The Great Missing Link

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

“Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye REJOICE WITH JOY UNSPEAKABLE and full of glory” (1 Pet. 1:8).

Music is a “universal language.” It speaks and is accepted nearly everywhere as a mark of joy (with the notable exception of African “blues” and funeral dirges). In nature, birds are noted for their happy, joyful singing.

In European and American cultures, when you love someone or something, you write a song about it. I don’t know exactly how many songs like that exist, but I’m sure if you took the hillbilly and swing “hit parades” from the 30s, 40s, and 50s alone, you couldn’t possibly have less than a thousand songs like that at a minimum. Men express their happiness in song. They sing about the people they love: “Oh, My Darling Clementine,” “The Yellow Rose of Texas,” “Daisy, Daisy,” a German song called “Rosamunda” (meaning “Rose-mouth”), “Jeannie with the Light Brown Hair,” “Oh, Susanna,” “Lily Marlene,” etc. They sing about the places they love: “Old Man River,” “Shenandoah,” “The Wonderful German Rhine,” “The Red River Valley,” “Springtime in the Rockies,” “Carry Me Back to Old Virginny,” “My Old Kentucky Home,” “Way Down Upon the Suwanee River,” “Georgia on my Mind,” etc.

Among all the religions in the world, Christianity is noted for its hymns. The average hymn book in America has 400–500 songs in it about a supposed dead man (if you look at it from the standpoint of the lost world). Charles Wesley composed a minimum of 800 songs about that man, as did Fanny Crosby and Francis Havergal. That’s 2,400 songs; and that doesn’t include the ones by Isaac Watts, Philip Bliss, George Handel, John W. Peterson, Alfred Smith, and a host of others.

The thing to which few (if any) intellectuals (doctors, lawyers, psychiatrists, economists, professors, military leaders, etc.) have given any thought is this matter of the hymn book. Christian hymnody testifies to the fact that Jesus Christ was an histori-

Following in Israel’s Footsteps

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

The late Bob Jones Sr. had certain sayings he used several times, and I remember them very clearly. One of them was: “God will not take from America what He takes from other nations.” His reasoning on this was that only two nations started with God and the Bible instead of paganism or the Catholic Church.

All the nations of Europe started out under paganism before A.D. 400, and then either the Roman Catholic or Greek Orthodox Church took over and destroyed the governments of those nations in the Middle Ages. Only two nations started out with God and the Bible: Israel and the United States of America.

Israel began with a man and his family (Gen. 12–15) and wound up as a nation coming out of Egypt (Exod. 12–15). Later it became a kingdom with Kings (1 & 2 Samuel), and then split into two separate kingdoms with separate sets of Kings (1 Kings). Finally, after years and years of negative warnings, both kingdoms were taken into captivity (2 Kings; 2 Chronicles; Jeremiah). The thing that killed off both Israel and Judah was positive thinking (Deut. 29:19–20; Isa. 59:9–11; Jer. 4:10, 8:15; Ezek. 13:16).

That’s what finished off Eve. There was nothing negative about the temptation presented to her; it was positive in all three parts of its presentation.

“And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food [positive], and that it was pleasant to the eyes [positive], and a tree to be desired to make one wise [positive], she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat” (Gen. 3:6).

Every aspect of that temptation was positive; there

The Worst Bible On the Market

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman
(Part One of Three)

As time has progressed since the Laodicean apostasy began (1880–1901), the English translations of the Bible seem to have gotten into an Olympic contest to see which one can surpass the others in putrifaction and falsehood. There have been 233 of these apostate versions since 1880 (as of 2008); all of them display a rottenness and perverseness that disqualifies them as “Bibles,” let alone “The HOLY Bible.” Anyone can obtain a “checklist” of verses which demonstrate the corruptness of these translations, and we published a list of 28 of them back in 1970 in The Christian’s Handbook of Manuscript Evidence (chap. 10). A short list (very short) would be Luke 2:33; Acts 1:3; John 3:13; 2 Corinthians 2:17; Romans 1:18, 25; Acts 4:27, 30; and 1 Timothy 3:16.

It would be almost impossible to locate the most

"Thy Kingdom Come"

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman
(Part Two of Two)

In our last article, we discussed the two kingdoms found in the Scriptures: the spiritual Kingdom of God and the physical Kingdom of Heaven. The spiritual Kingdom of God departed in Genesis 3 when Adam sinned and his spirit died (cf. Eph. 2:1), and it doesn't show up again until the Holy Spirit baptizes the first believers into the Body of Christ in Acts 2 (Acts 1:5 cf. 1 Cor. 12:13).

The physical Kingdom of Heaven is all through the Old Testament, starting with Adam (see that "dominion" given to him in Gen. 1:28? That's the rule of a King), and it is given to David and his seed by a covenant of God in 2 Samuel 7. Like the covenant made with Abraham in Genesis 15, the covenant of the kingdom made with David in 2 Samuel 7 is unconditional and everlasting (Jer. 33; Ezek. 37); it is only temporarily set aside with the rejection of Jeconiah and his seed (Jer. 22:28 cf. 33:20–26). (Jesus Christ gains the legal right to the throne through His adopted step-father Joseph in Matt. 1, but He gained the covenant right to the throne through Mary in Luke 3.)

When John the Baptist and Jesus Christ show up, they both come preaching two messages: "the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matt. 3–4)—a physical kingdom; and "the kingdom of God is at hand" (Mark 1)—a spiritual kingdom. Why preach both? Because the King of both kingdoms is right there offering Himself to the Jews.

