Discrimination, the Key to Sanity

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman
Part One of Three

Eighteen years ago (1994), we printed a 100-page book entitled Discrimination: the Key to Sanity. In it, I spent considerable time dealing with “Discrimination and the Constitution,” “Discrimination and Reality,” “Discrimination and Prejudice,” “Discrimination and the Mafia Principle,” “Discrimination and Bibliophobia,” and “Discrimination and God.”

As anyone knows who has had any dealing with human nature at all, no individual becomes completely “unprejudiced” about anything. What men do is swap objects of their prejudice.

Time after time, the news media (all outlets) will spotlight cases where a “former KKK member” suddenly overcomes “prejudice” and begins to love blacks, or a former “male chauvinist” is converted to “women’s lib,” or some gullible white man justifies black brutality against whites because “now he understands them.” You will notice that not in one case given is there a former “woman’s libber” who has decided that the movement was wrong. No former “tolerant” policeman is presented who learned the hard way that he had better use force against black criminals or get killed.

All of those “witnesses” would be contrary to everything being pushed by CBS, NBC, ABC, and CNN; they are not going to call any of those “witnesses” to “the stand.” On TV, you get one viewpoint, and one viewpoint only, on all channels and on all networks.

One must remember that the greatest “credibility gap” on this earth is the one that exists between what the majority of the American people think about certain issues and what they are

Signs of the Second Advent

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

In Matthew 24:3, the disciples asked Jesus, “what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?” What the Lord gives them in the Olivet Discourse are the things that precede His Second Advent, not the Rapture of the Church. The signs are given to the Jew, not the Church (1 Cor. 1:22), but you can still read the signs if they are there and tell that the Rapture is near because the Rapture comes before the Advent (1 Thess.

supposed to think according to the agenda invented by the news media (i.e., blacks over whites, children over parents, queers over straights, women over men, felons over law enforcement officers, Moslems over Christians, Catholics over Jews, 5:1–4). So here are the signs from the Scriptures that show you everything is ready for the Lord to come back.

1. The budding of “the fig tree” (Jer. 8:11–13 cf. Mark 13:28–29; Luke 21:29–32).

2. The return of the Jews to the land of Palestine (Ezek. 20:34; Isa. 11:10–12).

3. The Jews buying land in Israel for their kibbutzes (Jer. 32:44).

4. The rebirth of the nation of Israel (Isa. 66:8).

5. The order of the Jews’ and various other apartheid set-ups where the minority can overrule the majority). For example, the reporting on the death of Martin Luther King Jr. was not what most Americans thought about it; neither was the reporting of the death of JFK.

The election of Bill Clinton was not how most Americans voted: 57% of them voted against him. But when the results were reported in the news media, 100% of all the outlets said, “The American people elected him because they demanded change.” (Marvel of marvels, that’s how they got Obama in: it was a “people’s mandate for change.”) Immediately, all the outlets began a line that went like this: “The economy has already begun to pick up”; “we are looking for great new changes in the White House”; “Clinton is willing to cooperate with all government agencies.”

Those headlines were accompanied by flawless pro-

The Death of Liberty and Freedom

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman
Part One of Two

When the Civil Rights Act was passed back in 1964, Lloyd Wright and John C. Satterfield—both past presidents of the American Bar Association—said: “It will completely destroy democracy as outlined in the Constitution. It is uncontrolled Federal executive power.” Six members of the House Judiciary Committee signed that statement. To it, they added this notation: “It is a blueprint for total regimentation.” In other words, the Civil Rights Act of 1964 is “Joseph Stalin,” “Adolf Hitler,” and “Mao Tse-tung” seated at the head of a government run by “Federal judges.”

Now, if Laodicea (see Rev. 3:14) means “the rights of the people” (and it does), from where did these “rights” come? Isn’t that a wild thing when you consider it? For seven decades (1940–2010), all you have heard day and night from the news media is: “the rights of minorities,” “human rights,” “the right to life,” “the right to an abortion,” “women’s rights,” “gay rights,” “Moslem rights,” “the right to civil disobedience,” “the rights of illegal aliens,” “the right to choose,” etc., etc. Yet not once have you ever heard a newscaster, journalist, or

Double Application

(Part Two of Three)

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

Double application of certain Scripture passages (especially the Messianic prophecies of the Old Testament) is one of the things in the Bible that messes up the scholars whenever they don't take the study of the Book seriously, while professing to do so. Time after time in the Old Testament, you run into passages where both comings of the Lord Jesus Christ are mentioned right together; sometimes in the same verse, sometimes even in the same sentence.

The gap between the two wasn't revealed until Paul showed up. The intervening age, which we call the Church Age, although it was prophesied in type in the Old Testament, was hidden and concealed until Jesus Christ personally revealed it to Paul (Gal. 1:12; Eph. 3:1-6). There is a reason for this, and there isn't one reviser or College Ph.D. faculty member who ever got it figured out. The Lord had things so arranged that if the Jews had accepted Christ after the resurrection, there would have been no Church Age. If that had happened, then the very clear types of the Church in the Old Testament (e.g., Eve, Solomon's Gentile bride, and Joseph's Gentile bride) would not have been types at all.

Now that is a little too deep for Calvin; he never could get it. All Calvin thought God knew was what was going to take place; therefore, what was going to take place was immutable—fatalism.

