America's Total Destruction of the Bible

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman

The New Age global community has at last discovered the source of all man's troubles. It has taken them sixty centuries to locate the problem, but now they have it solved. Finally, they have found that the trouble with the entire world is hate. The solution to the problem is to arrest everybody who commits a “hate crime”; that way, every one else can have peace.

One of the first things Obama did in his first term in office was to sign a “Hate Crimes Bill.” This was a prelude for what is going on now in his second term. The “Hate Crimes Bill” allows the Justice Department to eliminate, at one stroke, any part of the Bible the government doesn't like; that would be well over three-quarters of the Book. This is absolutely necessary in order for the world to get together in one final “Tower of Babel.”

At the original Tower of Babel, “the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech” (Gen. 11:1). The whole thing broke up when God divided the people (Deut. 32:8). So to bring everyone together in a new “Tower of Babel,” there cannot be any differences. Moral people have to be made to look immoral, and immoral people have to be made to appear to be moral. That's quite a task to accomplish. Isaiah warned you about calling “evil good, and good evil” (Isa. 5:20).

The stage has been set, both politically and socially, where every sermon from the Bible that is negative can make the one who preaches it subject to fines and imprisonment, or at least ostracization and censorship. The former is already going on in Canada. Hate crimes laws are being

A Clean Heart

By Tom Waddle

The primary reason for reading the Bible is not to accumulate a bunch of knowledge in your head, but to develop a right heart attitude toward God. “Thy word have I hid in mine HEART, that I might not sin against thee” (Psa. 119:11). David said, “Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me” (Psa. 51:10).

This bears witness to the truth that being spiritual and having a love for God cannot be produced in someone by just a bunch of rules and regulations. Just because you have “high standards” doesn't guarantee that you have a transformed, clean heart. You may just be conforming on the outside. You may know all of the right language and Christian terms to use just at the right time. You may know how to have the right dress, the right “hairdo,” the right amount of make-up (if any!), and the sweet, plastic smile that makes you appear joyful all of the time; but your heart is as black as a coal-burning stove.

Of course, the Lord wants you right on the outside, that's true, but He wants to start on the inside first. “For the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the HEART” (1 Sam. 16:7). “Work OUT your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh IN you both to will and to do of his good pleasure” (Phil. 2:12–13). We are to work OUT (not for) what God has worked IN.

The main problem with man is not a “lack of education”—his head. It's with his heart—that part of us that directs our affections, what we love. “The fool hath said in his HEART, there is no God” (Psa. 14:1). “This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their HEART is far from me” (Matt. 15:8). Paul said about unsaved evolutionists, “their foolish HEART was darkened” (Rom. 1:21). Matthew

“Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, THEREWITH TO BE CONTENT” (Phil. 4:11).

To whom did Paul go when he got the “blues”? Did the apostles and their successors receive any kind of training in Christian counseling? If someone in church was struggling in the Christian life, would Titus or Timothy or Trophimus have recommended Your Best Life Now by Joel Osteen? Have you wandered into a modern Christian bookstore lately? Don't you know God wants you to discover your “real self”? Please, don't deprive yourself any longer; all things can be yours if only you follow Rev. Schuller's advice in his Possibility Thinking.

Paul wrote Timothy and told him that in the last days of the Church—not the Gentile world system—“men shall be lovers of their own selves” (2 Tim. 3:2). He goes on to list seventeen other symptoms of widespread character degeneracy; loving yourself heads the list of the eighteen (six, six, six) moral failures. The growing preoccupation with self is causing a boom in the number of people suffering chronic depression and seeking help. “Getting in touch with the real you” may be a first step toward mental instability.

Sadly and shamefully, there are a growing number

The Tridentine Confession

Most Americans have no idea with whom or what they are dealing when it comes to the Pope and the Roman Catholic Church. If you asked them to what a Priest, Bishop, or Cardinal had to subscribe to become a Pope, they wouldn't have any more idea than the man in the moon. In the work Secrets of Romanism (Joseph Zacchello, Loizeaux Brothers, Neptune, NJ, 1949), on pages 170-171, you will find what is called the "Tridentine Confession." It is the creed to which every Pope must swear when he enters the office, including John Ratzinger (AKA Benedict XVI) and Pope "Francis." Among other things, every Pope must swear the following:

"I likewise undoubtedly receive and profess all other things delivered, defined, and declared by the sacred canons, and general councils, and particularly by the holy Council of Trent."

Now what was the Council of Trent? The Council of Trent (1545-1563) set forth the official doctrine of the Catholic Church by decree. Every Pope has to swear his fidelity to, and belief in, the decrees of the Council of Trent in order to become Pope.

What is in those decrees? Oh, just 125 curses ("anathemas") on every Baptist, Methodist, Episcopalian, Lutheran, Presbyterian, Evangelical, Fundamentalist, etc., who does not agree with the Catholic Church's teachings on justification and salvation, the Mass, the Sacraments, prayers to dead saints, Purgatory, the infallibility and supremacy of the Pope, etc.

That is, the whole ecumenical movement with Rome is a horselaugh. The Popes are the biggest pack of liars on the face of this earth. That includes the present one, "Francis"; he's just as rotten as the last sixteen who preceded him.