Do the Jews accept their King? No, they reject Him for a Roman dictator (John 19:15), so the physical Kingdom of Heaven is postponed and put into mystery form in Matthew 13. The Jewish disciples of Christ ask if the Lord will restore His kingdom after the resurrection, and Jesus tells them, "It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power" (Acts 1:7). Why is that? Because the Lord was going to make one last offer to those Jews to receive the kingdom in Acts 7. They turn it down flat, so the Kingdom of Heaven goes away for 2,000+ years and doesn't show up again until Revelation 19 when Jesus comes to conquer the kingdoms of this earth (Rev. 11:15; Zech. 14).

Thus we have the kingdom covenanted, prophesied, "at hand," postponed, and rejected. When that happens, Jesus said that the spiritual Kingdom of God would be taken away from those Jews and given to another nation (Matt. 21:43). Two religious, political Church-States stepped up to claim that position. The first was the Roman Catholic Church, which is a political nation called the "Vatican State," and we discussed that in our last issue.

Here we take up the second group that claims they are the "nation" to which Christ referred in Matthew 21:43. They're the followers of Mohammed who call themselves the "Islamic Nation." They swear on a stack of Korans and Hadiths that when God took the Kingdom of God away from the Jews, He gave it to a bunch of Bible-denying, Christ-rejecting Moslems. But the "kingdom" that "Allah" (not the God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ—"Allah has no son") gave Moslems has nothing to do with the Kingdom of God or the Holy Spirit as you find them in the Holy Scriptures at all.

After the Bible told you that "the kingdom of God is . . . righteousness, and peace [!], and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14:17), do you know what all the Mohammedans will tell you? They will tell you (just as serious as a heart attack) that Mohammed was the Holy Ghost. All the Imams, Sheiks, and Caliphs teach that the "Comforter" of John 14:16—whom Jesus defined as "the Holy Ghost" sent by "the Father" in John 14:26—was actually Mohammed himself. So you didn't get a spiritual comforter at all; you got a slave-owning, epileptic, illiterate, fornicating pederast who believed in killing anybody who didn't believe what he believed.

That has nothing to do with the Kingdom of God at all; it is not even remotely connected. No Moslem has any "righteousness" (Isa. 64:6; Rom. 3:10); they aren't interested in "peace," just killing "infidels" in a "jihad" (holy war); and they have no "joy," otherwise they would sing about their god and their "prophet" (see our work God is Love). Mohammed was no "Comforter"; he was an ANTICHRIST.

"Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is an antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son" (1 John 2:22).

Mohammed stated over and over again that God has no son (Sura 23:89, 37:150, 25:2, 2:116, 112:1–4, 19:34, 18:4). That's the mark of an antichrist.

Islam has the same problem as Roman Catholicism: it deals with nothing except things that are physical. All Moslem men are allowed four wives—physical. Moslems are to abstain from pork; they are to observe Ramadan; they aren't allowed to drink wine. That's "meat and drink"; that's exactly what "the kingdom of God" is NOT (Rom. 14:17). They pray in "vain repetitions" to "be seen of men" (Matt. 6:5–7)—that's physical; that's not spiritual. They believe if they look up while praying their eyes will pop out of their sockets (Hadith, Muslim, Vol. I, no. 863, chap. CLXXIII)—physical; they believe if they fall asleep while praying Satan will pee in their ears (Hadith, Bukhari, Vol. II, no. 245)—physical; they snort water up their noses before they pray to wash out Satan who had been sleeping there the night before (Hadith, Bukhari, Vol. IV, no. 516; Muslim, Vol. I, no. 462)—physical; they teach Allah won't hear your prayers if you have bad breath (Hadith, Bukhari, Vol. I, no. 812; Vol. VII, no. 362–363)—physical. Mohammed ordered his followers to drink camel's urine (Hadith, Bukhari, Vol. I, no. 234)—how's that for "meat and drink"?!

The proof that Mohammed was Allah's prophet was what? Fulfilled prophecy? No! Signs and wonders? No! It was a large, hairy mole on his back (Sura 33:40 cf. Hadith, Bukhari, Vol. I, no.

cal figure who lived and died in such a manner that it made a profound impression on His followers that no other religion has made on its followers. Mohammed says Jesus did not die on the cross. The Jews say it was a good thing He died the way He did because He wasn't God's Son. The Hindus and Buddhists either accept Him as one more god on the godshelf to be worshipped along with 300 million others (India), or they simply ignore Him altogether. But what are you going to do about that hymn book?

Where are all those other song books with 500 songs in them about a dead man? How is it that that phenomenon is not duplicated by any other religion in the world?

You're a "humanist," are you? You don't believe in God? If humanism is the ineffectual deification of mankind, where are all the songs about "humanity" and "mankind"? I have a hymnal here with hundreds of songs about one individual man. If you belong to an outfit like the ACLU or the National Education Association that hold to humanism, where are your songs about dead people like Horace Mann, John Dewey, and Clarence Darrow? You won't find any song book for the religion of humanism.

In 1 Peter 1:8, you have a bunch of Christians rejoicing with an extraordinary joy over a man who died because they love Him in the present tense. Well, if Jesus Christ was the "founder" of Christianity, and Mohammed was the founder of "Islam," why is there no Moslem hymnal rejoicing over Mohammed and what he did?

Have you ever noticed something funny about Moslems? They don't like to be called "Mohammedans." I wonder why that is? After all, they don't mind calling somebody who believes in Jesus Christ a "Christian," because Jesus Christ was the founder of that religion. Then why fail to give Mohammed the credit for what he did? After all, "Islam" is not only submitting to Allah, it's submitting to Mohammed too (Sura 4:80). Wouldn't you say that's sufficient reason for calling it "Mohammedanism"? Mohammed recommended killing anyone who would not confess that he was the prophet of "God."

Now, who in the world would think of loving Mohammed even though they've never seen him? Why, nobody would! What "Moslem" who believes what Mohammed said about himself would rejoice over Mohammed with "joy unspeakable and full of glory"? Not one in 900 million.

