Modern Man vs. Bible Believer

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

After reading the “Good Book” through over 150 times, I came to certain conclusions, that I was bound to come to eventually, regarding the ever popular subject “man’s scientific progress”; you know, his great “breakthroughs,” “new areas of research,” “miracle cures,” and such. I am now ninety years old, and after the path I have taken (you can read the account in The Full Cup), I believe that “scientific progress”—apart from certain pain killers, “miracle drugs,” and medical procedures (which will never benefit the mass of human beings on this earth one way or another because those things are priced out of sight)—has accomplished absolutely NOTHING since Cain knocked Abel’s brains out.

I accept modern transportation and communication as “necessary evils.” Aside from their utility for preaching and teaching Biblical truths to the ends of the earth (and I am NOT talking about the “Biblical scholarship” of the Alexandrian Cult and the Scholars’ Union), I look at them as merely expensive ways to get something done in a hurry.

I stick to the basic principles of life, as found in Genesis chapters 1–12. The truths found there are so “self-evident,” that the total sum of man’s progress, in 6,000 years, on six continents, has not been able to alter or eliminate one of them. To say that I am a “reactionary” is putting it mildly. I approach these matters from the standpoint that whatever “progress” took place during that time (or degeneration or “evolution” or devolution or whatever), human nature has not changed “one iota” since Genesis 3.

Improvements in transportation and communication have done nothing to improve human nature in sixty centuries, and they never will.

Now, the anti-intellectual truths which no “intellectual” has ever been able to nullify, make void, replace, alter, or destroy are these:

1. Dirt farming and agriculture are the roots of human life (Gen. 4:2).

2. Hard work, pain, tears, and sweat are the common lot of all people (Gen. 3:16–19).

3. “Man” is a dethroned King (Gen. 1:28). He is de-based royalty who must die and return to the dirt from which he came (Gen. 3:19). He is alienated from God (Gen. 3:24), and he got that way by questioning what God said (Gen. 3:1) and then disobeying it (Gen. 3:6–12).

4. Fallen man hides from

Discrimination, the Key to Sanity

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

Part Two of Three

In the first part of this article, we began by discussing how people who are “un-prejudiced” about a thing are always prejudiced against something else in its place. When they drop their prejudice against one thing, they pick up another: they simply change their prejudices.

We proved this especially in regards to the Bible. As soon as a man gets over his prejudices against blacks, sex pervers, bossy women, Moslems, illegal aliens, and abortions, he immediately gets a deep-seated prejudice against about 400 verses of Scripture, as well as tract distribution, witnessing, and street preaching. The best examples of “hate literature” or “hate speech” for which a minister can now be arrested are Matthew 23 and 25—read them! The next best would be Deuteronomy 28 and Leviticus 27—read them!

Not too long ago, a preacher in Sweden was arrested for reading Romans 1 from his pulpit: it was “hate speech” against queers (read vs. Continued on 3

The Death of Liberty and Freedom

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

Part Two of Two

In the first part of this article, we discussed the fact that we saved, born-again, Bible-believing, white, Protestant males make up the smallest minority of any “minority group” on the face of this earth, yet we never protest or “demonstrate” against having our “rights” taken from us; nor do we get any “coverage” from the news media in this regard. The people who get all the coverage and promotion from the news media are never all males, or even mainly males; they are mainly females. The ones who are male are hardly ever white; they are black. The ones who are white are usually sex pervers. Those are the “minorities” who have bills passed to take care of them, not anybody else. This started back in the days of Franklin Delano Roosevelt (1933) and has come right on through to today (2012).

Strangely enough, my bunch can never be found demonstrating for their rights. If I understand the Bible correctly, there are only two “civil rights” from God that are the universal property of all men everywhere (see Acts 10:34; Rom. 2:11). Every sinner on earth has earned these two rights.

1) You have the right to die. You got that right because you worked for it and earned it. You deserve your pay: “For the wages of sin is death” (Rom. 6:23).

The people who are always worrying about their “rights” hate that Book. The Book says you earned the right to drop dead. You’ll get your payment shortly. All the “oppressed minorities” pretend that verse isn’t in there.

Double Application

(Part Three of Three)

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

We have been talking about those passages in the Old Testament (and some in the New Testament) where the First and Second Advents appear together separated by only a verse or punctuation mark. There is a double application to the two Advents.

If you want to see the thing at work, look at Psalm 2. There is the virgin birth of Christ in verse 7, followed by the Millennial reign in verses 8–12. Peter applied verses 1–3 to the Crucifixion (Acts 4:25–28), but look at verses 4–6. There's Christ returning at the Second Advent to put down His enemies and sit on the throne as King in Jerusalem. There are both Advents right together in the same chapter.

That's what all the Jewish Rabbis missed. All the Catholic Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, and Popes, and all the Postmillennial Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Baptists, Lutherans, etc., just missed it completely—a solid overlooking of basic Biblical truths since A.D. 90.

Now, the Lord set up those Old Testament prophecies about Christ so that the time of the fulfillment was conditioned on the free will of man. There's a good example of that in Jeremiah 38:17–23. Zedekiah asked Jeremiah what the word of the Lord was. Jeremiah told the king that if he would go out to Nebuchadnezzar and surrender, he and his family would live, and Jerusalem would be spared. But if Zedekiah didn't do that, then the Babylonians were going to burn the place to the ground, the women were going to be raped, the children were going to be enslaved, and the King would die in a foreign land.

Having told Zedekiah five times what was going to happen, do you know what Jeremiah begs the King to do: "Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD . . . so it shall be well with thee" (Jer. 38:20). Zedekiah could have changed things by an act of free will.

There went the whole Presbyterian-Reformed-Calvinistic mess down the commode. There, free will was able to overturn an "eternal decree" of God (in Calvinism, all decrees are "eternal decrees") because it wasn't "eternal" at all; it was conditional. It was conditioned on what one man would or would not do. God had it fixed so it could go either way.

The Bible says that the lost are headed for the Lake of Fire and that all men are lost. That's God's "eternal decree" for the unsaved. Do you know what I would do if I were lost and on my way to Hell? I would undo the prophecy and get rid of God's decree by receiving Christ as Saviour. I wouldn't wait for the Holy Spirit to overpower me with "irresistible grace" to prove I was one of the elect. I would claim the promise of Jesus Christ: "him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out" (John 6:37).

