are you a Yankee? Here is your General who became the eighteenth President of the United States: Ulysses S. Grant. He called the Bible "the sheet anchor of your liberties" and "man's best guide." He was talking about the Bible studied by Sunday School children; he wasn't talking about any Greek or Hebrew manuscripts.

Are you a Southerner, a "Johnny Reb"? Well, here is your General, Robert E. Lee: "There are things in the OLD BOOK . . ." That's NOT a reference to the "original autographs"; the "old Book," in English, has always been a reference to the King James Bible. ". . . which I may not be able to explain, but I fully accept IT as the infallible word of God, and receive ITS teachings as inspired by the Holy Spirit."

Benjamin Franklin once said, "Young man, my advice is that you cultivate an acquaintance with, and a firm belief in, the Holy Scriptures, for this is your certain interest." Your interest should be the Book, not economics or "global warming" or "making the world a better place to live in."

Patrick Henry, the man who said "Give me liberty or give me death," said of the King James Bible: "Here is a Book worth more than all others."

Another great statesman, Daniel Webster, said: "If we abide by the principles taught in the Bible, our country will go on prospering." "The Bible" to which Daniel Webster referred was the one for which his parents instilled a love since his childhood—the Authorized Version of 1611.

Here are a couple of "Limeys" (British). William Gladstone, the Prime Minister four times under Queen Victoria, said: "I have known 95 of the world's great men in my time, and of these, 87 were followers of the Bible."

Which Bible? Well, I can tell you what it wasn't: it wasn't any "plenary, verbally inspired original autographs," because none of those 87 men ever saw one of them. Neither have you, and neither has your teacher or preacher. If you don't believe it, go and ask them to show it to you.

But perhaps my most favorite quote is by Queen Victoria herself. She kept a copy of the Authorized Version on a table beside her throne. When asked one time what made England great, she pointed to the King James Bible and said: "THAT BOOK accounts for the supremacy of England."

Amen, sister! And when a nation dumps THAT BOOK (and I'm not talking about any "original autographs"), God dumps that nation. He did in England in 1921 (Churchill's "White Papers"), and He is doing it now to America.

Anyone can "learn the lessons of history" as they were clearly (and plainly) set forth by Webster, Lincoln, Lee, Adams, Jefferson, Grant, Queen Victoria, Franklin, Wilson, Roosevelt, and Washington. Not one man followed Kenneth Wuest, Eberhard Nestle, Charles Stanley, Spiros Zodhiates, Arthur Farstad, John R. Rice, Curtis Hutson, A. T. Robertson, Bob Jones Jr., or Bob Jones III TWO INCHES.

God's Last Message To the United States

Continued from 2 etc.—get brought down “to the ground.” Isaiah 26:5 says, “For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, EVEN TO THE GROUND; he bringeth it even to the dust.”

The trouble with these godless smart alecks, who are half crazy with fairy tales (e.g., evolution—the greatest fairy tale for grown-ups you ever read) and half crazy with demonic activity, is: “they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way . . .” (Isa. 28:7). They're on drugs! (Alcohol is a drug.) Who's getting drunk? Well, “the priest” for one—there's your Catholics with their “hootch” at Mass—and “the prophet” for two—there's Mohammed and his bunch justifying murder (the word assassin originally comes from a bunch of Moslems who prepared for their killing by smoking hashish).

“. . . they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.” Of course, the Moslems err in judgment without the “strong drink.” God tells you in no uncertain terms how they err. They “make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate . . .” (Isa. 29:21). All Moslems say that God didn't have a Son, and that if you believe that He did, you're going to Hell, which would mean that Jesus Christ went to Hell because He said God was His Father (John 10:25–38). “. . . and turn aside the just for a thing of nought”—they prevent their people from hearing the truth and getting saved by giving them false so-called “holy scripture” that's good for nothing.

To the people who are preaching the truth from the Holy Bible, they say: “Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits” (Isa. 30:10). Mohammed couldn't prophecy anything; the only “proof” he had that he was a prophet was a large, hairy mole on his back (“Holy” Hadith, Bukhari; vol. I, no. 189; vol. IV, no. 741). Any Bible-believing, Bible-reading Christian can prophesy more in five minutes than Mohammed could in a whole lifetime (Rev. 19:10). When you pick up that Bible, you have a Book in your hands that has about 500 prophecies in it (100 of which have been fulfilled, with 400 more coming up soon). Mohammedans can't stand that because their book (the “Holy” Koran) doesn't have any real prophecies in it at all, so they tell a Christian to shut up when he says a word they don't like (see Acts 22:22).

God says about that bunch of wine-abstaining, pork-abstaining, fornicating murderers: “For the vile person will speak villainy, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD [like “God has no Son”], to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail” (Isa. 32:6). Mohammed doesn't have the Bread of Life (John 6:35 cf. Luke 4:4); he doesn't have the Water of Life (John 4:14). He can't feed anybody or satisfy their thirst for truth. He can't “energize” anyone with “the word of truth” because it is God's word that is truth (John 17:17) and Mohammed never got God's word. “Allah” (“the God”) never spoke to Mohammed at all; all he got was something some 600-winged angel told him when he was in an epileptic fit.

