“You’ve Come a Long Way, Baby”

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

The chaplaincy of the United States Armed Forces was established by the Continental Congress on July 9, 1776. It was to be composed of ordained clergymen of “piety, virtue, and learning” (Continental Congress, 1777) so that “every officer and [enlisted] man [could] live and act, as becomes a CHRISTIAN soldier, defending the rights and liberties of his country” (George Washington, 1776). Such things as swearing, drunkenness, gambling, and sex perversion were OUT in Washington’s army.

Fast forward 222 years to 1998. This is a “communication sent to various pastors by Chaplain ‘Rita’ A. Lemons, HQ Air Force Recruiting Service.” “Rita” put out this letter to recruit chaplains for the United States Air Force, but this is nothing peculiar to “Rita” or the Air Force. You can find the same requirements for chaplains in the Army, Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard in 2012. This is the “contemporary military” that is “rich in religious and cultural diversity.” Meaning what? Meaning now you have more than just American boys under Protestant and Catholic chaplains as you did under George Washington. The “religious diversity” includes Jews, Buddhists, “Wiccans” (witches), Moslems, Scientologists, Satanists, etc.; the “cultural diversity” includes atheists, agnostics, evolutionists, humanists, Communists, faggots, butches, queers, Lesbians, “double-breasted finks,” etc. That’s the “religious and cultural diversity” of “our contemporary military.” Not too long ago, Congress voted on lifting the ban on bestiality in the military. How’s that for “cultural diversity.”

Anyway, here are the requirements given by “Rita”

Castaway

By Tom Waddle

There is a reason there are so many jokes about fat preachers: the average preacher is fat. I realize that is not being “politically correct,” but I don’t take my talking orders from the world. The world rejects plain talk only when a preacher starts talking about their sins; that will include the Christian who is trying to get along with it.

The fact is, the average preacher is fat and out of shape. Yes, it’s true that they are always being offered cake, pudding, pies, and, of course, don’t forget the fried chicken! But if you are a Bible believer, you must face the issue of what the Bible says about taking care of your body.

Not a popular subject, is it? Do you remember the last sermon you heard on obesity? I don’t think so.

How about this: “But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway” (1 Cor. 9:27). Do you know the context of that verse? It’s talking about you as a Christian (any Christian, not just preachers) keeping yourself in a good enough shape to run or get into the “ring” and “box” (1 Cor. 9:24–26).

The difference between you and the world is motive. “Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible” (1 Cor. 9:25). You and the world are both running. The world runs and stays “in shape” for them—

“We Shall All Be CHANGED”

The fashionable philosophy used as the standard for the modern education system (i.e., the sources used by the NEA for teaching) is that the only “sin” is refusing to “change.” The purveyors of this sick, senseless denial of history and reality even went so far as to say that the “unpardonable sin” (a term stolen from the Bible) is “refusal to change.” The teachers and educators who were indoctrinated in this ridiculous nonsense were installed in “cells” by the NEA as “change agents” (1945–2005); they were the new “evangelists” and “preachers” whose job it was to “convert” your child into a one-world global citizen. The first one was a fairy, faggot, Frisco fruit—Socrates, 469–399 B.C.—who said, “I am not a citizen of Athens, but a citizen of the world”; that is, the old sex pervert was God’s enemy (James 4:4).

The UN and the NEA adopted this pagan “party line” and have carried it out in the Federal school system and have promoted it through all news media outlets. It has been passed on to each generation of “monkey men” (all media outlets and Federal educational institutions believe in the non-intellectual, nonscientific view of evolution where everything came into being by accidental “spontaneous generation”

A Study in Mind Shredding

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

Back in 1980, we put out a book entitled Problem Texts to match the class by that name here at the Pensacola Bible Institute. It never did sell too well under that title (after all, who wants another “problem”), so in 1999, we revised the work and retitled it The “Errors” in the King James Bible. The book dealt with 400 Bible texts in the Authorized Version which the faculties and staffs of Fundamental and Conservative Colleges, Universities, and Seminaries had been throwing in the faces of their young ministerial students for years as “mistakes” in the KJV; they did this to shake the young preacher’s faith in the Book and replace it with faith in Christian scholarship (especially their scholarship). We went through these 400 “problem texts” and showed the “serious student of the Scriptures” (to borrow a hackneyed cliché from the apostates) how to reconcile them by comparing Scripture with Scripture (1 Cor. 2:13) in the King James Bible, without any reliance on Hebrew or Greek or scholarship of any kind, “Christian” or otherwise. In other words, we placed the student’s faith where it belonged: in the Holy Scriptures in their own language (2 Tim. 3:15).

In chapter 10 of that work, we dealt with the supposed contradiction between 2 Chronicles 36:9 where Jehoiachin begins his reign at “eight years old” and 2 Kings 24:8 where he begins his reign at “eighteen years old” (pp. 247–248 of the 1999 ed., which see). The texts were faced and dealt with in a believing manner which maintained the integriety of the Biblical text in both Hebrew and English.

Nevertheless, “hope springs eternal” in the hearts of Alexandrian apostates who will grasp at any straw to get you to come to them as the final authority instead of the Holy Bible. So one of these Cultic nuts in the orchard (Song of Sol. 6:11) put out a 46-page document on the internet to prove the King James Bible was in error in 2 Chronicles 36:9. He blamed this “error” on the Masoretic text of the Hebrews, to whom “were committed the oracles of God” (Rom. 3:2); that is, this particular Alexandrian idiot (whose name escapes me at the moment) thinks that he, as a destructive Gentile critic, knows more about Hebrew texts than the Hebrews who put them together—remarkable conceit.

On pages 15 and 44 of this treatise, this member of the Alexandrian Cult says, “Ruckman loves himself more than the truth” because he won’t alter the AV text—from the Masoretic Hebrew text—to the reading this conceited apostate jackass desires. The author humbly insists on page 15 that when you deal with his destructive criticism, you are dealing with “logic” in getting rid of the King James text in 2 Kings 24:8 and 2 Chronicles 36:9. Fair enough; since the Book commands us to “prove all things” (1 Thess. 5:21) by the Scriptures (Isa. 8:20; Acts 17:11), we will examine his mind and his “logic” as he tries to get you to accept HIM as the final authority instead of the Book. After all, that has been the goal and motive of every single apostate Laodicean in the Alexandrian

Cult and the Scholars’ Union since 1611: how to get rid of the AV with substitute readings (more than 64,000 corrections in 233 conflicting versions since 1800). So this will be a study in the mental processes of more than 5,000 members of the Cult who labor night and day to maintain their Nicolaitan authority over the Body of Christ.