Now that is how the Old Testament was written. That explains all the stuff in the New Testament about the Kingdom of Heaven being at hand when it wasn't. But it was, because the King was there if the Jews had accepted Him. That explains why John the Baptist was Elijah, but he wasn't because the Jews didn't receive his message about Christ. That is why at Christ's First Coming, His transfiguration before Peter, James, and John was referred to as "the Son of man coming in his kingdom" (Matt. 16:28); that's a reference to the Second Advent (2 Pet. 1:16–19). Both Advents are together.

Take that and chew on it for a while. That's the root of both Jewish and Gentile histories. They are both so arranged that they can shift depending on what men do, and God would still be true (Rom. 3:4). No man, or combination of men, could write a book like that; it would be absolutely impossible. They would have to know dual, alternative futures. That's what the Lord knew, and He arranged things so that either one could take place without Him making one mistake in prophecy.

When it comes to history books, you don't know about what you're talking, unless you accept the Bible as the only absolutely correct history book that's ever been written. The rest of the history books have all kinds of errors in them, but not that old, black-backed .66 caliber nuclear bomb.

If you are one of these poor deluded nuts who thinks there is an arbitrary decree of election that automatically chooses some to get to Heaven with their sins paid for while condemning everyone else to Hell with no payment for their sins (Limited Atonement) through the decree of reprobation, you can take Calvin and stick him up your nose. Don't blow him out; it would be lethal.

The way to change the eternal decree of reprobation is simple:

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" (Matt. 11:28).

"If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink" (John 7:37).

"And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely" (Rev. 22:17).

God's directive will for every man, woman, and child on the face of this earth is to come to Jesus Christ for salvation.

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, 26–28 in that chapter). The same sort of thing happened recently in England to a Bible-believing street preacher with the Moslems.

That's where you're headed here in America with the "Hate Crimes Bill" Obama signed into law. The Federal government now controls the pulpits so that no preacher can say anything that offends the government or "minorities." Church and State have now been solidly joined together after running the Bible out of the school on the pretense that it was violation of the separation of Church and State. Church and State don't get together when the Bible is in the schools; they get together when the Book is kicked out. Once the Bible is out, the State controls the Church and can dictate what it can preach and not preach.

Now this is the second in a series of articles on discrimination and "Bibliophobia." Bibliophobia is a terrible psychiatric disease that all students, humanists, and religionists have which makes them not able to stand the Bible. Every queer has a spasm when he reads Genesis 19; Romans 1; Leviticus 20; 2 Peter 2; or the book of Jude. There is not a mugger, rapist, thief, blackmailer, bookie, loan shark, racketeer, or hit man "in population" that can stand to look at Numbers 35; Genesis 9; 1 Corinthians 6; Romans 13; Exodus 20; or Revelation 20–21. Every Christ-rejecting Moslem or Jew will throw a conniption fit at Matthew 1; John 1, 3, 20; Galatians 4; Colossians 1; and 1 John 5.

These psychotic, paranoid Bibliophobiacs are so deathly afraid of that Book that they are even afraid that someone might read (or preach or teach) it to their children. So every rapist, killer, and sex pervert on earth agrees with the Supreme Court and the Federal judges (along with the NEA, ACLU, CBS, NBC, CNN, ABC, and NPR), on one thing: GET THAT BOOK OUT OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM.

Everybody who overcame "homophobia" became infected with Bibliophobia. There are something like eight or nine nations that ban Bibles. Not one of them bans the Koran or Hadith ("The Source of International Terrorism"—see our work by that title), the atom bomb, the Book of Mormon, nuclear warfare, or The Communist Manifesto. Educated pagans consider the Bible to be the deadliest, most destructive force on the planet. They want it out of the schools, out of the halls of Congress, out of hotels and motels, out of the Boy Scouts, out of the YMCA, out of the libraries, out of the courts of law, and now out of the pulpits and the churches.

Any one of these twisted, perverted "New Agers" would gladly swap that Book for a faggot, a "joint," a "reefer," a new television set, some rock CDs, a bottle of liquor, a whore, a condom, an abortion, a buck, or an act of pederasty or bestiality. When they took up for those things and stood up for them in the press, they automatically became prejudiced against the greatest "minority" in America: white, Bible-believing, male Protestants.

It was white, Bible-believing, male Protestants who constructed the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights. The only way you can replace the Founding Fathers and the documents they produced is to take a clear-cut stand against them, and then let females, blacks, faggots, Lesbians, Hispanics, Moslems, and Catholics rewrite them.

You have to swap prejudices.

The surest proof of this thesis is to observe the peculiar behavior of the "multicultural minorities" whose "sexual orientations" and "alternative lifestyles" are not white, are not in line with the Bible, are not male (and I'm not talking about any Frisco-fruity-faggot), and are not Protestant. All those groups have a great bond of affinity that binds them together. They have one telltale mark which shows they're all mentally sick. It's easy to spot. Every one of them wants to be "accepted": they're continually pleading for acceptance.

By whom? For what purpose? What is this perverse, paranoid nonsense that has been promoted by the entire news media (all outlets) since 1964 about "being accepted"?

I am a white, Bible-believing, married head of a family, and I am a male Protestant. I am part of a minority group that would make the blacks, women, and queers look like the hordes of Ghengis Khan. Yet in 100 years, you have never heard one word from my minority group about "being accepted" by anyone. Why is that?

In the 62 years that I have been in the ministry, after authoring more than 120 books, you can't find one line I ever wrote expressing my desire to be "accepted" by someone. What is this raging madness that is being stirred up from coast to coast about "being accepted"?

Listen, through a period of 1,500 years, white, Bible-believing, male Protestants as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to usward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance” (2 Pet. 3:9).

“Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth” (1 Tim. 2:4).

That’s God’s directive will: what He would do if He had His “druthers.” But of course, we know what God’s permissive will is; that is, what He will let happen. What He will allow to happen is according to what men do with His Son.