God says that “the vile person” speaks “villany” in order to “work iniquity” and “practise hypocrisy.” This “vile person” is identified as an “antichrist” in 1 John 2:22, and the way you spot him is by his religious creed that says God never had a Son and Jesus Christ was never crucified. This “vile person” says, “There is no compulsion in religion” (Sura 2:256), while killing people who don't agree with or accept his religion.

Last year when someone thought about burning the Koran down in Gainesville, Florida, all the Moslems said that was an outrage and threatened worldwide violence, and the newspapers backed them up. How come they didn't get outraged by Moslems killing 3,000 Americans in New York? Did you hear one Moslem who got outraged when a Moslem killed 123 American Marines over in Lebanon? Why, these hypocrites never get in an “outrage” over anyone who is not a Moslem getting murdered, but they'll have a “flying fit” if you burn a book! Do you know what that is? That's a mass of whitewashed religious

Continued from 3 means what it says. The nation “followed suit,” and now it has no Bible.

If that weren't bad enough, some deluded College graduate reached in that Book and stole a quote out of it just as neatly as the UN stole three-quarters of Isaiah 2:4 to put on their “Isaiah Wall” so they could justify “bringing in the kingdom” without the King. Whoever it was (and it had to be someone with “higher education” to be this stupid) figured that since “God is love” (1 John 4:8) that He couldn't hate anybody (even though He said “Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I HATED,” Rom. 9:13). It was then taken a step further and said that if you didn't like somebody that you hated him. And then with one mighty leap of logic, it was “reasoned” that if you hate someone you won't talk nice about him; so if you don't talk nice about immoral, God-forsaken, self-righteous, paranoid sex perverts, you are guilty of a hate crime.

Now do you know from where that originally came? There is probably not a Christian reading this column who knows where it began, and that includes every professor of every Christian school in America. It began with the accusations made against Christians back in the First and Second Centuries that got them thrown to the lions in the coliseums. It is a Latin term: odio humani generis. That means “hatred of the human race.” That was the first “hate crimes bill” passed for the purposes of killing Christians (like the one Obama signed).

“The only thing that men learn from history is that men never learn from history.”

“The very idea of you telling people that the best they can do will land them in Hell—you preach that because you hate people.” Of course, that's what the New Testament says (Eph. 2:8–9; Tit. 3:5), but who cares about the New Testament if it's negative and we don't like what it says?

Do you know what that New Testament says about “men”? It says that the Lord Jesus Christ didn't “commit himself” to any man because “he knew what was in man” (John 2:24–25). That was Christ's assessment of men before He spoke with one of the purest, moral Rabbis in Jerusalem (Nicodemus—John 3). Do you know what Jesus Christ said “was in man” according to the book of Mark? He lists thirteen “evil things” that come out of a man's heart (Mark 7:21–23). He was backed up by the writers of the Old Testament.

“Every man at his best state is altogether vanity” (Psa. 39:5).

“There is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not” (Eccl. 7:20).

“The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?” (Jer. 17:9).

For the maximum “hate crime” of the century, the “God” who “is love” sent His Son down here to earth to tell you:

“Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels” (Matt. 25:41).

“Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell” (Matt. 23:33).

“He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God” (John 8:47).

“Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Matt. 22:13).

That's what the Book says about “men”; and men make up nations; and the Book is about Kings, kingdoms, and nations.

How can all the nations and kingdoms get together? Simple: get rid of everyone who criticizes anyone else for their religion, color, culture, promiscuity, abortions, sodomy, sex perversion, or their attacks on the Bible. The only liberty denied the citizens would be the right to criticize the government that controlled them.

You have to kill the people who hate “mankind.” In the First and Second Centuries, they were the Christians who told people they were going to Hell with their pagan religions. Christians were burned at the stake, flayed alive, roasted over hot coals, tied up in bags with snakes, and laughed at while they died. That's your preparation for the “man of sin” to show up in the Twenty-first Century (2 Thess. 2:3).

Who did that to the Christians back in the First and Second Centuries? A nation: Rome. A King: Caesar. Who did they reject? The “KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.” What did they all hate? The truth: They hated your Saviour (John 14:6); they hated His word (John 17:17). Jesus said, “They hated me without a cause” (John 15:25).

That last reference was an Old Testament prophecy about Christ. Jesus Christ not only fulfilled prophecy, He prophesied Himself. He prophesied of Mohammed's coming in A.D. 610. He said that when Mohammed and his followers came, they would kill you and figure they were doing God a favor. Look it up—John 16:2. If that weren't enough, the “Beloved Apostle” (John) said that when Mohammed came, he would be an “antichrist” (1 John 2:22). Well, then, John was guilty of “hatred,” wasn't he? You wouldn't call a man “antichrist” if you didn't hate him! You see how the thing works?

You can't see it unless you are an honest student of the Scriptures, and if you are an honest student of the Scriptures, you could see it as clearly as a plate glass window with the pane knocked out. So undoubtedly, you have in America at least 500,000 Christians who don't believe a word I wrote in the last several paragraphs.

locking the treasure of God's word for millions of people."