This deluded fool begins by saying he himself has erected a “Mt. Everest unscaleable for inerrancy advocates,” by quoting Jeremiah 36:30—“Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiachin king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David.”

Now look at that. The verse has no more to do with the age of Jehoiachin (called “Jeconiah” in 1 Chron. 3:16–17 and “Coniah” in Jer. 22:24) than it has to do with “Goldilocks and the Three Bears.” No mention of anyone’s age is found within twenty verses of the text in either direction.

What the apostate is trying to say is that Jehoiachin could not have gotten on the throne of David AT ANY TIME after Jehoiachin was carried away captive to Babylon (2 Chron. 36:6), so Jehoiachin could not have ascended the throne at ANY age, eight or eighteen. However, in his zeal to make a fool out of himself, this builder of the “unscaleable Mt. Everest” says, “The length of his reign in both verses is the same.” Remarkable! How did he REIGN even three months if it was not on the throne of David?

This is so typical of the way half-baked amateurs charge into the Scriptures as to be a bore. The verse that says that Jehoiachin would “have none to sit upon the throne of David” (Jer. 36:30) is defined in the very verse which fulfills it—Jeremiah 22:30. The “sitting” of Jeremiah 36:30 is defined in Jeremiah 22:30 as a legitimate reign that God would bless and prosper. If this meaning is not read into Jeremiah 36:30, then Jehoiachin never reigned “three months” at any time in his life: either from 8–18 with his Queen mother (2 Chron. 36:9 cf. Jer. 22:26; 2 Kings 24:12) to be a chaplain in the United States Air Force. They are the same today as they were back in 1998, and as stated above, they are the same for any branch of the service.

1. "Be a United States citizen," although they can be required to serve under UN or other foreign commands (see what Clinton did in Bosnia).

2. "Have two years pastoral experience minimum." It doesn't matter if the "pastoral experience" is in the Church of Satan or as a Wiccan priest (or priestess), as long as you have a minimum of two years of it.

3. "Be under age 42 (age may vary with prior military service)."

4. "Pass a commissioning physical" (chaplains enter the service as officers).

5. "Have an 'ecclesiastical endorsement.'" Under the Obama administration, that means be a part of a religious organization that is "politically correct" when it comes to issues of abortion, cross-dressing, "transgenderism," and homosexual marriage.

6. "Have a bachelor's degree (120 hours) and a Master of Divinity or equivalent graduate program (90 hours) from an 'accredited institution'; meaning a College, University, or Seminary whose teachings are approved by humanistic bureaucrats.

Note the following things that are not required to be a chaplain in the Armed Services:

No chaplain has to profess the New Birth.

No chaplain has to have any conversion experience to Jesus Christ.

No chaplain has to be baptized or be a member of a Bible-believing church.

No chaplain has to teach or preach the Bible, or even read it.

No chaplain has to know anything about soulwinning, prayer, the two natures of the believer, the Second Coming, the blood atonement, the Resurrection, the Deity of Christ, redemption, sanctification, the Judgment Seat of Christ, the restoration of Israel, or the Millennium.

No chaplain has to be normal, moral, separated, clean-living, spiritual, or honest (i.e., "piety" and "virtue"). They can smoke, drink, fornicate, gamble, curse, or be sex perverts as long as they meet the qualifications given above. (The only thing she left out was the "security clearance" instituted after "9-11.")

The chaplains of "our contemporary military" (i.e., the military under the leadership of the Obama administration and the Democratic Party) are to be double-speaking, politically correct, mongrelized time-servers seeking (in Rits's words) "an attractive salary" and "a comprehensive benefits package" (see the Holy Spirit's comments on this type of "minister" in Mic. 3:11). I'll give you fifty thousand dollars cash if you can find where the Apostle Paul offered those things to any pastor, evangelist, minister, or Bible teacher on the face of this earth who was following Jesus Christ or serving Him.

You say, "You don't have that kind of money, Ruckman." I can get it just as quick as you can find anywhere in the Bible where Paul promised those kinds of things, because it's not in there.

You have come a long way from the chaplaincy under "the Father of our country." It is straight down into the Pit (see Jude 7).

The Resurrection of Jesus Christ
"He is not here: for he is risen..."
FACT OR FICTION?
by Dr. Terry Witmore, Th.D.
Nearly 2,000 years ago, an event reportedly took place so incredible, it changed the course of history — the resurrection of Jesus Christ...
The Resurrection of Jesus Christ is either — the greatest event in the greatest found — in history!
Did Jesus Christ actually rise from the dead? Or was the resurrection of Jesus Christ a hoax, but the center of history propounded this myth?
Dr. Greenleaf, the Royal Professor of Law at Harvard University, was one of the greatest legal minds that ever lived. He wrote the first legal volume entitled, Four Views on the Law of Evidence, considered by many the greatest legal volume ever written. Dr. Simon Greenleaf believed the Resurrection of Jesus Christ was a hoax. A hoax, at least, according to the "truth" of the Resurrection.
After carefully examining the evidence for the resurrection — Dr. Greenleaf came to the exact opposite conclusion! He wrote a book entitled, An Examination of the Testimony of the Four Evangelists by the Rules of Evidence, Administered in the Courts of Justice. In which he emphatically stated, "IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE that the apostles could have perpetrated a falsehood, who would thus, had succeeded, had not JESUS CHRIST ACTUALLY RISEN FROM THE DEAD..." (Ibid., p. 29)
Greenleaf concluded that according to the standards of legal evidence, the resurrection of Jesus Christ was the best supported event in all of history!
And not only that, Dr. Greenleaf was so convinced by selves; the Christian should do it so he can be more efficient for the Lord in the Lord's work.

How many preachers do you know who could make a mile run without passing out? How about three minutes in the "ring" with anybody? I am not talking about someone with real, sure-enough health problems. God knows, and you know, why you can't see the scales when you stand on them in the morning. If you have an overweight problem that is out of your control, I'm not talking to you, but for most of you, your weight problem is self-inflicted, I do believe.