Do you know what Jesus said to those Jews in Matthew 23:37? I mean, quit blowing off your top about that which you know nothing and quit giving your opinions when you’re not intelligent enough even to have an opinion on the subject, and READ THE SCRIPTURES! Christ said, “how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, AND YE WOULD NOT.”

That’s God wanting to do something and being overruled in what He wanted to do by the sovereign will of man. That’s man changing a decree of God by his own free will. The decree was for the Jews to be saved; they turned it down.

I will say it again: if you are headed for Hell under the decree of reprobation, throw it out the window by coming to Jesus Christ and trusting Him as your Saviour. That will blow the whole Calvinistic works to smithereens. You know what I mean, jellybean? This is supposed to be a Student’s Corner. If you are a student of the Scriptures, you surely should have learned something about that.

The two Advents together screwed up the whole Christian world (and the Moslem world, for that matter; Mohammed couldn’t get any of the Bible straight) on both sides of the Atlantic and the Pacific. It is just as clear in the King James Bible as a plate glass window with the pane knocked out.

Take Isaiah 40:1–5, for example. There’s the Second Advent in verses 1–2. Jerusalem’s “warfare” isn’t “accomplished,” and “her iniquity” won’t be pardoned as a nation until Christ shows up to destroy her enemies at Armageddon (Isa. 40:2 cf. Rom. 11:26–27). But look at verse 3: there’s John the Baptist heralding Jesus Christ at His First Coming (Mark 1:3; John 1:23). But when you go down to verses 4–5, you’re back at the Second Advent again.

If you really want a shock, notice the passage that everyone—Jew, Catholic, and Post-millennial Protestant—missed in 1,900 years of church history. In Psalm 89:28–39, the unbreakable covenant (vs. 34) is broken (vs. 39). How can that be? Well, in verses 19–27, there’s Christ coming back in His glory at the Second Advent, but starting at verse 38 and going on down to verse 51, you have Christ in His humiliation at His First Advent. There are the First and Second Comings given backwards for the purpose of screwing up 15,000 professing and saved Christians who didn’t have a brain in their heads, and 10,000 Rabbis who couldn’t see the noses at the ends of their faces when it came to Biblical truth.

The Holy Spirit who authored that Book put both Advents in that chapter backwards to mess people up. You see, people keep forgetting that the Author of the Book was not only concerned about telling them how to be saved; He was also concerned with punishing those who turn Him down and turn up their noses at His Book. That Book is a twoedged sword (Heb. 4:12–13); it’s written not only to save you but to destroy you.

Now pray about that for a few years. I’m being sarcastic, of course, but that’s to make sure you don’t make the same mistake that 25,000 Christian and Jewish leaders made before you by ignoring what the Book said, as it said it, where it said it.

Scholars by the score recognize Isaiah 7:14 as a prophecy of the First Advent of Jesus Christ, but they never go on down to verse 16. Verse 16 takes place over 500 years before the virgin birth of Jesus Christ. Verse 18 is Sennacherib in 2 Kings 18–19; Assyria wasn’t even around when Christ was born. If that weren’t enough, in verses 21–22, there is the Millennium; that’s the only time you find Israel coming into that kind of prosperity (cf. Amos 9:13–15). But when you come to verses 24–25, you are back to the invasion of Sennacherib. How’s that for a mess? That’s the First Advent mixed together with the Millennium and the invasion of Sennacherib, with the captivity of the northern tribes right in the middle of everything—and it isn’t even given in order.

Just watch all the scholars—saved or lost, Liberal or Fundamentalists—just blow the whole thing completely in Habakkuk 3:3 and Deuteronomy 33:2. Every one of them will make both those passages refer to the giving of the Law at Mount Sinai. It isn’t anything of the kind.

in Europe were arrested, tortured, and murdered. There isn't one queer, black, or Hispanic in America who has a track record like that when it comes to persecution—not even one that is close to it. You talk about “rejection by society”; you talk about people calling you names! To this day, every white, Bible-believing, male Protestant in the United States is curled (“anathema”) by the highest council ever convened by the Roman Catholic Church—the “holy” Council of Trent. Why, there isn't one group of people in America (outside of the Jews) who have gone through the persecution and opposition through which white, Bible-believing, male anti-Catholics have gone for fifteen hundred years. The slaves and “rejected” queers couldn't even get a hand dealt at the same table.

How is it that the only people who holler for “rights” and “being accepted” are the ones who cannot tolerate the Book? Why is that? Doesn't that strike you as rather singular?

I've always been “accepted” by white, Bible-believing Protestants, and I know of thousands of Bible-believing blacks who accept me too. I even know a few Roman Catholics who would. Why would I waste my time, your time, or anybody else's time getting anybody to “accept” me?

What is this strange, psychotic disease that is spread by the news media all over the entire country and then worked to death? From where did such an infection come? “Accepted”? Accepted by whom?

I don't know of one Frisco-fairy-faggot-fruit who can stand more than two of my messages (that would be two out of 400) without getting Bibliophobia. I don't know of one woman who runs her husband—from Bangor, Maine to San Diego, California; or from Seattle, Washington to Key West, Florida—who would “accept” me long enough to serve me a hot dog. Why doesn't that upset me? Such things don't keep me awake long enough to take a baby aspirin.

Then let me ask you this: Why do such things upset the environmental ecologists, or the affirmative-action blacks, or the sex-perverted Lesbians and sodomites, or the lying atheists, evolutionists, and humanists, or the Socialistic “political activists,” or the Catholic Priests and Moslems, or the drunkards and the dope heads?

Again, what is this raving, slobbering mania about “accepting yourself for who you are,” and then pleading and begging for others to accept you for who you think you are? The original word in the American republic was tolerate; it wasn't “accepting” anybody. You had to put up with other folks, but you weren't supposed to be forced to accept somebody. According to the Constitution and the Bill of Rights (done away with in 1964 by the Civil Rights Act), you were supposed to have freedom of association. That is, you “accept” whom you want to accept, and you put up with everyone else. Well, bless my soul, if I can put up with a bunch of demon-possessed nuts like them, then they can sure put up with a crackpot fanatic like me.