Why is that, you may ask? Because Mohammed never did anything for mankind that would make any man love him or rejoice in him.

Do you understand what "joy unspeakable" is? It's joy so great that you can't even express it in words. But they sure try, don't they? They try to the tune of 400-500 times in one hymn book. But that is only for one man, and it wasn't for Mohammed or "Allah."

That love and rejoicing is what sets true, Biblical Christianity apart from every other religion on the face of this earth that has ever been or ever will be. Among the heathen, love was never associated with a god outside of sex. No Greek or Roman ever "loved" the gods. He feared them, he honored them, and he even imitated them with ritualistic fornication. But love them? Of course not.

No Hindu ever spoke of loving any of his 300 million gods in any personal way until the message of Jesus Christ reached India. Then somebody invented a new god—Krishna—to compete with Jesus Christ. But whoever heard of any Indian, Hindu, or "Hare Krishna" having a hymn book with 400 songs in it about Krishna?

Whoever heard of a Moslem "loving" Mohammed or Allah? Outside of fornicating with children, a number of women legally and illegally (legal wives, concubines, and slave girls; in Mohammed's case, that included a nine-year-old girl and his daughter-in-law), and men ("Women are made for reproduction; men are made for pleasure"), Islam has nothing to do with "loving." If Allah is so "blessed" and "beneficent" and "compassionate," how is it that no Moslem has a hymnal about him?

You read in 1 Peter 1:8 that a child of God rejoices over Jesus Christ with "joy unspeakable and full of glory" because he loves Him. Do you know how I know that no Moslem loves Mohammed? Because they couldn't produce fifty songs about him that any woman or child would sing unless they were threatened at sword point. Here at the Bible Baptist Church, we have three different hymn books with a total of 650 different hymns between them. That's 650 songs about the same man praising Him for His identity, for being born, for living a sinless life, for His intercession and prayers, for His help and advice, for His death, for His resurrection, and for His return. They are corrupt English translation on the market. [The silly Fundamentalists at Bob Jones University had a fit when the RSV translating the Hebrew word alma (“virgin”) as “young woman” in Isaiah 7:14, although they had been selling the RSV New Testament in their campus bookstore for three years (I know, because I saw it on the shelves in 1949, 1950, and 1951).] Other stupid Conservatives and apostate Evangelicals had spasms over the Cotton Patch Bible and the Reader’s Digest Bible (which was simply a condensed version of the RSV). A group of them got so upset when the NRSV came out that they decided a “Conservative” version of the RSV needed to be done, so they produced the ESV (English Standard Version). It came from the same Greek text as the RSV (ditto the ASV, NASV, NIV, TLB, TEV, NEB, NWT, etc.).

But if you had to pick out one English translation that was more dangerous than all the other garbage, there is a Biblical method by which it can easily be spotted, and it can be found in any edition of a King James 1611 Authorized Holy Bible in Galatians 5:9.

The classic illustration of that text is not an ASV or an NIV or an NRSV or an NASV. Those are all a lot of leaven. Those all make anywhere from 36,000–64,000 changes in the Biblical text. Far more dangerous is a “Bible” that has the least leaven in it; that is, it comes as close to the truth as it can get without telling the truth. These stupid, godless Fundamentalists and Conservatives think that a lot of leaven is dangerous, but a “little leaven” isn’t; that is, they make a liar out of God the Holy Spirit.

The Satanic mess now being promoted by Fundamentalists, Conservatives, and Evangelicals is the New King James Version. One of the reasons it is more dangerous is because the apostates who put out that piece of corruption (Truman Dollar, James Price, Arthur Farstad, Jerry Falwell, Elmer Towns, Wally Criswell, A. V. Henson; along with Curtis Hutson, the former editor of The Sword of the Lord, and Harold Ockenga, the founder of Neo-evangelicalism) claimed it was a genuine revision of the original King James text because it was from a different Greek text than that used for the RV, ASV, RSV, NASV, NIV, ESV, etc. You are to believe that since these backslidden Fundamentalists—these proud, stupid, ignorant Biblical illiterates—used the Textus Receptus (TR) to correct your King James Bible (in more than 2,000 places), that you are getting a real “King James Bible.”

You are getting no such thing. What you got was a watered-down American Standard Version and Revised Standard Version masquerading as a King James Bible. That is, the apostates smuggled the English readings of the ASV and RSV back into the King James text while professing to be revising and “updating” the Authorized Version.

Now, it is not hard to catch these hypocrites “with their pants down.” You don’t have to know any Greek or Hebrew. All you have to do is lay the New King James Version (supposedly from the Textus Receptus) down alongside a New American Standard

“Thy Kingdom Come”

Continued from 2 189; Vol. IV, no. 741). You talk about physical, man, that “takes the cake.” Islam is a physical religion for a physical people who believe in being physical; the Holy Ghost is never connected with any part of it. No “kingdom of God” as defined in Romans 14:17—“righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost”—was ever taken from Israel and given to any Moslem on the face of this earth; Islam is strictly a “meat and drink” operation from start to finish.

Now, the whole thing with these two kingdoms is very simple if you know the Scriptures. In the Church Age, from Acts 7 clear through to the Second Advent of Christ, there is no physical Kingdom of Heaven anywhere on this earth. If it is a physical, literal, visible kingdom like the “Vatican State” or the “Islamic Nation,” it is only a fake Jewish theocracy; it has nothing to do with God or Heaven at all. What has gone on for over fourteen centuries now is two religious organizations pretending that they’re spiritual so they can enforce their will on earth, not God’s (cf. Matt. 6:10).