Listen, brethren, God not only knows what will happen, He knows what could happen given circumstances and choices. Moreover, the Lord made arrangements to cover both. The Lord knows what would happen to you if you got killed yesterday morning or didn't get killed, and He made arrangements for both. You say, "Where do you get that from, Ruckman?" From 1 Samuel 23:6-13; READ IT!

The God of the Bible is about ten times as omniscient as Calvin's god. Calvin's god only knew what was going to take place after he arbitrarily decreed it from before Genesis 1:1. The God of the Bible knows what will take place if what He knew was going to take place did not take place.

I'll bet I lost some of you already, haven't I? Well, this is the Student's Corner, so STUDY! After all, you are supposed to be a student of the Scriptures, aren't you (2 Tim. 2:15)? Turn that over in your mind a few thousand times until you get it.

That's the key to the book of Acts, it's the key to the Tribulation, and it's the key to both Testaments. In the Old Testament, those prophecies about Christ's First and Second Comings are spoken of right together. If the Jews had accepted Christ, John the Baptist would have been Elijah (Matt. 11:11-14), but they didn't and he wasn't (Matt. 17:11-12). But he could have been.

And there go all the College and Seminary-trained intellectuals out the window; they quit. I don't know of one other Bible teacher anywhere in the world that ever got that thing straight, but there it is. When Christ came into Jerusalem on "the foal of an ass" on Palm Sunday (Matt. 21:5), that was the Second Advent starting to take place (see Zech. 9:9 and context). Everything was ready right then for the Second Coming to take place. He came as "King" to "the city of the great King" (Matt. 5:35) and was recognized as "King of the Jews" by a Gentile Governor (John 19:19-22). But they crucified Him.

That doesn't end the Second Coming. In the Old Testament, the First and Second Comings are mentioned right together, which meant that when He came up from the dead, there was all the possibility in the world that a rapture would follow (see Job 37; Isa. 26-27; Psa. 50). The Rapture could have taken place in the book of Acts (see our remarks on Acts 7:56 in that Commentary), and the Antichrist would have come up after hanging himself (Judas—John 17:12 cf. 2 Thess. 2:3). Daniel's Seventieth Week (Dan. 9:24-27) would then have started, or it might have finished if the 42 months of Christ's earthly ministry had been the first half of Daniel's Seventieth Week. Then the last 42 months would have taken place after the Resurrection, in the book of Acts.

That is, it would have IF Israel had accepted Christ. They didn't, so none of that took place. But it could have. You see, God wrote the entire Old Testament to give you a double set-up which depended on what men did. The Lord's "eternal decrees" and the Old Testament prophecies were conditioned on acts of free will.

There went Calvin out the window along with every Presbyterian and Reformed theologian, and every student and graduate of Princeton. They couldn't get it, they haven't got it right now, and they never will get it until the Antichrist shows up. Don't mess with that Book! It is a nuclear warhead; it'll blow you to smithereens.

Now I am going to give you some examples of the two Advents divided sometimes by nothing but a verse; sometimes by only a punctuation mark in the same verse. Don't take my word for anything I'm going to say. Go ahead and take for granted that "Ruckman" is a conceited, crackpot, lying nut who doesn't know about what he's talking, who thinks he's right and everybody else is wrong.. Think whatever you want about me, but check the references.

The references I am about to give you explain world conditions from the resurrection of Christ to the coming of paganda filming, where not one comic or degrading picture was made or published of the "new couple": Hillary and Billary. If you go back through the photographs published by Life, Time, and Newsweek during the Reagan and Bush administrations, you will find "flick" after "flick" designed to make the President look like he was a senile old man or a clumsy clown. But no such photos ever appeared of Clinton and his wife, or of Obama now. You see, there had to be "change."

To a "change agent" (any teacher placed in the classroom by the NEA in order to alter the moral standards of the children), all "change" is progress. That is how the word change is used in regards to Clinton and Obama. The reason the news media has worked the word to death in regards to the Presidency is because, being evolutionists, they all accept the Darwinian hallucination that "change" is "progress."

The fact that the two words are not synonymous means nothing to any journalist or editor. They don't consult the dictionary; they have their own thesaurus on which we have commented many, many times. It is called "double-speak," and it defines its own terms.

A "change" is only another way of saying that you think somebody made a mess of things, so now you want to try something else. To assume that all change is PROGRESS (see any monkey-man account of the Big Bang theory) is sheer lunacy. But then, when was sheer lunacy a rare item on CBS, NBC, ABC, CNN, or National Public Radio (or in Life, Time, Newsweek, USA Today, etc.)? Those are all "asylums run by the inmates."

Observe! There was a "change" when Hindenburg handed over the Reich to Adolf Hitler in 1933.

Observe! There was a "change" when fifteen million blacks invaded white public schools after 1964.

Observe! There was a "change" when Jim Jones moved from San Francisco to Guyana in 1978.

Observe! There was a "change" when condoms were substituted for Bibles in the public school system in 1991.

Observe! There was a "change" when the Feds slipped you a Federal Reserve Note instead of a silver certificate in 1961.

You are seeing a dramatic "change" now that Obama has signed the "Hate Crimes Bill." If you criticize any school teachers for teaching your children in the classroom how to become sodomites, Lesbians, and cross dressers, you are now a "criminal" and subject to arrest.