Being overweight will cause a lot of problems. Knees, back, feet, ankles, hips, joints, heart, blood vessels, and internal organs all suffer; it can even bring on diabetes. The heavier you get, the worse it gets, and getting old is going to complicate things even more. You had better get out and exercise, start eating right, and get the weight off and keep it off; or according to 1 Corinthians 9:27, God will put you on the shelf. "Castaway" is the word in the verse. Of course, you are cast away from service, not salvation.

Being overweight could also lead to an early grave. "If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy" (1 Cor. 3:17). Romans 8:13 says, "For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die." The Old Testament puts it this way: "why shouldest thou die before thy time?" (Eccl. 7:17)

I asked a lady one time, "Why do you smoke? You know those things are going to put you into an early grave."

As smoke rolled out of her nose and shadowed her face, she replied, "Well, preacher, I believe when it's my time to go, it's my time to go."

I said, "And I guess you would go stand in the middle of the interstate and say that, would you?"

"Why, no, preacher," she said as she hacked up half her lung, "That would be tempting the Lord."

"I'm going to have to agree with you on that one, ma'am," I said as I handed her a Gospel tract.

The famous preacher "come back" to all of this is: "all the fat is the LORD'S," quoting Leviticus 3:16. The answer to that is, "Yes, it is, and now you have an opportunity to be really Scriptural. In that same verse you are supposed to take the fat and burn it." So go get your butt on a treadmill and burn off about 100 pounds of it.

Now, there are all kinds of "diets" out there to help the overweight preacher get the pounds off. One can even be "tailor-made" to fit your particular needs. But diet is only part of the solution. You need to get your body moving. Use the stairs when you visit the hospitals; park as far away in a parking lot as you can and walk to where you're going. Yeah, WALK; you've got to get your heart pumping and the air moving.

There are all kinds of exercise programs out there too. If you need morale, there are trainers at local gyms that can help you get up the nerve to get your body moving again. Memberships at gyms are at an all-time low. If you need to join one, do it, and spend thirty minutes a day, four days

Continued from 1 and progresses from puddle to paradise) who believe that all "changes" are progressive moves forward just as long as they do away with something and try something "different."

For example, if you are rolling down a steep-grade, curved mountain road in an eighteen-wheel "semi," it would be totally proper to put it into "overdrive" since that would be a "change" in your speed. When you crash through the guardrail at 1,500 feet, you simply pretend you were coasting UPWARD the whole time. "All change is progress."

For example, if you reach the conclusion that segregation and prohibition were good things, it is only because you are being stubborn and stagnant; it can't possibly be because they WORK. So you "cure" your "problem" with "change": you mix the races and get them drunk. Things have to improve because you "changed." When the crime rate, abortions, divorces, and law suits increase ten times faster than the population increases, you simply say, "Well, we are making some progress." "All change is progress" in the eyes of a deluded, deceived, irrational, intellectually dishonest CRACKPOT.

We used to arrest sodomites; now we call their critics "mentally sick" ("homophobes"). We used to have one divorce out of every twenty marriages; now we have one out of every two—PROGRESS! We used to have a national debt of forty billion dollars, but thanks to Obama's "change," we now have one of over sixteen trillion dollars—PROGRESS! We used to have a national prison population of 80,000 prisoners, and now there are two million prisoners—PROGRESS!

When the general population increased two to one, the criminals increased eight to one. Why did that happen? Because the lawmakers made changes in the laws which gave criminals more "rights," and the Supreme Court and District Court judges handed down decisions making it harder for police forces to enforce local and State laws. "Change" had taken place, so it must have been "progress."

When Hitler took the reins of government from Hindenburg, there was "change" that decided the fate of six million Jews. When Lenin took over Russia from the Czars, there was "change" that ended with the death of more Russians in forty years (1920–1960) than the Czars murdered in 200 years (1700–1900). When Obama got elected on "change," you got a Socialistic health care system that doubled the national debt to over sixteen trillion dollars and faggots, queers, Lesbians, butches, and dykes making up your military. But it was change, wasn't it?

But you cannot cure the insanity of monkey men with doctors' degrees (Darwin, Einstein, Huxley, et al.) who think "changes" brought you up from a mud puddle to "the measure of all things" by random chance. Once this mindset is taken, then the "change" from Bach, Mozart, Schubert, and Brahms to KISS, AC-DC, Twisted Sister, and "Rap" has to be progress. That is, they are loonier than a Looney Toon.

Now, the title of this article is taken from 1 Corinthians 15:51. The change in that passage is obviously upward (see 1 Thess. 4:17). A "change" takes place in Revelation 20:1–2 that is obviously downward. If you change "the truth of God into a lie" (Rom. 1:25) like the NIV, then it would be Jesus Christ who is cast down to Hell (see how the NIV gives Satan Christ's title from Rev. 22:16). But since it is the NEW International Version, the change must be an improvement over the King James reading. If you really Yin-Yang your way through the Biblical text, then the more "changes" that are made, the more progress you have. So the NASV and the NIV make anywhere from 36,000–64,000 changes from the Authorized Version.

THIS addition to the Biblical and historical studies shows the spiritual decline of Israel from the prophets of the Old Testament to the Reformed and Orthodox theology of today. At the same time, Dr. Ruckman traces how God has restored Israel to its present political state (and beyond) in fulfillment to His promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Possibly the most unusual book Dr. Ruckman has ever written. The research behind this book is greater than any previous work, with the exception of his two-volume work on Church History.

A Study in Mind Shredding

Continued from 2 or by himself at 18 (2 Kings 24:8). This amateur critic erected a "Mt. Everest" that HE couldn't scale when he began his thesis.

Note, again, in Jeremiah 22:30 that the word "childless" is not a reference to Jeconiah having no children at all, for Jeremiah 22:28 talks about "his seed," and they are named in 1 Chronicles 3:17-18. Jeconiah is "childless" in the sense that none of his descendants would sit on David's throne. Conversely, the prophecy of Jehoiakim having "none to sit upon the throne of David" in Jeremiah 36:30 doesn't mean that Jehoiachin didn't sit there three months, since both 2 Kings 24:8 and 2 Chronicles 36:9 say he did. The prophecy against Jehoiakim was fulfilled in the curse on his son. The apostate erected a "Mt. Everest" that was nearly as high as an ant hill in my back yard.