Now here is what Francis, Benedict XVI, John Paul II, Paul VI, and the rest of them swore by "God and these Holy Gospels" to hold, teach, and profess. Nothing has changed since the Sixteenth Century; no "Vatican Council" abrogated one line of it.

1. Session 4 on the "Canonical Scriptures": You are cursed if you don't believe such pulp fiction as Judith, Tobit, Bel and the Dragon, Wisdom of Solomon, 1 & 2 Maccabees, etc. (the Apocrypha), to be "the scripture of truth" (Dan. 10:21) and part of the Old Testament.

2. Session 4 on the "Edition and Use of the Sacred Books": You are damned to Hell (that's what the term anathema means) if you print, distribute, read, or even possess, without written permission of the Bishop, any copy of the Bible which hasn't been approved by the Catholic Church and that doesn't have the Roman Catholic doctrinal notes. In 1824, Pope Leo XII said Bible societies propagated "a gospel of the devil." In 1846, Pope Pius IX called them "crafty and heretics"; in 1861, he added the epithet "pests." Pope Pius VII (1829) and Pope Gregory XVI (1844) also spoke out against them.

3. Session 5 on "Original Sin": If you don't believe the merits of Christ's blood atonement are applied to adults and infants by water baptism, you are anathema; if you don't believe in sprinkling babies to remove "original sin," you are anathema; if you don't believe you get the New Birth through water baptism, you are anathema.

4. Session 6, Canon IX: If you teach that justification is by faith alone, without the "grace" conferred by Roman Catholic sacraments (see Session 7, Canon VI-VIII below.) you are accursed.

5. Session 6, Canon XI: If you believe that you are justified solely by the imputation of Christ's righteousness without Roman Catholic sprinkling, you are accursed.

6. Session 6, Canon XII: If you believe saving faith is relying solely on Jesus Christ and His blood atonement, you are damned.

7. Session 6, Canon XVI: If you believe in eternal security (called "Perseverance of the Saints" in the canon), you are cursed.

8. Session 6, Canon XXVII: If you believe that the only sin that can send a person to Hell in this age is rejecting Jesus Christ as Saviour, you are damned to Hell.

9. Session 6, Canon XXX: If you don't believe in Purgatory, you are headed for Hell.

10. Session 7, Canon I: If you think there are only two ordinances (not sacraments) given to the local, New Testament church, you are anathema.

11. Session 7, Canon IV: If you don't think Roman Catholic water baptism, the Roman Catholic Mass, Roman Catholic penance, and Roman Catholic "last rites" have anything to do with your salvation, you are lost and on your way to Hell.

12. Session 7, Canons VI-VIII: Unless you believe the Holy Spirit confers "grace" to be saved through the Roman Catholic sacraments and that faith alone is insufficient to save your soul from Hell, you are cursed.

13. Session XXV on "Invocation, Veneration, and Relics, of Saints, and on Sacred Images": If you think praying for the dead and praying to dead saints is a waste of time and breath, and if you believe that praying to statues of Christ and the "Virgin" is blasphemous idolatry, you are accursed.

And just to make sure you know who's boss, the incoming Pope is to swear this, according to the third session of "the holy Council of Trent":

"I acknowledge the Holy, Catholic, Apostolic, ROMAN Church (get that all you Americans. It's a Roman church, not an American church. There are no "American Catholics"; every Roman Catholic used to shut down any church and shut up any preacher that believes the Book.

Such laws have firmly joined Church and State. The State can now shut down, or allow to stay open, any church based on whether it agrees or disagrees with the message preached. Have Obama and the news media decided that one class of sinners deserves special status, protection, and promotion for committing their sin? Then if you point out that a sex pervert is a sex pervert and that sex perversion is an abominable sin in the sight of God (Lev. 18:22), you must be punished for "hatred" toward sex perverts.

Such a ridiculous policy has produced a government that has obligated itself to arrest

Peter, James, John, Moses, David, Jeremiah, and JESUS CHRIST. If there were ever a compendium, an omnibus, or an "encyclopedia" of hate literature written by anybody, then it certainly would be the Holy Bible. That is the logical conclusion to which the world has come.

The world has to get rid of that Book in order to get everyone together, for just as surely as you are reading this page, the Book brings division. It divides between black and white, between old and young, between male and female, between straight and perverted, between sinner and saint. So to get rid of those divisions, they have to get rid of the source of division: the Book. They got it out of the schools back in 1961-62; they got it out of the Federal and State buildings back in 2003. Now they are in the process of removing it from the churches.

Now I am going to show you the men who would be arrested and fined and imprisoned if they were around in America and Canada today. Their preaching would be considered a "hate crime" by Obama, the Democratic Party, many Republicans, the Supreme Court, the ACLU, the NAACP, Hollywood, and the news media.

Here's a "beaut." This is the Apostle to the Gentiles writing a pastor in Crete about the problems he's going to have with the Cretians in his congregation because of their race (Gen. 10:14—"Capto-rim" was the Hebrew name for the Cretians; they came from Ham—Gen. 10:6, 13).

If you ever saw judgmental, bigoted "hate" preaching, this is it!

