America's Screwiest False Prophets

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman
(Third of Three Articles)

We have been examining the teachings of a Preterist nut named John Noe in his book Beyond the End Times (1999). Noe is just like his Preterist buddy John Bray (get the MP3 on “America’s Greatest False Prophet”: DS-40100 @ $8.95). Both men reject any future fulfillment for the Rapture of the Church, the Tribulation, the coming of the Son of Perdition, the second coming of Moses and Elijah, the Second Advent, the restoration of Israel, the Millennial reign of Jesus Christ, the destruction of the universe by fire, and the creation of New Heavens and a New Earth. They allegorize more than 500 verses in the Old and New Testaments based on incomplete, obscure passages.

Now, after criticizing Lindsey, Kirban, Larkin, Darby, Bullinger, and Scofield for taking those prophecies literally (and calling the Biblical system of pre-Tribulational Premillennialism “blasphemy”!), these two incredible (absolutely “awesome,” man!) apostates declare they know the date of the Second Coming of Jesus Christ to the MONTH and the DAY! Imagine the hypocrisy of these arrogant apostates, who criticize “date setters” who believe “the coming of the Lord draweth nigh” (James 5:8) and believe, like Paul (see 1 Thess. 4:17; Tit. 2:13), that Jesus could return in their lifetimes, claiming they know the day, week, month, and year of the Second Advent.

Think I’m exaggerating or “overstating” things? Then look at chapters 10 and 11 in Beyond the End Times. There Noe says Jesus’ Second Coming took place on the 9th of AV (August) in A.D. 70.

You talk about demented madness, that’s it! Jesus did NOT sit down on “the throne of David” (Isa. 9:7; Jer. 33:17–21) in A.D. 70; He did NOT begin to “reign over the house of Jacob” (Luke 1:33) in A.D. 70; He did NOT liberate nature from the bondage of the curse (Isa. 11:1–9; Rom. 8:19–22) in A.D. 70; He did NOT bring “peace on earth, good will to men” in A.D. 70 (cf. Luke 2:14); He did NOT place the apostles on twelve thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel (Matt. 19:28) in A.D. 70; the temple was NOT rebuilt (Ezek. 40–46) in A.D. 70; and Abraham’s seed did NOT get the land promised to them (Gen. 15:18 cf.

No End to the Books

“And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh” (Eccl. 12:12).

The above reference is by the wisest man who ever lived, outside of the Lord Jesus Christ. Solomon ought to know about what he’s talking, for he wrote three books himself that we know of (Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Solomon). When Solomon said “of making many books, there is no end,” he certainly knew about what he was talking, although he may not have grasped the full extent of what he said. There are 23 million books listed in the Library of Congress. Of those 23 million books, not one of them has anything of value to contribute to the subject of “the afterlife” unless it expounded or copied one book: the Holy Bible.

Now, there are all kinds of books out there, written by all kinds of people. The longest novel was written by Louis Henri Fairgoule (1885–1972). It ran 27 volumes and was entitled Men of Good Will (a Roman Catholic perversion of Luke 2:14). It was beat out of the top spot for largest book in the world by The New Encyclopedia Britannica (printed in America!) which ran 32 volumes. That

The Moslems’ “Holy Ghost”

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

“And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever” (John 14:16).

“But the Comforter, WHICH IS THE HOLY GHOST, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you” (John 14:26).

When it comes to spiritual things like the nature and person of the Holy Ghost, no Moslem ever got to first base. The “proof” of this “is in the pudding,” for when the Koran was finally finished and put out by Arab Mohammedans, do you know what all the Imams, Caliphs, and Sheiks taught 900 million Moslems? They taught that the “Comforter” of John 14 was Mohammed. You will find that teaching given to you by one of the most authoritative teachers of the Koran who ever lived—Maulana Muhammad Ali (see his seventeenth edition of the Holy Koran, 1995, Sura 7:143, footnote 941). According to M.M. Ali, John 14 should read: “But the Comforter, who is Mohammed, whom Allah will send”

Somehow or another, all the “mild-mannered,” “polite,” “law-abiding,” “cooperative” conservative Moslems

Five-Point TULIP Calvinism

(Part One of Two)

Two of the greatest hindrances to soulwinning and revival in America have been the teachings of the Hyperdispensationalists (Stam, Baker, O'Hair, Bullinger, et al.) and the hyper-Calvinists (the standard teaching at Princeton University and all Presbyterian Seminaries). Two experts on five-point TULIP Calvinism who messed up the South for about seventy years were L. R. Shelton Sr. in New Orleans and his son, L. R. Shelton Jr., who set up a church here in Pensacola. I am going to give you some quotations from "Junior" which are typical of what five-point Calvinism is in practical application.

Since I attended Bob Jones University back in the early 1950s, I have observed that hyper-Calvinism always produces hyper-Arminians. What I mean by that is that once you take it upon yourself to judge whether a person is saved by the way he lives, and whether or not he has "really repented," you are an Arminian. You are judging a person's salvation by his works: that is Arminianism.

Of course, all the Presbyterian professors at Princeton Seminary would throw up their hands in horror at such a statement, and John Calvin would deny every word of it. Their standard reply would be: "The unsaved are damned under the Decree of Reprobation, and the saved are saved according to the Decree of Election. Since God's decrees are eternal, the ones who are elected to salvation are saved according to the eternal purpose of God with no works." But once you start trying to figure out who "really repented" and "really believed" (you know: "if He's not Lord of all, then He's not Lord at all"), then you lose your mind.

