God's Perfect Plan

At the so-called “Council of Jerusalem” in Acts 15, the Apostle James (“the Lord’s brother”—Gal. 1:19; not “the brother of John”—Acts 12:2) gives you what God’s plan is for this age.

“Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, TO TAKE OUT OF THEM A PEOPLE FOR HIS NAME” (Acts 15:14).

The Church Age is a time between the resurrection of Jesus Christ (Eph. 2:16, 1:19–23) and the Rapture of the Church when God calls out of the Gentiles a group of believers to be His people through faith in His Son (Eph. 2:17–18). This is to be done by the worldwide spread of the Gospel (read Rom. 10:12–21). This was the “missionary call” of the Apostle to the Gentiles (Rom. 11:13).

“That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost” (Rom. 15:16). (See also Gal. 2:7–9.)

The Apostle Paul was given a special revelation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ (Gal. 1:11–12) that defined it so particularly (1 Cor.

America’s Screwiest False Prophets

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman
(Second of Three Articles)

We have been discussing the teachings of two insane madmen (professing Christians, naturally): John Bray and the work Beyond the End Times by John Noe. Noe talks about replacing “the NEGATIVE and unscriptural message with POSITIVE and Scripturally honoring ones” (pg. 39). Here is the “NEGATIVE . . . message” Noe wants to replace with his “POSITIVE” one.

“For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: THOUGH I MAKE A FULL END OF ALL NA- TIONS WHITHER I HAVE SCATTERED THEE, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished” (Jer. 30:11).

“For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee SHALL PERISH; yea, THOSE NATIONS SHALL BE UTTERLY WASTED” (Isa. 60:12).

“The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his WRATH. He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the DEAD BODIES; he shall WOUND THE HEADS over many countries” (Psa. 110:5–6).

“For the day of VENGEANCE is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come . . . And I will TREAD DOWN the people in MINE ANGER, and make them drunk in MY FURY, and I will bring down their strength to the earth” (Isa. 63:4, 6).

That is the message of the Scriptures, in regards to the Gentile nations who will not obey the Gospel (see 2 Thess. 1:7–8): it is NEGATIVE, not positive. In fact, Continued on 4

What the News Media Leaves Out

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

I have all kinds of “spies” all around the world who send me information about the religious, political, and cultural situations of different news media “hot spots.” If you want to know what’s going on in South Africa, don’t go to NBC, ABC, CBS, CNN, or FOX; consult our missionaries there who live among the people and see on a daily basis the “change” (Obama’s favorite word) that took place when Nelson Mandela and the African National Congress (a Communist subversive organization) took over the government from the white Afrikaaner “apartheid” government.

South Africa used to be the most prosperous country on the African continent and the one nation to which most Africans wanted to immigrate. Today, it is just one more third-world country. Since Mandela took over, black-on-black violence, murder, rape, and robbery have all skyrocketed. That’s the kind of stuff the news media leaves out of its six o’clock newscasts.

Here is a sample of what’s going on in Africa. It’s a letter I received way back in 1996 from the “Victory Missionary Bible Institute” in Eudung Ukoh City in Oron, Akwa State in Nigeria, West Africa. It is typical of the situation there, and nothing has changed in fifteen years.

“Dear Bro. Ruckman, Let your heart be broken with the things that break the heart of God. Beloved brother, we wish to inform you that Moslems are planning very seriously to take over all of Nigeria and make it an Islamic country in order to gain control of the entire continent of Africa.”

In February of 2011, you saw the “Muslim Brotherhood” stir up the people in Tunisia and Egypt so it could take over those countries and completely surround the State of Israel with Islamic States bent on driving the Jews into the Mediterranean Sea (see our work on Israel: A Deadly Piece of Dirt).

“In the area in which we live and work, the Moslem hierarchy is organized into an army of Moslems with an order to bring all Christian converts back into the fold of

—The Student's Corner— Correcting the Greek With the English

Those of us who believe the Book (AV 1611) never have any pangs of conscience or qualms of indecision when we read or preach the AV text—in public or in private. We know what we're reading. We do not “use” the AV; we read it, believe what we read, and expect our congregations to believe it as well. Not so with Alexandrian apostates like Bob Jones III, Stewart Custer, Edward Panosian, Marshall Neal, Fred Afman, James Melton (the BBC professor; not the Tennessee pastor), James Price, Gary Hudson, Curtis Hutson, James White, Doug Kutilek, and Robert Sumner. These men read from a book they call “the Word of God,” while not believing one word in it with which they disagree. They give you the impression that they believe it just like you do, when they don't. They use it without believing it.

These same men profess to be interested in getting the truth out to you so you won't be led astray by “Ruckmanism” or “King James Onlyism.” They will go to any length to prove that if you don't believe what they believe (i.e., that you can lie when you use a Book you don't believe), that you're involved in falsehood and a heretical cult. In other words, the Bible believer is a “heretic” for being honest, while the Alexandrian passes himself off as a Bible believer because he is dishonest. That's how the Alexandrian makes his living.

Now, I will list the places where every man listed above (plus Provan, Hym-ers, Dell, Jennings, Sherman, Combs, Horton, Hobbs, Farstad, Hodges, Walker, et al.) lied every time any of them read the AV in public, unless they stopped on the average of two times per verse to correct the English with “the original Greek.” If they did not do that, they deliberately deceived their audience (classroom or congregation) into believing they were getting the truth when they weren't.

You understand that we have no “stress” about this. When we read the Book in those same passages, we know we are giving our listeners the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. We don't have to “call” anything we are reading anything. God already “called” it for us (2 Tim. 3:15–17).

Now here are several examples out of more than 400.

John 9:13—the word “was” is not in any Greek text. So what do these apostates do? They correct the Greek with the English and leave it in.