Listen, people, when the real kingdom shows up, there won’t be any doubt in anyone’s mind as to what it will be. It will have a Jewish King on a Jewish throne: He will be a Judean Jew who is the “son of David” (Matt. 22:42) sitting on David’s throne (Luke 1:32), ruling over David’s kingdom (Mark 11:10); He will rule from the Jewish capital of Israel—Jerusalem—because “it is the city of the great King” (Matt. 5:35). That is when God’s “will” will “be done in earth, as it is in heaven” (Matt. 6:11), because He is “God . . . in the flesh” (1 Tim. 3:16) ruling as “king over all the earth” (Zech. 14:9).

Right now you have the “twin sisters” of Roman Catholicism and Islam bringing in the Kingdom of Death and Hell (Rev. 6:1–8; Isa. 28:15). The Catholic Church killed thousands of Christians in the Dark Ages just as Islam is doing now. They are both together now under the United Nations. You are now ready for a gigantic counterfeit of the Kingdom of Heaven. It will be a literal, visible, physical Kingdom which deals in nothing but money, Masses, clothes, politics, marks on the body, and executions. It is that kingdom that is the subject of Isaiah 24; Jeremiah 25; and Revelation 6–13.

The real kingdom is not realized until the “KING OF KINGS” returns in Revelation 19 and brings the kingdom with Him. When He comes, He brings both kingdoms with Him—the physical Kingdom of Heaven and the spiritual Kingdom of God. He is the literal King over a literal, physical, visible piece of land—Mt. Zion where the Dome of the Rock now stands in Jerusalem (Psa. 2:6), and Palestine—yet He leads an army of glorified saints to whom He gave spiritual life so that they won’t ever die (Joel 2:1–8). He was not only the Son of man come to set up the Kingdom of Heaven, He was the Son of God come to set up a spiritual kingdom in the hearts of men through the New Birth (John 3). He Himself was the Holy Ghost incarnate as a man (Rom. 8:9–10; Col. 1:27). The proof of that was that when He came up from the dead, He ate with men (Luke 24:42–43; “meat and drink”—the Kingdom of Heaven), even though He had a supernatural body that didn’t have to eat anything to stay alive (Kingdom of God).

Now to review the simple thing that not ten theologians throughout the history of the Church have understood: There is no spiritual Kingdom of God anywhere in the Bible from the time Adam lost the image of God up until the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost to indwell the believer in Christ and make him part of the spiritual Body of Jesus Christ; there is no Kingdom of God from Genesis to Acts because there is no New Birth anywhere in the Old Testament. Now when you get to Acts 2 and the spiritual Body of Christ starts to be formed, the Kingdom of Heaven drops out completely in Acts 7 and doesn’t show up again until the Second Advent of Jesus Christ.

Right now (A.D. 500–2011), there are two counterfeits to these two kingdoms: the Roman Catholic Church-State and the “Islamic Na-wasn't anything negative about it. So it destroyed the human race for 6,000+ years.

Somebody should have learned something from that, especially in light of the fact that the first word the Devil spoke in Scripture was yes, not no: "YEA, hath God said" (Gen. 3:1). The result of something good to eat, something pleasant to look at, and something desirable for wisdom was depravity, decay, corruption, sorrow, pain, and death.

Negative responses accompany positive thinking; that is the rule, not the exception. The world says success depends on positive thinking. Well, damnation does, that's for sure.

All modern "possibility thinking" is Genesis 3:6, and from there on, the Biblical text contradicts the entire international bookshelf of material about man's mind, his thoughts, his goals, his motives, his ideas, and his religions for the next 6,000+ years. The entire works of over 50,000 authors who deal with these points are null and void.

Listen, the most positive thinker in the history of the universe was Satan. His goals were to "ascend into heaven" (positive), "exalt [his] throne above the stars of God" (positive), "sit upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north" (positive), "ascend above the heights of the clouds" (positive), and "be like the most high" (positive) (Isa. 14:13-14). You can't get more "positive" in your goals than that, brother. But he winds up in the Lake of Fire (Isa. 14:15; Rev. 20:10). His negative results come from positive thinking (Mic. 1:12).

Now this should have been clear to anyone who knows the old saying: "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." In that statement, the "prevention" is the negative part: you stop the disease before it ever starts. The "cure" is the positive part: you take definite measures to get rid of the disease. The saying wasn't: "An ounce of cure (positive) is worth a pound of prevention (negative"); it was: "An ounce of prevention (negative) is worth a pound of cure (positive)." A little bit of negative prevention is ten times more effective than a positive cure, and in fact, many times the cure is much worse than the disease.

People ignore not only the Bible, they ignore reality. Who that has read any history of the Third Reich would say that Adolf Hitler was a negative thinker. Why, he was almost as positive of a thinker as Satan. He promised people: "Today Germany, tomorrow the world!"

Sounds almost like the promises Obama made for healthcare, doesn't it? "Everybody should have healthcare; we're going to guarantee everybody access to healthcare." Meaning what? Meaning the government is going to force you to buy health insurance, and if you don't buy it, you don't get any treatment and you die. If you don't buy the insurance, the Federal government is not content with merely letting you die because you don't get the medical care, they'll fine you for not buying the insurance. That's called a "mugging": it's a guy putting a .45 under your chin and saying, "Your billfold or your life," and then taking your life and lifting your billfold off you after he kills you. But it sure sounds positive, doesn't it? "Healthcare." Mark it down, when Obama and the Democrats say "healthcare," what they actually mean is government-sanctioned extortion and murder.