When the Lord told Peter to "Rise, Peter; kill, and eat" (Acts 10:13), Peter told God, "NOT SO, LORD" (Acts 10:14). I guess he was lost; at least he was if you're a hyper-Calvinist. The teaching that "if you get saved the way I tell you to get saved then you are 'really' saved, but if you were saved any other way then you weren't 'really' saved" is the work of a self-righteous Pharisee who judges people by their works—the works he thinks they should do.

This is what you will get from a man who preaches and emphasizes all five points of Calvin's TULIP every time he gets up to speak. What I am giving you here was preached every week (sometimes twice a week) for almost ten years.

"WE will hear Christ say, 'Depart from me, ye cursed.' I need Him. Without His blood I am lost. MY soul is under God's curse. WE cannot get saved unless WE turn from OUR evil ways."

What's he talking about?! Why, he's talking like an unsaved man! Do you see that first person plural? He's a "we" preacher: when he talks about somebody's sins, he always says "we."

"WE cannot get saved unless WE turn from our evil way." What's the matter, bub? Aren't you saved? What do you mean "we cannot be saved"? Sonny, I'm saved. If I'm preaching, I tell my congregation: "YOU can't get saved unless YOU turn from YOUR sins." "YOU will hear Christ say, 'Depart from me, ye cursed'" "YOU need Him. Without Him, YOU are lost; YOUR soul is under God's curse." Not me, not mine; I'm saved. But these yellow-bellied preachers like L. R. Shelton Jr. always include themselves with the lost to whom they're preaching to leave the impression that they're all in the same boat.

"WE must repent or WE are eternally lost. Oh, God forbid WE should die in OUR sins." Why, you silly jackass! What are you doing—giving your testimony?

Here is a saved preacher (I'll give him the benefit of the doubt that he's saved, even though when asked by one of our students in a question-and-answer session to tell how and when he got saved, he never could give a clear testimony of salvation) saying "WE must repent or WE are eternally lost." What does he mean "WE"? Does he have a mouse in his pocket, or what?

"Oh, God forbid WE should die in OUR sins and face the judgment. Paul said he was lost if he gave his body to be burned."

A lie! Paul said no such thing! He said, "though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, IT PROFITETH ME NOTHING"

President, Founder, and Teacher of the Pensacola Bible Institute,
Pensacola, Florida.

(1 Cor. 13:3). He said nothing at all about being lost. All he said was that there was no profit in being burned alive if he didn't do it with charity for others. There's nothing in 1 Corinthians 13 about anybody being lost; it's a discussion of charity in the life of a believer.

"I want God to take this home to your heart and mind: if you live without a sanctified tongue and contrite spirit, you are lost." You are?! How about the New Birth? You reckon you'd be lost if you didn't have that? That's a five-point Calvinist (the term would be "hardshell" when talking about a Calvinistic Baptist): it's not "if you live without the New Birth you are lost"; it's "if you live without a sanctified tongue and contrite spirit you're lost." It's works.

wound up teaching their families and children (internationally, worldwide) that the Holy Ghost of God was an epileptic, fornicating, pederast killer. Not that that matters to the UN or the "global community"; they can get along just fine with that kind of teaching. You have never heard any of them correct it or ridicule it, and you're not going to. It would interfere with their program.

Do you realize that just recently, Pope Benedict XVI kissed the Koran to appease a bunch of Moslems, a ritual that has historically been reserved for the Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John). What the Pope didn't tell any of his church members, who had been taught that the Holy Spirit was a member of the Holy Trinity, was that the book he kissed (the "Holy Koran") teaches that the Holy Ghost in John 14:16, 26 is a reference to a military dictator who, among his fourteen wives and eleven concubines and his sex slaves, shackled up with a nine-year-old girl and his daughter-in-law. More importantly than that, he declared that anybody who believed that God gave birth to a Son who died for the sins of the world, like you read in John 3:16, should be killed (Sura 47:4, 66:9, 9:123, 4:91 cf. Sura 5:17, 23:89, 37:150, 4:157, 25:2, 19:34, 18:4, 9:30, 21:98).

That's the "Comforter" according to all teachers of the Koran in all Islamic countries, without a single exception. It should rate a headline on the front page of every newspaper in America—IT WILL NEVER APPEAR, EVEN ON THE LAST PAGE! Right now, the news media in the United States is preparing to receive the Antichrist; they can't afford to tell anybody the truth before that takes place.

Now what does it mean if you take the teachings of the Moslems on John 14:16, 26 seriously? Well, it means that when you get baptized, you get baptized in the name of the Father, the Son, and Mohammed (Matt. 28:19). It means that you shouldn't be "drunk with wine," but you should be filled with Mohammed (Eph. 5:18). It also means that if you believe on Jesus Christ according to Ephesians 1:12-13, that you shouldn't grieve Mohammed because he has sealed you "unto the day of redemption" (Eph. 4:30).

You might know of a wilder religion than that, but I can't imagine what it would be. Alongside Islam, Satanism is pretty orthodox. The Moslems took Mohammed and inserted him into the position occupied by the third member of the Trinity, while the whole time pretending to be monotheists.

To back up this heretical nonsense, Mohammed gave his followers this verse in the Koran: "Whoso obeyeth the Apostle (that's Mohammed speaking of himself; he was just playing coy), on so doing obeyeth Allah" (Sura 4:80). That's Mohammed claiming to have the same power and authority that God Almighty has when it comes to obedience and commands. So when he came to the subject of the Comforter teaching you all things (John 14:26) and guiding you into all truth and showing you things to come (John 16:13), he simply replaced the Holy Spirit of God with himself. My, what a nice, humble fellow Mohammed was; alongside an egomaniac like that, Adolf Hitler would look like St. Francis of Assisi.