John 8:21—no one translates the article ho before Jesus, and yet it is in every Greek text.

Matthew 1:18—there is no “with child” in any Greek text from any Greek manuscripts. En gastri literally means “with belly.”

Matthew 6:1—there are no copies of any Greek manuscripts that say “heaven.” The Greek word is plural. Ditto in Matthew 7:21.

Every time these apostate Fundamentalists read Matthew 9:2, 21:28; Mark 2:5, 13:12; Luke 2:48; 1 Timothy 1:2, 18; 2 Timothy 2:1; Titus

1:4; or Philemon 10 to their congregations, they corrected the Greek with the English unless they pointed out that the word “son” was incorrectly translated because the Greek word is teknon (“child”), not huios (“son”).

Those are all cases where every apostate Fundamentalist in America gave you a false reading which he did not believe when he read it in order to convince you he was a Bible believer. He read those verses as they are found in a King James Bible, and in every reference, the King James Bible corrected all Greek manuscripts with English. But when you believe those passages are correct in the King James English, these sorry, low-down, stinking, two-faced reprobates (and I say that with Christian charity) called you a “Ruckmanite” (Hymers), a “heretic” (Hudson), and a member of a “cult” (Bob Jones Jr. and the III). There doesn't exist on this earth a more two-faced, double-tongued manifestation of hypocrisy unless you went to the Vatican in Rome to find it.

The men listed above used your Book which you believe, and made you think they believed it when they read it, all the while knowing all the information I gave you above (which I have known for 36 years). Knowing that, they refused to give you the truth of the matter. The truth is that they were correcting all the Greek manuscripts and all the Greek texts every time they read one of those passages out of a King James Bible. The apostates retained a Greek text without believing it, and they used the English text (KJV), without believing it.

Mark 14:41—there is no Greek text that says “Sleep on now, and take your rest.” The Greek text from which the King James was translated says, “katheudete to loipon” (A, C, D, L, W, and some others omit the word loipon), which literally translated means “Fall ye asleep, the remaining” or “Sleep ye, henceforth.” But “Sleep on now, and take your rest”? No way, José! That's the Authorized Version. Every man-jack listed above corrected all the Greek texts with the KJV English when he preached on the Garden of Gethsemane from a King James Bible unless they went to the Greek and told their audience what it actually said. I'll lay you odds ten to one that you couldn't find two men on the list that did that. Every one of them practiced what they call a “cult” or a “heresy” and never batted an eye.

They did it again in Ephesians 1:18. There is “no such a thing” as “the eyes of your understanding.” The Greek texts read either “tous ophthalmous tes kardias” (“the eyes of your heart”)

God's Perfect Plan

Continued from 1 15:1-4) that anyone who differed from that message was cursed (Gal. 1:6-9). This was "the gospel of the grace of God" (Acts 20:24) that Paul was called to take to the Gentiles the day he got saved (Acts 9:15, 22:17-21, 26:13-18). This was (and is) the plan of God: that the good news that Jesus Christ died and rose again for sinners (the Gospel) should be preached to every nation on six continents (Luke 24:46-47; Mark 16:15; Matt. 28:19; Acts 1:8).

That being the case, the thought must occur to any thinking Christian who believes what God said in His Book that if the plan is to call out "a people for his name" that Christians have to spread that "name." If you are going to preach that name (Acts 13:38-39), you have to spread the word that testifies to that name (John 5:39). There is no Gospel apart from the written words of God.

"Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, BY THE WORD OF GOD, which liveth and abideth for ever And this is the word which BY THE GOSPEL is preached unto you" (1 Pet. 1:23, 25).

"But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is THE WORD OF FAITH, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved" (Rom. 10:8-9).

"And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach THE GOSPEL OF PEACE, and bring glad tidings of good things! . . . So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing BY THE WORD OF GOD" (Rom. 10:15, 17).

"In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard THE WORD OF TRUTH, THE GOSPEL OF YOUR SALVATION; in whom also after that he believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise" (Eph. 1:13).

"Of his own will begat he us with THE WORD OF TRUTH, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness THE ENGRAFTED WORD, which is able to save your souls" (James 1:18, 21).

In the same context where Paul told the Ephesians that he preached "the gospel of the grace of God," he also added: "For I have not shunned to declare unto you ALL THE COUNSEL OF GOD" (Acts 20:27). The whole "counsel of God" is found in His word.

You can't separate the name from the word of God because Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate (John 1:1-3, 14). Jesus Himself said, "the WORDS that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life" (John 6:63); and Peter said, "Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast THE WORDS OF ETERNAL LIFE" (John 6:68).

So if a Christian is going to be in line with God's plan for this age, he has to be actively engaged in getting out God's words. That doesn't mean he has to be "called to preach," but he should be doing something to spread God's word. Every Christian is called to be a witness, whether he's called to the ministry or not.

The commentary on the book of Matthew lays emphasis on the transitional nature of the book and its Jewish application to the Second Coming. False teachings of Catholicism and Liberalism are refuted, and critical problems (Sermon on the Mount, genealogies, Resurrection accounts) are thoroughly discussed.

 the purveyors of a POSITIVE message of "the last days" are false prophets who pervert the Scriptures (Jer. 23:16–36).

In his madness to keep pace with the devils who have been attacking the Scriptures since 4000 B.C., Noe confesses that the real reason for writing his book is to rid the child of God of any belief in God's eternal promises and covenants made to Jacob—not just Abraham (see Num. 24:9; Psa. 105:8–11)—and make them null and void by converting them all (e.g., 2 Sam. 22:38–39; Deut. 32:31–43) into "metaphorical figures" (see the "allegorical method" of the Alexandrian school of Plato, Clement, Pantaenus, Philo, Origen, et. al., from 100 B.C.–A.D. 200). Paul called such private interpretations "ignorant conceit" (Rom. 11:25).