The word was tolerance; it wasn't acceptance at all. “Acceptance” is a forced option (as in the case of integration at bayonet point in Arkansas in 1957) designed to deny you the right of “pro-choice” in free association. That is why the Civil Rights Act was passed in 1964: to force you to keep company with people with whom you don't want to keep company. Now you don't have to merely tolerate them, you have to “accept” them or face fines or imprisonment. You no longer just have to be kind to queers, sodomites, Lesbians, and sex perverts and treat them right, you have to teach their filthy lifestyle and promote it as normal. Think about that for a while.

You want to be accepted, do you? By whom? You say, “I want to be accepted by ‘others.’” What “others”? Bible believers? “Whitey”? Straights?

Your own gang already accepts you, doesn't it? About what “others” could you possibly be talking? Is your own crowd not good enough for you that you have to get somebody else's group? The trouble couldn't possibly be with GOD, could it?

Since you're all infected (terminally) with Bibliophobia, I know right where to look to see what's wrong with your head. It's found in two passages of Scripture. The first is Ephesians 1:6, which has been carefully removed from the RV, ASV, RSV, NASV, NRSV, NIV, ESV, and about 200 other pieces of rotten junk promoted by Christian leaders.

“To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us ACCEPTED IN THE BELOVED.”

The second is found in Genesis 4. Do you know what God told Cain after the Lord turned down Cain's sacrifice? He said, “If thou doest well,

2) You have the right to face God in judgment. You have the right to “speak your piece” before your Creator and give account for your life.

“In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel” (Rom. 2:16).

“Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained” (Acts 17:31).

“So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God” (Rom. 14:12).

Do you see the problem? All the “oppressed minorities” that are worried and disturbed about their “rights” hate that Book because it tells them exactly what their rights are, and those are the only two rights it gives them.

“I have a right to this; I have a right to that.” No, you don’t; not in that Book you don’t. In that Book, you have the right to drop dead (Eccl. 3:19–20, 12:5), and you have the right to stand before God in judgment and give account for the deeds done in your body (Eccl. 12:14).

That’s it. That’s the limit of man’s civil rights. Those are all the rights to which you, I, or anybody else is entitled. The NAACP didn’t give them to me; the ACLU didn’t give them to me. Neither did the Congress or the Supreme Court.

I am sitting here now in Pensacola, Florida at the age of ninety. All my bills are paid: I have a house, school, church, bookstore, and gymnasium that are all paid for; I have food in my belly and money in the bank. Although at ninety I can no longer play hockey, soccer, and racquet ball, I could until I was 74. Who gave me those “rights”? Are they rights or are they luxuries? Could any government have given them to me?

Now THINK! Instead of just repeating the old, worn-out clichés of the news media going off its rocker (“permissive society,” “racial slurs,” “multiculturalism,” “sexism,” “racism,” “hate literature,” “sensitivity training,” “sharing and coping,” “affirmative action,” “stress and tension,” etc.), T-H-I-N-K: THINK!

I am sitting here with 54 young men and their families overseas getting people saved; there are another 75 young men pastoring churches here in the States. My wife and three sons are all saved and in good health. I have thirteen grandchildren saved and in good health, and I have seven great-grandchildren. I have a perfect Book that I believe from cover to cover, and I have preached and taught that Book for 62 years now. All of this was accomplished without one complaint about my “rights” to anybody in ninety years.

Now, do you honestly think I got those “rights” from the government? Did I even have a “right” to any of those luxuries and blessings? Does any man? Then why doesn’t every man have them if they are all equal and are born equal and have “equal rights”?

Get with it! Believe what you are saying, or shut up. Is there any man who really has the right to the treatment that I got at the hands of God? Of course not.

I gave you a list of luxuries. Is there any man entitled to the things that I enjoyed and that I am enjoying right now? According to the Federal so-viet, yes; according to God Almighty, absolutely not. Caesar and God don’t agree (see Luke 16:15).

Am I entitled to what I enjoy? Absolutely not! I never earned one blessing or one luxury. They were special favors and privileges given to me by design to make me indebted to my “Boss.” My Boss is not the government. My Boss is the One who gave me the luxuries, and I am in debt and under obligation to Him for them according to the record He gave me in His Book (Phil. 2:1–11; Rom. 8:28–39; Eph. 4:32; Col. 1:12–22).

That’s why all “oppressed minorities” want special rights: they hate God and they hate His Book. They’re guilty of “hate crimes.” They resent being in debt to their Creator for anything and under obligation to anything He said in His Book.

I am indebted to my God. My God is the Lord Jesus Christ (1 John 5:20; John 20:28). He gave me my “civil rights,” and He did it without consulting any government official for his consent or any “Civil Rights Act” for information. “Civil rights” in the United States today are nothing but special favors dispensed to minorities whom the welfare State wishes to use to get control over the populous.

My “civil rights” are that I am entitled to die and face judgment. That is what every white, male, Bible-believing Protestant in North America believes (the minority they make would make the modern “oppressed minorities” look like the hordes of Genghis Khan). That belief comes from reading and believing the greatest “hate literature” ever written on the face of this earth against the Catholic Church, sex perverts, illegal aliens, and fornicating Moslems trying to play like they’re “LOVE”?

An encouraging and uplifting look at the One that the Bible says “IS LOVE.”

Discrimination, the Key to Sanity

SHALT THOU NOT BE ACCEPTED?” (Gen. 4:7).

God rejected Cain when Cain wanted to be “accepted.” Accepted by whom? Well, in that case, it was being accepted by God. Do you think God accepts all the people you’re being told by the press to accept? Well, not in any Bible in print, no. God calls them sinners and says they deserve death; He says that in both Testaments: Old and New (read Rom. 1 and Ezek. 18). Well, aren’t you worried about your acceptance with God? No sodomite is or ever has been or ever will be. He has already rejected the Bible. It upsets him; it makes him sick; it gives him a bad conscience.

Do you know whom God “accepts”? He accepts those who believe on His Son (Eph. 1:12–13). That is clearly discriminating against agnostics, atheists, sex perverts, humanists, and Moslems. They are not accepted, but they want to be. By whom?