This practice of promising something positive ending in negative consequences is an age-old operation that goes on year after year, decade in and decade out, century after century, with little variation. Remember the promises the press gave you on how integration would work? Not one of them materialized. Seven nations between 1917 and the year 2000 promised their citi-

The Covenants Of the Bible

A detailed study from the Sunday School of Bible Baptist Church on the Biblical covenants that form the foundation of dispensational theology. In this series, Dr. Ruckman teaches on how God deals with mankind throughout history by establishing seven covenants with the representatives of humanity, races, and nations. As in all of his teachings, Dr. Ruckman "rightly divides" the word so you will know what parts of those covenants are still binding on us today, what parts have already been fulfilled, and what parts await fulfillment in the future. (Nearly 18 hours of teaching.)

 sung by men, women, and children with no compulsion or coercion. They are sung as a congregation, as "specials," and privately in their homes and daily lives. If Mohammed commands such love, admiration, and respect from his followers, why don't you see that in any mosque anywhere in the world?

There is no record anywhere in the Koran or the Hadith that Mohammed ever did anything of significance for anybody ever to sing about. "Allah's Prophet" never actually did anything for anyone outside of some personal favors for a few people he knew; he never revealed his or Allah's love for people as a whole in any tangible way.

The case for Christianity is entirely different. The founder of our "religion" died for us. According to the Scriptures, He died for us when we were His enemies, not His friends (Rom. 5:8-10). He sent His Holy Spirit down to convict me when I wouldn't even read His Book (John 16:8-9), and He forgave my sins and gave me His righteousness as a free gift (2 Cor. 5:21). He reserved me a place in Paradise (1 Pet. 1:4), and with it, He gave me the assurance that He would get me there no matter what happened (Rom. 8:29-39). Mohammed not only could not give anyone else assurance about what was going to happen to them after death, he didn't even know what was going to happen to himself, even though he said he was Allah's "prophet" and Allah's "apostle" (Hadith, Bukhari, Vol. V, no. 266).

We Bible-believing Christians love our Prophet; that's why we sing about Him. We sing:

"So precious is Jesus, my Saviour, my King. His praise all the day long with rapture I sing. To Him in my weakness for strength I can cling, for He is so precious to me."

"I've found a Friend, who is all to me; His love is ever true. I love to tell how He lifted me, and what His grace can do for you."

"We have heard the joyful sound: Jesus saves! Jesus saves!"

Can you imagine how ridiculous it would be for someone to stand up and sing the following:

"My Mohammed, I love thee; I know thou art mine. For thee all the follies of sin I resign. My gracious redeemer, my savior art thou. If ever I loved thee, my Mohammed, tis now."

"Mohammed, what a friend of sinners; Mohammed, lover of my soul."

"Mohammed, Mohammed, how I trust him; how I've proved him o'er and o'er. Mohammed, Mohammed, precious Mohammed, o for grace to trust him more!"

"What a friend we have in Mohammed, all our sins and griefs to bear. What a privilege to carry everything to him

"Have you been to Mohammed for the cleansing power? Are you washed in the blood of the lamb [or maybe a camel would be better in this instance]? Are you fully trusting in Mohammed's grace this hour?"

How's that for comedy? Can you beat that? The Three Stooges couldn't. Do you know what that proves? It proves that somebody's religion is ridiculous in light of the facts of history.

Now our love for Jesus Christ is based on faith, not sight: "Whom having not seen, ye love." I draw pictures of Him all the time, but those are just products of my imagination. I draw His portrait based upon what a normal 33-year-old Jewish male would look like as described in the Song of Solomon (see chap. 5).

The Jesus Christ with whom I fell in love was the Jesus Christ of the Bible. That's not the Jesus Christ of the Koran. Mohammed's "Jesus" wasn't born in a manger in Bethlehem like the Holy Bible tells us (Luke 2); he was born in "a far-off place" under a palm tree (Sura 19:22). He spoke from the cradle and called his mother the "sister of Aaron" (Miriam) when she wasn't living within a thousand years of Aaron (Sura 19:27). Mohammed's "Jesus" brought clay pigeons to life as a boy (Sura 3:49). That's not in the Bible; it's in "Thomas' First Gospel of the Infancy of Jesus Christ." The "Jesus" of the Koran did not die on the cross (Sura 23:50, 3:54, 5:75). In fact, he's not even "Jesus"; he's "Isa." That's the Arabic word for Esau; not Jesus or Yeshua or anything else like that. The "Jesus" of Mohammed and the Koran is a mythological spook.

I accepted Jesus Christ by faith in what God said about

Bible (taken from the same Greek text recommended by all unsaved Liberals), and low and behold, up pops an Alexandrian ASV, RSV, NRSV, and NASV pretending to be the Textus Receptus.

Don't believe me? Check it out. I mean, if you think I'm lying, don't believe a word I say. Get a NKJV and check it out with a NASV, and get the documented evidence in black and white.

1. The "TR" (don't you know, baby) reading of Job 11:20 in the New King James Version is the Alexandrian text of the New American Standard Bible.

2. The "TR" reading of Job 41:25 in the NKJV is the Alexandrian text of the NASV.

3. The "TR" reading of Job 39:20 in the NKJV is the Alexandrian text of the NASV.

(Don't just stand there, mouth agape—READ IT! Get you a New King James Version and a New American Standard Version, and open them both up to the passages I'm giving you, and READ THEM. You will find that the "New" King James Version doesn't read like any King James Bible from the Textus Receptus at all; it reads like a New American Standard Version from the Alexandrian text.)

4. The "TR" reading of Job 39:13 in the NKJV is the Alexandrian text of the NASV.

5. The "TR" reading of the NKJV in Genesis 3:1 is the Alexandrian text of the NASV. By changing the word order of the verse, both corrupt "Bibles" remove one of the greatest truths on Satan and temptation that you will find in the Scriptures.