You want the truth of the matter? From 1991 to right now (2011), you have the biggest generation of Bible blockheads that have ever lived since the Dark Ages. Since 1901, America has produced the dumbest Bible scholars in the world, so the mass of Christian people they trained know less about the Bible today than the ones did who lived before the Roman Catholic Church got temporarily kicked out of northern Europe by Martin Luther and the Reformers.

In the last fifty years that I have been on the radio, at least twice a year I have said: "If any of you people have any version that you've bought in the last ten years (or twenty or thirty, etc., depending on when I made the broadcast), and you found one thing in it that I couldn't find in a King James Bible in ten seconds, write me a letter, or phone me, and try me out." Nobody ever "tried me out" in half a century. But the CEV "opened the treasure of God's word for millions of people," did it? Well, not one in something like five to ten major cities in which I have broadcasted; no, at least no one in five decades. There isn't anybody who is "excited" about the CEV who knows anything in either Testament that wasn't in print in 1909 (when the Scofield Reference Bible was first published). The guy who promoted the CEV, Tim Hegg, did so by lying, just like the promoters of all the other new versions. He said, "I tried to explain to them it's a translation of meaning more than just words."

Well, who didn't know that? In translation work, that's called "dynamic equivalence." All translators have used dynamic equivalence, as well as "formal correspondence" (word-for-word translation), for the last 130 years. But on goes the silly nut:

"The Contemporary English Version is designed to bring the truths of God's word to the modern readers."

If that's the case, then it failed completely. There has been less truth in America between 1991 and 2011 than there has been since the time of the Civil War. Yet he goes on and says that this piece of junk "opened the truths of God's word," especially to modern readers "who have just learned to read but don't understand the older versions."

What could those "older versions" be to which he referred? Could one of them be the ASV of 1901? It was published ninety years before the CEV. Could he be talking about the NASV, which was supposed to "update" the old ASV in 1963? It came out 28 years before the CEV. How about Kenneth Taylor's Living Bible, which started coming out in segments in 1962, and which used the same type of "dynamic equivalence" that the CEV used? You mean people couldn't understand the "Living Bible" after only 29 years? Could it be Good News for Modern Man which was published in 1966 by the same people that put out the CEV, the American Bible Society? Why not simply rehypocrites; that's a bunch of skunks—that's what that is.

God's Last Message To the United States

Do you know what the Bible says about these hypocritical fakirs in Isaiah 33? He says, "ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as FIRE, shall devour you. And the people shall be as the BURNINGS of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be BURNED IN THE FIRE" (Isa. 33:11-12).

Who's He talking about there? He's talking about PEOPLE! PEOPLE are going to be cut up and burned in a fire. Is that clear?

Of course, the majority of Americans don't accept that. Some of you don't believe it or accept it either. You threw the Book out a long time ago, and that's why God's going to throw you out. God is through with the United States.

The prophet says, "The sinners . . . are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring FIRE? who among us shall dwell with EVER-LASTING BURNINGS?" (Isa. 33:14). That's the "everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels" you read about in Matthew 25:41.

God says, "Their slain also shall be cast out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcases, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree [like the one Christ cursed in Mark 11:12-14 so it couldn't bear any more figs]" (Isa. 34:3-4).

You are reading the last thing God has to say to America before He wipes it clean off the map. He told you what happened to a better nation than yours, and if it happened to them, it will happen to you. He told you just what He thought of the USA in Isaiah 40:17—it is "nothing" and "less than nothing." Your best bet is to pretend that the prophet was lying, but Christ said you were a fool if you didn't "believe ALL that the prophets have spoken."

God challenges these psychotic, paranoid nuts and says, "Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob. Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or DECLARE US THINGS FOR TO COME" (Isa. 41:21-22).

They can't. There's nothing in the UN Charter where anybody could "declare" anything "to come." Not one of them "declared" the Rapture which is going "to come." Not one of them "declared" the Judgment Seat of Christ which is going "to come." Not one of them spoke about the annihilation of the UN which is "to come." Not one of them spoke of the slaughter of 200 million UN troops in one day which is "to come." They couldn't cause anyone to know "the latter end" of anything, and they can't "declare" anything "to come." Neither could Mohammed.

When Mohammed dictated something he thought a 600-winged angel gave him, the whole Bible had been completed more than 300 years before his grandmother was born. It told him over five centuries earlier "things" that were going "to come," and he couldn't find one of them. Mohammed didn't even know where he was going when he died. Why, I have over 500 people in my church who know that, and they can "declare" plenty of what's "to come."

A Rapture is "to come." The Son of Perdition is "to come." The Marriage of the Lamb is "to come." The Second Advent is "to come." The Millennial throne of David is "to come." All of those things are going "to come." How is it that Mohammed couldn't "declare" any of them? Because he threw out the Book!

The Lord goes on and says to the reader: "Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we [that's the Trinity talking] may know that ye are gods . . ." (Isa. 41:23). Boy, how is that for sarcasm? The Devil said to Eve, "ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil" (Gen. 3:5).

The Lord said to Mohammed, "You've got Allah for your god, do you? You want to prove he's 'the god'? All right, have him show us all "the things that are to come hereafter."