Paul says, "One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cre-tians [a race of North African Hamites out of Egypt, living on the island of Crete] are ALWAYS LIARS, EVIL BEASTS, SLOWBELLIES . . ." (Tit. 1:12).

Oh my God! Racism! Prejudice! Bigotry! Arrest him! Throw him in jail! Fine him $100,000! He's guilty of racial hatred!

Who's that? Oh, that's the one who told you born-again Christians, "Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ" (1 Cor. 11:1). He said of that race of people, "This witness is TRUE [what you just read back up in Titus in America, if he believes what his church professes, is answerable to a foreign State with its own head, its own laws, its own bank, and its own army. If you don't acknowledge that, you are damned to Hell) as the mother and mistress of all churches; and I promise true obedience to the Bishop of Rome, successor to St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles, and Vicar of Jesus Christ."

That is the "true Catholic faith, outside of which NO ONE CAN BE SAVED." If you thought I was kidding or exaggerating or "given to over-statement" when I said you were damned to Hell if you didn't agree with the decrees of "the holy Council of Trent," then go back and read that last statement again. No Pope (like John Paul II or Benedict XVI or "Francis") believes you can even be saved if you don't accept the crap you just read above.

That is what the modern Pope believes. That is what he really thinks of Billy Graham, James Dobson, Chuck Colson, Pat Robertson, Charles Stanley, Rick Warren, Joel Osteen, et al. The fact that he won't own up to a word of it (or mention it or discuss it publicly) just goes to show you that religious hypocrites can make good politicians. The next time you see or hear a Pope (any of them) get up and go on and on about "peace on earth," just thumb your nose at him and give him the "raspberry." After all, he put 125 curses on you.

1:12). Wherefore rebuke them sharply" (Tit. 1:13).

Sorry, Paul. Every Christian in America will have to violate the command to follow you on that one. They don't dare unless they want to be arrested for violating someone's "civil rights."

Here's someone else who said, "Follow me" (Luke 5:27, 9:59). This time, it's the One who died on the cross for your sins. If Jesus Christ showed up preaching anywhere in the United States and Canada, He would be arrested within 24 hours. "Why?" you ask. For hating people.

Jesus Christ said so many nasty things about people that you could easily get Him on several charges of "hate speech" without even trying. Look at what He said of the religious leaders of His day (that would be the equivalent of the National Council of Churches, the ministerial association, and the ecumenical council).

1. "Ye hypocrites" (Matt. 15:7; Luke 12:56).
2. "Ye shall receive the greater damnation" (Matt. 23:14).
3. "Ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves" (Matt. 23:15).
4. "Ye fools and blind" (Matt. 23:17, 19).
5. "Ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness" (Matt. 23:27).
6. "Ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity" (Matt. 23:28).
7. "Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?" (Matt. 23:33).
8. "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do" (John 8:47).

How's that for "hate speech"? If that doesn't show "hatred," what does? Here's some stupid Christian quoting "God is love." What about those passages? What are you going to do with the God who made those statements (1 John 5:20)? Lock Him up?

Here is Obama, Biden, and Hillary saying that the sodomites and Lesbians have the right to "love" and "marry" whom they want. Do you know what the "encyclopedia of hate literature" has to say about that? Well, the Apostle Paul lists a number of sins in Romans 1, but he gives special attention to the "star-spangled sodomites." He gives three verses of rebuke to that sin and doesn't even devote a whole verse to any other sin in the passage. In verses 26–28, he says the sex perverts are guilty of:

1. "Vile affections."
2. "Against nature."
3. "Leaving the natural use."
4. "Burned in their lust."

5. "Working that which is unseemly."

6. "Receiving in themselves the recompense of their error."

7. "A reprobate mind."

Obviously Paul hates sodomites; he won't even call them "gay." Arrest him! Fine him! Censor him! How dare he violate the civil rights of sex perverts to seduce and recruit the children in the public schools! We have to get rid of such "hate literature" and train the kiddies all the way down to kindergarten on how to commit sodomy!

Do you know what the "encyclopedia of hate literature" says about women? Of course you don't! Who cares what God Almighty thinks. When the Lord gave an "estimation" of the value of people, He gave the worth of men ages twenty to sixty to be "fifty shekels of silver"; women in the same age group were "thirty shekels" (Lev. 27:3–4). Males from five to twenty were worth "twenty shekels" while the females were worth "ten shekels" (Lev. 27:5). From one month to five years, boys were worth "five shekels," and girls were worth "three shekels" (Lev. 27:6). Above sixty, the men were worth "fifteen shekels," and the women were worth "ten shekels" (Lev. 27:7).

How's that for discrimination? Don't you liberal, modern folks believe in "equality of the sexes"? "Equal pay," "equal opportunity," "quotas," and all that? Well, what do you make of that? Sometimes women weren't even up to half the value of a man. Slap a fine on the man who wrote that!

That's the man who recorded the Ten Commandments: Moses. You say, "Well, that's the Old Testament; thank God the New Testament isn't like that. After all, the loving God of the New Testament isn't like that wrathful, vengeful God of the Old Testament."