Yep, like the old popular song said: "There'll be some changes made." To say that change means progress is to say that tolerating moral fifth and sex perversion is maturity.

A man can change from a clean-cut young man to a dope-headed bum (e.g., Abby Hoffman). A man can change from a friendly, happy young man into a drunken habitual fornicator (e.g., Ted Kennedy). A man can change from a quiet, respectable citizen into a sadistic serial killer (e.g., Dean Corell). A nation can change from a first-rate world power to a low-life mass of bankrupt pagans (e.g., the UNITED STATES!). Any family restaurant cooking real homestyle meals can change from a quiet, comfortable eating establishment with decent prices to a large, noisy, commercialized eating place where a glass of tea costs as much as a large hamburger.

CHANGE NEVER GUARANTEES ANYTHING POSITIVE FOR ANYBODY. That is just a news media gimmick used again and again on a nationwide basis. It is a false impression based on Charlie Darwin's erroneous premise that any change is upward, onward, and forward. IT'S NOT!

If any American "overcomes discrimination," he does it by "change." But the truth is that the "change" is just an exchange of one prejudice for another.

Did you ever see a black who objected to a Confederate flag flying over a public building, "change" and decide that since he had a "right" to wear a Malcolm X

T-shirt with a raised fist on it, that "Whitey" had the same rights as he did? Of course you haven't.

Did you ever hear of a Lesbian who was "unprejudiced" against heroin or cocaine, who was not prejudiced against street preachers? Of course you haven't.

Do you know of any Mohammedans who are unprejudiced against Jews? Of course you don't.

In Pensacola, the Catholic Gannet string of newspapers backed a drive to eliminate the song "Dixie" as a march that a high school band could play, although it had been the school song for that school for fifty years. The same papers (Gannet, out of Rochester, NY) never opened their mouths about any band the Antichrist. They explain how the Catholics thought they replaced the Jews when they didn't, and they show why the Jews finally gave up hope and stopped looking for their Messiah.

It explains why the Jews had Christ crucified when He came the first time. They were expecting the Second Advent. They were expecting the glorified Christ coming to liberate them from Rome. They were expecting the conquering King (Second Advent), but instead they got the suffering Servant (First Advent). But you see, in the Old Testament, both Advents were right together, so if the Sanhedrin had decided to accept Stephen's message in Acts 7, away she would have gone, boy. But they didn't, so the Second Coming was put off 2,000-plus years.

You might say that what I am about to show you is the key to the whole Bible. It deals with both Advents, and both Advents deal with a "King of the Jews" who comes to set up a kingdom. The Lord Jesus taught that Jew to pray: "Thy kingdom come" (Matt. 6:10), and "For thine is the kingdom" (Matt. 6:13).

The Catholic took that prayer taught to Jewish disciples and called it "the Lord's prayer" when it wasn't (see John 17 for the real "Lord's prayer"). That way they had the Catholic Church "bringing in the kingdom," with "the gates of hell" not prevailing against it (cf. Matt. 16:18).

That's where Mohammed got his religion. He said the kingdom was taken from the Jews and given to the Arabs (a perversion of Matt. 21:43) and that he would bring in the kingdom. That explains just about every war fought since Titus destroyed Jerusalem in A.D. 70. It is just a simple refusal to believe what is written in the Old Testament.

I'm going to give you the verses where the two Advents are right together, and woe to you if you believe this is just "Ruckman." This is the Holy Spirit showing you what would happen either way, depending on what the free will of man did with the proposition. That's the absolute sovereignty of God working right alongside the absolute free will of man. In this case, the free will of man determined which course God would take.

Didn't you ever wonder why Christ told the disciples that no man knew the day or hour of His coming, not even the Son of man (Mark 13:32)? That was God in the flesh talking. Why wouldn't He know it? Because things were arranged to work out either way. God had things worked out so that no matter what those Jews chose, those Messianic prophecies of the Second Advent would be fulfilled, but the date would change depending on which choice those Jews made.

Now sit down and think about that for a few years, and when you get through, you'll have more on it than any saved professor of any Christian College on six continents. Next time, we will go through a few passages and show you how the thing works. In the meantime, here are some references you can study on your own. Notice both Advents—Christ's First Coming and His Second Coming—right together in each passage: Hosea 2:23, 3:4–5; Isaiah 53:10, 40:1–5; Amos 9:11–12; Lamentations 4:20; 1 Peter 1:11; Habakkuk 2:3–4; Micah 5:2–3; Genesis 49:10–11, 24; Luke 21:24.

The Death of Liberty and Freedom

reporter open his yap about from WHERE these mythological "rights" come.

Isn't that a "ripper"? Three hundred million people have been accepting a fairy tale as something real without even checking its source. It reminds one of the belief in evolution, doesn't it?

Why are you entitled to "rights"? To what rights are you entitled? Who gave them to you? Where did they give them to you? Did you earn them? Is everyone entitled to them automatically? According to whom?

Does a child have a "right" to refuse to empty the garbage or wash the dishes? Does a killer have a "right" to be released from prison after serving only two years of a fifty-year sentence? Does a seven-year-old child have a "right" to "divorce" his or her parents? Does a single woman have a "right" to take a man's job from him when that man is raising a family?

Well, if they do, then from where did these rights come? Isn't the truth of the matter that they were not given any "right" at all? Weren't they just given power, license, or permission to those things by some sinner like themselves? Why was the word right confused with power, license, or permission unless "MIGHT MAKES RIGHT"?