In the Bible, not one dispensation ends on a positive note; that is true of all Bibles, all versions, all translations, from any set of manuscripts in any language. The most unscriptural thing any dead orthodox apostate (like Noe and Bray) could possibly do would be to destroy the entire Bible by suggesting that any covenant before Revelation 20:11 ends on a positive note. The Edenic covenant did not; the Adamic covenant did not; the Noahic covenant did not; the Abrahamic covenant did not; the Mosaic covenant did not. The Church Age won't either (1 Tim. 4:1; 2 Tim. 3:1; Rev. 3:14–22), and neither will the Millennium (Rev. 20:7–10). That basic fact—proveable in a court of law—shows that the mind sets of Bray and Noe are totally outside the bounds of reason, rationality, truthfulness, common sense, or spiritual understanding. Anyone could read any Bible published by anyone and see the contrast between these blind Laodicean apostates and the Biblical texts.

Here is the second trip to the "funny farm": violating one of the most basic rules of "hermeneutics" (Biblical interpretation), Noe opens his 272-page "excursion into cloudland" (to quote Dean Burgon) by picking two doubtful texts upon which to erect the entire structure of his critique. These two Old Testament verses, cited in chapter 3, are the bedrock foundation for his entire work and are used to prove that "the world" will never "come to an end." His foundational "proof texts" are Genesis 8:21–22 and Genesis 9:11.

Now, before we go any further, look up those two passages and READ THEM. Do you see anything in those verses where God says He won't destroy the earth again BY FIRE (2 Pet. 3:10–12)? Then why does Noe run there when it has nothing whatsoever to do with his thesis? Very simple: to raise a question in your mind as to what God said (Gen. 3:1).

Before this poor blind fool even attempts to apply the passages, he confesses—with all the stupidity and naiveté of Al Capone when he said "All I wanted to do was live and let live"—that: "For centuries theologians have debated what these two promises really mean." Man! what a foundation on which to build an argument: two debatable passages which theologians haven't gotten figured out yet!

One of the rules of Biblical interpretation is: "Never pick any verse as a foundational text for any belief if that verse is obscure or complex in its content or context." Out the bombay doors go Noe and Bray. Noe began in the Old Testament, before the Law was given, with two "debat-

This sets the priority for affixing "goals for living." The big thing among motivational speakers is "setting your goals" and "achieving your goals." I must admit, I am not much on "setting goals" for my ministry. At the Bible Baptist Church, we have no board on the wall in front of the church showing our attendance last Sunday and our goal for this Sunday. We have no "stewardship banquets" to set goals for giving. I have no enrollment goals for the Pensacola Bible Institute. Whomever the Lord sends our way, we'll train, and if He doesn't send anyone, we'll find something else to do. But there is one goal I do have, and that's to do everything in my power to get God's word out: whether it's by chalk talks, street preaching, tract distribution, radio, TV, books, tapes (actually MP3's, now), DVDs, etc. The goal of every Christian should be to get out God's word by whatever means the Lord has put at his disposal.

That doesn't mean you have to be a professional "minister." Sometimes "laymen" spread more of the word of God than preachers do. That's what one of my deacons did who is now at home with the Lord. Malcolm Dickman was an old redneck from Bay Minette, Alabama. He wanted to do something to get out the word of God, so he started making corrugated plastic signs with a verse of Scripture on each side and displaying them in a PVC pipe frame in front of people's yards.

When Bro. Dickman passed away a few years ago, he had 125 different signs he was shipping out to all fifty States in the Union and several foreign countries. You can be driving along some back road in Alabama, Pennsylvania, or Tennessee; and there will be one of Bro. Dickman's signs sitting out there in front of some Christian's yard. We have had missionaries come through our church and show their slide presentation, and there will be one of Bro. Dickman's signs in front of some church in the Philippines or Zambia (Africa) or Germany; you'll see some street preacher in Chile holding up one of Bro. Dickman's signs out on the street corner. Bro. Dickman wasn't a preacher, but he got the word of God out; boy, I kid you not.

When the time came for me to do my doctoral work at Bob Jones University, my thesis was that any Christian who was not actively involved in trying to spread the word of God and win souls was a heretic no matter what his doctrinal profession was. Don't you know that went over like a lead balloon with a bunch of dead, five-point-Calvinistic professors who were loading their ministerial students down with homework on the weekends to prevent them from going out soulwinning and street-preaching. When "old man Bob" (Bob Jones Sr.), who was an old-fashioned, "Hell-fire-and-damnation" Methodist evangelist, found out what he had on his faculty, they got the boot. Anyone who is not engaged in trying to win men to Jesus Christ is a heretic; I don't care whether he professes faith in the "fundamentals" or not.

So Christian, get involved with God's plan for this age. Before you leave this earth, fulfill God's purpose for you in this life.

Here's a poem by a Presbyterian named Wilbur Cunningham Windsor (1891-1958). It's entitled "Everlasting."

"No splendor can endure the ravages of time,

It matters not how costly nor how fine.

No man can keep the influence of his power

Beyond the limit of his destined hour;

Unless through word or deed he plants the seed

For coming streams of human life in need.

No life or soul has e'er been made secure

Outside God's perfect plan which will endure."