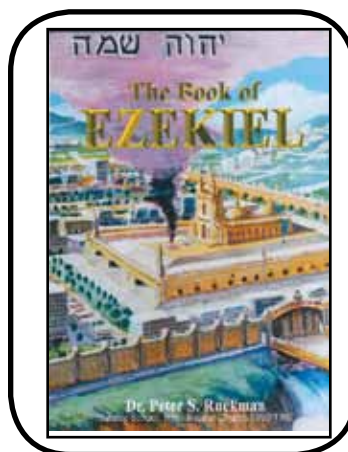

You don't read very much of your Bible, do you? The Continued on 6

Christian Psychologists And Sanctified Therapy

Continued from 1 of saints battling discouragement, depression, and spiritual defeat. Something is terribly wrong. Paul says, “we are more than conquerors through him that loved us” (Rom. 8:37). Jesus tells us to “be of good cheer” in John 16:33. Solomon wrote, “and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he” (Prov. 16:20). Who does not want to be happy? Why should any believer not be able to find that place of contentment that the Lord provides regardless of your circumstances? “Trust and obey, for there’s no other way to be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.” That hymn is Christian counseling at its finest and most simple.

Love of self is a dry-rot in the Body of Christ that has been around long before the present age of consumerism and the “what’s-in-it-for-me” philosophy which first appeared after World War II. A theologian named Joseph Haroutuniam (1904–1968) made this observation:

“Religion was God-centered; now it is man-centered. Before, whatever was not conducive to the glory of God was infinitely evil. Now, that which is not conducive to the happiness of man is evil, unjust, and impossible to attribute to the Deity. Before, the good of man consisted ultimately in glorifying God; now, the glory of God consists in the good of man. Before, man lived to worship and serve God; now, God lives to serve human happiness.”

Well, that guy nailed it; especially that last line. God is now some sort of vending machine just waiting for you to pull the lever so He can supply your goodies. Is it really a mystery why so many children of God have slumped down under a cloud of disappointment and unhappiness? There are some things we must learn to master in order to reach an acceptable level of Christian maturity. Paul said he learned to be content. This contentment wasn’t a fruit of the Spirit, and it wasn’t a gift that accompanied salvation. It had to be worked at through every trial and tribulation that came his way. The classroom of life’s circumstances that the Lord puts us in, whether by His direct will or permissive will, is oriented toward one goal only—maturity.

God’s will is that we grow up. We were not translated into His kingdom of light to remain babies forever. This is why I firmly believe that 90% of all so-called Christian counseling should involve telling the harried saint, “Grow up!” or “Get over it!” Now before you judge this advice to be uncharitable, you should take a long look at Philippians 3:12–13. You are told in verse 13 to “forget those Continued on 10

 Apostle to the Gentiles said, “But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man” (1 Cor. 11:3). What do you mean, Paul, that “the head of the woman is the man”? Sexist! Male chauvinist!

The greatest Christian who ever lived said, “For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man” (1 Cor. 11:8-9). That was written under grace to the Body of Christ. Surely Paul was mistaken about “women’s rights” because he was an old bachelor. But watch Paul “rub it in.”

“Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife” (Eph. 5:22-23).

“That they may teach the young women . . . To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands” (Tit. 2:4-5).

Do you believe that? The government doesn’t. It will have to get rid of the Book completely. That is on what the NEA, the ACLU, the UN, the Supreme Court, and the Democratic Party are working right now.

Paul was the apostle to whom God gave the New Testament revelation and doctrine of the Body of Christ (Gal. 1:11-12; Eph. 2:11-16, 3:1-6). Well, do you know what the doctrine on women is for the New Testament church, as given by the apostle to whom it was revealed?

“But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression” (1 Tim. 2:12-14).

Talk about adding insult to injury! How’s that for “stereotyping”? That’s Paul blaming all your problems on a woman. He’s saying the way sin entered into the world was through a woman lying about what God said (Gen. 3:2-3 cf. 2:16-17). How do you ladies feel about that? Don’t you worry; the government will back you up. It will throw the Bible out the window to make you feel good. After all, you are part of a group that hates the truth.

Now notice how the roles have been reversed (see Isa. 5:20). Everybody who doesn’t like what I have given you from the Holy Scriptures is someone who hates the truth. They are the ones who want protection from people criticizing them because of their dirty, rotten sins and their rebellion against what God said in His Book. The ones who are to be arrested, jailed, fined, and censored for “hate crimes” and “hate speech” are the few Bible-believing preachers and churches left.

Now we come to the greatest “hate speech” of all in the “encyclopedia of hate literature.” This time it is about God’s own people: the Jews. Even some of the brethren who claim to believe the Book can’t stomach what the Bible says in regards to that Jew and judgment. It can only be described as hate. Don’t believe me? Look at Malachi 2:2-3.

“If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. Behold, I will corrupt your seed, AND SPREAD DUNG UPON YOUR FACES, EVEN THE DUNG OF YOUR SOLEMN FEASTS; and one shall take you away with it.”

What do you think of that?! You won’t find that last verse “updated” in the modern versions. That’s God Himself

15:18-19, "But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from THE HEART; and they defile the man. For out of THE HEART proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies." It has been rightly said, that if the Lord can get your heart, then He has got the rest of you.