The real Comforter, "the Holy Ghost" of John 14:26, the third member of the Trinity (Matt. 28:19; 2 Cor. 13:14; 1 John 5:7), had an entirely different thing to say about Mohammed. "The Holy Ghost" who gave "all scripture . . . by inspiration of God" (2 Pet. 1:20-21 cf. 2 Tim. 3:15-16), the same "Holy Ghost" mentioned in John 14:26, told you through the same writer (the Apostle John) that Mohammed was a liar and an antichrist.

"Who is a LIAR but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is an ANTICHRIST that denieth the Father and the Son" (1 John 2:22).

Ezek. 48) in A.D. 70. Jesus did NOT transform anyone's body to make it like His own (Phil. 3:21; 1 John 3:1-2) in A.D. 70; no Christian went through the Judgment Seat of Christ (1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10-11; Rom. 14:10) in A.D. 70; no serpent's head was crushed (Gen. 3:15; Hab. 3:13 cf. Rom. 16:20; Rev. 19:20) in A.D. 70; Christ did NOT get married to His espoused wife (2 Cor. 11:2 cf. Rev. 19:7-9) in A.D. 70; no heavenly troops showed up on horses of fire (Rev. 19:14; Joel 2:1-11 cf. 2 Kings 1:11, 6:17) in A.D. 70; and the earth was no more "full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the seas" (Isa. 11:9) in A.D. 70 than that "knowledge" covered the Bible faculties at Regents College, Kings College, Pensacola Christian College, Liberty University, Bob Jones University, or the Seminaries at Dallas, Ft. Worth, Denver, Louisville, or New Orleans in 1960-2012.

Noe's "Second Coming of Christ" (how ironic given Luke 17:26) is a "banana race" (Mafia term: 1920-1960). It is a dunce's belly-dance; it is a Christian burlesque for kinky kooks whose education has destroyed their capacity to read fourth grade English. Having never been a soulwinning pastor or evangelist, having never been a foreign missionary, having never been engaged to any degree in prison or rescue mission ministry, having never preached on the street, and having never believed three-quarters of any translation he ever read, Noe simply struts his stupidity in public and is praised for it. Noe and Bray, along with Christianity Today, the "700 Club," Promise Keepers, and Rick Warren's "Purpose-Driven" movement ("birds of a feather flock together"), represent intellectual Christianity at its highest, most complete evolutionary stage since A.D. 70: total apostasy without a shred of reason behind it. It is sheer, fantastic, theological manure from a Laodicean dumpster.

In the demented thinking of these allegorizing nut jobs, your "blessed hope" (Tit. 2:13) has come and gone, and you missed it (cf. 2 Thess. 2:1-2). You are to stop looking for your Lord to return immediately (1 John 3:2-3; 1 Thess. 1:10; Phil. 3:20). Instead, according to these erroneous space cadets, you are to look forward to religious evolution till all the Buddhists, Hindus, Jews, Catholics, Protestants, Orthodox, Moslems, Satanists, "New Agers," humanists, and atheists are all reigning together in harmony on this earth WITHOUT JESUS CHRIST BEING ANYMORE PRESENT than He was during the French Revolution, the American and Spanish Civil Wars, the Hundred Years War, the Thirty Years War, the Crusades, two World Wars, Vietnam, Korea, Iraq, Afghanistan, and WORLD WAR III (Rev. 6:4, 16:12-16, 19:19). The last page of Noe's archaic (this was the doctrine espoused by Augustine back in circa A.D. 400), unregenerate (any unsaved politician has to present a positive future) philosophy (pg. 272) claims that the UN will get better and better and make a "positive difference" as all nations turn to Christ.

And then what? And then NOTHING. Noe doesn't even pretend that the White Throne Judgment will ever take place. He says that New Jerusalem (Rev. 21) is NOT a real city, so it will NEVER show up (pp. 223-272).

Keeping in line with his lies about a positive future (see Jer. 23:16-36), Noe is very careful to avoid any mention of Hell or the Lake of Fire (Rev. 20:13-15). You are to assume that no one is lost, or if they are, they do not go to Hell.

Imagine this pious hypocrite calling himself a "Christian" when he cannot tell you (in 272 pages) of any sinner who was cursed (Matt. 25:41) or who wound up in the Bottomless Pit (Num. 16:30-33) or who begged for water in Hell (Luke 16:23-24) or who was burned up at Christ's return (2 Thess. 1:7-9; Mal. 4:1-3; Matt. 13:40-42) [in A.D. 70, according to Noe and Bray]. To butter you up, Noe simply eliminated every verse in both Testaments that predicted eternal punishment for depravity; the apostasy of the Body of Christ due to the Christian's old nature; the brutal reign of the Son of Perdition who will slaughter several million Bible believers (Dan. 7; Rev. 13); the predestinated destruction of mountains, hills, valleys, grasslands, seas, oceans, and islands (Isa. 40; Rev.

8), along with celestial calamities (Rev. 6, 16); the final destiny of the wicked (Rev. 21:8); the loss of rewards suffered by Christians (1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10); the world worshipping Satan as the highest and best form of worship (Dan. 11; Rev. 13; Isa. 14); and the renovation of the earth by fire (see part two of this article). That is, Noe's whole book was a LIE from start to finish.

Hail the Twenty-first Century! Let's call it by its right name: "the Age of Imbecility," "the New Nut House," "Fairies in the Booby Hatch," "the Moronic Enlightenment," "the Funny Farm for Fools," "Loony Toons on Parade," "Merry Melodies for Mindless Morons." Noe and Bray are "Funnymentalists in bedlam."