Allah couldn't open his yap. You say, "He talked about the Last Judgment." That was completely discussed in the Bible in A.D. 90. Mohammed didn't show up until 500 years later; if he had an original thought in his head, it died of loneliness. And besides, Mohammed couldn't show anybody anything in regards to the Great White Throne Judgment because he forgot the Book of Life, he forgot the punishment of those who weren't in it, he overlooked the judgment of the angels by Christians (1 Cor. 6:2-3), and he completely left out the fact that the Judge is not "Allah" at all—it is God's Son (Acts

Continued from 9 (17:31; Rom. 2:16). The one who gave you that last little overlooked tidbit of information was God's Apostle to the Gentiles (Rom. 11:13, 15:16; Gal. 2:7-9); that would include all Arabs, Turks, Egyptians, Persians, Africans, and Asians. Mohammed couldn't get anything right; he was a perfect blank.

“. . . yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.” Sarcasm—that's the Lord making fun of America. “Go on,” He says, “do good or do bad; it's nothing to us. See if you can upset me with your good or bad. All it's going to do is kill you and put you in Hell; it's not going to bother me any.” The Lord says, “This bunch pretends to be like gods, but they are nothing but worm food.”

“Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought [it's a big, fat zero]: an abomination is he that chooseth you . . . Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? [Why, that's easy: it's the Lord; it sure isn't Allah] yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that declar-eth, yea, there is none that heareth your words” (Psa. 41:24, 26). The Koran can't tell you anything except what Mohammed stole out of the Bible, completed centuries before his great grandmother was born. Look at what he stole from Isaiah 44:6.

“Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.”

That's where Mohammed got the “Shahada” (the Moslem confession of faith): “There is no god but ‘the god’ (Allah).” But “the god” of the Shahada isn't the God of Isaiah 44:6. The “only God” in that verse is “the King of Israel”; a Moslem (Arab or otherwise) is not even considered to be one of His subjects. Moreover, the “only God” of Isaiah 44:6 is defined in the New Testament as God's Son (1 John 5:20; Rev. 1:8, 22:13).

Once again, God challenges all the writers of all the other “holy scriptures” of the world, especially the writers of the Koran (whose names you don't even know because they couldn't put their names on what they wrote).

“And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people [that's Israel]? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them” (Isa. 44:7).

The Koran can't show you anything that is coming. Allah, Gabriel, and Mohammed together couldn't find enough material on the future to put on the backside of a postage stamp unless they copied it from the Old and New Testaments.

God warns all the fools like Herbert Spencer and Albert Einstein exactly who's responsible for the heavens and the earth, and “Mother Nature” and the electromagnetic fields have nothing to do with it.

“Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself; that frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish” (Isa. 44:24-25).

“I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace

[not the UN!], and create evil [He didn't say sin; the “evil” there is the bad things that result from sin. If you sow sinfully, then you reap “evil,” and the Lord is the Author of that “evil”]: “I the LORD do all these things” (Isa. 45:7).

“The God” (“Allah” in Arabic) in whom you'd better be interested is the One who is a Saviour.

Isaiah 45:21, “Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? [it's never “Allah”; it's Jehovah] have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me.”

Did you notice that “Saviour” there in that verse? That's the meaning of the name Jesus: “Jehovah Saves.” Allah's OUT; he couldn't save anybody. Mohammed's OUT; he couldn't save anybody, not even himself.

The Lord goes on in Isaiah 45:22—“Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.” There's no “Allah” around to do anything. There is no “the god” unless he's “the god of this world” mentioned in 2 Corinthians 4:4, and that's a reference to Satan.

The Lord says in Isaiah 45:23-24, “I have sworn by myself [pretty stiff oath, buddy], the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return [what is it?], That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear, Surely, shall one say, in the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.”

He's not talking about Allah anywhere in the passage. In the New Testament, the reference is to Jesus Christ (Phil. 2:10-11). The “name which is above every name” (Phil. 2:9) is Jesus, never “Allah.”

Israel's Judges and Prime Ministers

A message delivered by Associate Pastor Brian Donovan in the Sunday evening service of Bible Baptist Church. In this study, Bro. Donovan draws a comparison between the chronology of the judges of Israel in the Bible and the Prime Ministers of the modern State of Israel. He then shows its prophetic significance in regards to the coming of the Antichrist and Jesus.

the Holy Spirit was inside saints, not just “on” them (Gen. 41:38; Dan. 5:11; 1 Pet. 1:10–11), and the Holy Spirit could leave them (Psa. 51:11). No comment from any professor anywhere; they are all just as deaf and dumb as a jellyfish on the beach.

6. Balaam’s sin had nothing to do with the permissive will of God as you will find it in the Scofield note on Numbers 22:22.

7. Herod (Acts 12:1–4) was a Roman Edomite whose native land (Edom) was observing Easter (Ashtoreth—Judg. 2:13) nearly 2,000 years before John the Baptist was born (Gen. 14:5–6).

8. There is no New Birth for anyone in the Bible before the resurrection of Christ. Not one scholar picked that up or even mentioned it; John Calvin was as quiet about it as Yankee Stadium at 3:00 a.m. Monday morning.