The Bible is the only Book in the world that comes with the promise that what you get out of it depends on the condition of your heart attitude toward it (Ezek. 14:1-10). Isn't that a wild truth? Like the country folk say, "Let's stop and ponder about that for a while." This explains why the Greek and Hebrew scholars (or any other Bible correctors) are so blind when it comes to Bible truth! They think they are smarter than the Book, so the Lord purposely hides the truth from them (Luke 10:21). Their HEART attitude toward the Bible isn't right. They have no personal fellowship with the Lord; the Bible is a dead Book to them. They are just using it to keep an income.

When you sit down with the Book, something spiritual is taking place of which you may or may not be aware. Look at Hebrews 4:12, "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the HEART." It is reading you, while you are reading it. The Bible is employed by God Almighty to carry out the specific tasks of saving you or damning you (James 1:21; John 12:48). Does that put you "on edge" or what? I mean, doesn't that make you want to fear (and I don't mean reverence) the Lord? When you sit down with that Book, it's a good idea for you to come in "low"; like, "Lord I'm the stupid, weak, and needy one here. Please open my eyes and show me what you want me to see in your word and help me to believe it. In Jesus name, Amen."

Having read through the Bible some 49 times, I've noticed something taking place while reading it, something supernatural. After thirty minutes or so (it takes me that long to shake off the dust of the world and the flesh!), it's like I've taken a shower, spiritually. It's not until then that I can enjoy real fellowship with the Lord (I'm sure it's because I stink!). I'm not sure what all is taking place, but I know what the word of God says, "Now ye are CLEAN through the word which I have spoken unto you" (John 15:3). "Wherewithal shall a young man CLEANSE his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word" (Psa. 119:9). Paul, talking about Christ and the Church, said, "That he might sanctify it and CLEANSE it with the washing of the water by the word" (Eph. 5:26).

After experiencing this time and time again, I have learned how important EVERY WORD of God is, and this creates a holy abhorrence in me (David said, "I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies" [Psa. 139:22]) toward those who wish to correct or change the very words of God. "For the life of me," I don't understand how a saved, born-again child of God can abandon the words of God, the King James Bible, for all of this modern trash they call the NIV, NASV, NKJV, NEV, or any of the 229 other pieces of junk they call Bibles. I have yet to meet someone who recommends that garbage who is totally "sold out" to the Lord. How can you have fellowship with the Lord when you correct what He's telling

Why Not a Prison Ministry

By Art Dawson

There I sat with my Bible school diploma in hand and nowhere to go. Many Christians graduate from Bible training and then sit around and wait on God to knock them down, or appear in a dream, to inform them of what His will is for them now that they are confident they know almost everything in the Bible.

I prayed about putting to use what I had learned in Bible school (Heb. 5:12-14). I attempted to get into a Christian servicemen's ministry three or four times, but the doors always closed. One day a Bible school alumnus invited me to go with him to witness at a prison in Alabama, so I went to check out this prison ministry. I even told God, "If this is where You want me to minister, then let me win a soul today." The fifth inmate to whom I talked knelt down with me and received Jesus Christ as his Lord and Saviour.

I thought I might be on my way to being a prison evangelist. However, I didn't win another soul at prison for about a month. I questioned God, and He reminded me of my prayer about winning an inmate that day, so I renewed my commitment to Him. I have been in a prison ministry ever since the Spring of 1990.

There are many types of prison ministries where both men and women can find a place to serve God as chapel volunteers. You can minister in County prisons, jails, and courthouse holding cells. There are State prisons where you can minister, which include: maximum security (for death row inmates and double-lifers with no chance of parole), medium security (for inmates who are doing time for serious crimes but are eligible for parole), trustee barracks (for inmates who have proven they can be trusted to work with minimal supervision), work camps (for inmates working on State and County property), and work release (for inmates working in the local community). You can also minister in Federal prisons. These include: maximum security (see description above), medium security (see description above), medical camps (for inmates needing long term medical treatment), and work camps (for inmates working on Federal property with minimal supervision).

There are several different types of ministry positions in which to minister at prisons. You can serve in the position of prison contract worker. This is one who is paid for you? A person who corrects the Bible certainly doesn't believe the Bible, and I'm not talking about the "originals," dummy. I'm talking about the Bible you can hold in your hands—the King James Bible.

I'm telling you how important it is to read the Bible every day, not just occasionally. You need a bath more than just once a week, don't you? And so it is with the word of God; you cannot just pick it up a few minutes on Saturday night (or for a lot of people, Sunday morning) and expect to stay clean and in fellowship with the Lord. The world, the flesh, and the Devil want to get you dirty and keep you that way. "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Rom. 12:2).

The best time to get into the Book (if your schedule allows it) is early in the morning before work, when your mind is fresh and hasn't had the chance to get contaminated by television, radio, and rotten music all over the place. Get ahold of the Book, but most of all, let the Book get ahold of you. Jesus said, "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life" (John 6:63).

There may be times when you don't think reading the Bible is doing any good, or even times when you think that you are not getting anything out of it. Please let me tell you the story of the little boy and the basket.