If Jesus Christ came back to Olivet (see Acts 1:10-12; Zech. 14:3-4) in A.D. 70, then there are more than 500 verses in your Bible that are not worth the paper (papyrus, parchment, vellum, etc.) on which they were written. If that's the case, just throw out your Bible because you are left with nothing but a Preterist plague of ignorance.

 "Greetings in the wonderful name of our Lord, whom we serve with all our hearts. The terms of salvation are 100% submission to the absolute Lordship of Christ." You're a dirty liar! "The terms of salvation" in the Bible are faith in Jesus Christ.

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31).

"For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Rom. 10:13).

"We can never find Christ as our Saviour . . ." Speak for yourself, John Alden. You mean you, not me. I found Christ as my Saviour the fourteenth of March, 1949.

"We can never find Christ as our Saviour until we find Him as the Lord of our life. If He's not Lord of all, He's not Lord at all." You're a bald-faced liar. God told Paul five times not to go to Jerusalem (Acts 20:22-23, 21:4, 10-14), and he went anyway. Jesus Christ didn't have 100% Lordship over Paul's life at all. Paul disobeyed the Lord five times, and he's in Paradise right now. When you actually study what Calvin teaches, he turns out to be nothing but a Bible-rejecting fool. L. R. Shelton Jr. was a genuine five-point TULIP Calvinist; so was his daddy.

"God's terms of salvation are to hate mother and father." They most certainly are not. That's the test of discipleship, not salvation, you idiot.

"Self-denial and daily cross-bearing: if you're not in complete subjection, you are lost." Then no one is saved. "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us" (1 John 1:8). That wasn't written to lost people; it was written to saved children of God (1 John 2:1-2).

"No man can sow to the flesh and be saved." You can't?! Paul did: "For the good that I would I do not; but the evil which I would not, that I do" (Rom. 7:19). Paul said he had two natures in him, and one didn't love the Lord at all (Rom. 7:20).

"You were transformed from the kingdom of sin to the kingdom of grace." "The kingdom of grace"?! There is no "kingdom of grace" in either Testament. There's the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of Heaven. There's even "the kingdom of his dear Son" (Col. 1:13). But "the kingdom of grace"? What in the world are you talking about?

"The Christian's flesh has been changed." What is he? A Charismatic teaching the eradication of the old nature? If "the Christian's flesh has been changed," then why did the greatest preacher who ever lived write: "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing" (Rom. 7:18). But "the Christian's flesh has been changed," has it? Do you know what Paul said about a Christian's flesh? "For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would" (Gal. 5:17).

"Its kingdom is in the heavens. You cease to be a sinner when you get into this kingdom." The Apostle John says you're "a liar" (1 John 1:10).

"The Christian is automatically released from sin and any of its dominion without reckoning or yielding." Then why did Paul command you to "reckon . . . yourselves to be dead . . . unto sin" (Rom. 6:11) and to "yield yourselves unto God" (Rom. 6:13)? The guy's an habitual liar; he can't stop.

"Only those who are saved live sinless lives in 100% submission. The grace of God guarantees automatic victory for every Christian." It doesn't if you let "sin . . . reign in your mortal body" (Rom. 6:12).

"Total sinlessness replaces total depravity." Name me one case, you stupid jackass.

No End To the Books

 was 32,300 pages containing 44 million words coming from 4,000 contributors. There wasn't one line in either work that could tell any of their readers for sure what was going to happen to any of them when they died.

One self-centered ego-tist in Zimbabwe, Africa, a certain Col. Ernest Loftus, began to write his diary on May 4, 1896 when he was twelve years old. He wrote for 91 years (up to July 1987) and produced a publication worth less than $5.00. There is nothing in that 91-year-old record which is worth a "Continental dime" (and I forbear the "original") practically.

"Of making many books there is no end." I have written about 120 books myself, if you count the collections of transcribed sermons and Bulletin articles. Every book I have ever written was on the grounds that absolute truth is fixed, revealed, completed, and available where anyone with a sixth-grade education can get it and understand it if he wants it. All of my written works are in the framework of the truth, as defined by the One who claimed to be "the truth" incarnate (John 14:6). The Lord Jesus Christ said:

"Sanctify them through thy truth: THY WORD IS TRUTH" (John 17:17).

"Truth" is to be found in a Book: the word Bible means "Book." That completely contradicts everything the following men believed was "the truth": Lao-Tze, Thales, Anaximander, Anaximenes, Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Buddha, Mohammed, JFK, FDR, Giovanni Gentile, William James, Albert Einstein, Bob Jones Jr., Bob Jones III, Stephen Jones, Jean Paul Sartre, Paul Tillich, A. T. Robertson, George Hegel, all the Popes, John Dewey, Bertrand Russell, Arthur Farstad, Arlin Horton, Doug Kutilek, Robert Sumner, Time magazine, Pensacola Christian College, Baptist Bible College, NPR, CBS, NBC, ABC, CNN, Charles Darwin, Sigmund Freud, William Glasser, and the authors of the "Harvard Five-foot Shelf of Classics."

You say, "Ruckman, why did you include a bunch of Fundamentalists and Fundamental institutions in that list? I thought they believed 'the Bible' is the Word of God." I included them in the list because none of them believed the truth was a Book. You see, every one of the men and schools I listed that professed "Fundamentalism" believed that the only "scripture" that was "given by inspiration" was the original autographs (even though that is not found in any version of 2 Timothy 3:16 from any set of Greek manuscripts or "family" of manuscripts). The "originals" were never in one Book: the originals of Moses, David, Isaiah, Jeremiah, et al., were never in the same volume with the originals of Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Paul, et al. Therefore, "the truth," as defined by Jesus Christ, is never in any Book you can hold, read, study, and believe (1 Thess. 2:13) for any professing Fundamentalist or Conservative, since the word of God, containing the words of God, is only in the "original autographs."