The problem is that someone has been rejected by their Maker, and so now, they try to get human acceptance as a substitute for the real thing in order to quiet their bad consciences. The news media and the Federal judges have declared God to be unconstitutional and an enemy of human rights because He doesn’t give men the “right” to live like the devil contrary to His revealed truth. Well, once you have done this, you have to find somebody to accept you because God sure doesn’t, at least not according to Jesus Christ.

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; BUT THE WRATH OF GOD ABIDETH ON HIM” (John 3:36).

Two verses are the keys to this nonsense about discrimination. They are Ephesians 1:6 and Genesis 4:7. Cain was discriminated against by God. To help Cain and his modern day followers out, the Conservative and Fundamental scholars of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries quietly erased the statement that some are accepted (Eph. 1:6) from nearly every English Bible on the market. The King James Bible clearly tells you that if a man does well, God will accept him (Gen. 4:7), and then it shows you exactly what is meant by “doing well” in Ephesians 1:12–13.

Now, Bible believers have been accustomed to harassment (Acts 4–6), persecution (Acts 7, 9), torture (Acts 26:11), and execution (Acts 12:1–2) for more than fifteen centuries. No black or queer could compete with that in the field of discrimination. There are not 600,000 white, male, Bible-believing (get that part!) Protestants left in the United States. In Europe, it would be less than 1%, and in China and Japan, it would be less than .001%.

“Boo hoo! We are not accepted! Nobody wants our Bible in the schools! Nobody can tolerate the Chick tracts we pass out! Nobody wants to hear us preach on the street! We have no right to freedom of speech on radio or TV! Boo hoo hoo! Nobody accepts us!”

Suppose the Christians bellyached as much as the sex perverts do, do you know what you would find? You would find us complaining about the fact that nobody can stand our efforts to keep a community clean by ridding it of pornography, liquor, and jungle music. We have lost the right to whip our children when they do wrong. We have lost the right to send our children to the school of our choice. We cannot even mention the name of Jesus Christ at a public function. We cannot even defend our own property and families from thieves, murderers, and rapists.

“Boo hoo hoo! Why doesn’t somebody pass a civil rights bill for us Bible-believing minorities?”

I’ll tell you why: they’re all sick; they have Bibliophobia. They’re more afraid of that Book than they are of the entire criminal population they’ve raised in the last three generations (America now has the largest criminal population in the world—more than China or Russia).

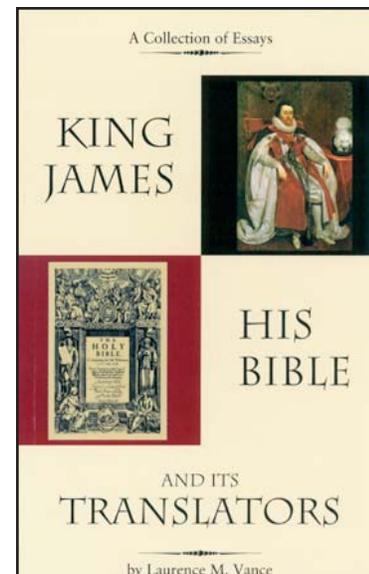

How come we don’t send lobbyists to Congress to get these rights back? I have never made one plea, in public or private, to be accepted by anyone—including my own government, the government that took my rights from me. Why is that? It is because Somebody Else has accepted me, and His approval and commendation completely outweighs the approval or acceptance of anything or anybody living on this earth. That would include my wife, my parents, and my children (2 Cor. 10:18; Luke 16:15, 12:51–52; Matt. 10:37).

Believe it or not, that is the position of every white, male, Bible-believing Protestant in the world. The greatest “minority” on earth is no more concerned about “acceptance” than they are about “Lady Gaga’s” G-string.

The so-called minorities want you as a Bible believer to accept them in place of the Book they threw out. They wouldn’t accept it, so God won’t accept them (see John

Double Application

 Look at the last half of Deuteronomy 33:2—“he came with ten thousands of saints.” What’s that? Why, it’s the Second Coming, according to Jude 14: “Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints.”

Who in the world would connect Deuteronomy 33:28 with anything in Exodus, Numbers, or Joshua; or Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, for that matter. Israel doesn’t dwell safely alone until after the Tribulation is over. But you see, you have the Second Advent in verses 2 and 28 of Deuteronomy 33 joined together in the same chapter with material on the Jews coming out of Egypt—double application.

That is why one of the greatest admonitions in the Bible is to rightly divide “the word of truth” (2 Tim. 2:15). The poor, dumb, stupid Hyperdispensationalists think that means just to divide the truth between what Peter and Paul preached. Boy, did they ever get “short sheeted.” Those divisions sometimes occur right in the middle of a verse (for the best example, see where Christ divided Isa. 61:2 at a comma to distinguish His First Coming from His Second in Luke 4:18–21).

The double application of the Scriptures has been the single most major stumbling block in all the Colleges, Seminaries, and Universities since the completion of the New Testament. It accounts for the present condition of the world right now before the return of the Lord Jesus Christ. That’s a “slight error in judgment,” you might say.

tan over the UN from Rome (Dan. 11; Rev. 13).

The present position of the President, the Congress, and the Supreme Court is that you only have temporary liberties that are allowed you by judges, legislators, and bureaucrats who consider the Constitution to be a horse-laugh. That’s why you’re in the situation you are in today.

Washington and Lincoln vs. The Mulatto Moslem

February is the month of two famous Presidents' birthdays: George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Of course, both days have now been shoved into one "Presidents Day" so you don't really remember or honor either one. Just for fun, I thought it would be a good idea to compare what these two men said and believed to what the present occupant of the White House says and believes.

Here is the advice given by the "Father of our Country" to the newly born United States of America:

"Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence, the jealousy of a free people ought ever to be continually awake, since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the baleful foes of republican government."

Do you know what got Obama elected? It was money from Moslems outside the United States (e.g., Pakistan and Indonesia). That's what Washington called "the insidious wiles of foreign influence." That's why Obama has spent his time traveling to Moslem nations and apologizing for the United States before a bunch of people who hate our guts, and bowing down to Moslem Kings and Shieks—he is beholden to them for the money that got him elected; it is a standard Mafia operation.