From where did these "civil rights" come? And if they came from somebody, were they actually real "rights"? Were they even right? When our poor, misguided, old-fashioned, uninformed, white, Protestant, male "Founding Fathers" wrote that every man was entitled to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," what actually were they trying to convey? Were they saying that those things were automatic rights that everyone got without any reference to God?

I believe the statement was: "That they are endowed by their CREATOR with certain inalienable rights." The Founding Fathers said you got your rights from God. But now, after 1933, you aren't to say the word God in a public school gathering unless you're using it as a cuss word.

What fool doesn't know that humanism is evolutionary atheism? "God" is not tolerated in humanism. No humanist gets his "rights" from any "God." They take their "rights" by political power. Hence the old adage: "The destiny of those who will not be ruled by God is to be ruled by tyrants."

If you do not recognize God as the Author of liberty (e.g., "Our fathers' God, to Thee, Author of liberty, to Thee we sing"), you must give sinners the credit for it. Whenever a sinner is in charge of your destiny, he becomes your

"god." That is what happened in America in 1933; the Civil Rights Act of 1964 was just the coup de grace. Thus you find yourself faced with these problems:

1. Teenagers have a "right" to free condoms.

2. Sex perverts have a "right" to teach sodomy, transvestism, and oral sex in a classroom of children under twelve years old.

3. An eight-year-old has a "right" to refuse to go to church.

4. Blacks and whites have a "right" to intermarry (even though Abraham Lincoln said that he was dead set against it, as well as being against blacks being given citizenship).

5. A woman has the "right" to disrupt an entire military operation and control the speech of military men by claiming "sexual harassment" if she doesn't get the attention she wants from a particular male (or female now that "Don't Ask; Don't Tell" has been repealed by Obama and the Congress).

6. Sex perverts have a "right" to take the tax exempt status from the Boy Scouts or the Salvation Army if either of those groups don't give the sex perverts access to their children to recruit (for as anyone knows, queers don't reproduce; they recruit).

From where do all these "rights" come? I mean, if someone gives you the right to do something, isn't that an open confession that they have the power? Don't they have the power not only to give you the right, but also TO TAKE IT FROM YOU?

THINK! Surely the same authority that gave you your rights has the power to deny

THIS addition to the Biblical and historical studies shows the spiritual decline of Israel from the prophets of the Old Testament to the Reformed and Orthodox theology of today. At the same time, Dr. Ruckman traces how God has restored Israel to its present political state (and beyond) in fulfillment to His promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Possibly the most unusual book Dr. Ruckman has ever written.

The research behind this book is greater than any previous work, with the exception of his two-volume work on Church History.

Obama and Michael Luther King Jr.

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

Every now and then, the news media outlets (and by that I mean 95% of them; including magazines, newspapers, radio, and television) produce some “funnyisms” that are too ridiculous even to comment on, but they need to be noticed because they often pass by as sane presentations. One of these is the association of Obama with Abraham Lincoln, which all the press used before, during, and after the election. Another one is the strange association made between Obama and Michael Luther King (the real name of Martin Luther King Jr.) with the pretense that “the dream” Martin Luther King Jr. had was fulfilled when Obama got into the White House.

As anyone with a sixth grade education knows, Abraham Lincoln had a devout Ku Klux Klan philosophy according to his political speeches.

This was apparent by his debates with Stephen Douglas (which had been available in print from a dozen sources for years). In the debates with Stephen Douglas, Lincoln made it clear that he was solidly KKK before there was any KKK.

For example, Lincoln thought that nobody should have an interracial marriage. He said he was definitely against any white people marrying black people; that was clear. He was also clear on segregation: he believed in complete segregation. As a matter of fact, he stated that he didn't believe that black people should ever be allowed to vote. I suppose that's a Ku Klux Klan viewpoint; it is certainly not anything that Martin Luther King Jr. put out. When it came to the equality of the races, Lincoln made it very clear that the white race was definitely superior to the black race and it always would be, and that it would be better if the two races didn't have to work together, but unfortunately they did have to.

Abraham Lincoln's counterfeit of being some great redeemer or emancipator who set the black man free had nothing to do with Abraham Lincoln at all. That is something that somebody made up from the speech at Gettysburg and then turned it into a political platform. Lincoln's view on the intermarriage of the races, on the voting rights and equality of the races, and on the segregation of the races was 100% Ku Klux Klan; and this could be proved in court any time, any place, anywhere, and in any condition by the recorded debates between him and Stephen Douglas. Nevertheless, on goes the news media putting all three of these characters (Obama, Lincoln, and MLK Jr.) together and acting like they all have something in common.

Well, eighteen years ago (1992), the Bible Baptist Bookstore published a harmless little booklet of 32 pages called Roots and Methodology. Quite naturally, no one noticed it very much. It didn't sell very well because nobody was interested in it. The title—Roots and Methodology—was completely without what is known as “drawing power.” There was nothing stimulating, shocking, or interesting about the title at all, so a lot of people just didn't buy it.

That booklet was 32 pages showing you how the news media was preparing you for Obama and his Moslem friends overseas, how TV and radio got the Bible out of the public schools, and how a democratic republic was going to be converted into a So-

Discrimination, the Key to Sanity

 playing the bloody abolitionist song "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" (a postmillennial perversion of Rev. 14:19–20; Isa. 63:1–6 which converted Jesus Christ stepping on Moslem, Buddhist, Hindu, Catholic, and atheist UN forces into Yankees killing white Southerners).