Now, the Bible-believing explanation for the differences in ages between 2 Kings 24:8 and 2 Chronicles 36:9 is that from the age of eight when he took the throne to the age of eighteen when he began his solo reign, Jeconiah had a joint rule with his mother as the Queen. This is apparent from the fact that she was included in his devilment (Jer. 13:18, 22:26; 2 Kings 24:12). The King and Queen (mother and son) got the same treatment from Nebuchadnezzar because she was a "factor" in Jehoiachin's rebellion for at least ten years.

This deluded nut insisted that Jehoiachin's mother could not have a joint reign with a minor son because "only males were in line to take the throne." But liars have to have good memories, and this one doesn't. He forgot that a Queen could reign over Judah by herself. Second Kings 11:3—"And Athaliah did reign over the land." The apostate blew it again. He forgot that a Queen mother could sit at her son's right hand advising him on policy (1 Kings 2:19).

The crazy kook erected "an unscaleable Mt. Everest" for fools like himself, not for any Bible believer who believed in the inerrancy of the Book he held in his hand.

But why play games with these silly egotists? Isaiah told you that in the last days of Judah's apostasy that "women rule over them" (Isa. 3:12). If there is any doubt that that statement could refer to a Queen, witness Jezebel governing (see "the governor" over "the King's son" in 1 Kings 22:26 and notice that the "heir apparent" doesn't even get the throne in 1 Kings 22:51) by making the King's decision for him (1 Kings 21:7).

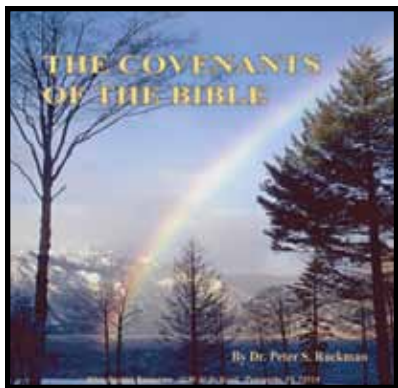

Mark it down, whenever one of these silly jackasses claims that "Ruckman loves himself instead of the truth," the Bible believer had better check the man's "logic" carefully. For instance, on page 8 of his work, this blind fool actually says that "Ruckman" has Jeconiah sitting on the throne of Judah at eight years of age AFTER he was carried into Babylon. He lied; I never even suggested such a thing. Get The "Errors" in the King James Bible (1999 ed.) and see how I handled the texts.

Following up on this lie, he then proceeds to write five pages to prove that at eight years old, Jehoiachin couldn't have been "accountable" for his sins, for he was under the "age of accountability." Imagine that! Here's this insane character professing to know exactly how old your children have to be before they come under the condemnation of Romans

The Covenants Of the Bible

A detailed study from the Sunday School of Bible Baptist Church on the Biblical covenants that form the foundation of dispensational theology. In this series, Dr. Ruckman teaches on how God deals with mankind throughout history by establishing seven covenants with the representatives of humanity, races, and nations. As in all of his teachings, Dr. Ruckman "rightly divides" the word so you will know what parts of those covenants are still binding on us today, what parts have already been fulfilled, and what parts await fulfillment in the future. The Sanest Politician in America

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

Here is a little political tractus written way back in 1998 by a fellow from Mississippi named Lewis Napper who ran for the United States Senate in 2000. Although it is now nineteen years old, it is still relevant today with Obama's Healthcare Bill and the Communist "Occupy" protesters.

The document is entitled "The Bill of NO Rights." It consists of ten "articles" dealing with the "rights" to which no man on earth is "entitled" (even though the UN, Obama, and the Democrats promise these "rights" to everybody and will back them up with fines, imprisonment, and armed force if necessary), and the material in them is as good as anything you read in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. It starts out as follows:

"We the sensible people of the United States, in an attempt to help everyone get along, restore some semblance of justice, avoid more riots, keep our nation safe, promote positive behavior, secure the blessings of debt-free liberty to ourselves . . ."

There then follow ten items which have been thrown out by the UN, the ACLU, the NEA, the labor unions, the NAACP, the Supreme Court, the Senators and Congressmen, and the mulatto Moslem currently in the White House. Here is Napper's "Bill of NO Rights":

1. You do not have a right to a new car or a big screen television set. You may legally acquire them, but you have no right to either. Is that clear?
2. You have no right to avoid being offended. Freedom means freedom for everyone, not just you, stupid.
3. You have no right to be free from danger or harm. If you stick a screwdriver in your eye, learn to be more careful. You have no right to force some toolmaker to make you or your relatives independently wealthy just because you did something stupid.

(Notice how this sane approach to the present culture in America runs completely contrary to everything you get on TV, radio, and newspapers morning and night, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year.)

4. You have no right to either free food or free housing.

(The Bible says if any man doesn't work, he's not to eat—2 Thess. 3:10.)

5. YOU HAVE NO RIGHT TO FREE HEALTHCARE.

(Is that clear Obama, Nancy Pelosi, and Harry Reid?)

6. You do not have the right to physically harm other people. If you maim or kill somebody, don't be surprised if the rest of us want to see you fry in the electric chair.

7. You do not have the right to the possessions of anyone if you rob, cheat, or coerce to get them. Is that clear?

(That is, you have no right to "occupy Wall Street" to force them to "redistribute wealth" any more than the Wall Street bankers have to cheat the American people out of trillions of dollars of "bail-out" money.)

8. You have no right to demand your children risk their lives in foreign wars [say, like Libya, Iraq, and Afghanistan].

The Sanest Politician in America

We do not enjoy parenting the entire world and do not want to spend so much of our time battling each and every little tyrant with a military uniform and a funny hat.

"Americanism"

Here's some interesting observations made by someone who has been doing some thinking:

If you want your father to take care of you, that's called "Paternalism." If your mother raises you, that's called "Maternalism." If you want the government to take care of you, that's called "Socialism" or "Communism." If you want a dictator to take care of you, that's called "Nazism" or "Fascism." But if you want God to take care of you, that's called "Americanism."

Unfortunately, Americans no longer want God to take care of them. The Supreme Court has decided God has no business teaching your children anything in the government's schools, so the judges threw out His Book (1962-63). Under FDR, Americans learned to trust the government to take care of them instead of God. As a result, America is now an international Socialistic State that is going Communist under an African dictator. That is the new "Americanism."

a right to pursue happiness. You may find it and you may not. You are much more liable to find it in a country that is not encumbered by an overbalance of idiotic laws created by those who are confused by the Bill of Rights.