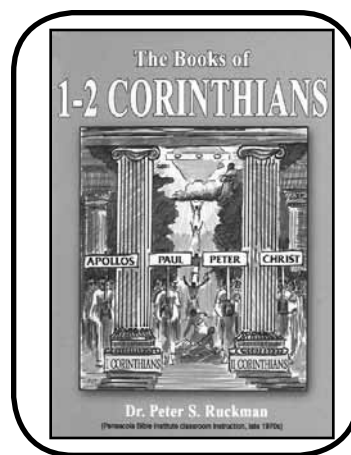

God's perfect plan for your life is (among other things) to speak the words of God Himself (1 Pet. 4:11) to your fellow man and make known to everyone you can the word of God which says that there is a word above every other word given to the human race. You will find that word in Acts 4:12 and Philippians 2:9-10. That Word will one day judge every man and nation on earth (Rev. 19:13; Rom. 2:16; Acts 17:31).

Mohammedanism."

How? By swords, guns, and knives. Neither Mohammed nor Allah could "convert" anybody. They have to bring people into their religion by armed force.

It is just like the 250,000 Serbians who were slaughtered by the Catholic Croats back in 1942 (see The Vatican's Holocaust by Avro Manhattan, CL-3080 @ $9.95). The Catholics had to have armed German military troops to murder 250,000 Serbian Orthodox people; if all the bodies were dug up, they would fill a stadium. No one was "won" or "converted" to Roman Catholicism.

"Countless numbers of churches and Colleges have been burned down because of the dynamic confession of Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour of the whole world before the Moslem teachers and leaders. In one night, about one p.m., when everybody in the College compound had gone to sleep, a group of Moslem army soldiers surrounded our compound and set fire to it.

"Before the students sleeping in the beds and even those living around the area could notice the situation, the fire was already everywhere. Many students died on the spot, and many others were seriously wounded. We couldn't do anything other than cry out to God as we saw everything devoured by the fiery flame which leaped high into the air."

That's the standard "spread of Islam"; that's the Moslem religion; that's Mohammed and Allah. The Christians have no guns. The Moslem army has the guns.

That's what is known as "gun control." It means armed robbery and murder with assault weapons. That's what the Moslems did when they left Arabia and attacked Sicily, Crete, Cypress, Greece, Turkey, Ethiopia, Egypt, Libya, Morocco, Algeria, Italy, Portugal, Spain, and France. That's their "missionary program": aggressive, offensive, military warfare. In the Sudan, Moslems from the north would raid Christian villages in the south; killing the men, violating and mutilating the women, and enslaving the children. In this case, it is burning buildings down around people in their sleep and killing them in the process. That is why "Islam" is the "fastest growing religion in the world today."

Recently in Algeria, several hundred non-Moslems were murdered. The main leader of the killers stated that the murders he and his men carried out were perfectly justified because

"all enemies of Islam, from the youngest to the oldest, should have their throats cut."

That good, godly, pious Moslem religious belief was quoted in a newspaper called Al Dagma, which claims to be the official voice of the armed Islamic group in Morocco. Their stance is that non-Moslems are to be butchered, able” texts, to overthrow later revelation. Bray begins in Matthew 24 where the words Christian, church, and body of Christ do not occur one time. The whole chapter is about “the Son of man” (Matt. 24:27, 30, 37, 39, 44)—a Jewish term for a Judean-born Messiah which appears nowhere in the Pauline epistles to the Gentile churches. That is, Bray uses a pre-Crucifixion passage to overthrow the entire body of revelation to the Body of Christ.

Now any Christian with a sixth grade education can spot a lying hypocrite the moment he picks up a Bible and tries to teach it; it is so simple as to be ridiculous. First, overlook every word borrowed from the news media (like “paradigm shift”). Second, throw out all the words that are invented to perpetrate a lie (e.g., “eternalness”). And most important of all, note those places in the Scriptures where he starts in order to prove his theological position; his unbelief, treachery, egotism, flesh, and materialistic “old man” will manifest itself immediately when he chooses his text. Here are the passages that will “clue you in” to every pious hypocrite in the Body of Christ. Every one of these verses is a “cornerstone” for a man who is trying reduce you to his level of infidelity: Matthew 16:18–19, 25:1, 30; John 3:5, 6:53–56, 14:12; Hebrews 6:4–6, 10:26; Acts 2:3–4, 38, 19:2, 22:16; Ephesians 1:4–5, 3:21; Galatians 3:27–28, 5:4; Ecclesiastes 8:15, 9:4–5; and James 2:24. Both Bray and Noe begin where no honest man would begin in teaching the truth of prophecy.

That’s not all. Another important rule of hermeneutics is: “Never interpret a complete statement in the light of an incomplete statement.” For example, see how all the Pharisaical Fundamentalists use Mark 10:11 to interpret Matthew 19:9 like a Roman Catholic. The complete statement on how to receive the Holy Ghost is not in Acts 2:38; it’s in Galatians 3:14. The complete statement on consciousness after death is not in Ecclesiastes 9:4–5; it’s in Luke 16:19–31. The complete statement on Israel’s future is not in Galatians 3–4 or even in Romans 11; it’s in Hebrews 8; Ezekiel 40–48; Amos 9; Psalm 72, 110, 2, 89, 48; Isaiah 2, 65–66; Hosea 2; Joel 3; and Deuteronomy 32.

days”) by the statement in Genesis 49:26 about “the everlasting hills.” The complete statement on Genesis 49:1 is certainly not Genesis 49:26 unless you are an evolutionist (see 2 Pet. 3:4). The complete statements are in Isaiah 65:17, 66:22; 2 Peter 3:10–14; and Revelation 21:1. Noe is “off his rocker” twice before he even starts to write “one of the top three books” in Christianity Today’s “Millennial Book Awards.”

But the most important rule of interpretation violated by Noe and Bray is: “Always take the words of Scripture to be literally true unless it is impossible to do so.” That is the only case where Scripture is to be taken figuratively. Noe does just the opposite: for 275 pages, he takes 500 verses figuratively because he does not believe they will take place literally. UNBELIEF is Noe’s main problem; ditto Bray. They were not born that stupid; they had to study, investigate, and research to become that rotten.