One day a little boy was bored and was looking for something to do. He walked out to the barn where his father was busy milking cows. "What can I do, dad; there's nothing for me to do," said the energy-filled son. His father, knowing that an idle mind is the Devil's workshop, paused, and after seeing an old, dirty hickory basket hanging on the wall, said, "Get that basket up there, run down to creek, and get me some water." The little boy eagerly grabbed the old basket, ran down to the creek, dipped it deep into the fresh, cool spring water, and sprinted back up to the barn. "Ahhh," sighed the son, after discovering that the water had leaked out. "Go back and try it again!" said his father. "Again!" after a second and third try, "Again!" When finally the discouraged son stopped and cried, "It's no use, dad; it's not doing any good!" The father, stopping from his work, knelt down, put his arm around the little boy, pulling him in close, and said, "Ohhh, but look at how clean that basket is now."

"The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

"The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish"

"The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth"

"The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart:

"And thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

"Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thine hand.

Christian Psychologists And Sanctified Therapy

Continued from 5 things which are behind": count your blessings, rejoice, and practice a lot of sanctified amnesia. Everything here is temporal, and you are not that important. Get this truth down deep in your soul, and you will not think that every setback is the end of the world. Your ego is breakable, and God intends to break it every time it cries for attention.

By virtue of the New Birth, the Holy Spirit became my therapist, and the word of God is my blueprint for peace of mind and heart. Watch out how you handle God's promises. There is a tendency on the part of many believers to treat certain Scriptures like aspirin or pain killers. The word of God is a twoedged sword. If not handled properly, it will cut.

Take Philippians 4:19, a favorite verse to combat anxiety: "But my God shall supply all your need . . ." Notice: all your need, not all your wants. Also, in supplying all your need, is it not correct to suppose that at times we need a beating before getting a blessing? Have you really considered what the Holy Spirit thinks your needs may be? What about patience? If you need more patience, expect troubles to come (Rom. 5:3). The Lord knows better than you what you need.

One of the best examples of sanctified counsel came from John the Baptist in dealing with his disciples who were noticing that Jesus was getting the crowds and baptizing more than he had (John 3:23-30). It's normal to question the path you are on when things seem to fall apart. John's followers were witnessing a heavenly transaction that they did not understand. The glory and excitement was shifting from John to Jesus. "What about all this, John; what do we do?"

In John 3:30 are seven words that beautifully sum up at what every Christian needs to work in order to have any hope of attaining genuine Christian contentment. "He must increase, but I must decrease."

You and I and everyone else on this pitiful planet called earth are self-serving sinners on our best days. In me "dwelleth no good thing" (Rom. 7:18), amen? We have more material abundance than those living anywhere else on earth. America has it all, except for peace of mind. Millions are in therapy; millions more are on mood-altering drugs. A Bible-believing pastor on Long Island, New York, recently remarked that he thought half of Long Island was on drugs. He said this after I commented on the wild-west behavior of those driving on the island.

Let's face it, brethren, there are a lot of miserable, depressed, and unstable people out there; and we should have nothing in common with them pertaining to their state of mind. Thank God, I have in my Bible a book unequalled in its description of the folly involved in pursuing happiness apart from God's will for one's life. No believer in these last days should deprive himself of the insight into living life as Solomon described it in Ecclesiastes. For anyone who has asked himself the question, "What am I doing here," reading Solomon is better than thirty college credits in Philosophy at any Ivy League school.

It makes me sick to think of all the money Christians have wasted buying books by Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, Robert Schuller, Norman Vincent Peale (The Power of Positive Thinking), etc., when a King James Bible and a prayer for wisdom was what they needed most. These pseudo-Christian psychologists have done a better job of fleecing God's flock than the money changers in the Temple.

There's a whipping waiting for them; they'll not escape.

As more and more Americans turn their backs on God's word, expect the pharmaceutical companies to augment their already substantial net worth. Mood-altering drugs will be big business as we get closer to the Lord's return. Millions will cling to drugs in an attempt to escape the mental torment that will come upon those who take the mark in the Tribulation: "Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts" (Rev. 9:21).

Drugs will turn countless "Dr. Jekylls" into "Mr. Hydes." In 1886, Robert Louis Stevenson foresaw how drugs could lead to sorcery and mental breakdowns. At about this time also, the field of psychiatry exploded and, today, is a very promising career for those who see the head rather than the heart as the source of most mental disorders. How much happiness is Continued on 12

Continued from 8 providing instruction in music, counseling, and ministerial positions (preacher when no Federal chaplain is available). There is the position of prison evangelist, which comes once or twice a year to hold meetings. These meetings are usually prison-wide and have good turnouts.

You can serve as a chapel volunteer. The vast majority of people involved in prison ministry serve in this position. Chapel volunteer groups, ranging from two to ten personnel, usually conduct a regular church service in the chapel, along with Bible study and cell-to-cell or bunk-to-bunk witnessing. Some groups come weekly, some biweekly, some monthly, some bimonthly, and some quarterly. Chapel volunteers can work alone, or as husband-wife teams or in groups of men or women or even in mixed groups of men and women.

There are different types of programs you may be assigned by the prison chaplain in which to minister, depending on the chaplain's needs. You may be allowed to hold full services—regular church service and Bible study, one-on-one witnessing, revivals, guest speakers, special music, song service, and baptisms. There are partial services which may be allowed: church service and Bible study, or a devotional and Bible study, or Bible study and discipleship training, or Bible study only, or discipleship training only, or prayer group only.