9. The Antichrist will reign in Rome as the “man of sin” before he reigns in Jerusalem as “the son of perdition” (Rev. 17 cf. 2 Thess. 2:3–4).

10. “Eden” was a stretch of land shaped like a pyramid, with Mount Ararat at its apex and its baseline anchored at the Nile River on one side and the Euphrates River (at Basrah and Kuwait) at the other (Gen. 15:18). Not one peep out of the “Fundamental outfits” above.

11. The fifth cherub (Satan—Ezek. 28) was a winged serpent (Isa. 14:29, 30:6) with horns like an ox (Ezek. 1:10).

12. There’s no prayer in Ephesians 3:18–19 for anyone to know about “the breadth, and length, and depth, and height” of “the love of Christ” (see point 2); they’re not even connected. Twenty thousand scholars in 2,000 years all missed it, whether they believed the Book or not.

13. Paul had no more of his apostolic signs (2 Cor. 12:12) after the “Acts of the Apostles” closed (see 2 Tim. 4:20). This includes miracles and tongues as well as healing.

14. In Psalm 69:8, Jesus said (Psa. 69:9 cf. John 2:17) that His own mother had children after He was born (cf. Mark 6:3). Every Pope since the Council of Nicea has lied about it. They’re still lying about it today (Benedict XVI), and they will keep right on doing it.

15. “Replenish” in Genesis 1:28 and 9:1 is an advanced revelation not found in any Hebrew text or any copy of any Hebrew manuscript extant.

16. The Premillennial order of the Old Testament books from 2 Chronicles to the Psalms is not to be found in any Hebrew manuscript extant.

17. There is more than one “devil” in the Bible (John 6:70–71; see also Mark 4:4, 15, 5:2, 9), but not one Greek scholar, living or dead, could explain that or believe it because they all refused to translate the Greek word daimonion.

18. In Psalm 74:8, there is an advanced revelation regarding “synagogues” in the land of Israel past the year 2011 which cannot be found in any copy of any Hebrew manuscript extant.

19. In Galatians 2:18, the AV gave advanced light on 1 Corinthians 15:31; 2 Corinthians 4:16; Philippians 3:10; and Luke 9:23 by translating a past perfect indicative as a present tense. The AV reading cannot be found in any Greek manuscript, any Greek New Testament, the work of any Greek scholar, any Greek lexicon, or any series of Greek “word studies”; there’s a perfect blank for 1,900 years.

20. In Numbers 33:52, you are warned about magazines, movies, newspapers, and television; but only in the Authorized Version and nowhere else. No Hebrew scholar, living or dead, was able to find that revelation because he ruled out “pictures” in the last century while watching the stuff in his living room. It’s amazing what they can’t find in their own language, isn’t it?

21. First Thessalonians 5:22 in the AV is an advanced revelation about Christian conduct found nowhere in any copy of any Greek manuscript or any Greek text or any “text type” or “family” of Greek texts or any Greek lexicon.

22. And you may correct every Greek manuscript and all the Greek words in every Greek text used for the RV, ASV, RSV, NASV, NRSV, NIV, NKJV, ESV, etc., in Matthew 5:22; Mark 1:2; Luke 24:51–52; Romans 1:18, 25; and 2 Corinthians 2:17. These “advanced revelations” are found only in the AV. Only in the King James Bible will you find the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth about the Deity of Christ and the true sins of these godless, depraved, “Fundamentalist” Bible corrupters.

The Difference Between Jews and Moslems

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

There is an email that has been floating around for several years now that shows you clearly the difference between two opposing races: the Jews and the Moslems. The material is so good that we reproduce it here for your consideration. Here are the brutal facts of history which nobody can deny unless he is a self-deceived fool or religious fanatic.

The total population of Moslems worldwide, what the Imams call "the Islamic Nation," is approximately 1,200,000,000 (new estimates place the number at 1,400,000,000); that's about 20% of the world's population. The Jews make up about .02% of the world's population; that works out to about fourteen million Jews.

Now, placing the two groups side by side—the Jews and the Moslems—look at how they come out when it comes to Nobel Prizes (literature, peace, economics, physics, medicine). The total number of Nobel Prizes given to a fifth of the world's population (20%—the Moslems) was seven: one in literature (1988), four in peace (1978, 1990, 1994, 1999), none for economics, none for physics, and two for medicine (1960, 1998).

Now compare that to the number received by .02% of the world's population. Here are the number of Nobel Prizes received by the Jewish people in the same time period: ten for literature (1910–1991), eight for peace (1911–1994), 53 for physics (1905–2000), thirteen for economics (1970–1993), and 45 for medicine (1908–1996). That's a total of 129 Nobel Prizes awarded to the people of one race, while the other race received seven.

Now, what are you going to do with that? Pretend it doesn't exist? Cas-tigate it as being "racist"—even though it is true?!

The email goes on to point out the following undisputable facts:

"The Jews are NOT promoting brainwashing children in military training camps, teaching them how to blow themselves up and cause maximum deaths of Jews and other non-Moslems. The Jews don't hijack planes or kill athletes at the Olympics or blow themselves up in German restaurants. There is NOT one single Jew who has destroyed a church. There is NOT a single Jew who protests by killing people.