When the papers took away your prejudice against the blacks, they had you take it up against the white high school students. You just swapped prejudices; can't you figure that out? You can play a Northern march about killing Southern whites in a Southern school, but you can't play a Southern folk tune in any Northern high school. Don't you see what that is? It's prejudice; it's discrimination—plain, raw RACIAL DISCRIMINATION of the worst sort.

What authoritative sources or information did CBS, CNN, ABC, NBC, and NPR give you about this strange phenomenon? Nothing; not one word. They all had "Dixiophobia."

Modern radical, left-wing monkey men (any College graduate who believed Darwin) may have overcome their prejudice against Frisco-fairy-fruitloops, but boy, do they ever have a prejudice against Biblical preaching. I have never met a lover of queers who didn't have Bibliophobia from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet. They are just as paranoid sick as any sicky who went to the shrink. If you were to take the writer of any newspaper article published anywhere in the last forty years giving the faggots a "break" so they can "come out of the closet" and be "accepted," and you were to make him sit down before a Bible-believing preacher with the following material, he would leave the building before he had heard three messages. No sodomite, fruitcake pervert would tolerate the following messages from a Bible-believing preacher:

1. A sermon on: "All unrighteousness is sin" (1 John 5:17).
2. A sermon on: The "effeminate" "shall not inherit the kingdom of God" (1 Cor. 6:9).
3. A sermon on: "These filthy dreamers defile the flesh" (Jude 8).

4. A sermon on: As a man "thinketh in his heart, so is he" (Prov. 23:7).

5. A sermon on: "The thought of foolishness is sin" (Prov. 24:9).

6. A sermon on: "If ye live after the flesh, ye shall die" (Rom. 8:13).

7. A sermon on: "Going after strange flesh" (Jude 7).

8. A sermon on: "I have sinned, and perverted that which was right" (Job 33:27).

Every title I listed is a quotation from a verse of Scripture. I gave you the references—look them up! No professing Christian practicing oral sex, sodomy, transvestism, or sex perversion can tolerate such preaching; his tolerance level is an absolute zero. Any normal person who has overcome his "prejudice" against sex perverts will respond to that kind of Biblical preaching exactly as a practicing, confirmed homosexual would react to it.

You see, you swap prejudices so that the press will not accuse you of "discrimination." The press is stuffed as full of sex perverts as a turkey stuffed full of Christmas dressing. The schools are that way now, and the military is about to be that way. They swapped the Biblical revelation that brought about the founding of this country for the secular humanism that destroyed the Soviet Union. They were afraid of queers, so now they have swapped prejudices and are afraid of the Book.

The human race had trouble with Bibliophobia more than 2,000 years before any sex pervert thought up the word homophobia.

American culture, American literature, American speech, and American moral standards. They are to censor the Bible and give out jail sentences to those who believe the Bible and preach it where it deals with blacks, women, Moslems, or sex perverts.

The government used these minorities as "prizes," prods, levers, and weights to get and keep control over not only the public schools but also corporations. With this came the desire to control banks, farm lands, grocery stores, gas stations, trucking companies, oil companies, power companies, publishing companies, private property, and eventually your church and family. That was the "change" that the USA got after the news media (a minority) put through their favorite Presidential candidate—an African mulatto raised on Mohammed and Catholicism.

Roots and Methodology shows you very clearly why the radical, left-wing, fanatical political cartoonists all pictured Martin Luther King Jr. as dreaming about living in the White House: his "buddy" made it. Roots and Methodology shows the construction of the superhighway that led from the liberty to use a drinking fountain and the liberty to sit at the front of the bus and the liberty to enter College with the whites, to the denial of jobs to white people and the denial of equal treatment to white policemen in justice cases and the establishment of all-black schools but no all-white schools. In Roots and Methodology you see what went on: it was the rejection of the Holy Bible and its Author.

God was kicked out of the public schools, and the Book was kicked out with Him. God was kicked out of the Federal buildings, and the Bible was kicked out with Him. In every place, including now the armed services, attempts remain to get rid of God and the Book, and the methodology is the inductive scientific method. This means the exception overthrows the rule. In the deductive method, the exception proves the rule.

The result of teaching a whole nation for three generations to live by the inductive method resulted in the whole nation winding up controlled by apartheid in a jungle. Or as we said back in the 1940s: "Back to the Bible or back to the jungle." You are now in the jungle. Obama's "change" was long in coming, but it is now in full bloom with six "blossoms."

1. Efforts to get rid of all honest citizens by appealing to the rights of criminals—especially black criminals.

2. Getting rid of Christians by using tax money to promote atheism in all schools and all publications through the ACLU and the Supreme Court.

3. Getting rid of the Bible because it is "hate literature" and can cause division.

4. Getting rid of the family by abortions and easy divorces, and then inventing fake

The populace of Jeremiah's day had trouble with it (see Jer. 23; Ezek. 34), as did the educated religious leaders of Christ's day (see John 8; Matt. 23).