Now you know me: when I say "the word of God," I am talking about one Book—the Holy Bible. And you never have to wonder about to which "Holy Bible" I am referring—it is the Bible I hold in my hand and the

Mohammed: The Moslems' "Holy Ghost"

Continued from 3 Pope, and Billy Graham all missed that, I don't know, but there it is. I guess they can't read sixth grade English.

In that verse, the Holy Ghost, who gave His words to the Apostle John (2 Pet. 1:20–21), told you that anybody who says that God didn't have a Son (e.g., Mohammed—Sura 25:2, 2:116, 112:1–4, 17:111, 18:11) and that Jesus Christ wasn't God's Son (like Mohammed—Sura 19:34, 9:30), he is first a liar and then an antichrist. Instead of saying Mohammed was the Holy Ghost, the actual Holy Ghost told you Mohammed was a foul-mouthed liar and an antichrist. That's what you might call "a second opinion." Since the Holy Ghost was sent to lead you and guide you into all truth (John 16:13), it is clear from the Scriptures He gave you over 400 years before Mohammed was born (2 Pet. 1:20–21) that He came to deliver you from a Holy Spirit-insulting, God-defying, Bible-rejecting antichrist like Mohammed (1 John 4:2–4).

In John 16:13, the Holy Ghost told you that when He came, He would "shew you things to come." Those were the words of a real prophet (Matt. 21:11), who could prophesy the day of His death and what would follow and have it come through "right on the money" (Matt. 20:17–19). The Lord Jesus Christ said that fulfilled prophecy was how you would know who the Holy Spirit really was (John 14:29).

If there was one thing that Allah's "Prophet" could not do, it was prophecy. In 114 Suras of the "Noble Koran," Mohammed was not able to make one historical prophecy of anything that would take place after his death. Anything in the Koran that is so, Mohammed stole from the Hebrew Old Testament completed 900 years before he was born and from the Greek New Testament completed 400 years before he was born.

Mohammed was no more a "prophet" than 'Aal-Adiawiyya, Hasan al-Basrey, Abu Bakr, Alel Shedik, Ibn 'Umar, Ubay Ibn Ka'ab, or any other Arabic scholar. Not one of them had any more assurance about eternal salvation than Mother Teresa, Jimmy Swaggart, Pope John Paul II, Cardinal Spellman, Bishop Sheen, Rock Hudson, Nelson Mandela, Father O'Brien, Yasser Arafat, Pol Pot, Karl Keating, or Mae West. As Allah's "Prophet," Mohammed had no idea of what would happen to him on the Day of Judgment ("Holy" Hadith, Bukhari, Vol. V, no. 266). Jesus Christ said you could know (John 14:1–4); the Apostle Paul said you could know (2 Tim. 1:12; Phil. 1:6); Simon Peter said you could know (1 Pet. 1:3–5); John said you could know (1 John 5:13). Well, if Mohammed was "the Prophet of God" as all Moslems confess in the Shahada, why didn't he know?

The Holy Ghost told you in 1 John 2:18—"Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time."

There is a clear prophecy, given by the One who was to "shew you things to come." He told you that one specific man known as the Antichrist is going to show up (note the singular in the verse). Any Bible reader knows that this is the "man of sin" and "the son of perdition" of whom Paul wrote in 2 Thessalonians 2:3. The Holy Ghost told you ahead of time that he will have a

"mark," a "number," and a "name" (Rev. 13:17–18), and that he will show up on this earth after the Rapture of the Church to reign over the UN (Rev. 6:1–2).

And any Bible reader knows that before that one particular man appears on the scene, he will be preceded by "many" false Christs and "many false prophets" (Matt. 24:5, 11). The Holy Ghost told you through the Apostle John that they were here right now, this side of the Rapture—"EVEN NOW are there many antichrists" (1 John 2:18). How do you recognize them?

"And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: AND THIS IS THAT SPIRIT OF ANTICHRIST, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world" (1 John 4:3).

"For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. THIS IS A DECEIVER AND AN ANTICHRIST" (2 John 7).

What does He mean by "Jesus Christ is come in the flesh"? He tells you in 1 Timothy 3:16 and John 1:14.

"And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: GOD WAS MANIFEST IN THE FLESH" (1 Tim. 3:16).

"And the Word ["God" back in vs. 1 of John 1] was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of THE ONLY BEGOTTEN OF THE FATHER [well, well, well, there's John 3:16 that a Mohammedan will kill you for believing—see above],) full of grace and truth" (John 1:14).

No End To the Books

Book by which I got saved: a 1611 King James Authorized Version. That Book is “the holy scriptures” (2 Tim. 3:15-16).

Now when it comes to “of making many books there is no end,” that is just as true of THE Book as it is of every other book. The King James Bible has gone into more copies than any other book or any other Bible in the history of mankind. By 1950, the British and Foreign Bible Society had already published 809,000,000 King James Bibles. In the meantime, on the other side of the Atlantic, the American Bible Society had put out 108,200,000 by 1945. That was 917,200,000 copies before 1960. At the rate of 32,876 copies coming off the presses every day (22 copies a minute!) since 1904, by the year 2000, there were over a billion and half King James Bibles somewhere on the globe.

The AV managed to do that with every major Christian scholar against it. It managed to outsell all its competitors combined—233 since 1880 (as of 2008). That is, if you added up the sales of all the counterfeit “Bibles” put together (ASV, RSV, NASV, NRSV, The Living Bible, NIV, TEV, NKJV, CEV, ESV, etc.), you wouldn’t even have a tenth of the sales of one Book: the AV Holy Bible. This remarkable phenomenon was performed within the context of the fact that all the AV’s competitors for 120 years had the benefit of massive advertising and promotional campaigns, while at the same time all the major Christian Colleges, Universities, and Seminaries were engaged full-time in getting rid of the King James text.