"The Jews don't traffic in slaves or have leaders calling for jihad and death to all infidels."

Of course, the obvious thing you are to infer from the way those statements are presented is that the MOSLEMS DO! And that is absolutely 100% true and correct. Moslems are guilty of all those things, and it is not just a "small minority." Their religion teaches them to do those things.

"Perhaps the world's Moslems should consider investing more in standard education and less in blaming the Jews for all their problems."

They're not going to do it. When a Moslem wants a good education, do you know where he goes? He goes to the West! He goes to Colleges and Universities that were originally set up by a bunch of professing Christians. That's why you have Moslems over here in America right now: they don't have the educational and economic opportunities back in their own countries that they have here. Yet, they want to turn this country into the same kind of dump they came out of.

"Moslems must ask what they can do for humankind before they demand that humankind respects them. Regardless of your feelings about the crisis between Israel and the Palestinians and [Israel's] Arab neighbors, even if you believe there is more culpability on Israel's part, the following two sentences really say it all."

And then the document gives a great quote by one of Israel's Prime Ministers—Benjamin Netanyahu. Netanyahu gives you two sentences that are absolute truth.

"If the Arabs put down their weapons today, there would be no more violence [the context is between the Jews and the Moslems]. If the Jews put down their weapons today, there would be no more Israel."

Tell me something: if you wiped all the Jews off the face of the earth today, would the world get better? Well, if you wiped out every Moslem from the earth, would the world be better? I mean, if you had to choose between those two outfits as to which one had done the most for mankind over the last 111 years, would it be the one that offered only seven improvements out of over a billion people, or would it be the one that only had fourteen million people but was recognized for 129 improvements?

Now think about that for a while. Think about it instead of believing the propaganda put out by the television and other news media, and by the UN. Quit your day-dreaming and start thinking.

THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER

 tention, he fell back into the snow to his death.

While on ski patrol in the Aleutian Islands, Lieutenant Max Schoening fell off a 300-foot ledge, dropped ten feet, stumbled ten feet, bounced ten feet, rolled fifty feet, dropped twenty more feet, rolled another sixty feet, and dropped thirty more feet. After six months in the hospital with a broken leg, a broken wrist, three broken ribs, a broken jaw, and a nose with cuts and bruises, he was back up on skis in the snow-covered mountains of Alaska in twenty degrees below zero.

In 1918, Paul Baumer's Company Commander crawled out of a shell hole to get aim on a flame thrower that was about to "light up" his troops. While lying in the prone position, the Company Commander got hit in the shoulder. He took aim again, fired, and got his target. He said, "Gut!" and collapsed.

On June 9, 1944, Pips Priller received orders to strafe the beach during the D-Day invasion of Normandy. He took on 13,000 enemy aircraft, going up through a flotilla of aircraft—light bombers, heavy bombers, pursuit planes, gliders, and supply ships—and then diving down through it to strafe the beach. He got out alive and died sixteen years after the war was over.

"That he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier." In the cases above, the "hims" who were doing the "choosing" were Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Adolf Hitler. How is it that an unsaved man will go through things like that for men like that while a Christian serving Jesus Christ will turn coward and flinch when a destructive critic attacks the Authorized Version. Strange, isn't it?

Christian, your Commander-in-Chief is "the King of kings, and Lord of lords" (1 Tim. 6:15). You are indwelt by the third person of the Godhead. You have been given a Book that has outsold any other five "Bibles" man ever produced; it was translated into every major language in the world before Westcott and Hort could even read a Bible. You have the greatest retirement benefits ever given to a "re-upper" and an "old soldiers' home" you wouldn't believe (Rev. 21-22). You even have medals for service (1 Cor. 3:10-15) and a grand review (Rev. 19:11-14). And yet with all of that, you still shake before a bunch of sapheaded Greek novices! You ought to be courtmartialed.

A soldier is supposed to receive "food and raiment" at government expense. In my day (1942-1944), it was: "A dollar a day, and the work ain't hard. Never hurry, never worry, never volunteer. Stay away from the orderly room and keep your mouth shut. If it's moving, salute it; if it's lying down, pick it up; if you can't pick it up, paint it."

In my day, an infantry Lieutenant got $120.00 a month. With that came free food, free uniforms, free lodging, and the usual $10,000 to the "nearest of kin" if things didn't "work out" so well.

When I was in the service, you wore your uniform into town, not your "civies"—and the uniform had a necktie. You were conspicuous by your non-civilian appearance. One might say that you were "a peculiar people" (1 Pet. 2:9). You were separated; you were apart from "the affairs of this life" because you were a G.I. That means "Government Issue"; that is, you belonged to "Uncle Sam." According to that Book, Christian, you belong to Someone Else (1 Cor. 6:19-20), and you are to give Him "your reasonable service" (Rom. 12:1).