To prove that God will not fulfill Isaiah 65:17, 66:22; 2 Peter 3:14; and Revelation 21:1 exactly as they are recorded in any edition or version of the Bible, Noe placed an allegorical, figurative meaning on more than 500 verses. He did that after telling you that “all of God’s time periods . . . are reliable, accurate, and LITERAL” (pg. 101). He then proceeded to allegorize THREE time periods: the period between the Rapture and the Advent, the period between the Advent and the New Heavens and New Earth, and the period

Check Up On Your God

A good question to ask anybody, at any time, anywhere on the face of this earth, is: "Who (or what) is the God of your life?" Everyone has a "God" he follows. I don't care if he's an atheist, he follows some "God"; in the case of an atheist, it is himself. Ditto a "humanist" (humanism is just a polite term for atheism).

at the end of the Millennium. Those three periods were discussed in more than 500 verses in the Old and New Testaments.

Noe confesses that his reason for doing this is that he is scared stiff. I can't blame him. The AV text puts Noe and Bray where it puts every saint and sinner in the Twenty-first Century: in the precarious position of dealing with REAL ESTATE in a POLITICAL ARENA (see Israel, A Deadly Piece of Dirt, 2000). In his psychotic Bibliophobia, Noe cries out, "Christianity is in danger of being called a FALSE RELIGION!" (pg. 39)

Dementia: dementia from a Seminary-trained screwball. That is what Mohammed called Christianity back in A.D. 600. That is what the Roman Catholic Church has called real Christianity from A.D. 325–2012. That is what Christianity was called from the very beginning (Acts 24:5, 14). "Where was Noe when the lights went out? In the dark!"

Noe is scared people will ridicule him if he believes the Book (see 2 Pet. 3:3–4). That's Laodicea (1901–2012); it is characterized by apostasy—NEGATIVE, not positive.

Being just as stupid as Everyone should put his "God" to the test. Examine him and see if he's "up to snuff." The God of the Bible doesn't hesitate to put this challenge to every other "God" out there.

"Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob. Let them bring them forth, Calvin, Machen, Davis, Warfield, Berkof, and other Princeton "Preterists" in matters of eschatology, Noe rejects the clear statements of Isaiah 65:17, 66:22; 2 Peter 3:14; and Revelation 21:1 for two conflicting statements in Genesis 8 and 9. That is the "key" to Beyond the End Times (1999). Its foundation is just as rotten as a Catholic Priest converting you to cannibalism on the grounds of John 6:53–56, or a "water dog" (Campbellite) trying to get you wet to get you saved based on Acts 2:38, 22:16; Galatians 3:27; etc. It is just as phony as a five-point Calvinist trying to hang you on Romans 9:16, or a Seventh-day Adventist trying to tie you up in Matthew 5:19. All apostate heretics begin the same way with the same motive in mind. The fact that many of them are highly educated IMBECILES means nothing except that they think they are gods called to privately interpret the Scriptures according to their own unbelief and ignorance of the Scriptures.

In the last installment of this article, we will examine the conceited arrogance of these insane hypocrites as they criticize those of us who take the Bible literally in matters of prophecy.

and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may know that ye are gods: yea do good or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together. Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you" (Isa. 41:21–24).

Just because you've got a "God" doesn't mean you have the real thing. After all, there are all kinds of "gods" and "lords," but only one is the genuine article (1 Cor. 8:4–6). Maybe you don't have the one, "true God" at all (John 17:3; 1 John 5:20). Maybe all you've got is a cheap knock-off, a "pretender to the throne" (Isa. 14:12–14) who is "the god" of this evil world system (2 Cor. 4:4; Gal. 1:4) and who controls the electromagnetic fields of the atmosphere (Dan. 11:38; Eph. 2:2). Maybe you don't even have that; maybe all you've got is one of his flunkies and underlings (Eph. 6:12). So you had better check up on your "God" and try him out to see if he is the "real McCoy." So here's a good test to see if your God is the "true God" or just one of a myriad of false gods.

1) Is your "God" eternally existing, or did he have to have someone else or something else create him. You see, when the God of the Bible revealed His name to Moses (Exod. 6:3), He called Himself "I AM THAT I AM" (Exod. 3:14). That name is

Continued from 6 including anyone who uses a pen to write anything against Islam, Allah, or Mohammed.

"We do no more than carry out the wishes of God ("Allah") and his Prophet (Mohammed)." What's he talking about? He's talking about what Allah and Mohammed commanded their followers to do in the Koran.

"When ye encounter the infidels (that's anyone who's not a Moslem), STRIKE OFF THEIR HEADS till ye have made a great slaughter among them" (Sura 47:4).

In Indonesia, a little girl was accosted by Moslems on her way home from Sunday School. She died by having her arm and leg on the alternate sides of her body cut off when she wouldn't deny Christ. You say, "Why would those Moslems do such a thing to a little girl?" Because that's what the Koran commanded them to do (see Sura 5:33). Those weren't "radical" or "extremist" Moslems; those were Moslems who believed and practiced what their "holy book" told them to do. Killing non-Moslems is defined by Aboul Moundhiur as "doing good to combat evil."

Jesus Christ told you over 400 years before Mohammed was born that they would say that: "yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service" (John 16:2). Mohammed—the rag-headed camel jockey who recommended drinking camel urine and who said that Satan slept in your nose at night (see Mohammed's Believe It or Else!, CL-3099 @ $3.95)—not only rejected what Christ said in the Gospel of John, he rejected all of the 27 books of the New Testament, which had been in circulation for more than 500 years throughout Arabia, Palestine, Asia Minor, Syria, Persia, and North Africa.