7. The "TR" reading of Genesis 3:16 in the NKJV is the corrupt Alexandrian text as given in the NASV.

Don't you see what's going on here, folks? The apostates who put out the New King James Version (James Combs, A. V. Henderson, Truman Dollar, James Price, Wally Criswell, Curtis Hutson, et al.) simply inserted the Alexandrian readings of the ASV and NASV back into the English text of the AV, while claiming to be following a different Greek text. Every "good," "godly," saved Fundamentalist who sat down with the Neo-evangelical Harold Ockenga to produce the NKJV made it his job to get rid of as much of the King James text as possible and replace it with the NASV. The claim of following the Textus Receptus was a ruse to con the suckers.

8. The "TR" (Ho! Ho! Ho!) reading of Genesis 49:6 in the NKJV is the exact Alexandrian reading of the NASV, RSV, NIV, ESV, etc.

9. The "TR" (are you kidding?!) reading of Acts 4:27 in the NKJV is the Alexandrian text of the NASV; it is NOT the KJV text.

10. The "TR" reading of Genesis 24:47 in the NKJV is the Alexandrian corruption of the NASV.

11. The "TR" reading of the NKJV in Exodus 34:35 matches the NASV; it is Alexandrian from start to finish.

12. The "TR" reading of 2 Corinthians 2:17 in the NKJV is the Alexandrian text just as it was published by the unsaved Liberals in the National Council of Churches in 1946 (RSV).

13. The "TR" (aww nuts!) reading of Isaiah 9:3 in the NKJV is nothing but the Alexandrian text in the corrupted messes we've listed above.

14. So is the "TR" (bat feathers!) reading of 1 Timothy 6:10, 20 in the NKJV.

15. Ditto the NKJV's "TR" (aww, your father's mustache!) reading of Hebrews 12:16.

Moral: ALL correctors of the AV—of any profession, any reputation, any character, or any degree of separation—have the same motive and the same goal in mind: get rid of what God said.

That was the goal of Satan when he talked to Eve.

Their choice of Greek text doesn't affect their motive (which is rotten) or their goal (which is corrupt) one bit. In that respect (and don't misquote me or you'll be lying just like them), the following men have formed an "ecumenical fellowship," united in perfect harmony

Him in the Holy Bible. I accepted Him based on the eyewitness accounts recorded by His four biographers (see Luke 1:3). I accepted Him based on the facts given by people who saw Him, heard Him, touched Him, and spoke with Him personally (1 John 1:1); not some gossip that an epileptic camel trader got from a 600-winged spook 600 years after the fact.

If any Mohammedan ever were to sing a song about his love for "Allah," he would have a real problem on his hands. You see, the God of the Bible (whose name is not Allah—Exod. 6:3) exalted the name of His Son above any name Mohammed might think up (Phil. 2:9–11); He then commanded you to "love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind" (Matt. 22:37). If old Mohammed thought he was going to replace even Old Testament Judaism, "he had another think coming" because that's "the first and great commandment" (Matt. 22:38).

I don't recall any Mohammedan singing any song glorifying his love for Allah. If he should, Jesus marked it out as nonsense. You see, Jesus said that the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Abraham being the one who ran Ishmael out of Palestine at the command of God Himself—Gen. 21:10–12)—the God who was the Father of Jesus Christ—said, "If ye were Abraham's children [Moslems profess to be descended from Abraham through Ishmael and say Abraham was the first Moslem—Sura 2:132], ye would do the works of Abraham . . . If God were your Father, zens peace and security if the government could just institute gun control laws. Instead, 55 million unarmed civilians—men, women, and children—were slaughtered by their own governments. Those are the negative results of positive thinking.

With all the studying that the Bible revisers and Bible scholars do, they never really studied positive thinking in the Bible. What they did was take one verse out of one book (Phil. 4:8 on thinking on things that were “true,” “honest,” “just,” “pure,” “lovely,” and “of good report”) and rejected the negative content of the other 65 books. Do you actually know the results of “positive thinking” in the Bible?

Tell me something, did Samson think positively or negatively? Why, in Judges 16:20, he thought he was just as tough as he was before: “I killed a thousand men with the jawbone of an ass, so bless God, I can surely kill thirty of these guys right now with my bare knuckles.” He wound up a blind suicide. How’s that for “positive thinking”?

Want another one? Here’s Rebekah in Genesis 27:42–45. She says to herself, “I’ll let my brother Laban take care of Jacob until the storm passes by, and then we can have him home again. I can save my boy’s life that way. If he stays here, his brother is bound to kill him.” Perfect thinking—absolutely positive! No vengeance, no need for security guards, murder can be avoided, “time heals all wounds,” and she’ll get her little darling back. She never saw him again. When Jacob got back, momma was dead. Way to go, Becky-wecky. Think your way through; always using the old noggin just like your son: old crafty, subtle, conniving Jacob.

Why do you people keep fooling with television, radio, and newspapers to find out how you should think when you’ve got the greatest textbook in the world on the subject. It shows you exactly what happened to people who thought positively.

Back in 1 Kings 22, 400 “ministers” in the “NCC” came together in perfect ecumenical unity, obeying the Bible’s commands to “all speak the same thing” (1 Cor. 1:10) and “be of the same mind” (Rom. 12:16) and “be of one mind” (2 Cor. 13:11). They all thought things that were pure and good and positive for Baal worshippers, so they all prophesied of victory and peace to come (1 Kings 22:6). They did it just as five Catholic Popes have done since 1914. What happened? They turned out to be liars (1 Kings 22:19–28): the King lost his life and his troops ran for their lives (1 Kings 22:35–36). The one who was able to predict what would actually take place in history was a negative thinker, a “preacher of hate” (1 Kings 22:8). He always preached negatively about Israel’s future, like the prophet Amos (read Amos 7:10–17). The results of the positive-thinking, ecumenical prophets who preached positively were retreat, defeat, death, and destruction; that’s the “power of positive thinking.”