You may be allowed to have inmate participation in your program, where the inmates provide the special music or give devotionals. Caution is recommended here, as some inmates will try to dictate what they will do and will not do.

Many prison ministries have a Bible correspondence course for inmates. Some inmates have taken the material and won their relatives, fellow inmates, and friends to the Lord. When there is more than one course, you might consider offering an incentive to complete all the courses. When an inmate completes all six of the Bible correspondence courses I offer, I send him an Old Scofield Reference Bible with his name imprinted on it. Many inmates sign up for Bible correspondence when they see the reference Bible another inmate received.

You may just do a colporteur ministry: witnessing and passing out tracts, Bibles, and Christian books and literature. However, most prisons do not allow Bibles and other books to be given or sent directly to inmates by an individual; material must be sent from either a Bible bookstore or a publisher in order to go directly to an inmate.

Each prison has its own unique requirements for each ministry position. Sometimes the requirements at a prison will change when a new warden comes from another prison. However, there are some general requirements that you should know before applying to a prison as a chapel volunteer. Most Federal prisons require volunteers to have a police background check, attend a volunteer orientation annually, provide a letter of church approval (usually only once, but sometimes every five years), and have a picture taken for an I.D. card. Most State prisons require volunteers to have a background check, attend an orientation (many require yearly attendance); and some prisons require a picture I.D. to be made for their records so they can verify your identity in case of a lockdown at the prison. County prisons, including jails and holding cells, have requirements that vary from State to State, and from County to County. Some small County prisons have no requirements other than the pastor of a church vouching for those coming to minister.

You will have to deal with prison staff: wardens, assistant wardens, chaplains, captains, lieutenants, sergeants, and correctional officers. When you must deal with staff members, "be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves" (Matt. 10:16). Know your limitations and keep within them. Every prison is different. If you minister at more than one, try not to forget in which prison you are ministering. What is allowed in one, may not be allowed in another. One prison required me to call the "shift office" every half hour from the chapel, while all others just let me sign in when I entered and sign out when I finished. When the chaplain is available, he is your point of contact for almost everything; otherwise either the shift commander or the lieutenant at the prison is your "go-to guy."

Then there are the inmates themselves with whom you forfeited by many whom we know that will not acknowledge their sins and turn to Jesus Christ for forgiveness and cleansing?

What greater need does a soul have other than being loved without reservation and forgiven of all acts of evil, voluntary and involuntary? After being saved and placed into Christ's Body, the heart of the believer needs constant maintenance, or that dry rot of self-love will quench the Spirit and lead to the sale of more "Christian happiness" books by Osteen, Warren, and others.

What Christians really need in these last days is what the world thinks is very harmful. We need low self-esteem, the lower the better. Get as low as you can get and wait for the Holy Spirit to magnify Christ in you. "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth" (Col. 3:2).

If you want to be certain about the quality of Christian counsel you are receiving, tell the pastor or his assistant that you suffer from a bad case of low self-esteem. See if the advice you get compares to what John the Baptist said: "He must increase, but I must decrease." If instead you hear a lot of positive-thinking garbage, run out of there fast, or if you have the boldness, tell the minister there is no power in positive thinking. If he seems puzzled, try this which works well for me.

Here's what I observed so far in my pilgrim journey through life. Correct me if I'm wrong. You get old, you get sick, and you croak (expire). All the positive thinking in the world does nothing to change that scenario. How's that for self-esteem? You want to see the fruit of self-esteem. Visit a cemetery.

Reveals the Hidden Alliance Between the New Versions of the Bible and the New Age Movement's One-World Religion

This 690-page book reveals the astonishing truth about the new Bible versions. The result of an exhaustive six-year collation of the new Bible versions, distinguished scholar G. A. Riplinger examines the manuscripts, critical editions, lexicons, and dictionaries behind the new versions, exposing their occult origins and contents. Also examined: new, as yet unreleased materials used in preparing a coming New Age Bible, to be the cornerstone of the Antichrist's one-world religion and government.

 will have to deal. These will include lost, saved, backslidden, carnal, cult members, different denominations, and non-Christians. Some cult members will come to check out your Bible knowledge and program, while still others will even try to cause trouble by complaining you spoke against their religion or denomination. Be on guard for "wannabe" preachers and Bible teachers among the inmates who will bring up one or more controversial issues so they can show everyone that they can outdo the chapel volunteers. Don't knock an inmate's denomination or religion; just describe what the issue is and preface it by saying, "Some people teach . . ." Then you can say, "But the Bible says . . ." and show them what is in the word of God.

You will also have to deal with your own group members

if you are in charge of a group of volunteers. The group leader is always responsible for what any group member says or does. It is wise to have the group member bring all materials they intend to pass out to you for approval before giving them out to inmates. Some prisons have banned all Chick tracts, while others just ban the ones the chaplain considers offensive to other religions or denominations. The three most important qualities for group volunteers are Bible knowledge, faithfulness (doing what they are told), and reliability (being there when needed).

There are many disappointments you will experience, including: unannounced schedule changes for your time and space; lockdowns for bad weather, trouble among the inmates, or even unspecified reasons; unannounced special "free-world" programs therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God" (John 8:45, 47).