Every word that Mohammed recited, he said he got from a 600-winged angel (Allah never said one word to Mohammed) who told him to write it down—although Mohammed was supposed to be illiterate and couldn't write it down, so he dictated it to some other Arabs who wrote it down. The words Mohammed gave them from the 600-winged angel justify murder, slavery, and polygamy. They were all stolen from an Old Testament Jewish theocracy and twisted to Mohammed's personal ends. Those theocratic oracles were given to the Jews, not the Arabians or Moslems (Rom. 3:1-2); they came by Moses, not Mohammed (John 1:17); and they were a covenant given to Isaac and Jacob, not Ishmael and Esau (Gen. 17:19-21; 28:1-4).

God dumped Arabia, along with the Moslems and "Pal-estiniens," back in 1500 B.C. (see Exod. 15:14-18), and again in A.D. 50 (see Gal. 4:22-30), and again when Mohammed denied the Deity and atonement of God's "only begotten Son" (John 3:16). According to the "beloved apostle" (John), Mohammed was an "antichrist."

"Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is an ANTI-CHRIST, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father" (1 John 2:22-23).

"Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of ANTI-CHRIST, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is in the world" (1 John 4:2-3).

"For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an ANTICHRIST" (2 John 7).

That is the material you will never hear "considered" on NPR's "All Things Considered." You won't get a peep out of any major television or radio newscast about it. And no major "daily" will carry anything about it, not even in Billy Graham's column. They are all a perfect blank when it comes to the truth about Islam.

one of the greatest revelations in history. It is the only definition in all the religious literature of the world (often mislabeled "scripture") which accurately defines God.

The term Allah tells you nothing about God's essential nature; all it means is "the god." It is Mohammed's attempt to elevate one god out of the 360 gods in the Ka'aba—the MOON god, the god of his own tribe—as the supreme deity for sole worship. There is no evidence that "Allah" existed any further back in history than Genesis 12 when Abraham was called out of Ur of the Chaldees (cf. Acts 7:2–3): the chief god of Ur was the MOON god. The moon didn't show up until the fourth day of creation (Gen. 1:14–19). The God who made the moon was around before there was any earth for the moon to revolve around (Gen. 1:1).

Listen, people, if God is a Spirit, the Creator, the absolute Sovereign of the universe, and an ultimate Being of perfect holiness and power, what other conclusive definition could you give of Him other than "I AM"? Any definition of an eternal Being beyond "I AM THAT I AM" would be beyond human comprehension, for the very thought of an eternal, uncreated, omnipresent Being staggers the mind of man.

That's why all the gods of pagan mythology had to be created themselves. They came from "Mother Earth" (they were environmentalists!), and "Mother Earth" came out of chaos—evolution! That's man's depraved way of trying to figure out where God "came from"; but when all is said and done, the nearest anyone can get to an absolute definition of true Deity was revealed to a Bedouin shepherd on the backside of an Arabian desert more than 500 years before any Hindu, Buddhist, or Zoroastrian sat down to write any "sacred scripture" of their own religions. If your "God" is not the "I AM" of Exodus 3:14, all you've got is an invention of someone's depraved imagination.

2) Is your "God" the One who created heaven and earth (Gen. 1:1)? If he's not, you've got the wrong god.

"The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens" (Jer. 10:11).

There are only four ways this universe could have gotten here: a) it has always been here—the eternity of matter, b) it got here out of nothing naturally, c) it is not really here, d) it was created out of nothing supernaturally. The first two explanations violate the scientifically demonstrable Laws of Thermodynamics; you have to accept them by blind faith. The third explanation is an opium "pipe-dream"; it can't be proven or disproven scientifically because it is the rantings of a psychotic mind. The only rational explanation that meets the demands of demonstrable science is that an intelligent Creator made everything. If your "God" was once a man who evolved into a god (like Mitt Romney believes), you've got a false god.

My God was not some "demigod" created by Jehovah (see the Jehovah's Witnesses' perversion of Rev. 3:14); He was right there before Genesis 1:1 as part of the Godhead (John 1:1–3, 17:5). He is the Creator and Sustainer of all things (Col. 1:16–17). He is the Son of God (Heb. 1:1–2)—Jesus Christ (1 John 5:20).

3) Is your God a Father

ing about where you go after death, while the Lord is deeply concerned about it.

“For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel’s, the same shall save it. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?” ((Mark 8:35–37)

III. The world wants you to forget God (Psa. 9:17) and quit seeking Him (Isa. 55:6), while God not only invites you to seek and find Him, but commands it (Isa. 1:18; Matt. 11:28–30; John 6:37; Rev. 22:17; John 5:39).

IV. The world demands your conformity, but God wants to transform your mind through the Holy Spirit so you will be conformed to His Son.

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And BE NOT CONFORMED TO THIS WORLD: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God” (Rom. 12:1–2).

“For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren” (Rom. 8:29).

The believer is to exercise “the mind of Christ” that is in him through the Holy Spirit (Phil. 2:5 cf. 1 Cor. 2:14–16) so that he is not spoiled by “the rudiments of the world” (Col. 2:8, 20).

V. The world demands your love; the Christian is not to love the world.

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him” (1 John 2:15).

The Great Commandment is to “love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind” (Matt. 22:37). There is nothing that will kill your love for God and service for Jesus Christ faster than loving this world (1 John 2:15; 2 Tim. 4:10). Love for the world system is wasted affection because “the world passeth away, and the lust thereof” (1 John 2:17). The Christian is commanded to set his “affection on things above, not on things on the earth” (Col. 3:2).

VI. The world tempts you to do things you will regret for the rest of your life; God wants you to do things for which you will be thankful forever.

“Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not” (Gal. 6:7–9).