After promising to get our troops out of Iraq, he got them further embroiled in Afghanistan and then got them involved in Libya for no reason at all. He has bullied and intimidated the head of the Jewish State from building homes in the land of Israel for their own people while promoting the enemies of the Jewish people ("Palestinian" Moslems) who are shooting rockets into Israel and invading Jewish homes and slaughtering Jewish families.

"History and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the baleful foes of republican government." That's what the first President of this country said.

Then there's Abraham Lincoln. The news media has pushed and promoted Obama as the "second Lincoln." That is, he's a great emancipator who came to set his "race" (mulatto African Moslems, I guess) free. That being the case then, I thought you might like to see what old "Honest Abe" had to say about colored people in general. These statements were made in the famous Lincoln-Douglas debates in Charleston, Jonesboro, Springfield, and Peoria, Illinois on October 15, 1854; June 25, 1857; September 15, 1858; and September 18, 1858. Here is the great "emancipator" who made "Pharaoh" "let my people go" and emancipated them with a proclamation (at least the ones down South under Confederate jurisdiction during the Civil War; no black slave in the Union was freed by the Emancipation Proclamation):

"Senator Douglas remarked in substance that he has always considered the government was made for the white people and not for the Negroes, which in point of fact, I THINK SO TOO."

"I tell him frankly that I am NOT in favor of Negro citizenship. (Applause) I hold myself under constitutional obligation to allow the people in all States, without interference, direct or indirect, to do exactly as they please, and I deny that I have any inclination to interfere with them. Even where there is no constitutional obligation, I will say that I'm NOT, NOR EVER HAVE BEEN, in favor of bringing about, in any way, the social and political equality of the white and black races (applause); that I'm NOT, NOR EVER HAVE BEEN, in favor of making voters and jurors of Negroes, nor qualify them to hold office, nor to intermarry with white people."

Now is that clear? That's Abraham Lincoln. That's the one for whom they put up the memorial in Washington, D.C. That's Obama's idol. That's old "Honest Abe" of Illinois.

"I will say, in addition to this, that there is a fundamental difference in the white and black races which I believe will forever forbid the two races living together on terms of social or political equality, and as such, as any other man, I am in favor of having the SUPERIOR POSITION assigned to the WHITE RACE. I'll add to this that, to my knowledge, I know not any man or woman in favor of perfect equality, social or political, between Negroes and white men. I give a most solemn pledge that I will, to the very last, stand by the law of this State which forbids the marriage of white people with Negroes. (Applause) It is better, therefore, for us both to be SEPARATED."

Well, well, well! How in the world did Martin Luther King Jr., Jesse Jackson, Al Sharpton, and Barack Obama get linked up with Lincoln? But Lincoln doesn't stop there; he goes on to really "rub it in" to those gentlemen.

"You and we are different races. The physical difference is a great advantage to both.

Here is a Book, the Holy Bible, written by forty male authors, writing from three continents, through a period of more than 1,800 years, and it displays a mathematical miracle, DEALING WITH HISTORICAL EVENTS, that no computer could display with the ability to record 50,000,000 pieces of information per second.

What particular quirk of perverted logic would lead any "modern man" to overlook such a Book?

Alongside this Book, the Holy Bible, all other "holy writings" are cheap, shallow, superficial, religious nonsense.

The Death of Liberty and Freedom

religious to make their people rely on them instead of God.

I have no "right" to get saved and be a follower of Jesus Christ, but I found Him and I did. I have no "right" to make a living and be able to pay off my debts, but they're all paid for. I have no "right" to the faithful Christian wife I have; I have no "right" to a good income or a place to preach; I have no "right" to medical care and attention—no matter what anybody says.

What in the world makes you think that you have a right to any of those things? According to what authority? Why, it's according to a bunch of people trying to get into your pocketbook and control you.

I have no right to be treated with respect by anyone, or that anyone should "accept" me or my religion. I have no right to freedom from poverty, pain, war, or anxiety. Furthermore, I have no right to whine and complain about slander or persecution. I gave up all my "rights" (see 1 Cor. 10:23–33) when I became a bond-slave (1 Cor. 6:20).

As a slave, my "rights" belong to my Master (Eph. 6:9). What He gives me are special favors, grace, unmerited kindness, unearned luxuries, undeserved privileges, and blessings. I did not earn any of them, and I am entitled to none of them. That is the position of the greatest minority of people on the face of this earth (Bible-believing Christians), and it has been in any period since A.D. 33.

The Christians before me had a "right" to be imprisoned, starved, arrested, tortured, and killed (see Heb. 11:36–38). They had a "right" to suffer for Christ's sake (1 Pet. 4:12–14). They had a "right" to be outcasts (Heb. 13:13) and "the offscouring" of the New Age, global "one world" (1 Cor. 4:13). They got their "rights" from God.

Do you think that I don't know anything about this stuff because I was born with a silver spoon in my mouth? Let me tell you something, boys and girls! I never had a car until I was 28 years old; for 28 years I walked. How about you? You were saying what?

I went through four years of College on thirty dollars a week with a wife and three children to take care of. I was a Corporal in the Army for two years before I was a "Shave tail" (Second Lieutenant). I mopped floors in bath houses, lifeguarded, painted signs, ran popcorn machines in city parks, worked as an apprentice electrician in a ship-building "co-op." And you were saying what?

You're not saying a fool word. You don't know about what you're talking. You're just blowing off your stack.

I never had a house in which to live from the time I was eighteen until I was 31. During those thirteen years, I lived in dormitories, hotel and motel rooms, boarding houses, tents, slit trenches, Quonset huts, and "frat houses."

My first four books were written on an Underwood stationary, mechanical (not electric) typewriter. I had to set the print for those by myself by Linotype on a machine called a Verityper. They don't even make those things anymore. Since then, I have typed out over 120 publications. I have had to proofread every copy five times before it was published. Coming through all of that, you have never heard or read of me once making one squeak about my "rights" to anybody, at anytime, anywhere.