That's the greatest political document I've read outside of the Constitution and Bill of Rights themselves. Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address" couldn't touch it; nothing FDR, Clinton, or Obama said in a lifetime could touch the instep of that document. It has never been improved upon, and there isn't any Democrat (or most Republicans) in the Congress, the Senate, or the State Department who knows anything about what it's saying. That's because it is 100% American and in line with the New Testament.

Buddy boy, have we ever made some progress!

So let out the clutch, man! Take off the brakes; put the pedal to the metal! "Call evil good and good evil" (Isa. 5:20). Call Heaven "Hell" and Hell "Heaven." Wind up with black being white, children as adults, sex perverts as normal, Occidentals as Orientals, Christians as radical terrorists, and Moslems as peaceful, law-abiding citizens. After all, "all change is progress." It is if you are the Mad Hatter in Wonderland.

Well, here at the Pensacola Bible Institute, we are not "all changed." We believe in good, old-fashioned, rock-bottom, root-grounded immovability, with a good, hard, tight, grim, stubborn hold on the TRUTH that would put a pit bull out of business. In 47 years of operation, the only "changes" we have made is into two bigger buildings for our students and congregation; a gym for our people to play hockey, basketball, volleyball, and racquet ball; and a larger bookstore. The total of God's money (from God's people) spent on these things wouldn't come to a quarter of what the average, modern Christian College has spent on one building in one year.

We think that most "change" is the most damnable thing that could be done (see Judg. 1-3; Rev. 2-3). Now if the change is from sin to righteousness, from Satan to God, and from darkness to light (Acts 26:18; John 3:19-21) or from Roman Catholicism to Biblical Christianity or from liquor and drugs to total abstinence or from such perversions of the Scriptures like the NIV, NASV, RSV, ESV, NKJV, etc., to a King James Bible, that is one thing; but following the world's philosophy, gods, goals, suggestions, moral standards, religions, wisdom, or traditions is a backward movement that will take you downhill to destruction every time you follow them.

Here at little, insignificant PBI, the following "changes" have never been made. Where others followed them and put them into practice, we either ignored them or discarded them altogether. You might say we are bigoted, narrow-minded, old-fashioned, tradition-bound, stubborn, unrealistic, anti-social "undesirables" who should be eliminated from the "New Age."

1. We made no changes in our musicians. All our singers and instrumentalists perform "live." No one here ever uses "canned music" for anything except to MOCK modern Charismatic "Gospel" singers.

2. We made no changes in our music. With three hymnals, we still sing the songs your grandparents and great-grandparents sang.

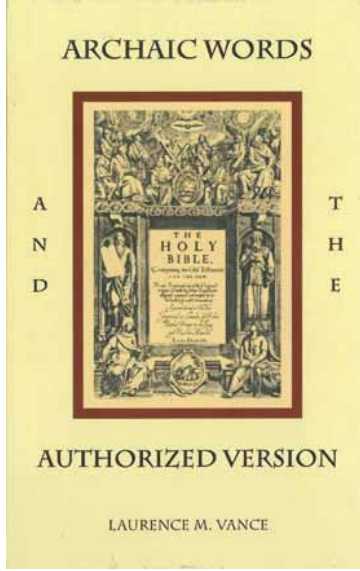

Many of the songs were written before 1900, and some before 1800.

(Boy are we ever "archaic." How little "impact" we are going to make on this age.)

3. We don't "share" anything with anybody. We take up offerings and we give offerings. We teach lessons and we preach sermons. But one thing we will never do is "share": we "don't share nuthin' with nobody." At PBI, share is the worse cuss word in the English language.

4. We never tell anyone how to "cope with stress." We are not interested in "mean-

The Anti-Intellectual Manifesto

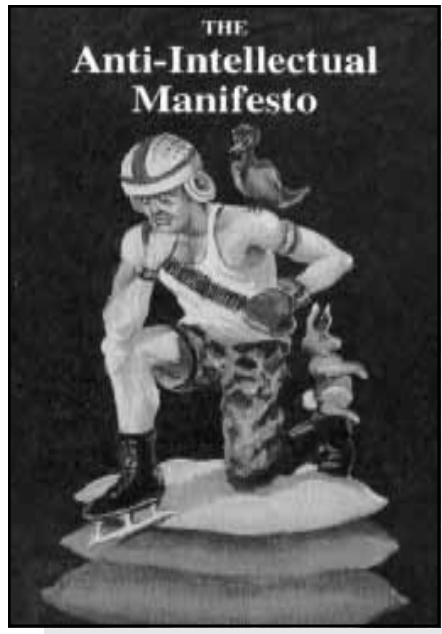

"I thought I would write something just for my own enjoyment and personal satisfaction. I did . . . I hope you like The Anti-Intellectual Manifesto. I enjoyed writing it as I have enjoyed writing very few things on this earth."
Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

The "main thrust" of this book is to show that the supreme goal and main purpose of higher Christian education is to deify higher Christian education while using the Bible as a tool for obtaining this end. The theme of the book is the belly of the tradesmen and their attempts to convince you that their "trade" is essential to your understanding of the Scriptures. It is an essay on the utter superfluity and uselessness of the world's scholarship from 4000 B.C. to A.D. 1991.

a week there “working out.”

Exercise is the fire to burn fat. Get moving! Start hunting. Plant a garden so you have to bend over and pull weeds. Get off your butt and start using your body parts for something besides the remote or keyboard.

Get fresh oxygen into your body. This will keep your mind sharp and make you feel better. You need at least thirty minutes of cardio exercise a day. Good exercise programs are available. It’s going to take time and a little sweat, so don’t quit.

Don’t make the mistake of thinking, “If I exercise, then it doesn’t matter what I eat.” WRONG! It matters MORE what you eat. Exercise is the fire and food is the fuel. If you want your car to run right and give you good service, you can’t just put whatever in the tank; you make sure it’s got good fuel. Good diets are available all over the place. You are going to have to change some bad eating habits, along with some bad habits of just plain laziness.

It has been said that if a person can’t control himself when it comes to eating, then he can’t control himself in other matters as well. It’s a discipline problem. You did get that word, didn’t you? It’s a DISCIPL[E]-ine problem.

It’s evidence of a character flaw: you are in subjection to your flesh. Paul said, “I KEEP UNDER my body, and bring it into subjection”; the body doesn’t bring ME into subjection. Excuses like “I can’t help it” or “I can’t turn it down” mean your body is controlling you.