VII. The world remembers your sins and faults (see how they’ve remembered David’s sin for 3,000 years now—2 Sam. 12:14); God forgives and

Check Up On Your God

Continued from 11 who made human beings “male and female” (Mark 10:7)? You have to say that nowadays. You have a bunch of sex-obsessed Frisco fruit-loops running around saying God created mankind as two faggots (“Adam and Steve”) or two Lesbians (a butch and a dyke) or a couple of double-breasted finks (“shims”), so they want to get married so they can get your tax money when they come down with AIDS (originally called GRID—GAY RELATED Immunity Deficiency). The “God” who “created the heaven and the earth” is not some androgynous hermaphrodite like Hermes or Apollo or Krishna; He is male. God the Father is male (Acts 17:24–28); God the Son is male (1 Tim. 2:5); God the Holy Spirit is male (John 16:13). There is no “Mother Earth” or “Mother Nature” or “goddess within” or “Co-redemptrix” or “Mediatrrix.” There’s “the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ” (1 Cor. 8:6; 2 Cor. 11:31; Eph. 1:3, 4:6).

4) Did your “God” reveal Himself in writing and prove that revelation to be so by prophesying history ahead of time and having it come out “right on the money” every time without a hitch? The test of a true God is fulfilled prophecy (Isa. 41:22–23, 42:9, 43:12, 44:6–7, 45:21, 46:9–10, 48:3). “Allah” couldn’t tell his “prophet” two things that would take place in history after Mohammed died. When it came to “prophecy,” Mohammed wasn’t even on a par with Jeane Dixon or Nostradamus (two other false prophets).

My God gave 48 detailed prophecies about His Son anywhere from 400–1,500 years before Christ showed up, and every one of those prophecies came to pass exactly as they were given. The chances of that taking place, according to a professional mathematician and statistician (Peter Stoner, Science Speaks), were 1 to 10 with 157 zeroes after it. There aren’t that many electrons in three universes the size of ours. And besides that, if the chances of a thing are 1 to 10 with 50 zeroes after it, then according to the laws of statistics, that thing will never take place. That is proof positive that the God of the Bible is the one, true God.

5) Did your “God” ever do anything for you? You say, “He gave me the truth.” I didn’t ask that. I asked if he ever did anything FOR you.

I said that to a Mohammedan one time, and he said, “I don’t understand what you mean.” I said, “My prophet DIED FOR ME. What did your prophet ever do for you?” The answer was: “NOTHING!” Neither Mohammed nor Allah ever did anything for any of their followers. If you want to make it to Paradise if you are a Moslem, the only sure way is for you to kill a Christian or a Jew in a “holy war” (jihad). You have to do the killing; Allah does nothing for you.

Now what’s the problem? The problem is that if God is God, and God created me, then I am going to have to give account to Him after my death of my personal dealings in my personal life (Rom. 14:12). That’s why people are so eager to swallow the myth of evolution: if you got here by an accident of random chance, then there is no Creator to whom you must give an account.

If you are honest with yourself, you know you won't pass that accounting. It's not a case of whether you were better than someone else or whether your good deeds outweigh your bad deeds. It's a case of: "Do you measure up to the standards of your Creator?"

My Creator knew I couldn't pass His examination on my own merits, so He passed the test for me. He came down to this earth and did what I couldn't do: live a sinless life. Then He took the penalty for my failure so I didn't have to. And to top it all off, He offered me eternal life as a free gift if I would just accept what He did for me.

"Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed" (1 Pet. 2:24).

"For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit" (1 Pet. 3:18).

"For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him" (2 Cor. 5:21).

Now let me ask you this: did your "God" do that for you? Did Mary? Did Mohammed? Did Allah? Did Brahma? Did Buddha? No? Then why do you worship them? Kinda short on "gods" there, ain't ya, fella?

Do you know what the key difference is between "deities" when it comes to salvation? You pick up any "God" outside of the Bible, and he will tell you to do this or do that and you MIGHT make it to Heaven (or Paradise or Valhalla or Nirvana or wherever a particular religion is try to get you). Keep the Golden Rule, and you might make it. Pray five times a day, and you might make it. Meditate and "trip out of the frame," and you might make it. Eliminate all desire and get off the wheel of karma, and you might make it. Keep the sacraments and join the church Christ founded, and you might make it. Keep the Ten Commandments, and you might make it.

The God of the Bible says, "Accept what my Son did for you on the cross, and you WILL make it" (1 John 5:13). False gods say, "Do, do, do"; the true God says, "DONE!" "It is finished" (John 19:30).

Islam may guarantee you Paradise if you die as a Moslem killing Christians and Jews for Allah, but no one has ever come back to verify whether that is so or not. My God (John 20:28) rose again from the dead as proof that who He was and what He did were so (Rom. 1:4). Mohammed is dead, and you can go over to Medina in Saudi Arabia and see his bones. Buddha is deader than a hammer on the beach, and his bones are paraded through the streets of India once a year. But you won't find one bone of my God over in Jerusalem or anywhere else because "he is risen, as he said" (Matt. 28:6).

6) Did your "God" promise you, in writing, that he would supply you with whatsoever you needed and work out the events and situations of your life so that everything turns out for your good, no matter what it is? Mine did.

"But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:19).

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (Rom. 8:28).