To show you how this kind of a soldier is disappearing from modern Christianity, consider something that happened in my ministry. This should be a terrible lesson for any modern Christian. You see, I am a chalk-talk artist. One of the 200 different chalk talks that I draw is a picture on “The Whole Armor of God.” It’s not a colored chalk talk; it’s in black and white. It’s a simple picture of a typical Roman legionnaire—a First-Century infantryman—facing the world, the flesh, and the Devil.

Now that is just one chalk talk out of 200, but it had some kind of “magical effect” on Christian Colleges and Universities. You’ll hardly believe what I’m going to tell you, but it’s the truth. All the picture shows is an infantryman with the equipment described in Ephesians 6:14–17. He’s facing a man dressed up like an old-time gangster who is smoking a cigar; the man is offering the soldier a ten dollar bill while holding a stiletto behind his back ready to stab the soldier when he takes the money. Then there is a half-dressed woman with a cocktail glass in one hand and a cigarette in the other. Finally there is a roaring lion springing right through them at the soldier. These picture the world (the man), the flesh (the woman), and the Devil (the lion—see 1 Pet. 5:8).

Now I come from a military family. On my wall at home, I have a picture of a Lieutenant: that is when I was in the Army during World War II. Right above it is a picture of a Captain: that’s my father in World War I. Above him is a photograph of my grandfather, a Major General during the Philippine Insurrection. Finally above him is a picture of a full Colonel in the Civil War who was my great grandfather. That’s four generations of West Pointers and ROTC. If I draw a picture about an infantry soldier, I ought to know about what I’m talking.

But that one picture on “The Whole Armor of God” knocked me out of five major Christian institutions after I drew it for each of them only one time. The first place I drew it was in the Rodeheaver Auditorium at Bob Jones University to the preachers’ ministerial class—I never got invited back. The second time I drew it was at Tennessee Temple Schools, Lee Roberson’s school in Chattanooga; I actually drew it in the Highland Park Baptist Church—I never got invited back. The next time I drew the picture was for Baptist Bible College in Springfield, Missouri—I never got invited back. The fourth time I drew that same picture was for the World Baptist Fellowship in Arlington, Texas (J. Frank Norris’ bunch)—I never got invited back. And the last time I drew it was at Trinity College in Clearwater, Florida, where Billy Graham came to hear me preach—I never got invited back.

That picture is called “The Whole Armor of God,” and it simply deals with the Christian as a military infantryman (“dogface,” “grunt”)—a First Century footsoldier in the equipment of the Roman army. Every outfit in which I preached professed to be a militant Christian group. They were as “militant” as the Girl Scouts or Tinkerbelle or Alice in Wonderland. They couldn’t take it; there wasn’t a soldier in the lot.

Do you know what kept me from going overseas in 1944 after I got my bars at the Officer Candidate School in Fort Benning? It was the fact that we were running short on men and there was nobody left at home to train men anymore. “Uncle Sam” kept me in the ROTC’s Infantry Replacement Training Centers to train replacements for the casualties from the Hürtgen Forest and the Bastogne Bulge. I stayed in the States a year and a half training infantrymen and then another year and a half overseas in the Philippines training Filipino scouts. If I couldn’t draw you a picture on “the whole armour of God” (Eph. 6:11), you sure don’t have anybody else who could; at least not someone who is a preacher who believes the Book and teaches it!

Another Bankrupt Version That Fell by the Wayside

 vise “Good News” instead of making a whole new translation?

No, the problem with these apostates has never been “older versions” (plural). The problem has always been one version. The King James Bible got messed up in 1885 in England (RV) and in 1901 in America (ASV), and the versions that mess it up apparently go “out of style” every six months, because these apostate translators, revisers, publishers, and “Bible societies” had to produce 233 different versions since 1880 just to replace one Book.

But on the promoter of the CEV goes with the “pitch.” He says that the overwhelming interest in this piece of junk was due to this fact: “and with the gracious GIFTS of friends like you”

And there it finally comes out. The motivation for putting out a new translation to take the place of the King James Bible was $$$ (see 1 Tim. 6:10, changed in all 233 of these new translations in “simple, everyday English”). The American Bible Society, the sponsor, publisher, and promoter of the CEV, had to come out with something

I have been a pastor for over fifty years now. Before that I was a DI in unarmed combat and an infantry platoon in a rifle company. I can say with absolute authority that your modern Christian celebrities know absolutely nothing about Christian warfare. When it comes to real Christian combat, they are “the unknown soldier.”

new (see Acts 17:21) in order to increase the giving to their organization.

Ruckman’s “Law”: “If it don’t make sense, there’s a buck in it.”

“With the gracious gifts of friends like you, the Bible Society can provide copies of this life-changing translation to those who long for God’s word but can’t afford it.”

Ah, go take a long walk on a short pier. Stick your head in a bucket of water three times and pull it out twice. Give the Body of Christ a blessing and “make the world a better place to live in.”

The promoters of the CEV couldn’t give you the name of one soulwinner or “changed life” connected directly or indirectly with the CEV. There is no demand for it, and if Good News for Modern Man (the version put out by ABS that preceded the CEV) is any gauge, the CEV will be replaced in the next ten years by the next piece of trash ABS want to put out.