Here are seven good reasons why you should “get in shape”:

1. Avoid being a castaway.
2. Avoid an early death.
3. Take a good opportunity to put the flesh down.
4. Not be an offense to

5. Set a good example.
 6. Not damage your body.
 7. Become more efficient in the Lord’s work.

Dear Bible-believing friend, there are but a few of us left now; we need as many as we can keep. There is much to be done in the Lord’s work. Doing it with a sharp, clear mind, feeling good and having a good attitude, and not causing undue attention to yourself means you are going to have to “get in shape” for the Lord, or else you are looking at some “shelf time”—period!

A Study in Mind Shredding

7:9. He has declared that Romans 4:15 and 5:13 apply to ALL children eight years of age. Man, you talk about a supernatural revelation; like, wow, man! This blockhead claims to know the “age of accountability” with only Deuteronomy 1:39 as a proof text. There is no age given in that passage.

This is the kind of “Christian scholarship” you get from these jacklegs. They sit in the seat of judgment as God, telling you what God did and did not say, so you will trust them, instead of what God actually said in His word; and they will go to any means and any extent to do it. You are to trust the shredded mind of a man who lies about what I said, who lies about the “age of accountability,” and who is so ignorant of the Scriptures that he doesn’t know a Queen could rule over Judah and Jerusalem. He calls this bum guesswork not only “logic,” but “evidence” and “truth.” You are to accept his changes to the Scriptures based on his logic which becomes evidence that is absolute truth. But, you understand, it is “Ruckman” who “loves himself more than he loves the truth.” (Don’t you know, baby!)

To that we say, “PSSST!” (a “raspberry”) “Truth” is not the mental gymnastics of a depraved mind. “Thy WORD is truth” (John 17:17).

What this Alexandrian apostate has done is so typical of every cloned robot in the Cult that it is hard to stay interested in it. This conceited egomaniac, after having written 46 pages attacking the Scriptures in Hebrew and English, and lying about those who believe it, surveys his “scholarly labors” and assumes that since so much work and study and time went into it that it must be a scholarly “gem.” It was the product of a shredded mind; it was a horselaugh just like the NASV and the NIV.

Now just for a moment, let us pretend three things:

1. “Once a jackass, always a jackass.”

2. “All cloned robots are programmed by the same jackass.”

3. The “Monarch of the Books” is perfectly capable of scaling “unscaleable Mt. Everests” without raising its instep two inches off the ground.

Here is the material we gave you 32 years ago back in 1980.

I. According to all Postmillennial and Amillennial scholars, Jesus Christ ascended the throne in A.D. 33 (Acts 2:30). He does not reign on the throne of David till after 2012.

II. God gave David the kingdom (1 Sam. 15:28) and David was anointed King (1 Sam. 16:13) when he was a teenager. He doesn’t get the throne until he is thirty years old, and then over only Judah (2 Sam. 5:4–5).

III. Ahaziah gets the throne at 22 years of age but doesn’t sit down on it until he’s 42 (2 Kings 8:26 cf. 2 Chron. 22:2). Moreover, he had a co-regency with his father Ahab two years before his father died (see pg. 252 of The “Errors” in the King James Bible, 1999).

IV. There are gaps between the reigns of Kings which the Holy Spirit makes no attempt to fill; e.g., there is a gap of 24 years between Jeroboam II and Zachariah (2 Kings 14:1–15:8).

After bragging about his “logic” and “evidence,” the poor idiot makes two laughable “typos”: he has the Assyrians taking the northern kingdom of Israel into captivity in A.D. 722 (after the death of Mohammed), and he misspells the name of the Hebrew grammarian Keil. But those typographical errors (on the first page!) are nothing compared to the subsequent errors made on purpose. The foundation of his paper was “the Babylonian chronicles” (pg. 3)—NOT SCRIPTURE. His material was found in the British Museum, Tablet no. 21946, plate 5, “cited by Wiseman”—NOT IN THE BIBLE.

All apostate Nicolaitans in the Cult hold the opinions and preferences of men as a higher authority than the Holy Bible. They are all pragmatic humanists who DEMAND that you accept THEM as the final authority instead of what the Holy Spirit gave you to believe (2 Pet. 1:19–21). There has not been an exception in America or Europe since 1880.

The bumfoozled summary given by this Biblical illiterate on page 13 is: “The King James Version is not inerrant

The Certainty Of the Words

(How the King James Bible resolves the ambiguity of the original languages)

Those who love and appreciate the Authorized Version of 1611, the King James Bible, very likely also know that there is a battle that still rages among its adherents as to the extent of the accuracy and sanctity of its words. Even among those scholars, writers, and pastors that promote and defend it, there remains a great deal of contention and disputation as to the degree of the sacredness of its individual words. There has been no shortage of name calling, misrepresentation, and acrimony regarding the subject. The subtitle of this book expresses the theme of the author’s examination of the issues and his conclusions found within these pages. Hebrews 4:12 states that “the word of God is quick, and powerful... sharper...piercing...and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.” This book is not a mere reshuffling of King James Bible defenses and arguments, but it shows how the words of the AV 1611 itself decimate the semantics, rhetoric, and errant reasoning of King James Bible critics, as well as its oft disingenuous “defenders.”

The New Age's Nutty Idiot's Version

25 times. To make sure no Bible believer on earth would mistake the NIV for a real Bible, some spirit (see 2 Cor. 11:4) "led" the NIV committee to omit the word "God" 466 times and the word "Godhead" three times.

"Hell" was dropped out forty times, and "heaven" got dumped 160 times. Evidently, the members of the NIV committee were not much on the afterlife. Neither are atheists, agnostics, humanists, and Satanists.

Now we're not done yet. If you want to see an outstanding example of hypocrisy, get a copy of the "Nutty Idiots' Version" (don't waste your money buying one; just borrow one from any apostate "Evangelical") and look up the following verses. After all, if "EVERY WORD of God is pure" (Prov. 30:5) and "man shall not live by bread alone, but by EVERY WORD that proceedeth out of the mouth of God" (Matt. 4:4), it would be interesting to see what the NIV does with God's WORDS (not just the "Word" or "word").

First, I thought you would enjoy reading Matthew 17:21, 18:11, and 23:14 from an NIV. You're in for a big disappointment: no such verses are found in the text.