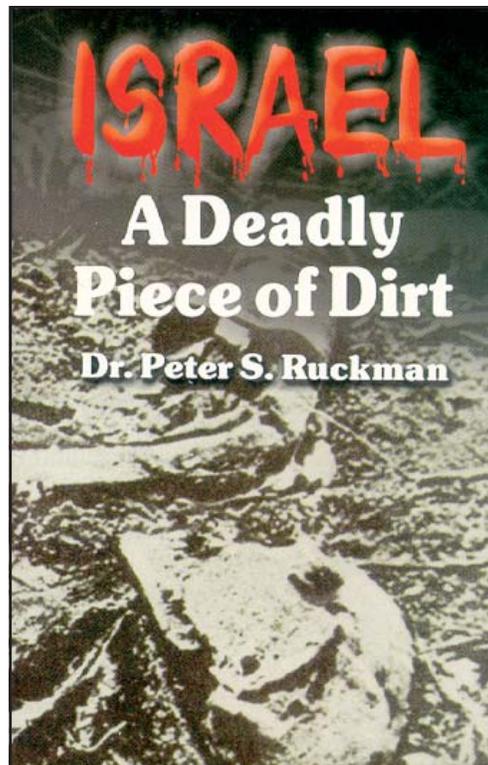

Sometime in the 1950s, I was asked for my Social Security number. I said I didn't have one. I was told I had to get one. I said I didn't want one. I was told I had to have one. I said I didn't want one and didn't need one. So I was assigned one anyway.

I was given "rights" for which I didn't ask, which I didn't want, and which I didn't need. You say, "What for?" It must have been to get control.

Ruckman's rule: "If it don't make sense, there's a buck in it."

Why is the government so anxious to put you on the dole and give you some money? Why, it must be an "SS" operation. Do you know what Hitler's "SS" was? In German, it stood for Schutzstaffel—"protective staff." It was set up to "protect" folks and give them "security"; that is, the government takes care of you

Discrimination, the Key to Sanity

Continued from 7 (8:42-47). That is why they now insist you accept them. They have the gall to demand this after they threw your Book out of the window.

They are afraid of the Book. They are mentally sick: they have Bibliophobia. You would be as sick as they are if you accepted any one of them. We don't care to be accepted by them, their friends, or their associates. I would no more accept such a brand of cowardly, complaining, hypersensitive hypocrites than I would invite John Lennon or Elvis Presley into my home as a guest. No grown, mature, white, male, Bible-believing Protestant would want such intolerant, vicious Bibliophobiacs within a hundred yards of his dining room. They all tolerate the following things as if they were harmless, while declaring the Bible to be the most destructive force on the earth:

1. Playboy and Penthouse magazines on a high school teacher's desk.

2. Grade schools teaching students in class how to practice sodomy and sex perversion.

3. Distribution of condoms to middle school students to encourage fornication.

4. X-rated cable-TV programs showing nude couples in action.

5. Teaching all children that they came from animals accidentally and that they don't have to give account to God for anything they do, say, or think.

6. Allowing criminals to break and enter a home at night without getting shot and to flee the scene of a crime absolutely unhindered in any way.

7. Taxing private schools out of existence.

8. Lowering educational standards and putting illiterate and incompetent teachers in charge of the education of children because of their race or "tenure."

9. Kicking prayer and the Bible out of every public school in America after both were required from 1650-1962.

10. Abolishing all forms of corporal punishment (including spanking, "padding," and whipping) from kindergarten through high school.

11. Coast-to-coast access to intoxicating liquor 24 hours a day.

That is what these whining, hypocritical Bibliophobiacs will put up with before they will put up with the Book.

The Death of Liberty and Freedom

Continued from 11 through the "SS" by declaring a "national emergency" and then taking everything you've got and putting you in a concentration camp. "Those who won't be run by God will be run by tyrants."

Here I am, sitting here with over 120 books for sale and my chalk talks ("Drawing Men to Christ") going out over satellite TV seven days a week. And although I am having some leg and back troubles and macular degeneration in my eyes, I am still walking a mile a day, growing two gardens (one in the Spring and one in the Fall), teaching Bible four days a week, pastoring 500 people, and still preaching in jails and prisons after having been through 91 of them with the Gospel. You think a man (any man) deserves that much attention, care, and mercy, do you? Well, I don't think so.

I am indebted to Somebody about whom the government no longer knows anything at all. They hate His Book, and they don't want His name mentioned in their public schools, military, or Federal buildings. He's the One to whom I'm indebted. I couldn't look any man in the face and tell him I deserved or was entitled to or was owed all the good things God has given me. Those aren't "rights"; they're privileges, luxuries, and blessings beyond measure. I only have a "right" to two things: death and judgment.

I get those "rights" and my privileges from my Creator, from God. A Moslem-Catholic Church-State will have to take a religious government for its god; it's that simple. It's absolutely "cut and dried"; that's all there is to it. If you don't believe in "discrimination," then you can't distinguish from where your rights come or from whom they come. If you don't believe in "discrimination," then your "god" will be someone just as rotten as you are—or worse.

No human being can abandon discrimination without "going bananas." Discrimination is the key to survival and sanity. If you can't tell the difference between the One who gave you your rights and the ones who say they are giving you your "rights," you are ready for the nuthouse. If you can't discriminate between a "right" and a gift, then go back to elementary school and start over again in the first grade.

You can have rights without power to practice them or receive them. You can have power without the right to do what you're doing, but you go ahead and do it anyway because you do have the power ("might makes right"). If you can't judge the difference between the power to do a thing and the right to do it, you're cuckoo; your pilot light is blown out.

When you mistake help from God as coming from man, you have cut off your lifeline, both spiritually and physically. When you start hollering about what everybody owes you and what you have a "right" to (see any modern news media "coverage" of anything going on in the Congress, the Supreme Court, or the State Department), you simply blaspheme your Creator. You become a practical atheist, even if you profess to be a Deist or a Theist.

You are claiming that the source of the things you want, need, and with which you can be supplied are owed to you by the government. You have set the government up as God; the people (in this case, the taxpayers) are indebted to it.

Not in any Bible ever printed, anywhere, at any time, under any condition. God Almighty is not indebted to anybody or anything. He doesn't owe you or your government a dime, and He never has.

If you find yourself riding high (like the Lord has carried me for 62 years now after saving me and blessing me above the average person on this earth in ways you can hardly imagine), don't kid yourself into thinking that God owed you that. When you do, all you have done is kick the Lord off His throne and sit on it yourself as the fourth member of the Trinity.