Today, Bibliophobia is found in all high places. No one is more frightened of the Book than College professors and Federal judges. They all consider the Holy Bible to be far more dangerous than cursing, illegitimate births, AIDS, abortion, acid rock, unmarried mothers, sex perversion, pornography, or cross dressing. All of those items are allowed and tolerated in the public school system; not one of them has been banned. But the Book is banned. Why? The government and the NEA have Bibliophobia. They're scared stiff of that Book.

 them as well. If you believe that some sinner like you is responsible for the rights you have, then sinners just like you (or worse) can enslave you any time they want (see 2 Pet. 2:19).

If you got your rights from God, then you are eternally indebted to God for those rights; if you got your rights from the Federal government, then you are eternally indebted to that institution for those rights. Americans are now indebted to a government that overthrew what God decreed. They threw Him out (1962), and then they threw out His Book (1963). THEY DON'T WANT HIM GIVING THEM THEIR RIGHTS.

"I WANT MY RIGHTS!" If you do not get them from a living, all-powerful, holy, righteous Creator, then you'll get them from a sinner (or sinners) like yourself—or maybe worse: maybe much worse.

If you got your rights from a depraved, Bible-rejecting sinner who resented what God said about man and his rights, then these same depraved "monkey men" (every one of them is an evolutionist) who gave you your rights—as defined by the news media between 1933 and 2011—can take away every right that you have in less than 24 hours. This will be done by what is known as "emergency measures"; they were adopted in 1962 by JFK during the "Cuban Missile Crisis." They are Executive Orders 10995–11003, issued on February 16, 1962.

They are still in effect. Under them, Obama can confiscate your house, your car, your property, your bank account, and your children. He can seize control of all port shipping, trucking centers, air terminals, and communications (TV and radio). The mulatto Moslem from Africa can send your children to a "detention center" in Montana while he sends you to one in Georgia.

All Obama has to do is declare a "national emergency," and the press will create it and back him up on it. That's how they make their living. The news media will get you killed.

To get the "rights" you want, you have to abandon God and the Bible. That means that those of you who are "politically correct" and follow the news media, you are, as the old underworld terminology goes, "geesed up"; you've got the "barmies." Other generations would say: "you're on a sleigh ride," you've been taken in by a "mud kicker," you're flunked out on "Detroit pig" and "dummy dust," somebody's "slipped you a mickey."

I will close the first installment of this article with a word of testimony. After reading through that Bible more than 150 times, I have come to one of several hundred conclusions that are completely against everything the news media pushes or promotes. I actually believe that I personally have only two God-given rights. Those two rights come from God, and they are the universal property of all men (see Acts 10:34; Rom. 2:11). If I understand that Book correctly, every sinner anywhere on the face of this earth has two "civil rights": 1) the right to die and 2) the right to face God in judgment.

Now I understand that I am part of the most staggering minority in the world. Personally, I am a ninety-year-old Caucasian male; my calling—for 62 years—has been that of a Bible-believing, Baptist preacher. You couldn't find a 3:1-9, 13, 4:3-4; 2 Pet. 2:1-3).

18. The set-up of an international Police State (Rev. 13:7; Dan. 7:19-21).

19. Hundreds of Satanic Bible versions (233 since 1880) that are good for nothing (Jer. 23:36; 2 Pet. 3:16; 2 Cor. 2:17).

20. The gathering together of all the Gentiles into a United Nations Assembly that is completely against the Jewish State of Israel (Zeph. 3:8; Matt. 13:40).

21. The final destruction of Biblical Christianity (Luke 21:12).

Outside of the restoration of the nation of Israel itself in 1948 (see point 1), one of the key signs of Christ's return is the rebuilding of the Jewish temple in Jerusalem. The temple has to be there for the Antichrist to set up his image there in the Tribulation (2 Thess. 2:3-4; Matt. 24:15 cf. Rev. 13:14-15).

The daily prayer of all Jews for nearly 2,000 years has been: "Lord God, may it be Thy will that the temple be speedily rebuilt in our days." There has been a formal call for a synagogue on the mountain by the temple area. In 1986, Rabbi Shlomo Goren said that the Jews were obligated to pray at a sanctuary on the temple mount, so a synagogue should be built there (if not the temple itself) on the Eastern Wall.

Gershon Solomon is the head of a group of 9,000 members called the "Temple Mount Faithful." Every six months since 1991, the group has tried to lay a four-ton cornerstone for the temple on the temple mount. According to a Christian magazine out of Great Britain, as early as 1967, tons of pre-cut limestone (similar to Jerusalem limestone) were shipped out of Bedford, Indiana, reportedly headed for Jerusalem.

An organization called the Temple Institute has reconstructed all the furniture of the Temple. The proper clothing has been made for the priests, and Levites have been identified by DNA testing and are being trained in the temple ritual. Everything is ready for the rebuilding of the temple, and according to Amos 9:11, all that is needed is a tent.

Now those are the signs of Christ's Second Advent. As I said, those signs aren't for you if you are a born-again Christian in the Body of Christ; they're for Israel. But there's nothing in the Scriptures that says you can't read those signs and tell that if everything's set up for the Advent, the Rapture of Church can't be that far away.

"So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the door" (Matt. 24:32).

"And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh" (Luke 21:28).

"He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. EVEN SO, COME, LORD JESUS" (Rev. 22:20).

As far as I'm concerned, the sooner the better.

“All That a Man Hath Will He Give for His Life”

The above quotation is from Satan, as recorded in Job 2:4. The full quote is: “Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.”