But after dropping all three verses clean out of the Bible, does the NIV change the verse numbers? Oh no! After telling you that the verse numbering system in the Bible is not inspired, the apostate hypocrites on the NIV committee keep the KJV's verse numbers. This creates a ridiculous situation. In Matthew 17, the verses run 18, 19, 20, 22. In chapter 18, they run 8, 9, 10, 12. In chapter 23, they are 10, 11, 12, 13, 15. What's the matter, boys? Didn't learn how to count in the first grade?

Well, if at first you don't succeed, try, try again! Let's try Mark 7:16, 9:44, 46, 11:26, 15:28. What?! They're not there either?!

Having a little trouble finding "every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God," are we? Despair not! Look up Luke 17:36, 23:17, and John 5:4.

Oops! They vanished into thin air. Those were some more words that proceeded "out of the mouth of God" that simply evaporated—"gone with the wind."

Well, how about Acts 8:37, 15:34, 24:7, and 28:29? There are no such verses in an NIV. The apostates on the committee removed them when you weren't looking.

Let's try one more time, shall we? How about Romans 16:24. Having a little trouble finding it, are you?

You see, if "ALL SCRIPTURE is given by inspiration of God" (2 Tim. 3:16), someone just knocked out sixteen verses of Scripture containing over 200 words that were "given by inspiration of God." Who would do something like that? The Holy Spirit? Well, it was a spirit all right, but it sure wasn't the Holy Spirit (see 2 Cor. 11:4).

Every man on the NIV committee who consented to this mutilation of the Holy Bible professed to believe in the "plenary, verbal inspiration of the original autographs," so each member corrected your Bible with a bunch of papers he never saw or read. You say, "How could he do that when he didn't have the originals and never saw them?" Easy: ALL CON MEN IN THIS MAFIA ARE "HIT MEN" FOR A PRICE; NO SIN IS TOO LOW FOR THEM TO STOOP TO.

These birds will lie to their mother, their father, their children, their students, their church members, and YOU. They've always done it (1700–1900), and they will continue to do it (1900–2012). Their incomes depend on it.

They published their lies in a volume they called the "New International Version." We call it the "Nutty Idiots' Version" because only idiots illiterate in the Scriptures would accept it as a "Holy Bible." It is the ideal fake "Bible" for every carnal, backslidden, Bible-rejecting Christian in the Laodicean church who accepts "scholarship onlyism" over what God said.

(For further study, get the following works from the Bible Baptist Bookstore: The NIV: An In-depth Documentation of Apostasy, "A Critique of the New International Version," Could the NIV be the Word of God?, Sitting in Judgment of the Word of God, and If the Foundations Be Destroyed.)

“The West Speaks”

Recently we came across a work with excellent information on the Moslem infiltration of Western culture. Although the Bookstore is not going to carry the book, we still want you to know where it is available and how to get it. Below is the publisher’s “blurb” recommending the work.

Jerry Gordon has done an invaluable service in this collection of interviews with some of the brightest minds of our time conducted between 2008 and 2012 for New English Review.

These are remarkable people actively striving to defend and to define what is best in Western culture, including politicians such as Geert Wilders and Ariele Elad; intellectuals such as Ibn Warraq, Bat Ye’or, Richard L. Rubenstein, Sam Solomon, Nina Shea, and David Yerushalmi; activists such as David Beamer, Elisabeth Sabaditsch Wolff, Lars Hedegaard, Jonathan Hausman and Charles Jacobs; cartoonists Kurt Westergaard and Lars Vilks; and journalists Erick Stakelbeck and Kenneth Timmerman. All of them provide fascinating insights into their efforts to fight the complacency and resignation that has contributed to the current state of Western decline and Islamic resurgence.

Jerry Gordon’s new book is an absolute classic that is required reading for anyone—civilians, law enforcement, policymakers, Congressmen, journalists—who truly want to expand their knowledge about the extent of the threat to our society posed by radical Islam. The breadth of the interviews conducted is staggering.

You may not agree with all of the interviewees, but I assure you that you will learn, be challenged, and be informed about the true nature of the threat to Western society by the stealth Islamist penetration of the elite media, Hollywood, European leadership, etc. You will also learn first-hand of the truly horrific and evil treatment by the Islamists of those Moslems who dissent. This is an invaluable book, and we owe a great debt of gratitude to Mr. Gordon for assembling.

ingful relationships" or "moral values" or "reaching out and touching others" or "feeling better about yourself." We are no more interested in what YOU think of YOURSELF than what you think about us. We deal with what GOD thinks about you and us, and what He says about you and us in His Book. Our "exciting services" consist of just plain, old-fashioned, straight-from-the-shoulder PREACHING from the old Book.

5. We are so far "behind the times" (and we intend to put as much mileage between us and "the times" as we possibly can) that we still actively attempt to win unsaved men and women (and grown men and women at that, not just children) to Christ and immerse them in water after their salvation. We are not "purpose-driven" or "seeker-sensitive" or "emergent."

6. In 47 years, I have not only been "a man of one Book," but all of our teachers believe one Book, and all the young men and women who have come through here came out with one Book. Although we have exposed our students to 25–35 of the 233 corrupt English versions put out since 1880 (RV), we have never put those on the same level as the Holy Bible—the AV 1611.

In 1949, Hugh Pyle pulled a King James New Testament on me in the record room of WEAR in downtown Pensacola and asked me, "Do you believe this is the word of God?" I said, "Yep, that's it." I haven't moved one inch in 63 years; that is still my "profession of faith" in 2012. When it comes to the professions of some of "the brethren," I don't know, and I don't care. I don't believe in "change" when it comes to the Holy Scriptures; if they do, that's between them and God. I think any "change" from the AV I hold in my hand (like the "change" made in the NKJV) is definitely a "change for the worse." It would be like trading a full-blooded German Shepherd for a shivering little Chihuahua, or a Bavarian-made Audi for a "Yugo."

7. With the exception of three courses which have been added or combined with some other course, our curriculum has not been changed in 47 years. We still teach the Hebrew and Greek languages, English, Manuscript Evidence, Church History, Theology, Advanced Theology, Preparation and Delivery of Sermons, Life of Christ, Old Testament and New Testament Survey, Visitation, Evangelistic Song-leading, Biblical Archaeology and Geography, Baptist Missions, Problem Texts, Local Church, the Preacher and his Problems, and 23 Bible books verse by verse.

We still ridicule evolution, philosophy, the New Age, the UN, and the Police State in America; and we use statistics and documented evidence to do it. We still treat the RV, ASV, RSV, NASV, NRSV, NIV, NKJV, ESV, etc., as the leavened, watered-down pieces of religious commercial garbage that they are; we have done it for 47 years and will continue without "change" to do so.