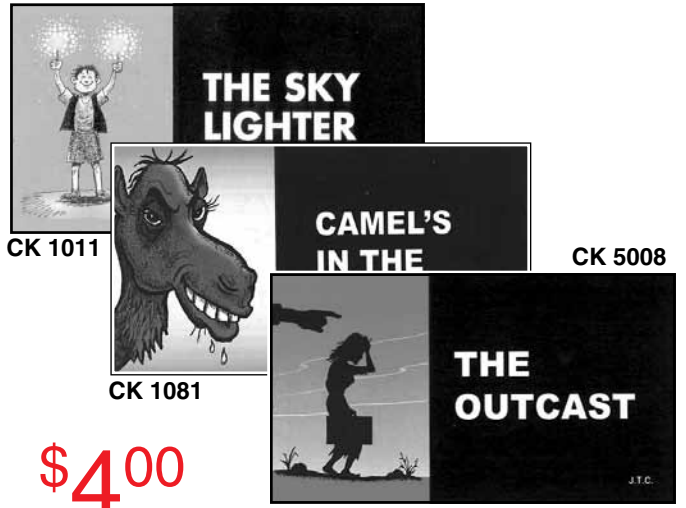

My God has things worked out so that no matter what happens to me in this life (Rom. 8:38-39), I end up just like Him (Rom. 8:29; Phil. 3:21; 1 John 3:2).

Now look at those six things! Does the "God" you worship meet those requirements? Brahma doesn't. Buddha doesn't. Mary doesn't. No Pope does or ever has. Allah and Mohammed certainly don't. None of the gods of modern man (money, education, sex, science, humanism, Socialism, atheism, etc.) can. Kind of puny "Gods" you got there: kind of scrawny, anemic weaklings.

My God can give you eternal life apart from your own righteousness. Let's see you find any other "God" who even professes to be able to do that for you. None of them can deliver. Do you know why? Because they're false gods—the whole lot of them. They can't produce the goods because they're fake. They can't pass the test.

Correcting the Greek With the English

 or "tous ophthalmous tes diamonias" ("the eyes of your mind"). The men above didn't make the alteration when they quoted the verse; they went by the English of the King James. That is, they corrected all the Greek texts with the English. They are dirty, two-faced hypocrites.

You see, a Bible believer believes the Book as it stands; he doesn't correct it with anything. Every one of these birds claims the "final court of appeals" is "the Greek text" (or "the original Greek text"). Yet every one of them, over and over again in the Scriptures, corrects all the Greek texts (more than 24 of them) with the King James English while accusing you of "heresy" and being a "cult" when you believe the AV. May the good Lord reward them according to their works (2 Tim. 4:14; Rev. 22:12).

Don't try to kid those of us who actually believe the Book that you're a Bible believer when you're nothing more than a double-tongued apostate. We know a baboon when we see one.

THE CREED OF THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT

1. There is no final authority but God.
2. Since God is a Spirit, there is no final authority that can be seen, heard, read, felt, or handled.
3. Since all books are material, there is no book on this earth that is the final and absolute authority on what is right and what is wrong, what constitutes truth and what constitutes error.
4. There WAS a series of writings one time which, IF they had all been put into a BOOK as soon as they were written the first time, WOULD HAVE constituted an infallible and final authority by which to judge truth and error.
5. However, this series of writings was lost, and the God who inspired them was unable to preserve their content through Bible-believing Christians at Antioch (Syria), where the first Bible teachers were (Acts 13:1), and where the first missionary trip originated (Acts 13:1-52), and where the word "Christian" originated (Acts 11:26).
6. So God chose to ALMOST preserve them through Gnostics and philosophers from Alexandria, Egypt, even though God called His Son OUT of Egypt (Matthew 2), Jacob OUT of Egypt (Genesis 49), Israel OUT of Egypt (Exodus 15), and Joseph's bones OUT of Egypt (Exodus 13).
7. So there are two streams of Bibles. The most accurate—though, of course, there is no final, absolute authority for determining truth and error; it is a matter of "preference"—are the Egyptian translations from Alexandria, Egypt, which are "almost the originals," although not quite.
8. The most inaccurate translations were those that brought about the German Reformation (Luther, Zwingli, Boehler, Zinzen-dorf, Spener, et al.) and the worldwide missionary movement of the English-speaking people: the Bible that Sunday, Torrey, Moody, Finney, Spurgeon, Whitefield, Wesley, and Chapman used.
9. But we can "tolerate" these if those who believe in them will "tolerate" US. After all, since there is NO ABSOLUTE AND FINAL AUTHORITY that anyone can read, teach, preach, or handle, the whole thing is a matter of "PREFERENCE." You may prefer what you prefer, and we will prefer what we prefer. Let us live in peace, and if we cannot agree on anything or everything, let us all agree on one thing: THERE IS NO FINAL, ABSOLUTE, WRITTEN AUTHORITY OF GOD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH.

This is the Creed of the Alexandrian Cult.

The Christian And the World

forgets them (Heb. 10:14–17).

VII. The world demands money to pay for your atonement or healing (Luke 20:46–47; 1 Pet. 1:18; Luke 8:43); the Lord never charges you a penny for healing or salvation (Isa. 55:1–2; 1 Pet. 1:19; Rom. 5:15–18).

Now the good news is that Jesus Christ has “overcome the world” through His death, burial, and resurrection (John 16:33). When you got the New Birth, you were identified by the Holy Spirit with Christ’s death, burial, and resurrection so that you have in you what made Jesus victorious over this sinful world (1 John 5:4–5, 4:4). If you take advantage of that and let the Holy Spirit in you have control of your mind and body (Rom. 12:1–2), you can overcome the world in your Christian life. One of these days you will not only get the victory over the world spiritually, you will get victory over it physically.

“But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you” (Rom. 8:11).

One of these days I’m going to leave this world behind—the physical world, the lost world, and the world system—and I’m going UP (1 Thess. 4:15–17)! I won’t ever have to worry about “the lust of the flesh,” “the lust of the eyes,” or “the pride of life” ever again (1 John 2:16–17) because I’ll be just like my Saviour (Rom. 8:29; Phil. 3:21; 1 John 3:1–2). WELL, GLORY!