I'll say it again: God is not indebted to any man for anything. Do you understand that? If you don't, you're not sane. You have a mental problem; you're demented. You are not intellectually honest; you're a deceived fool.

Throughout my life as a child of God, I have "counted my blessings one by one" many times, and it has always "surprised me what the Lord has done." But I am just as surprised at what I haven't done. If you don't know me, I know myself; I know myself much better than you know me (whoever you might be reading this). Knowing myself that well, I know one thing: I didn't earn or deserve one good thing that I've got. When I say that, I mean the job, the house, the land, the family, the ministry, the income, and the good health.

I am not indebted to anything that any Congress or President has done since George Washington, and I won't be indebted to any of them for anything they do in the future. Having said that, some of you think I am crazy, don't you? Aren't some of you thinking right now that my elevator isn't getting to the top floor? I bet that's what some of you are thinking.

Well, one day we will all be faced with the Book they threw out of the public school system back in 1962 (see Rom. 3:3-4). Then you'll get your chance to "have a little talk with Jesus" and "talk it over in the by and by" with the One who knows what you deserve. That's when you can find out whether you got it or not. Me, I know right now that I'm not getting it (John 6:68-69; 1 John 5:13), and I thank God for that—not the government.

THE CREED OF THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT

1. There is no final authority but God.
2. Since God is a Spirit, there is no final authority that can be seen, heard, read, felt, or handled.
3. Since all books are material, there is no book on this earth that is the final and absolute authority on what is right and what is wrong, what constitutes truth and what constitutes error.
4. There WAS a series of writings one time which, IF they had all been put into a BOOK as soon as they were written the first time, WOULD HAVE constituted an infallible and final authority by which to judge truth and error.
5. However, this series of writings was lost, and the God who inspired them was unable to preserve their content through Bible-believing Christians at Antioch (Syria), where the first Bible teachers were (Acts 13:1), and where the first missionary trip originated (Acts 13:1-52), and where the word "Christian" originated (Acts 11:26).
6. So God chose to ALMOST preserve them through Gnostics and philosophers from Alexandria, Egypt, even though God called His Son OUT of Egypt (Matthew 2), Jacob OUT of Egypt (Genesis 49), Israel OUT of Egypt (Exodus 15), and Joseph's bones OUT of Egypt (Exodus 13).
7. So there are two streams of Bibles. The most accurate—though, of course, there is no final, absolute authority for determining truth and error; it is a matter of "preference"—are the Egyptian translations from Alexandria, Egypt, which are "almost the originals," although not quite.
8. The most inaccurate translations were those that brought about the German Reformation (Luther, Zwingli, Boehler, Zinzen-dorf, Spener, et al.) and the worldwide missionary movement of the English-speaking people: the Bible that Sunday, Torrey, Moody, Finney, Spurgeon, Whitefield, Wesley, and Chapman used.
9. But we can "tolerate" these if those who believe in them will "tolerate" US. After all, since there is NO ABSOLUTE AND FINAL AUTHORITY that anyone can read, teach, preach, or handle, the whole thing is a matter of "PREFERENCE." You may prefer what you prefer, and we will prefer what we prefer. Let us live in peace, and if we cannot agree on anything or everything, let us all agree on one thing: THERE IS NO FINAL, ABSOLUTE, WRITTEN AUTHORITY OF GOD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH.

This is the Creed of the Alexandrian Cult.

Modern Man vs. Bible Believer

Continued from 13 Society” or “the New Deal” or “the Golden Age,” etc., etc., and on and on, will only result in: torture, bankruptcy, cannibalism, arrests, deportations, holocausts, genocides, concentration camps, divorces, abortions, totalitarianism, and social, moral, and religious fascism.

12. No one will come close to populating outer space before God slams down the curtain on the stage as He did at the Tower of Babel (Gen. 11:1–8 cf. Psa. 110; Joel 2; Isa. 63; Zech. 14; Matt. 24; Rev. 19). The inhabitants of “outer space” are already there (Gen. 6:1–4). They will be here soon (Rev. 12–13), just as they were in Genesis 6 (cf. Luke 17:26).

Now there it is: that is my “manifesto” on human progress. It eliminates every College graduate who graduated from every school in America, if that graduate were stupid enough to believe what he was taught in the classroom. It deals with the basic facts—not theories—of human life on all seven continents from 4000 B.C. to A.D. 2011. The theories from the “intellectuals” to the contrary are just too funny for words, for “the proof is in the pudding.”

Mankind has been eating that pudding for 6,000 years. There is no longer any doubt about the “fruit” of it (see Matt. 7:20). It has been nothing but one bellyache after another, with heartburn and nausea at the end of every “sitting.”

I think science is just another way to make a living. As far as “truth” or “progress” is concerned, there isn’t any sign that it has helped “man” to move three inches in any direction in either one of those areas.

Science has never been able to solve the one basic problem of mankind: death. No matter what “advancements” science has come up with, the death rate for every man, woman, and child on this earth is still 100%. Now you can get run over by a car going 35–60 m.p.h. instead of a horse and buggy going 5–15 m.p.h. Science got you up in the air, so now you can bomb twenty times the people with just one bomb or missile than you could by fighting on the ground all day long. To call such things “progress” is just too funny for words.

I’ll tell you what I believe about “scientific progress”:

1. “The bigger the belfry, the more room for the bats” (see Luke 10:21; Isa. 28:9).

2. “All the clowns are not in the circus.”

3. Here’s one I got from my old colored maid, Evelyn: “Honey chile, if you ain’t got no education, you just gotta use yo’ brains” (James 1:5). That’s a good one.

4. And here’s one from Psalm 62:9—“Men of high degree are a LIE.” (B.A.—“Bunch of Applesauce”; M.A.—“More Applesauce”; Ph.D.—“Piled Higher and Deeper”).

The man who taught me what little I know in the Christian life told me: “If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise” (1 Cor. 3:18). He got that from the Holy Spirit of God, who had it recorded in the King James Authorized Version of the Holy Bible. He didn’t get it from “science” (see 1 Tim. 6:20).