8. Our young men begin their ministries on the STREET. They did so in the 60s, 70s, 80s, 90s, and on into the Twenty-first Century; there has been no "change."

The less "progress" in this regard, the better. We stick with a Book that is 400 years out of date, and all the preachers in both Testaments were street preachers. We aren't going to "change" that.

9. We have no trained choir, no flags, no candles, no stained-glass windows, no robes, no attendance records posted on the walls, no stewardship banquets or fund-raising drives, no stocks or bonds, no endowments, no alumni meetings, no caps and gowns, and no outside advertising of the school. We did not make one adjustment toward "church growth" as pushed and promoted by the Fundamental, Conservative, and Evangelical Colleges, Universities, and Seminaries in the Twentieth and Twenty-first Centuries. We put on the brakes with Billy Sunday and J. Frank Norris, and we haven't budged an inch since.

The Lord God Almighty said, "I am the LORD, I change not" (Mal. 3:6); it is His creation that is fickle.

We abandon new methods just as quickly as they show up when it comes to teaching and preaching the Book. Here in 2012, we renew our resolve to be as reactionary, stiff-necked, stubborn, dogged, tenacious, rigid, steadfast, bull-headed, staunch, steady, resolute, and immovable as possible. We will not be "changed" till the trumpet blast causes us to be "changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye" (1 Cor. 15:51-52). Until then, we can put up with you if you can put up with us, but if not, we still aren't going to move three-quarters of half a millimeter, Lord willing.

THE CREED OF THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT

1. There is no final authority but God.
2. Since God is a Spirit, there is no final authority that can be seen, heard, read, felt, or handled.
3. Since all books are material, there is no book on this earth that is the final and absolute authority on what is right and what is wrong, what constitutes truth and what constitutes error.
4. There WAS a series of writings one time which, IF they had all been put into a BOOK as soon as they were written the first time, WOULD HAVE constituted an infallible and final authority by which to judge truth and error.
5. However, this series of writings was lost, and the God who inspired them was unable to preserve their content through Bible-believing Christians at Antioch (Syria), where the first Bible teachers were (Acts 13:1), and where the first missionary trip originated (Acts 13:1-52), and where the word "Christian" originated (Acts 11:26).
6. So God chose to ALMOST preserve them through Gnostics and philosophers from Alexandria, Egypt, even though God called His Son OUT of Egypt (Matthew 2), Jacob OUT of Egypt (Genesis 49), Israel OUT of Egypt (Exodus 15), and Joseph's bones OUT of Egypt (Exodus 13).
7. So there are two streams of Bibles. The most accurate—though, of course, there is no final, absolute authority for determining truth and error; it is a matter of "preference"—are the Egyptian translations from Alexandria, Egypt, which are "almost the originals," although not quite.
8. The most inaccurate translations were those that brought about the German Reformation (Luther, Zwingli, Boehler, Zinzen-dorf, Spener, et al.) and the worldwide missionary movement of the English-speaking people: the Bible that Sunday, Torrey, Moody, Finney, Spurgeon, Whitefield, Wesley, and Chapman used.
9. But we can "tolerate" these if those who believe in them will "tolerate" US. After all, since there is NO ABSOLUTE AND FINAL AUTHORITY that anyone can read, teach, preach, or handle, the whole thing is a matter of "PREFERENCE." You may prefer what you prefer, and we will prefer what we prefer. Let us live in peace, and if we cannot agree on anything or everything, let us all agree on one thing: THERE IS NO FINAL, ABSOLUTE, WRITTEN AUTHORITY OF GOD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH.

This is the Creed of the Alexandrian Cult.

The New Age's Nutty Idiot's Version

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

The material in this article was first published way back in 1985 and 1997. It is just as valid today as it was back then. It will do just fine for 2012 or 2013.

About once every ten years, the apostate Fundamentalists and Conservatives adopt some substitute for the Holy Bible (AV 1611) which they hope to establish as a new "authorized version" for "serious students of the Bible." The line is a typical, standard Madison-Avenue pitch which is used over and over again interminably.

Among the rotten pieces of trash parading around as "Bibles" today (RSV, NASV, NRSV, NKJV, CEV, NCV, NLT, TEV, etc.) is one of several dozen translations matching the Catholic Jesuit Rheims Bible of 1582; it is the NIV, what we call the "Nutty Idiots' Version." The NIV is one of the best-selling corruptions which has come out in the last few years because it is the darling of the Charismatics, several radio and TV personalities, and institutions like Moody Bible Institute which have had to compromise to keep their incomes.

The NIV is the perfect translation for this "age" (Laodicea). It is the ideal handmaid to the total apostasy that takes the Body of Christ in the last days (1 Tim. 4:1-2; 2 Tim. 3:1-5; 2 Thess. 2:7-12). It is the collation of every theological blunder and error, every Satanic coverup, and every ridiculous private interpretation put out by apostate Conservatives since the days of Origen (A.D. 200) and Augustine (A.D. 400). For sheer rejection and perversion of Biblical truth, you cannot beat an NIV.

Through the years, we have gotten letters asking what's wrong with the NIV. You would have to have access to the works which we have put out since 1964 to appreciate the humor in such a question. You see, what is wrong with the NIV is exactly what is wrong with every corrupt Bible translation put out since 1880—all 233 of them. To go over the same ground again found in twenty works on the subject (not to mention the material on specific passages covered in the Bible Believer's Commentary Series covering 45 books of the Bible) would be a burden beyond belief.

We will point out here, however, that the outstanding characteristic of all Satanic "Bibles" is omission (note the Satanic way of quoting Scripture in Luke 4:10 cf. Psa. 91:11; Gen. 3:2 cf. 2:16). The NIV omits 64,098 words from the Biblical text, and these are not "minor changes." The expression "the word of the LORD" has been omitted 25 times, and the phrase "word of God" has been omitted eight times. If that weren't enough, the "Lord Jesus Christ" got run out of His own Book 24 times.

Being furious against the words of the Holy Scriptures, the NIV committee could not even stand the words "Lord," "Jesus," and "Christ" where they occurred alone, so they took "Lord" out of the Bible 52 times, the "name which is above every name" ("Jesus"—Phil. 2:9-10) got omitted 292 times, and the word "Christ" was removed