Now it is true that some of the modern versions have made their “splash” on the publishing scene. Good News for Modern Man was able to dump off forty million copies with the assistance of the most advanced, up-to-date advertising techniques known to Twentieth-Century publishers. But even with worldly assistance (of the world, by the world, and for the world—see Gal. 1:4;

Rom. 12:1-2; 1 John 2:15-17), the Good News Bible did not reach the sales of a Jehovah’s Witness booklet entitled The Truth that Leads to Eternal Life; that God-dishonoring piece of trash Continued on 9 went out to the tune of 43 million copies.

There have been a couple of years when sales of the NIV managed to top those of the KJV, but it was just a "flash in the pan." The sales of the NIV dropped back down, and the KJV went back to first place. Even in today's apostate Laodicean age, the KJV still claims 25% of the "market share" any given year. The other 75 % is everything else put together, and if you took each counterfeit "Bible" individually, none of them would come near the sales of the King James.

"Chairman Mao" had a "bestseller." His "Red Book" was about fifty pages of idiotic, Marxist, philosophical guesswork which sold about eighty million copies. The "catch," of course, was that it was compulsory for every person in Red China to get a copy: they bought a copy or they got shot. Mao's "sales" were an official government order backed by bayonets and bullets. Once Mao was dead, sales of the Red Book "flat-lined," and the demand in China was for Bibles.

The top novel writer was a woman named Barbara Corkland. She wrote 493 different books that were translated into 27 different languages and went into 500 million copies. The all-times sales record for one author's books were the detective stories by Earl Stanley Gardner (Perry Mason, etc.). He sold 320,802,492 copies, and his books were translated into 37 languages. These come nowhere near the Holy Bible, which has been translated (in whole or part) into 2,454 languages (as of 2008).

The only secular book that ever gave the Bible a real "run for its money" was the Guinness Book of World Records, published by a beer brewery (Guinness Brewery). It attained a sales record of 65 million copies over a period of 35 years; that wasn't even a tenth of the circulation of the King James Bible before 1940. There is not one line in 65 million copies of the Guinness Book of World Records that tells anybody on the face of this earth what will happen to him when he dies. Solomon told you that back in 1000 B.C. (Eccl. 12:14).

The highest price ever paid for a book was paid for a Book that the NEA, the ACLU, and the Supreme Court forbid any student from reading in (or even carrying to) a Federal school classroom. You don't have to guess about which Book I'm talking. A German Bible printed in 1455 in Mainz, Germany was bought by a Japanese collector from Tokyo for the sum of $5,390,000. The highest price ever paid for any book was paid for a book not printed on a printing press. Again, you don't need to guess as to the content of the book; the Bible is always more valuable than anything coming from any other book written by anyone in the past sixty centuries. A West German paid $11,900,000 for The Gospel Book of Henry the Lion, Duke of Saxony. Someone bought a copy of the Psalms one time (the "Bay Psalms") for $151,000. No intelligent, educated man would pay a twentieth of that price for a Koran.

Someone one time shelled out a million dollars for 72 pages written by Albert Einstein (Dec. 2, 1987, by an anonymous collector). He got about two dollars worth of value (see The Anti-Intellectual Manifesto). Einstein never invented one item that ever helped the human race do anything worthwhile. He came up with something so small that you can't even see, but that can blow you to "kingdom come." The man who invented the sewing machine did more for mankind than Einstein.

There is only one Book that is in universal demand, and that is a Holy Bible. It is such a threat to totalitarian governments (both atheistic and religious) that at one time nineteen countries banned that Book, even though they wouldn't ban Einstein's atom bomb.

"Of making many books there is no end." For years and years up until my eyesight started going bad, I read a book a day. Before I was saved, I read the "sacred scriptures" of other religions: the Shastas, the Vedas, the Puranas, the Sutras, the Koran, the Tripitaka, Madam Blavatsky's Secret Doctrine, the Bhagavad Gita, etc. But since the day I was born again (March 14, 1949), I have considered such works "much to do about nothing" and "full of sound and fury, signifying nothing," to borrow a couple of lines from Shakespeare. The Book of books quickly replaced them all. It was like trading in a used, broken-down Edsel for a new Porshe. Or to be more precise, it was like moving from the city dump on Staten Island to the Bellingrath Gardens in Mobile, Alabama.

To believe and confess that "Jesus Christ is come in the flesh" is to believe and confess what the Ethiopian eunuch did in Acts 8:37—"I believe that Jesus Christ is THE SON OF GOD." That is exactly what Mohammed DID NOT BELIEVE. Neither do any of his followers.

"Praise be to God WHO HATH NOT BEGOTTEN A SON" (Sura 17:111).

According to the Holy Spirit who had John record 1 John 2:18, 22, 4:3; 2 John 7, Mohammed was a liar, a deceiver, and an antichrist who would precede the one that is going to show up on the world scene in the next few years. Imagine the nerve of this murdering, fornicating, epileptic, pederast military dictator leading you to believe he was the Holy Ghost, when the Holy Ghost Himself defined the filthy killer more than 400 years before he showed up.

One of the jobs of the Holy Ghost is to "show you things to come," and He showed what Mohammed was and how he was to be identified by two outstanding marks. First, he would deny that Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God. All Moslems deny that flatly, and they got it from their "Prophet." Second, Mohammed taught all 900 million of his followers that if they fought for Allah and killed unbelievers that they would be doing God a favor. Do you know where the Holy Ghost predicted that about Mohammed? He foretold it in the same chapter where He told you that He came to "show you things to come."