Did you ever read the Bible? Do you know who the greatest positive thinker in the Bible was outside of Satan? It was Pharaoh. After his coun-

YE WOULD LOVE ME: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me" (John 8:39, 42).

If you are to keep "the first and great commandment" of loving God with all your heart, soul, strength, and mind, you have to love His Son Jesus Christ. That's why the hymns are the way they are: love God—love His Son.

Whereupon the "Moslems" of Christ's day (i.e., the Pharisees and Sadducees) thought just like the actual Moslems of today: that they did God a favor by killing anyone who believes Jesus is the Son of God and that God is His Father (John 16:2 cf. 8:40–41, 59).

Jesus said, "And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not He that is of God heareth GOD'S WORDS: ye therefore HEAR THEM NOT, because ye are NOT OF GOD" (John 8:45,

They had no more intention of keeping the First Commandment than Mohammed did, and that explains the absence of any songs of love or joy among 900 million Moslems for anything Allah or Mohammed ever did for them. All those two did was make fornicating killers out of all their followers.

They couldn't have a hymn book with hundreds of songs about anybody who died for them because nobody died for them. A lot of people died by them (including their own people) because they killed them in order to get to Paradise, but that's no reason for "joy unspeakable and full of glory."

If that "joy" is the reason you sing, it will be about one man who did something for you (1 Tim. 2:5). I've got over 500 songs I sing about Him, and not only me, but the women and little children love to sing about Him as well. Let's see you find that in Islam!

Moslems have no knowledge at all about the One who "died for our sins according to the scriptures; And . . . was buried, and . . . rose again the third day according to the scriptures" (1 Cor. 15:3–4); or the joy, love, and adoration of what that One did for us, about which we Bible-believing Christians sing. Mohammed couldn't fill that man's shoes; he couldn't produce that kind of love in any Moslem who ever lived on this earth in fourteen centuries of "Islam." Neither could "Allah" for that matter.

It's all rather embarrassing to tell you the truth. The songs that were composed to praise a dead man were written because that man could do what Mohammed could not do, or even think of doing. That dead man caused His followers to receive "the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls" (1 Pet. 1:9).

Simon Peter said that when a man trusts Christ as his Saviour, he is saved at that moment and has a place "reserved in heaven" (1 Pet. 1:4). That is how you know Peter wasn't a Roman Catholic or the first Pope. No Roman Catholic Pope who ever lived knew that he had eternal life as a present possession, which is why none of them ever professed such a thing. All Roman Catholics (like all Moslems) are taught that they can't know for sure where they are going until they die. They all lived and died without any assurance of salvation, just like every Moslem on six continents, and the reason for that is because they, like all Moslems, count on their good works as part of their salvation. They have to "die in try was completely destroyed (Exod. 10:7) and his firstborn son was dead (Exod. 12:29-30), do you know what he did? He said, "Why on earth did we let those Jews go? Let's go and get them back! C'mon, boys; we've got 600 chariots; let's go (Exod. 14:5-7)!" He went to the bottom of the Red Sea. That's what comes from "believing in yourself" and "having faith in yourself" and "self-esteem"—you kill yourself. Positive thinking can make Ebola, GRID, blood clots, and leprosy look like indigestion.

Simon Peter was a positive thinker and look where it got him. "Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death" (Luke 22:33). You are? Are you ready to stay awake when you're supposed to pray? Are you ready to own up to being one of His disciples before His enemies? When Jesus told His disciples He was going to Jerusalem to die, Peter said, "Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee" (Matt. 16:22). Why, that's not thinking negatively; that's thinking positively. "You're not going to die, Lord; you're going to make it." Do you know what turned Peter's "power of positive thinking" into a big, fat pile of negative rubbish? Why, that's easy: he didn't believe what the Holy Spirit recorded in His Book—Zechariah 13:7. One verse out of 31,102 verses recorded in the Bible told Peter what his positive thinking would amount to if it conflicted with the Scriptures.

Remember Goliath? You talk about a "positive thinker," boys; he was the real thing. He was so confident that he would kill David (1 Sam. 17:44) that he didn't even put on his helmet when he charged into battle. Too bad. He lost his head—literally: David cut it off (1 Sam. 17:51). Too much positive thinking, evidently.

Have you ever heard of "Gedaliah the son of Ahikam" (Jer. 40:6)? Probably not; who reads the Old Testament any more? He was the puppet Governor of Judah set up by Nebuchadnezzar after he burned down Jerusalem. One of his buddies ("Johanan the son of Kareah"—Jer. 40:13) came to him and warned him of a plot afoot to assassinate him (Jer. 40:14). Johanan asked Gedaliah for permission to secretly eliminate the head of the conspiracy (Jer. 40:15), but Gedaliah, being the positive thinker that he was—a mild-mannered, cooperative, well-balanced "Christian" who wouldn't think evil of anybody—denied any plot was in the works (Jer. 40:16), so Gedaliah lost his life (Jer. 41:2). Positive thinking is more deadly than spinal meningitis and Bright's disease, and in Gedaliah's case, it not only caused his demise but the slaughter of dozens of others as well (Jer. 41:3-7). If old Gedaliah had thought negatively, he could have saved his own life as well as the lives of his friends.