In the context, the Devil has been testing God's servant Job, a man whom the Scriptures say “was perfect and upright . . . one that feared God, and eschewed evil” (Job 1:1). Satan's argument to the Lord was that if you take everything Job has, he'll curse you to your face. When that didn't happen, Satan then argued that “when push comes to shove,” you can't really find out what a man is made of until you threaten his life.

This produced the second testing of Job. After losing all his wealth and holdings, and after losing all ten of his children, Job is now called upon to endure several lethal diseases. After centuries of dealing with men under all kinds of conditions, Satan knows what the first rule of humanity is: it is me first, you next.

But this ignores a very important revelation found in the Authorized Version of the Holy Bible. In the King James Bible, there are seven things associated with life. If a man “loves life” (cf. 1 Pet. 3:10), then he will have to get connected with those things as they are found in the Holy Scriptures.

1. The first one, of course, is God Himself,

“The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life” (Job 33:4).

God Almighty is the Author and Sustainer of life.

“Thou hast granted me life, and favor, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit” (Job 10:12).

2. Life is found in God's Son, the Lord Jesus Christ (cf. Prov. 8:35).

John 1:4 says, “In him was life; and the life was the light of men.”

If you have Jesus Christ, you have life, and if you don't, you're a dead man (1 John 5:12 cf. Eph. 2:1), even if you're conscious and walking around. As Jesus said, “let the dead bury their dead” (Matt. 8:22). You will either get life from God through His Son, or you won't get it (John 14:6, 3:36).

3. Life is connected with Jesus Christ's WORDS.

“The WORDS that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life” (John 6:63).

Simon Peter said, “Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the WORDS of eternal life” (John 6:68).

Those words are in a Book, and that Book is called “the word of life” (Phil. 2:16).

4. In the Bible, there is a Tree of Life. That tree first shows up in the Garden of Eden (Gen. 2:9), and when Adam sins, he is driven out of the garden so he won't eat of that tree and live forever in his sin (Gen. 3:22–23).

Later on in the Old Testament, that tree is spiritualized.

“The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise” (Prov. 11:30).

“A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit” (Prov. 15:4).

What comes out of your mouth can either give life or cause death (cf. Matt. 7:16–20). In the New Testament, that tree is spiritually the Lord Jesus Christ and His Gospel (John 15; Rom. 11).

In Eternity, the literal Tree of Life shows back up in the New Jerusalem for those saints in the Tribulation who keep God's commandments (Rev. 22:14); it's not for you if you are a born-again child of God in the Body of Christ. You don't get your eternal life off the Tree of Life; you get your eternal life off a tree of death (1 Cor. 1:18). But there are people in the future who will need to eat of the Tree of Life to get eternal life (Rev. 22:2).

5. Also in the New Jerusalem is the River of Life (Rev. 22:1). It is first mentioned in Psalm 36:8–9. In the New Testament, it is the Holy Spirit indwelling the believer in Jesus Christ (John 4:14, 7:38–39). It is pre-figured in the Millennium by a river flowing out of the Temple in Jerusalem which brings life back to the Dead Sea (Ezek. 47:1–2; Zech. 14:8).

6. One of the rewards that a Christian can earn is “the crown of life.” It is given for resisting temptation (James 1:12) or dying a martyr's death for the cause of Christ (Rev. 2:10).

7. Finally, there is the Book of Life. That is the book that has the name of every saved person in it, written down in Heaven. Jesus told the disciples, “rejoice, because your names are written in heaven” (Luke 10:20). The Apostle Paul talked about his “fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life” (Phil. 4:3).

One day, every single man, woman, and child will stand before God in judgment (Eccl. 12:14). The Bible says at that time: “And I saw the dead, small and great stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life . . . And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Rev. 20:12, 15).

Is your name in the Book of Life? If you can't answer in the affirmative, you had better get it settled right now. If I were you, I wouldn't wait another minute.

more staggering minority than that, I don't suppose.

You couldn't find 500 Bible-believing male Baptists in Spain, which has a population of 38 million. There are not 200 Bible-believing male Baptists in Italy, which has a population of five million. In a country of over one billion people (China), you couldn't find 1,000 Bible-believing male Baptists: that would be less than .001% of the total population of that country. You talk about a minority, boy; that's it.

Consequently, I should be hollering at the top of my lungs about "my rights" day and night, seven days a week, 365 days a year. But in the 120-plus works I have authored, I have never mentioned them.

I've lost my "right" to preach in a mall or shopping center. I've lost my right to "free" speech on my radio broadcast. I've lost my "right" to operate a Christian school without Roman Catholics in Tallahassee putting a "street tax" on it. I've lost my "right" to carry a loaded weapon, although my life has been threatened two or three times, one time with a loaded pistol right in my face. I've lost my "right" to vote on declarations of war, taxes, and race-mixing. I've even lost the "right" to raise my own children as I see fit from the Scriptures.

Who took these "rights" from me? The last four Presidents and the Supreme Court, with the backing of the news media.

With all these losses of "rights" and liberties which an American should have, I made no "demonstrations" and no "civil disobedience" marches or "sit-ins." Why not?