John 16:1-2, "These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended . . . yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killed you will think that he doeth God service."

Mohammed taught 900 million Moslems that if they killed Christians and Jews in a "jihad" (a holy war) for Allah, that they would not only be doing God a service, but that God would reward them with the chance to shack up with 72 virgins in Paradise. Now isn't that something? There was a man who had a problem his whole life where he couldn't control his own gonads, not even with fourteen wives, eleven concubines, and any number of sex slaves he could get. That was the man that led 900 million suckers to believe that he was the Holy Ghost.

You couldn't send that one to Robert Ripley. Nobody would believe it. They wouldn't believe it because it is the truth.

Watch the Wording Carefully!

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman
(Part One of Two)

The most dangerous era in the history of man, according to the Book (Rev. 3:14–22), began in the late Nineteenth Century when the news media (magazines and newspapers) began to replace the Bible in the homes of Western civilization. This era produced the Twentieth Century: international terrorism, two World Wars, two more major wars, over 100 minor wars, 55 million genocides, three million abortions a year, America sporting the largest prison population in the world, and the disintegration of classical music, inspirational art, the American educational system, and Biblical Christianity.

As all Bible students know, the age of “civil rights” (Laodicea) was ushered into history in the latter part of the Nineteenth Century. Religiously, it is described as a lukewarm church that God says He desires to vomit out of His mouth (Rev. 3:16). Its precursors were the American and French Revolutions, Darwin, Lincoln’s Gettysburg Address, and the English RV of 1885. By 1901, this age came into “full bloom” when it was inaugurated in America with the ASV of 1901.

At no time in the history of man have Proverbs 14:15 and Ephesians 4:14 been more timely warnings.

“The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going” (Prov. 14:15).

“That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive" (Eph. 4:14).

All media outlets (TV, radio, magazines, books, newspapers, the "web," and the Internet) use words to pervert the truth, misrepresent the truth, cover up the truth, avoid the truth, and destroy the truth. This means that the two main objects of truth, as given "in the scripture of truth" (Dan. 10:21), will be under attack 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year; they will be under attack locally, nationally, and internationally until the Son of Perdition shows up with "LYING wonders" (2 Thess. 2:9).

The two objects of truth are a living Saviour (John 14:6) and His words (John 17:17). Check out those references to see if that is the truth. Believe nothing you see or hear unless it lines up with the One who claimed to be the truth and the Interpreter of the truth (Luke 24:45; John 16:13; 1 John 5:6). If any man (Pope, preacher, teacher, Bishop, pastor, scholar, or "TV evangelist") claims that he or his church, school, or teachers are the interpreters of the truth, mark them down as liars in three Testaments: before the Law (Gen. 40:8, 41:6), under the Law (Dan. 2:28-30), and after the Resurrection (Luke 24:45; 1 Cor. 2:13).

To illustrate, I am going to take the official position, given twenty years AFTER Vatican II (1996), on the essential, fundamental beliefs of ALL Catholic Popes, Catholic Priests, Catholic Bishops, Catholic Archbishops, Catholic Nuns, Catholic Monks, and Catholic laymen. This official Catholic document has been designated "nihil obstat," meaning that it contains "nothing objectionable" to official Catholic teaching, and bears the imprimatur of the Bishop of San Diego, Robert H. Brom. It is entitled Pillar of Fire, Pillar of Truth, and it is published by Catholic Answers (Karl Keating: see our work on the Corrupt Catholic Cult). Nothing in the document has been abrogated by any Pope, Cardinal, Archbishop, or Bishop since. You need to watch the wording carefully. I will record the words of the Bishop and then give the Scriptural commentary on what he said. We are going to see what the Book says that claims to be "given by inspiration of God," not some "authoritative, infallible teaching church."

Bishop: "You may have heard challenges to the Catholic Church's claim to be THE INTERPRETER and safeguard of the teachings of Jesus Christ" (pg. 1).

Comment: "Yes, we have heard of five of them: One from Joseph (Gen. 40:8, 41:16), the greatest type of Christ in the Bible; the second by Daniel (Dan. 2:28-30), a prophet to the Gentile nations; the third by the Lord Jesus Christ (Luke 24:45; John

Bishop: “You can’t understand these challenges unless you understand the basics of the Catholic faith.”

Correction: You cannot understand these challenges unless you study your Bible and believe it, instead of someone’s “faith.” You are commanded to “prove all things” (1 Thess. 5:21), including anyone’s “faith.” If you let the Bishop and his crowd deceive you (Matt. 24:5, 11, 24; Rom. 16:18; Eph. 4:14), you have sinned against God, the Scriptures, and yourself (Matt. 24:4; 1 Cor. 3:18; Eph. 4:14; 1 John 1:8, 3:7). Don’t believe anything I’ve said or the Bishop has said; check us both out!

Bishop: “Jesus said His church would be ‘a city set on a hill’ (Matt. 5:14). This means His church is a visible organization.”

Correction: You lied like a dog, Bishop. There is no reference to any church being a city on any hill in Matthew 5:14. Jesus said that verse to Jewish disciples under the Law. Christ’s church is never called a “city” anywhere in the Gospels.

The Bishop privately interpreted a statement by the Saviour dealing with the personal witness of a Jewish disciple; there was not one “Catholic” or “Christian” present (see Acts 11:26). Now there is a church that is “a city on a hill” in the New Testament. In fact, it is on seven hills (Rev. 17:9); it is Rome—the city responsible for the blood of the saints and the martyrs (Rev. 17:6). But the Jewish city on a hill away from Him."