We have discussed this matter clearly back in 2005 in a book which not too many of our customers at the Bookstore care to buy: it is entitled The Power of Negative Thinking. It shows you exactly what the Bible says about positive thinking and negative thinking; and, brother, let me tell you something, it doesn't match anything any American got in College or high school in the last 100 years. When applied, positive thinking means the government can steal your land in the name of "environmental protection," schools can pass illiterate dummies by giving them

"social promotions," foreign troops can invade your country as "peace-keeping forces," Satanism can be promoted as "global consciousness," speech can be censored through "sensitivity training" and "behavioral modification," genocide can be carried out on a citizenry by "gun control," you can't discipline your child because it would be "child abuse," and idolatry, promiscuity, jungle music, filthy lyrics, sex perverts, and drunken about a Saviour who came to save sinners and finish their salvation by what He had done for them. Salvation is conditioned on what He did, not what you do (Eph. 2:8-9; Tit. 3:5).

Moreover, He didn’t stay dead like Mohammed, Buddha, and all the Popes. None of them come up until the White Throne Judgment (Rev.

 20:12) because they were all just as spiritually dead (Eph.
 2:1) as the other ten billion sinners who missed the New Birth (John 3:3-5) and died
 “in Adam” (Rom. 5:12; 1 Cor.
 15:22).

It is considering the One who loved us enough to die in our place and rise again to give us eternal life that causes us to sing with “joy unspeak-able and full of glory.” That is the “missing link” not found in any other religion. It can only be found in a Christian hymn book.

THE CREED OF THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT

1. There is no final authority but God.
2. Since God is a Spirit, there is no final authority that can be seen, heard, read, felt, or handled.
3. Since all books are material, there is no book on this earth that is the final and absolute authority on what is right and what is wrong, what constitutes truth and what constitutes error.
4. There WAS a series of writings one time which, IF they had all been put into a BOOK as soon as they were written the first time, WOULD HAVE constituted an infallible and final authority by which to judge truth and error.
5. However, this series of writings was lost, and the God who inspired them was unable to preserve their content through Bible-believing Christians at Antioch (Syria), where the first Bible teachers were (Acts 13:1), and where the first missionary trip originated (Acts 13:1-52), and where the word “Christian” originated (Acts 11:26).
6. So God chose to ALMOST preserve them through Gnostics and philosophers from Alexandria, Egypt, even though God called His Son OUT of Egypt (Matthew 2), Jacob OUT of Egypt (Genesis 49), Israel OUT of Egypt (Exodus 15), and Joseph’s bones OUT of Egypt (Exodus 13).
7. So there are two streams of Bibles. The most accurate—though, of course, there is no final, absolute authority for determining truth and error; it is a matter of “preference”—are the Egyptian translations from Alexandria, Egypt, which are “almost the originals,” although not quite.
8. The most inaccurate translations were those that brought about the German Reformation (Luther, Zwingli, Boehler, Zinzen-dorf, Spener, et al.) and the worldwide missionary movement of the English-speaking people: the Bible that Sunday, Torrey, Moody, Finney, Spurgeon, Whitefield, Wesley, and Chapman used.
9. But we can “tolerate” these if those who believe in them will “tolerate” US. After all, since there is NO ABSOLUTE AND FINAL AUTHORITY that anyone can read, teach, preach, or handle, the whole thing is a matter of “PREFERENCE.” You may prefer what you prefer, and we will prefer what we prefer. Let us live in peace, and if we cannot agree on anything or everything, let us all agree on one thing: THERE IS NO FINAL, ABSOLUTE, WRITTEN AUTHORITY OF GOD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH.

This is the Creed of the Alexandrian Cult.

Continued from 14 parties are simply "cultural diversity." In short, you lie your way through as all positive thinkers do.

Positive thinkers are day-dreamers, lunatics, and ego-maniacs. They are not Biblically oriented at all; they don't even recognize the Book. The problem is always the Book because the only real argument against the Book is a bad life. Men are against that Book because it is against them; it knows all about them and tells it.

Men are just as positive and pious when questioning what God said in His Book as their father the Devil was back in Genesis 3:1. "We want to bring out the intent of the original author"; "We want to make the text clearer for the man on the street"; "We want a Bible that won't offend women, blacks, and queers"; "We want what the originals say"; "We want a more accurate translation." It just goes on and on with the "party line" until one more rotten "Bible" is put out every six months—233 of them since 1880.

Men always talk positively about mankind, society, their own nation, their own family, Federal education, science, the UN, religious unity, and especially themselves; and then talk negatively about the Book. The greatest positive thinkers Europe ever produced were blind fools who adopted two pagan fairytales for grown-ups: spontaneous generation and perpetual motion. With the negative Laws of Thermodynamics in front of them (which can be demonstrated scientifically), with the negative Laws of Biogenesis before them (which can be demonstrated scientifically), with Mendel's negative Laws of Genetics demonstrated before their eyes, and with the negative Laws of Statistical Probability laid out before them, a dozen blind, superstitious intellectuals (Julian Huxley, Charles Lyell, William Paley, Strata Smith, Lamarck, Herbert Spencer, Robert Chambers, Thomas Huxley, Ernest Haeckel, Charles Darwin, H. G. Wells, and Albert Einstein) all took the positive view of Satan (evolution) and had a negative attitude toward Genesis 1–3. Genesis 1–3 were too negative for them, so they threw them out and followed Mother Eve (Gen. 3:6).

"For after that in the wisdom of God the world BY WISDOM [see Gen. 3:5] knew not God" (1 Cor. 1:21).

The world uses the positive thinking of scientific experiments and academic standards to get rid of truth because truth is always negative where it deals with "man" and positive where it deals with God and the Book. The "humanists" are cracked mentally; they are not mentally competent. Their "cures" for mankind's problems—through sixty centuries—have never cured any major problem mankind ever had. His problems today are the same problems he had back in Genesis 1–12 (4000 B.C.—2000 B.C.).

America is currently on the same path Israel took in 2 Kings; 2 Chronicles; and Jeremiah: it is a road paved with nothing but positive thoughts for the future which ends up in death, destruction, and damnation.