That’s the Contemporary English Version—the CEV. We call it the “Chump’s Empty Vacuum” or the “Crooked Emasculated Vertigo.”

Typical Advanced Revelations

 vanced revelations"? They're not hard to find; not if you spend your time studying the Book (2 Tim. 2:15—another "advanced revelation" found only in a King James Bible) seriously in order to learn it instead of lording your own authority over the Body of Christ. The institutions I listed in the first part of this article (and I listed less than a twentieth of them) could never "qualify" along those lines. They're not intelligent enough. They critique a Book they do not believe and analyze it to replace it with their own ignorance.

Wanna watch them squirm over "Ruckman's" teaching on "advanced revelations"? All right, get a copy of the Ruckman Reference Bible and watch them squirm. Once anybody puts the genuine, Scriptural, Biblical "advanced revelations" on them found in that volume, it is a terrible reminder to them that every single one of them came from an archaic, outdated, "hard-to-understand" Elizabethan Bible now 400 years old. These depraved, lying, stupid, idiotic, paranoid nuts would rather die and go to Hell on the grounds of their own fear and unbelief than admit such a thing could be possible.

If you think I am "pulling your leg," try the brethren out "for size." Pick up a Ruckman Reference Bible and check me out, baby.

THE CREED OF THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT

1. There is no final authority but God.
2. Since God is a Spirit, there is no final authority that can be seen, heard, read, felt, or handled.
3. Since all books are material, there is no book on this earth that is the final and absolute authority on what is right and what is wrong, what constitutes truth and what constitutes error.
4. There WAS a series of writings one time which, IF they had all been put into a BOOK as soon as they were written the first time, WOULD HAVE constituted an infallible and final authority by which to judge truth and error.
5. However, this series of writings was lost, and the God who inspired them was unable to preserve their content through Bible-believing Christians at Antioch (Syria), where the first Bible teachers were (Acts 13:1), and where the first missionary trip originated (Acts 13:1-52), and where the word "Christian" originated (Acts 11:26).
6. So God chose to ALMOST preserve them through Gnostics and philosophers from Alexandria, Egypt, even though God called His Son OUT of Egypt (Matthew 2), Jacob OUT of Egypt (Genesis 49), Israel OUT of Egypt (Exodus 15), and Joseph's bones OUT of Egypt (Exodus 13).
7. So there are two streams of Bibles. The most accurate—though, of course, there is no final, absolute authority for determining truth and error; it is a matter of "preference"—are the Egyptian translations from Alexandria, Egypt, which are "almost the originals," although not quite.
8. The most inaccurate translations were those that brought about the German Reformation (Luther, Zwingli, Boehler, Zinzen-dorf, Spener, et al.) and the worldwide missionary movement of the English-speaking people: the Bible that Sunday, Torrey, Moody, Finney, Spurgeon, Whitefield, Wesley, and Chapman used.
9. But we can "tolerate" these if those who believe in them will "tolerate" US. After all, since there is NO ABSOLUTE AND FINAL AUTHORITY that anyone can read, teach, preach, or handle, the whole thing is a matter of "PREFERENCE." You may prefer what you prefer, and we will prefer what we prefer. Let us live in peace, and if we cannot agree on anything or everything, let us all agree on one thing: THERE IS NO FINAL, ABSOLUTE, WRITTEN AUTHORITY OF GOD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH.

This is the Creed of the Alexandrian Cult.

THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER

(Part Two of Two)

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

In our last article, we began talking about the military content of 2 Timothy 2:3-4. Last time we said a good bit about the part that tells the Christian soldier that he is to “endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ” (vs. 3), and we ended with the part of verse 4 that warns the Christian soldier not to “entangleth himself with the affairs of this life.”

Here we take up the last part of verse 4: “that he [i.e., the Christian soldier] may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.” The “Chooser” is the “Captain of his salvation” (Heb. 2:10), who “is a man of war” (Exod. 15:3), and whose “armies” (Rev. 19:14; Dan. 4:35) fight “a good fight” (2 Tim. 4:7).

The old song says: “The Son of God goes forth to war,

A kingly crown to gain; His blood-red banner streams afar: Who follows in his train?”

“Not I,” says the Alexandrian Cult. “Not I,” say the faculties and staffs of Bob Jones University, Tennessee Temple University, Liberty University, and Crown College, “Not I,” say Westcott and Hort, and all the other Bible revisers. The only “fight” into which these rookies ever got was shooting BB guns at the Authorized Version.

On December 21, 1944,

Colonel Harper said to the German Captain at Bastogne: “On your way, bud!” When he said that, he knew his own outfit, the 901st Infantry under Brigadier General Anthony McAuliffe, was outnumbered four to one.

On January 26, 1945, Audie Murphy found himself on top of a blazing half-track firing .50 caliber machine gun ammo at a German battalion. He was asked over the walkie talkie: “How near are the Germans?” Murphy replied, “Wait a minute, and I’ll let you talk to one.”

A German Colonel, upon being “stitched” with Bren gunfire, fell headlong into the snow. He rose painfully to his feet with blood streaming from four wounds and saluted “der Fuhrer.” He reported his name, rank, and serial number; and then standing at at-