Comment: First-class, grade-A private interpretation. There is nothing in the verse that says anything about anybody destroying anything. Read it!

The expression "the gates of hell" has been converted into a figurative expression while the Bishop forced Matthew 26:28 to be a literal expres-

Name me one Christian in the New Testament who was sinless. Paul disobeyed God when he went to Jerusalem; Peter taught false doctrine, as did Barnabas (Gal. 2:11-14).

“Sin shall not have dominion over you” means that it is impossible if a man gets saved. You are lost if sin’s power has not been broken. The sovereign reign brings about sinlessness.” Now is there any doubt about what he is saying? If you are saved, you don’t sin, and if you do, you are lost. Now watch him do a double back flip and try to crawfish out of what he just told you.

“God’s people still have sin in the flesh.” What?! You just got through saying “the Christian’s flesh has been changed.” But that’s a Calvinist—just as crooked as a dog’s hind leg.

“But you are now free indeed, though not sinlessly perfect.” But you just said the believer ceases to be a sinner when he gets into “the kingdom of grace,” and that the Christian does live “a sinless life in 100% submission.” You talked about getting screwed up, boy; L. R. Shelton Jr. couldn’t get any more screwed up even if he used a corkscrew.

We will continue this review of Calvinism in Cuckoo Land next month.

THE CREED OF THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT

1. There is no final authority but God.
2. Since God is a Spirit, there is no final authority that can be seen, heard, read, felt, or handled.
3. Since all books are material, there is no book on this earth that is the final and absolute authority on what is right and what is wrong, what constitutes truth and what constitutes error.
4. There WAS a series of writings one time which, IF they had all been put into a BOOK as soon as they were written the first time, WOULD HAVE constituted an infallible and final authority by which to judge truth and error.
5. However, this series of writings was lost, and the God who inspired them was unable to preserve their content through Bible-believing Christians at Antioch (Syria), where the first Bible teachers were (Acts 13:1), and where the first missionary trip originated (Acts 13:1-52), and where the word “Christian” originated (Acts 11:26).
6. So God chose to ALMOST preserve them through Gnostics and philosophers from Alexandria, Egypt, even though God called His Son OUT of Egypt (Matthew 2), Jacob OUT of Egypt (Genesis 49), Israel OUT of Egypt (Exodus 15), and Joseph’s bones OUT of Egypt (Exodus 13).
7. So there are two streams of Bibles. The most accurate—though, of course, there is no final, absolute authority for determining truth and error; it is a matter of “preference”—are the Egyptian translations from Alexandria, Egypt, which are “almost the originals,” although not quite.
8. The most inaccurate translations were those that brought about the German Reformation (Luther, Zwingli, Boehler, Zinzen-dorf, Spener, et al.) and the worldwide missionary movement of the English-speaking people: the Bible that Sunday, Torrey, Moody, Finney, Spurgeon, Whitefield, Wesley, and Chapman used.
9. But we can “tolerate” these if those who believe in them will “tolerate” US. After all, since there is NO ABSOLUTE AND FINAL AUTHORITY that anyone can read, teach, preach, or handle, the whole thing is a matter of “PREFERENCE.” You may prefer what you prefer, and we will prefer what we prefer. Let us live in peace, and if we cannot agree on anything or everything, let us all agree on one thing: THERE IS NO FINAL, ABSOLUTE, WRITTEN AUTHORITY OF GOD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH.

This is the Creed of the Alexandrian Cult.

Watch the Wording Carefully!

Continued from 14 sion. Private interpretation: no regard for the Scriptures. In the Scriptures, Hell has bars (Jon. 2:2, 6), gates (Matt. 16:18), and keys to the gates (Rev. 1:18).

Don't believe one word I said. Go to the verses and check them out. "Watch the wording carefully" (Prov. 14:15).

The Bishop gave you the private interpretation which his predecessors taught him. He never looked at what the Scriptures actually said about the verse he quoted. He simply quoted it to prove that if sin, death, and manure are still here and have not been destroyed, then that is proof that they are God-given, God-honored authorities, because they have been here at least five times as long as any "papacy."

You see, the Bishop is saying that since his group of corrupt pagan idolators is still here after A.D. 325 (there was no "papacy" anywhere in the New Testament church; in fact, it did not show up until long after John finished the last book of the New Testament), then that is proof that it is the "church" spoken of in Matthew 16:18.

Bishop: "Peter was to be the rock on which He would build His church (Matt. 16:18)" (pg. 8).

Comment: In the Scriptures, Jesus Christ taught that the Catholic "rock" was Satan.

"But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me SATAN: thou art an offence until me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men" (Matt. 16:23).

Comment: The Catholic "rock" is not God's "rock."

"For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges" (Deut. 32:31).

Comment: The Apostle to the Romans told you the "rock" was Jesus Christ.

"And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and THAT ROCK WAS CHRIST" (1 Cor. 10:4).

Comment: Simon Peter was the first to deny he was the "rock."

"Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, And a stone of stumbling, and a ROCK of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed" (1 Pet. 2:6-8).

THE BISHOP IS A LIAR. According to whom? According to Paul, Simon Peter, Moses, and JESUS CHRIST. The Scriptures interpreted Matthew 16:18 without the Bishop's permission, consent, approval, or effort. To get his private interpretation of the verse, the Bishop had to SHUT HIS BIBLE and ignore the clear meaning laid out in the word of God.

Next month we will continue our review of the "infallible teaching authority" of the Roman Catholic Church as represented by Catholic Answers and Bishop Robert H. Brom, and we will watch the wording carefully (Prov. 14:15).