Every American who hates the truth will back up the government when it arrests any preacher who's proclaiming truth from the Scriptures with which society doesn't agree?
 The accusation will be like that of the old Roman Empire: odium generis humani—"hatred of the human race." They will make that charge because the Book says:

"Every man at his best state is altogether vanity" (Psa. 39:5).

"The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9).

"All our righteousnesses are as filthy rags" (Isa. 64:6).

Of course, those are just factual statements of truth, but to people who have been taught they should have self-esteem and positive thinking for themselves, it is hatred.

As the modern philosophy of "Love Wins" replaces what the Bible says of the holiness and justice of God, you are going to see the arrest of any preacher who is audacious enough to say anyone is going to Hell. The One who said,
"I am the way, THE TRUTH, and the life" (John 14:6) told you that one day He is going to send people to Hell to burn forever.

"Depart from me, ye cursed, into EVERLAST-ING FIRE, prepared for the devil and his angels" (Matt.
 25:41).

Why! God would never send anyone to Hell! Away with the One who said that!
 Bring in "another Jesus" (2 Cor. 11:4) who is "love" and will put up with any devilment we want to commit! The Jesus of that Bible hates humanity.

 Ban Him! Get rid of Him!

That is where you are in America right now. Obama, the Congress, and the Supreme Court are all getting rid of the Book and Jesus Christ and preparing the way to receive the Antichrist (2 Thess.
 2:3-10). The God of that Book is helping them along to damn every one of them who rejects the truth of His Son and His Book (2 Thess. 2:11-12).
 The real hate criminals won't put up with a God like that.
 They are too busy justifying and bragging about their sins.
 They have to get rid of the "encyclopedia of hate literature" at all costs.

Why Not a Prison Ministry

Continued from 13 that preempt your program; inmates offended by something you said and backsliders who stop coming; and inmates who are drawn away by the cults because they refuse to sit down with an open Bible to address an issue. Conversely, there are many blessings you will experience, including: souls saved, inmates ministering to other inmates, inmate family members being saved, inmates discipling other inmates, inmates ministering to others when they get out, and inmates reclaiming backslidden inmates.

The most important part of prison work is prayer, prayer, and more prayer. Remember to keep a balanced ministry. Make time for Bible reading, Bible study, and preparation for witnessing, preaching, and teaching. However, do not neglect your family; be sure to make time for them. If possible, involve your family members in some way in your prison ministry.

Finally, when pastors find themselves with men and women willing to serve God and with all the church's needs being met, starting a prison ministry may be the answer. If you find yourself sitting there with your diploma or certificate in hand, or if you are just someone looking for somewhere to serve God, why not consider getting started in a prison ministry in your area.

THE CREED OF THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT

1. There is no final authority but God.
2. Since God is a Spirit, there is no final authority that can be seen, heard, read, felt, or handled.
3. Since all books are material, there is no book on this earth that is the final and absolute authority on what is right and what is wrong, what constitutes truth and what constitutes error.
4. There WAS a series of writings one time which, IF they had all been put into a BOOK as soon as they were written the first time, WOULD HAVE constituted an infallible and final authority by which to judge truth and error.
5. However, this series of writings was lost, and the God who inspired them was unable to preserve their content through Bible-believing Christians at Antioch (Syria), where the first Bible teachers were (Acts 13:1), and where the first missionary trip originated (Acts 13:1-52), and where the word "Christian" originated (Acts 11:26).
6. So God chose to ALMOST preserve them through Gnostics and philosophers from Alexandria, Egypt, even though God called His Son OUT of Egypt (Matthew 2), Jacob OUT of Egypt (Genesis 49), Israel OUT of Egypt (Exodus 15), and Joseph's bones OUT of Egypt (Exodus 13).
7. So there are two streams of Bibles. The most accurate—though, of course, there is no final, absolute authority for determining truth and error; it is a matter of "preference"—are the Egyptian translations from Alexandria, Egypt, which are "almost the originals," although not quite.
8. The most inaccurate translations were those that brought about the German Reformation (Luther, Zwingli, Boehler, Zinzen-dorf, Spener, et al.) and the worldwide missionary movement of the English-speaking people: the Bible that Sunday, Torrey, Moody, Finney, Spurgeon, Whitefield, Wesley, and Chapman used.
9. But we can "tolerate" these if those who believe in them will "tolerate" US. After all, since there is NO ABSOLUTE AND FINAL AUTHORITY that anyone can read, teach, preach, or handle, the whole thing is a matter of "PREFERENCE." You may prefer what you prefer, and we will prefer what we prefer. Let us live in peace, and if we cannot agree on anything or everything, let us all agree on one thing: THERE IS NO FINAL, ABSOLUTE, WRITTEN AUTHORITY OF GOD ANYWHERE ON THIS EARTH.

This is the Creed of the Alexandrian Cult.

The Book of Luke

This study on the third Gospel emphasizes the historical accuracy of the eyewitness accounts Luke used in compiling his work. The doctrinal and textual differences between the “synoptic” Gospels are examined and explained. The material unique to the Gospel, especially the parables, is exegeted not only from the standpoint of sound doctrine, but with evangelistic application in mind as well. 763 Pages