How is it that the blacks, females, queers, Mexicans,

Moslems, delinquents, and criminals are always in a perfectly psychotic tantrum about their "rights"—with all the news media outlets literally foaming at the mouth to promote them and back them up—while the mature, educated, responsible, law-abiding, tax-paying, white, male, Protestant Bible believers—a minority these days if you ever saw one, brother—never make an issue or a fuss about their rights? Why is that?

We'll see why in the next issue.

"These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may KNOW that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God" (1 John 5:13).

Those are the seven things connected with life in the King James Bible. Not one of them is recommended or promoted by the news media at all. Those are the seven things for getting life, getting eternal life, living a successful life (see Josh. 1:8), and living a happy life (see John 10:10). You won't find them anywhere in any newspaper, reported by any journalist. You won't find anything by any newspaper, TV, or radio reporter that will give you any indication at all on how to live, how to stay alive, or how to get eternal life. The only place you will find those things will be in a Book written in the universal language of the Twenty-first Century: the King James 1611 Authorized Version of the Holy Bible.

P.S. On the front cover of Roots and Methodology you

THE CREED OF THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT

1. There is no final authority but God.
2. Since God is a Spirit, there is no final authority that can be seen, heard, read, felt, or handled.
3. Since all books are material, there is no book on this earth that is the final and absolute authority on what is right and what is wrong, what constitutes truth and what constitutes error.
4. There WAS a series of writings one time which, IF they had all been put into a BOOK as soon as they were written the first time, WOULD HAVE constituted an infallible and final authority by which to judge truth and error.
5. However, this series of writings was lost, and the God who inspired them was unable to preserve their content through Bible-believing Christians at Antioch (Syria), where the first Bible teachers were (Acts 13:1), and where the first missionary trip originated (Acts 13:1-52), and where the word “Christian” originated (Acts 11:26).
6. So God chose to ALMOST preserve them through Gnostics and philosophers from Alexandria, Egypt, even though God called His Son OUT of Egypt (Matthew 2), Jacob OUT of Egypt (Genesis 49), Israel OUT of Egypt (Exodus 15), and Joseph’s bones OUT of Egypt (Exodus 13).
7. So there are two streams of Bibles. The most accurate—though, of course, there is no final, absolute authority for determining truth and error; it is a matter of “preference”—are the Egyptian translations from Alexandria, Egypt, which are “almost the originals,” although not quite.
8. The most inaccurate translations were those that brought about the German Reformation (Luther, Zwingli, Boehler, Zinzen-dorf, Spener, et al.) and the worldwide missionary movement of the English-speaking people: the Bible that Sunday, Torrey, Moody, Finney, Spurgeon, Whitefield, Wesley, and Chapman used.
9. But we can “tolerate” these if those who believe in them will “tolerate” US. After all, since there is NO ABSOLUTE AND FINAL AUTHORITY that anyone can read, teach, preach, or handle, the whole thing is a matter of “PREFERENCE.” You may prefer what you prefer, and we will prefer what we prefer. Let us live in peace, and if we cannot agree on anything or everything, let us all agree on one thing: THERE IS NO FINAL, ABSOLUTE, WRITTEN AUTHORITY OF GOD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH.

This is the Creed of the Alexandrian Cult.

ADVICE FOR TEENAGERS

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

There have been many good books written by Bible-believing Christians for the benefit of teenagers and young people. John Stormer's book Growing Up God's Way is a good one; Hugh Pyle has some good material. Here is what I tell Christian young men and women going through public schools or preparing to go out into the world. I give them a series of don'ts first and then do's: negative first; that's the law of life.

1. Don't envy sinners.
2. Never underestimate the power of the Scriptures.
3. Don't wish you were older than you are. Don't be in a hurry to grow up; you've got plenty of time. A lot of teenagers want to rush into adulthood so that they can do what they want without momma and daddy ordering them around. You will find that the older you get, the more you will be told what to do by someone else.

4. Don't have friendships that destroy your personal relationship with Jesus Christ. There are two verses that every Christian teenager should memorize in this regard:

"A companion of fools shall be destroyed" (Prov. 13:20).

"Evil communications corrupt good manners" (1 Cor. 15:33).

Young people should always avoid peer pressure that's contrary to the word of God. They should avoid little groups and cliques. They should avoid anyone who tries to tempt them with sodomy, fornication, drugs, alcohol, smoking, lying to parents, skipping school, stealing, etc. They should avoid fellowship with anyone embarrassed to witness or who drags them down spiritually. Pick a friend with whom you can pray and go to church and witness together.

Those are the "don'ts"; here is what you should do.

1. Take the Lord into your confidence. Talk to Him plainly and clearly: no "dressing up" your prayer life. Talk to Him as if He were sitting right there with you. Put all "52 cards" on the table face up.

2. Let the Lord do your worrying for you. "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you" (1 Pet. 5:7).

3. Learn how to brag on Jesus Christ. God is interested in His Son, primarily, before you or anyone else. Christ died for you when you were His enemy; He loved you that much. Well, hadn't you better brag on Him, then? You want God to bless you? Brag on His Son.

4. Let God give you the desires of your heart. Of course, if you follow Him, your desires are going to be right, not wrong. You aren't going to desire fornication, pornography, sodomy, fame, fortune, and all the stuff the world puts before you 24 hours a day on television, radio, billboards, etc. If you put the Lord first, you'll want what's right, and He'll give it to you.

Those are the "values" that will help you maintain some semblance of being a born-again child of God in the public schools.
